MERGER PROPOSED—YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholder:

[•], 2021

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Barings BDC Special Meeting”) of Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“Barings BDC”), to be held virtually on [•], 2022, at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, at the following website: www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/BBDC2022SM.

The notice of special meeting and the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter provide an outline of the business to be conducted at the Barings BDC Special Meeting. At the Barings BDC Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to:

- (1) approve the issuance of shares of Barings BDC common stock, $0.001 par value per share (“Barings BDC Common Stock”), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (as may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Barings BDC, Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC (“Acquisition Sub”), Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Sierra”), and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the external investment adviser to Barings BDC (“Barings”) (such proposal, the “Merger Stock Issuance Proposal”);
- (2) approve the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement at a price below its then-current net asset value (“NAV”) per share, if applicable (such proposal, the “Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal”); and
- (3) approve the adjournment of the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the Barings BDC Special Meeting to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal (such proposal, the “Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal, the “Barings BDC Proposals”).

Barings BDC and Sierra are proposing a combination of both companies by a merger and related transactions pursuant to the Merger Agreement in which Acquisition Sub would merge with and into Sierra (the “First Merger”), with Sierra continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC. Immediately after the effectiveness of the First Merger, Sierra, as the surviving corporation, will merge with and into Barings BDC (together with the First Merger, the “Merger”), with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the First Merger, each share of Sierra common stock, $0.001 par value per share (“Sierra Common Stock”), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger (excluding Canceled Shares (as defined below)) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $0.9783641 per share in cash, without interest, from Barings (such amount of cash, the “Cash Consideration”), and (ii) 0.44973 (the “Exchange Ratio”) of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Barings BDC Common Stock, plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares (the “Share Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). For purposes of the Merger Agreement, “Canceled Shares” means all shares of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger that are held by a subsidiary of Sierra or held, directly or indirectly, by Barings BDC or Acquisition Sub.

The market value of the Merger Consideration will fluctuate with changes in the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock. Barings BDC urges you to obtain current market quotations of Barings BDC Common Stock. Barings BDC Common Stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) under the ticker symbol “BBDC.” The following table shows the closing sale prices of Barings BDC Common Stock, as reported on the NYSE on September 20, 2021, the last trading day before the execution of the Merger Agreement, and on [•], 2021, the last trading day before printing this document.

	Barings BDC Common Stock
Closing Sales Price at [•], 2021	$ [•]

Your vote is extremely important. At the Barings BDC Special Meeting, you will be asked to vote on the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal. The approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal each requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. The approval the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of each of the following: (1) a majority of the outstanding voting securities (as used in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act")) of Barings BDC Common Stock; and (2) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock that are not held by affiliated persons of Barings BDC. For purposes of this proposal, the Investment Company Act defines a "majority of the outstanding voting securities" as the vote of the lesser of: (1) 67% or more of the voting securities of Barings BDC present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC are present virtually or represented by proxy; or (2) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will (1) not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal and (2) will have the same effect as votes "against" the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal.

Barings, as party to the Merger Agreement, agreed to vote all shares of Barings BDC Common Stock over which it has voting power (other than in its fiduciary capacity) in favor of the Barings BDC Proposals.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

After careful consideration, the Barings BDC Board unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance, and unanimously recommends that Barings BDC stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, “FOR” the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, “FOR” the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal.

It is important that your shares be represented at the Barings BDC Special Meeting. You have the right to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Barings BDC Special Meeting if you were a stockholder of record of Barings BDC Common Stock at the close of business on [•], 2021 (the “Barings BDC Record Date”). Each Barings BDC stockholder is invited to attend the Barings BDC Special Meeting virtually. You or your proxyholder will be able to attend the Barings BDC Special Meeting online, vote and submit questions by visiting www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/BBDC2022SM and using a control number assigned by Broadridge Financial Solutions Inc. To receive access to the virtual Barings BDC Special Meeting, you will need to follow the instructions provided in the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders and the joint proxy statement/prospectus that follow. Barings BDC encourages you to vote via the Internet as it saves Barings BDC significant time and processing costs. If you are the beneficial owner of your shares, you will need to follow the instructions provided by your broker, bank, trustee or nominee regarding how to instruct your broker, bank, trustee or nominee to vote your shares at the Barings BDC Special Meeting. Voting by proxy does not deprive you of your right to participate in the virtual Barings BDC Special Meeting.

The joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter describes the Barings BDC Special Meeting, the Merger and the documents related to the Merger (including the Merger Agreement) that Barings BDC stockholders should review before voting on the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal and should be retained for future reference. Please carefully read this entire document, including “Risk Factors” beginning on page [•] and as otherwise incorporated by reference herein, for a discussion of the risks relating to the Merger, Barings BDC and Sierra. Barings BDC files annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information about itself with the SEC. You or your proxyholder will be able to attend the Barings BDC Special Meeting online, vote and submit questions by visiting www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/BBDC2022SM and using a control number assigned by Broadridge Financial Solutions Inc.

If you are a beneficial owner of shares that are held in "street name," that is they are registered in the name of your broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, you should have received a notice containing voting instructions from your nominee rather than from us. You should follow the voting instructions in the notice to ensure that your vote is counted. Many brokers and banks participate in a program that offers a means to grant proxies to vote shares via the Internet or by telephone. If your shares are held in an account with a broker or bank participating in this program, you may grant a proxy to vote those shares via the Internet or telephonically by using the website or telephone number shown on the instruction form provided to you by your nominee.

In order to vote at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, you must either be a stockholder of record of Barings BDC Common Stock as of the Barings BDC Record Date, or you must be a beneficial holder as of the Barings BDC Record Date and obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank, trustee, or other nominee. Barings BDC stockholders of record will have the opportunity to vote electronically at the Barings BDC Special Meeting after they have checked into the Barings BDC Special Meeting as described above and in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. If you are a beneficial holder, you must request a legal proxy from your nominee in sufficient time so that it can be obtained, completed and submitted by you to Barings BDC no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on [•], 2022.

The meeting webcast will begin promptly at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, on [•], 2022. We encourage you to access the meeting prior to the start time. Because the Barings BDC Special Meeting will be a completely virtual meeting, there will be no physical location for Barings BDC stockholders to attend.

Whether or not you plan to participate in the Barings BDC Special Meeting, Barings BDC encourages you to vote your shares either virtually or by proxy.

Your vote is extremely important to Barings BDC. In the event there are insufficient votes for a quorum or to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal at the time of the Barings BDC Special Meeting, the Barings BDC Special Meeting may be adjourned in order to permit further solicitation of proxies by Barings BDC.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement are each described in more detail in the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter, which you should read carefully and in its entirety before authorizing a proxy to vote. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter.

SIERRA INCOME CORPORATION

100 Park Avenue, 16th Floor
New York, NY 10017

[•], 2021

Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Sierra Special Meeting”) of Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Sierra”), to be held virtually on [•], 2022, at [•] [a.m.] [p.m.], Eastern Time, at the following website: [•].

The notice of special meeting and the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter provide an outline of the business to be conducted at the Sierra Special Meeting. At the Sierra Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to:

- (1) approve the merger of Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc. (“Acquisition Sub”), a Maryland corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC, Inc. (“Barings BDC”), a Maryland corporation, with and into Sierra (the “First Merger”), with Sierra continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (as may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub, Sierra and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the external investment adviser to Barings BDC (“Barings”) (such proposal, the “Merger Proposal”); and
- (2) approve the adjournment of the Sierra Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the Sierra Special Meeting to approve the Merger Proposal (such proposal, the “Sierra Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Merger Proposal, the “Sierra Proposals”).

Sierra and Barings BDC are proposing a combination of both companies by a merger and related transactions, including the First Merger, pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Immediately after the effectiveness of the First Merger, Sierra, as the surviving corporation, will merge with and into Barings BDC (together with the First Merger, the “Merger”), with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the First Merger, each share of Sierra common stock, $0.001 par value per share (“Sierra Common Stock”), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger (excluding Canceled Shares (as defined below)) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $0.9783641 per share in cash, without interest, from Barings (such amount of cash, the “Cash Consideration”), and (ii) 0.44973 (the “Exchange Ratio”) of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Barings BDC common stock, $0.001 par value per share (“Barings BDC Common Stock”), plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares (the “Share Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). For purposes of the Merger Agreement, “Canceled Shares” means all shares of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the First Merger that are held by a subsidiary of Sierra or held, directly or indirectly, by Barings BDC or Acquisition Sub.

The market value of the Merger Consideration will fluctuate with changes in the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock. Sierra urges you to obtain current market quotations of Barings BDC Common Stock. Barings BDC Common Stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) under the ticker symbol “BBDC.” The following table shows the closing sale prices of Barings BDC Common Stock, as reported on the NYSE on September 20, 2021, the last trading day before the execution of the Merger Agreement, and on [•], 2021, the last trading day before printing this document.

	Barings BDC Common Stock
Closing Sales Price at [•], 2021	$ [•]

Your vote is extremely important. At the Sierra Special Meeting, you will be asked to vote on the Merger Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, the Sierra Adjournment Proposal. The approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of Sierra Common Stock constituting a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at the Sierra Special Meeting. The approval of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes cast by holders of Sierra Common Stock present at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy.

Because the vote on the Merger Proposal is based on the total number of shares entitled to be cast on the matter (i.e., shares outstanding), abstentions and broker non-votes (which occur when a beneficial owner does not instruct its broker, bank, trustee or nominee holding its shares of Sierra Common Stock how to vote such shares on its behalf) will not count as affirmative votes cast and therefore will have the same effect as votes “against” the Merger Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal. In addition, please note that the chairman of the Sierra Special Meeting will have the authority to adjourn the Sierra Special Meeting from time-to-time for any reason without notice and without the vote or approval of the Sierra stockholders.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of Sierra (the “Sierra Board”), including each of its independent directors, and upon recommendation from the Special Committee of the Sierra Board (the “Sierra Special Committee”), unanimously approved the First Merger, and unambiguously recommends that Sierra stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, “FOR” the Sierra Adjournment Proposal.

It is important that your shares be represented at the Sierra Special Meeting. You have the right to receive notice of, and to vote at the Sierra Special Meeting if you were a stockholder of record of Sierra Common Stock at the close of business on [•], 2021 (the “Sierra Record Date”). Each Sierra stockholder is invited to attend the Sierra Special Meeting virtually. You or your proxy holder will be able to attend the Sierra Special Meeting online, vote and submit questions by visiting [•] and using a control number assigned by Alliance Advisors, LLC. To reserve access to the virtual Sierra Special Meeting, you will need to follow the instructions provided in the Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders and the joint proxy statement/prospectus that follow. Please follow the instructions on the accompanying proxy card and authorize a proxy via the Internet, by telephone or by mail to vote your shares. Sierra encourages you to vote via the Internet as it saves Sierra significant time and processing costs. If you are the beneficial owner of your shares, you will need to follow the instructions provided by your broker, bank, trustee or nominee regarding how to instruct your broker, bank, trustee or nominee to vote your shares at the Sierra Special Meeting. Voting by proxy does not deprive you of your right to participate in the virtual Sierra Special Meeting.

The joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter describes the Sierra Special Meeting, the First Merger, and the documents related to the First Merger (including the Merger Agreement) that Sierra stockholders should review before voting on the Merger Proposal and the Sierra Adjournment Proposal and should be retained for future reference. Please carefully read this entire document, including “Risk Factors” beginning on page [•] and as otherwise incorporated by reference herein, for a discussion of the risks relating to the Merger, Sierra and Barings BDC. Sierra files annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information about itself with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Sierra maintains a website at www.sierraincomecorp.com and makes all of its annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other publicly filed information available on or through its website. Information contained on Sierra’s website is not incorporated by reference into the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter, and you should not consider information contained on Sierra’s website to be part of the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this letter. You may also obtain such information, free of charge, and make stockholder inquiries by calling Sierra at (212) 759-0777 or by writing to Sierra Income Corporation at 100 Park Avenue, 16th Floor, New York, New York 10017. A Special Meeting of Stockholders of Sierra (“Sierra Special Meeting”) will be held virtually, solely by the means of remote communication, on [•], 2022, at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, at the following website: [•], for the following purposes:

- (1) to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger of Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc. (“Acquisition Sub”), a Maryland corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC, Inc. (“Barings BDC”), a Maryland corporation, with and into Sierra (the “First Merger”), with Sierra continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (as may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub, Sierra and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the external investment adviser to Barings BDC (“Barings”) (such proposal, the “Merger Proposal”); and
- (2) to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the adjournment of the Sierra Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are insufficient votes at the time of the Sierra Special Meeting to approve the Merger Proposal (such proposal, the “Sierra Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Merger Proposal, the “Sierra Proposals”).

Sierra and Barings BDC are proposing a combination of both companies by a merger and related transactions, including the First Merger, pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Immediately after the effectiveness of the First Merger, Sierra, as the surviving corporation, will merge with and into Barings BDC (together with the First Merger, the “Merger”), with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SIERRA (THE “SIERRA BOARD”), INCLUDING EACH OF ITS INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS AND THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF THE SIERRA BOARD (THE “SIERRA SPECIAL COMMITTEE”), HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY, AND THE SIERRA BOARD, INCLUDING EACH OF ITS INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS, AND UPON RECOMMENDATION FROM THE SIERRA SPECIAL COMMITTEE, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT SIERRA STOCKHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” THE MERGER PROPOSAL AND “FOR” THE SIERRA ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

You have the right to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Sierra Special Meeting if you were a stockholder of record of Sierra common stock at the close of business on [•], 2021 (the “Sierra Record Date”). A list of these stockholders will be open for examination by any Sierra stockholder for any purpose germane to the Sierra Special Meeting for a period of 10 days prior to the Sierra Special Meeting at Sierra’s principal executive office at 100 Park Avenue, 16th Floor, New York, New York 10017, and electronically during the Sierra Special Meeting at [•]. Sierra is furnishing a joint proxy statement/prospectus and proxy card to Sierra stockholders on the Internet, rather than mailing printed copies of those materials to Sierra stockholders.

Each Sierra stockholder is invited to attend the Sierra Special Meeting virtually. You or your proxyholder will be able to attend the Sierra Special Meeting online, vote and submit questions by visiting [•] and using a control number assigned by Alliance Advisors, LLC.

If you are a beneficial owner of shares that are held in “street name,” that is they are registered in the name of your broker, bank, trustee or other nominee, you should have received a notice containing voting instructions from your nominee rather than from us. You should follow the voting instructions in the notice to ensure that your vote is counted. Many brokers and banks participate in a program that offers a means to grant proxies to vote shares via the Internet or by telephone. If your shares are held in an account with a broker or bank participating in this program, you may grant a proxy to vote those shares via the Internet or telephonically by using the website or telephone number shown on the instruction form provided to you by your nominee.

In order to vote at the Sierra Special Meeting, you must either be a stockholder of record of Sierra common stock as of the Sierra Record Date, or you must be a beneficial holder as of the Sierra Record Date and obtain a legal proxy from your broker, bank, trustee, or other nominee. Sierra stockholders of record will have the opportunity to vote electronically at the Sierra Special Meeting after they have checked into the Sierra Special Meeting as described above and in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. If you are a beneficial holder, you must request a legal proxy from your nominee in sufficient time so that it can be obtained, completed and submitted by you to Sierra no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on [•], 2022.

The meeting webcast will begin promptly at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, on [•], 2022. We encourage you to access the virtual Sierra Special Meeting prior to the start time. Because the Sierra Special Meeting will be a completely virtual meeting, there will be no physical location for Sierra stockholders to attend.

Whether or not you plan to participate in the Sierra Special Meeting, Sierra encourages you to vote your shares by following the instructions on the proxy card.

Your vote is extremely important to Sierra. In the event there are insufficient votes for a quorum or to approve the Merger Proposal at the time of the Sierra Special Meeting, the Sierra Special Meeting may be adjourned in order to permit further solicitation of proxies by Sierra.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement are each described in more detail in the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this notice, which you should read carefully and in its entirety before authorizing a proxy to vote. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this notice.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Stephen R. Byers

Independent Chairman of Sierra

[•], 2021

To ensure proper representation at the Sierra Special Meeting, please follow the instructions on the accompanying proxy card to authorize a proxy to vote your shares via the Internet or telephone, or by requesting, signing, dating and returning a proxy card. Even if you vote your shares prior to the Sierra Special Meeting, you still may participate in the virtual Sierra Special Meeting.

ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

This document, which forms part of a registration statement on Form N-14 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) by Barings BDC (as defined below) (File No. 333-), constitutes a prospectus of Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“Barings BDC”), under Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), with respect to the shares of Barings BDC common stock, $0.001 par value per share (“Barings BDC Common Stock”), to be issued to the holders of shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (“Sierra Common Stock”), of Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (“Sierra”), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (as may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Barings BDC, Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC (“Acquisition Sub”), Sierra and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and investment adviser to Barings BDC (“Barings”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Acquisition Sub will merge with and into Sierra (the “First Merger”), with Sierra continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC. Immediately after the effectiveness of the First Merger (the “Effective Time”), Sierra, as the surviving corporation, will merge with and into Barings BDC (together with the First Merger, the “Merger”), with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation.

Effective January 1, 2021, the SEC adopted certain new disclosure rules applicable to transactions such as the Merger under SEC release No. 33-10786, Amendments to Financial Disclosures about Acquired and Disposed Businesses (the “Final Rule”), which among other things, added a new rule Regulation S-X Rule 6-11 that eliminates the requirement to provide pro forma financial information for fund acquisitions if certain supplemental financial information is disclosed, as described under Regulation S-X Rule 6-11(d) (“Regulation S-X Rule 6-11(d)”). Furthermore, the Final Rule amended Form N-14 to make the disclosure requirements consistent with Regulation S-X Rule 6-11(d). Under the Final Rule, Barings BDC has determined that it has met the supplemental disclosure requirements consistent with Regulation S-X Rule 6-11(d) as it has (1) included a pro forma fee table, showing (a) the pre-transaction fee structures of Barings BDC and Sierra and (b) the post-transaction fee structure of the combined company, (2) determined that the Merger would not result in a material change in Sierra’s investment portfolio due to investment restrictions and (3) determined that there are no material differences in accounting policies between Barings BDC and Sierra.

This document also constitutes a joint proxy statement of Barings BDC and Sierra under Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). It also constitutes a notice of meeting with respect to: (1) the Special Meeting of Stockholders of Barings BDC (the “Barings BDC Special Meeting”), at which holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock will be asked to vote upon the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal (as defined below), the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal (as defined below) and, if necessary or appropriate, the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal (as defined below); and (2) the Special Meeting of Stockholders of Sierra (the “Sierra Special Meeting”), at which Sierra stockholders will be asked to vote upon the Merger Proposal (as defined below) and, if necessary or appropriate, the Sierra Adjournment Proposal (as defined below).

Questions and Answers about the Special Meetings

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: Barings BDC is furnishing these materials to Barings BDC stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Barings BDC (the “Barings BDC Board”) for use at the Barings BDC Special Meeting to be held virtually at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, on [•], 2022 at the following website: www.virtualshareholdermeeing.com/BBDC2022SM, and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Sierra is furnishing these materials to Sierra stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Sierra (the “Sierra Board”) for use at the Sierra Special Meeting to be held virtually at [•] [a.m.][p.m.], Eastern Time, on [•], 2022 at the following website: [•], and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying materials are being made available on or about [•], 2021 to stockholders of record of Barings BDC and Sierra as described below and are available at www.proxyvote.com.

Q: What items will be considered and voted on at the Barings BDC Special Meeting?

A: At the Barings BDC Special Meeting, Barings BDC stockholders will be asked to approve: (1) the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement (such proposal, the “Merger Stock Issuance Proposal”), (2) the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement at a price below its then-current net asset value (“NAV”) per share, if applicable (such proposal, the “Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal”) and (3) if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the Barings BDC Special Meeting to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal (such proposal, the “Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal, the “Barings BDC Proposals”). No other matters will be acted upon at the Barings BDC Special Meeting without further notice.

Q: What items will be considered and voted on at the Sierra Special Meeting?

A: At the Sierra Special Meeting, Sierra stockholders will be asked to: (1) approve the First Merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (such proposal, the “Merger Proposal”) and (2) approve the adjournment of the Sierra Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the Sierra Special Meeting to approve the Merger Proposal (such proposal, the “Sierra Adjournment Proposal” and, together with the Merger Proposal, the “Sierra Proposals”). No other matters will be acted upon at the Sierra Special Meeting without further notice.

Q: How does the Barings BDC Board recommend voting on the Barings BDC Proposals at the Barings BDC Special Meeting?

A: The Barings BDC Board believes that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are in the best interests of the Barings BDC stockholders and unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Therefore, the Barings BDC Board unanimously recommends that Barings BDC stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal, “FOR” the Barings Below NAV Issuance Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, “FOR” the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Certain material factors considered by the Barings BDC Board, including the directors that are not “interested persons,” as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”), of Barings BDC or Barings (the “Barings BDC Independent Directors”), that favored the conclusion of the Barings BDC Board that the Merger is in the best interests of Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders included, among others:

- the combined company’s increased scale and liquidity;
- the expected accretion to Barings BDC stockholders;
- the alignment of Barings and Barings BDC stockholders as a result of Barings agreeing to (1) fund the cash portion of the purchase price of $0.9783641 per share, or approximately $100.0 million, (2) amend the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement (as defined below) to increase the incentive fee hurdle rate from 8.0% to 8.25% (annualized) and (3) provide up to $100.0 million of credit support pursuant to a credit support agreement (the “Credit Support Agreement”) designed to limit downside to Barings BDC stockholders from net cumulative realized and unrealized losses on the acquired Sierra portfolio relative to purchase price while also allowing Barings BDC stockholders to benefit from long-term Sierra portfolio appreciation; and
- the combined company’s economies of scale.

The Barings BDC Board considered that while the Merger could cause dilution to Barings BDC stockholders’ voting interests and the NAV per share of the combined company’s common stock, the potential benefits of the Merger (including each of the foregoing) outweighed this cost.

For more information regarding the Barings BDC Board’s considerations in determining that the Merger is in the best interests of Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders, see “The Merger—Reasons for the Merger—Barings BDC.”

Q: How does the Sierra Board recommend voting on the Sierra Proposals at the Sierra Special Meeting?

A: The Sierra Board, acting on the recommendation of a special committee of the Sierra Board (the “Sierra Special Committee”), consisting of Stephen R. Byers, Valerie Lancaster-Beal, Oliver T. Kane and Matthew E. Forstenhausler, believes the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are in the best interests of Sierra stockholders, and unanimously approved the First Merger on the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, and therefore unanimously recommends that Sierra stockholders vote “FOR” the Merger Proposal and, if necessary or appropriate, “FOR” the Sierra Adjournment Proposal.

Certain material factors considered by the Sierra Board, including Sierra directors who are not “interested persons” as defined by the Investment Company Act (the “Sierra Independent Directors”) and who comprise the Sierra Special Committee, that favored the conclusion of the Sierra Board that the First Merger is in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders included, among others:

- the consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders represents a premium to Sierra’s NAV as of June 30, 2021;
- the First Merger will provide the Sierra stockholders with the opportunity for immediate liquidity upon the close of the Merger;
- the Sierra stockholders will have the option of selling the shares of Barings BDC they receive in the First Merger or remaining stockholders of Barings BDC; and
- the Merger is expected to qualify as a tax-free transaction for federal income tax purposes and the other factors described under “The Merger—Reasons for the Merger—Sierra.”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: What constitutes a “quorum” for the Sierra Special Meeting?

A: The presence at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, of the holders of one-third of the shares of Sierra Common Stock entitled to be cast at the Sierra Special Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Q: What vote is required to approve each of the proposals being considered at the Barings BDC Special Meeting?

A: The Merger Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, entitled to vote thereat. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

The Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of each of the following: (1) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock; and (2) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock that are not held by affiliated persons of Barings BDC. For purposes of this proposal, the Investment Company Act defines a “majority of the outstanding voting securities” as the vote of the lesser of: (1) 67% or more of the voting securities of Barings BDC present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC are present virtually or represented by proxy; or (2) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will have the effect of a vote “against” the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote of the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal.

Q: What vote is required to approve each of the proposals being considered at the Sierra Special Meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of Sierra Common Stock constituting a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at the Sierra Special Meeting is required to approve the Merger Proposal. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes cast by holders of the shares of Sierra Common Stock present at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, is required to approve the Sierra Adjournment Proposal.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (which occur when a beneficial owner does not instruct its broker, bank, trustee or nominee holding its shares of Sierra Common Stock how to vote such shares on its behalf), if any, will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal but will have the same effect as a vote “against” the Merger Proposal.

Q: How does the bankruptcy of Medley LLC affect the Merger Agreement and/or the Merger?

A: The bankruptcy of Medley LLC is not expected to affect the Merger Agreement or the Merger. On March 7, 2021, Medley commenced a voluntary case (the “Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case”) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”). Medley LLC is the sole member of Sierra’s investment adviser, SIC Advisors LLC (“SIC Advisors”), and Sierra’s administrator, Medley Capital LLC (“Medley Capital”). Medley LLC, Medley Capital and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors appointed in the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case reached agreement on the terms of a chapter 11 plan, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court on August 13, 2021, and ultimately confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court on October 14, 2021 (as supplemented and modified, the Modified Third Amended Combined Disclosure Statement Chapter 11 Plan of Medley LLC, the “Final Plan”). The Final Plan became effective on October 18, 2021.

The Final Plan provides for a limited restructuring in chapter 11 to enable Medley LLC to maximize the value of its remaining contracts (the “Remaining Contracts”) over a short run-off period, until the Remaining Contracts are terminated, subject to an end date of March 31, 2022 (the “Run-Off End Date”). The Remaining Contracts include the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement (as defined below under “—Questions and Answers about the Merger—Will stockholders of Barings BDC following the Merger pay a higher base management fee than stockholders of Barings BDC and Sierra prior to the Merger?”) and the Sierra Administration Agreement (as defined in “ Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions—Sierra Administration Agreement”). The Final Plan contemplates that SIC Advisors will continue to honor its obligations under the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement until the termination thereof. Accordingly, Sierra’s arrangements with SIC Advisors and Medley Capital are expected to remain in place until the closing of the First Merger. If, notwithstanding that, SIC Advisors is no longer performing its duties and obligations under the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement, the Merger Agreement permits Sierra to replace SIC Advisors as Sierra’s investment adviser. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Additional Covenants—Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement”).

Q: What will happen if the Barings BDC Proposals being considered at the Barings BDC Special Meeting and/or the Sierra Proposals being considered at the Sierra Special Meeting are not approved by the required vote?

A: The Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Proposals with respect to Barings BDC, and the Merger Proposal with respect to Sierra, are conditions precedent to the closing of the Merger. If the Merger does not close because Barings BDC stockholders do not approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Below NAV Proposal (the “Barings BDC Stockholder Approval”) and Sierra stockholders do not approve the Merger Proposal (the “Sierra Stockholder Approval”) or any of the other conditions to closing of the Merger are not satisfied or, if legally permissible, waived, Barings BDC and Sierra will continue to operate independently under the management of their respective investment advisers, and Barings BDC’s and Sierra’s respective directors and officers will continue to serve in such roles until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify or their resignation. Furthermore, neither Barings BDC nor Sierra will benefit from the expenses incurred in their pursuit of the Merger and, under certain circumstances, Sierra may be required to pay Barings BDC’s and Barings’ expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, subject to a cap of $2.0 million. See “ Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement” below for a more detailed discussion. The Sierra Board would also expect to consider alternatives, including the replacement of SIC Advisors as its investment adviser, another merger transaction or Sierra’s liquidation, based on, among other things, then-current market circumstances, the performance of the Sierra portfolio and the financial position of Sierra. Sierra also might seek a modification to the Final Plan that would extend the Run-Off End Date so that SIC Advisors may continue to serve as Sierra’s investment adviser beyond March 31, 2022.

Stockholder approval of the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal and the Sierra Adjournment Proposal are not conditions to the closing of the Merger.

Q: How will the final voting results be announced?

A: Preliminary voting results may be announced at each Special Meeting. Final voting results will be published by Barings BDC and Sierra in a current report on Form 8-K within four business days after the date of the Barings BDC Special Meeting and the Sierra Special Meeting, respectively.

Q: Are the proxy materials available electronically?

A: Barings BDC and Sierra have made the registration statement (of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part), the applicable notice of special meeting of stockholders and the applicable proxy card available to stockholders of Barings BDC and Sierra on the Internet. Stockholders may (i) access and review the proxy materials of Barings BDC and Sierra, as applicable, (ii) authorize their proxies, as described in “The Barings BDC Special Meeting—Voting of Proxies” and “The Sierra Special Meeting—Voting of Proxies” and/or (iii) elect to receive future proxy materials by electronic delivery via the Internet address provided below.

The registration statement (of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part), notice of special meeting of stockholders and the proxy card are available at www.proxyvote.com.

Pursuant to the rules adopted by the SEC, Barings BDC and Sierra furnish proxy materials by email to those stockholders who have elected to receive their proxy materials electronically. While each of Barings

BDC and Sierra encourages stockholders to take advantage of electronic delivery of proxy materials, which helps to reduce the environmental impact of stockholder meetings and the cost associated with the physical printing and mailing of materials, stockholders who have elected to receive proxy materials electronically by email, as well as beneficial owners of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock and Sierra Common Stock, as applicable, held by a broker or custodian, may request a printed set of proxy materials.

Q: Will my vote make a difference?

A: Yes. Your vote is needed to ensure that the proposals can be acted upon. Your vote is very important. Your immediate response will help avoid potential delays and may save significant additional expenses associated with soliciting stockholder votes, and potentially adjourning the Special Meetings.

Q: Whom can I contact with any additional questions?

A: If you are a Barings BDC stockholder, you can contact Barings BDC by calling Barings BDC collect at (888) 401-1088, by sending an e-mail to Barings BDC at BDCinvestorrelations@barings.com, or by writing to Barings BDC at 300 South Tryon Street, Suite 2500, Charlotte, North Carolina 28202, Attention: Investor Relations, or by visiting Barings BDC's website at www.baringsbdc.com or you may contact Broadridge Inc., Barings BDC's proxy solicitor, toll-free at 1-877-777-4652.

Questions and Answers about the Merger

Q: What will happen in the Merger?

A: As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Acquisition Sub will cease. Sierra will be the surviving corporation of the First Merger and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Maryland until the Second Merger (as defined below). Immediately after the Effective Time, Sierra, as the surviving corporation in the First Merger, will merge with and into Barings BDC (the “Second Merger” and, together with the First Merger, the “Merger”), with Barings BDC as the surviving corporation in the Second Merger.

Q: What will Sierra stockholders receive in the Merger?

A: Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares (as defined below)) will be converted into the right to receive (1) $0.9783641 per share in cash, without interest, from Barings (such amount of cash, the “Cash Consideration”) and (2) 0.44973 (as may be adjusted pursuant to the Merger Agreement) of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Barings BDC Common Stock (and, if applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock payable in accordance with the Merger Agreement) (the “Share Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). For purposes of the Merger Agreement, “Canceled Shares” means all treasury shares and all shares of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are owned by Barings BDC, Sierra or any subsidiary thereof.

Q: How will the Exchange Ratio be determined?

A: The Exchange Ratio was fixed at the signing of the Merger Agreement at 0.44973. Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed, other than customary anti-dilution adjustments in the event of certain changes in the number of outstanding shares of Barings BDC Common Stock and Sierra Common Stock, the value of the consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders in the First Merger will depend on the market price of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at the time of the First Merger.

Q: Who is responsible for paying the expenses relating to completing the Merger?

A: In general, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger will be paid by the party incurring such fees and expenses, whether or not the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement are consummated, provided that each of Barings BDC and Sierra agreed to be responsible for one-half of all filing fees incurred in connection with the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”). However, under certain circumstances, Sierra will be required to reimburse Barings BDC’s and Barings’ expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, subject to a maximum reimbursement payment of $2.0 million, and to pay Barings BDC a termination fee in the amount of $11.0 million. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement” for a more detailed discussion. It is expected that Barings BDC will incur approximately $[•] million, or $[•] per share of Barings BDC Common Stock, and Sierra will incur approximately $[•] million, or $[•] per share of Sierra Common Stock, of fees and expenses in connection with completing the Merger. While Barings BDC does not anticipate material portfolio repositioning following the Merger, these costs described above do not reflect commissions or other transaction fees that may be incurred by Barings BDC as a result of any such portfolio repositioning.

Q: Will I receive distributions after the Merger?

A: Each Sierra stockholder will become a stockholder of Barings BDC in the First Merger and, as such, will receive any future distributions paid to Barings BDC stockholders with respect to shares of Barings BDC Common Stock received in the First Merger.

Barings BDC intends to continue to make distributions on a quarterly basis to Barings BDC stockholders out of assets legally available for distribution. All distributions will be paid at the discretion of the Barings BDC Board and will depend on Barings BDC’s earnings, financial condition, maintenance of its status as a “regulated investment company” (“RIC”) under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), compliance with applicable business development company (“BDC”) regulations and such other factors as the Barings BDC Board may deem relevant from time to time. Barings BDC cannot guarantee that it will pay distributions to stockholders in the future. For a history of the dividends and distributions paid by Barings BDC since January 1, 2019, see “Market Price, Dividend and Distribution Information—Barings BDC.” For a history of the dividends and distributions paid by Sierra since January 1, 2019, see “Market Price, Dividend and Distribution Information—Sierra.”

Barings BDC has adopted a dividend reinvestment plan that provides for reinvestment of Barings BDC’s distributions on behalf of Barings BDC stockholders, unless a stockholder elects to receive cash as provided below. Following the Closing, Sierra stockholders receiving shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in the First Merger will be automatically enrolled into the Barings BDC dividend reinvestment plan and would need to opt out to receive future distributions, if any, in cash. As a result, if the Barings BDC Board authorizes, and Barings BDC declares, a cash distribution, then Barings BDC stockholders, including former Sierra stockholders who received shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in the First Merger, who have not “opted out” of Barings BDC’s dividend reinvestment plan will have their cash distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock, rather than receiving the cash. See “Barings BDC Dividend Reinvestment Plan” for additional information regarding Barings BDC’s dividend reinvestment plan. To opt out of the Barings BDC dividend reinvestment plan, a Barings BDC stockholder should notify Computershare, Inc., the plan administrator, in writing at Computershare, Inc., P.O. Box 505000, Louisville, Kentucky 40233, so that such notice is received by the plan administrator no later than the applicable record date for a dividend to Barings BDC stockholders.

Q: What happened to the Sierra Distribution Reinvestment Plan as a result of the Merger Agreement?

A: Sierra agreed to suspend its distribution reinvestment plan in connection with the Merger Agreement. As a result, beginning with Sierra’s first distribution following its September 2021 distribution, any distributions declared by Sierra will be paid in cash to all Sierra stockholders unless and until the distribution reinvestment plan is reinstated. See “Sierra Distribution Reinvestment Plan.”

Q: Is the Merger subject to any third-party consents?

A: Under the Merger Agreement, Sierra and Barings BDC have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to take promptly, or cause to be taken promptly, all actions to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, in the most expeditious manner practicable. There can be no assurance that any permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will be obtained or that such permits, consents, approvals, confirmations or authorizations will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following the Merger.

Q: How does Barings BDC’s investment objective and strategy differ from Sierra’s?

A: Barings BDC’s primary investment objective is to generate income by investing directly in privately-held middle-market companies to help these companies fund acquisitions, growth or refinancing. Barings BDC seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in senior secured private debt investments in well-established middle-market businesses that operate across a wide range of industries. Sierra’s investment objective is to generate current income, and to a lesser extent, long-term capital appreciation. Sierra seeks to achieve its investment objective by primarily lending to and investing in the debt of privately owned U.S. middle-market companies.

The following table presents a comparison of Barings BDC’s and Sierra’s investment objectives and strategies:

	Barings BDC	Sierra
Primary Investment Objective	To generate income by investing directly in privately-held middle-market companies to help these companies fund acquisitions, growth or refinancing.	To generate current income, and to a lesser extent, long-term capital appreciation by primarily lending to and investing in the debt of privately-owned U.S. middle-market companies.

	Barings BDC	Sierra
Investment Focus	Senior secured private debt investments in well-established middle-market businesses that operate across a wide range of industries.	First lien senior secured debt, second lien secured debt and, to a lesser extent, subordinated debt.
Target Borrower	Middle market companies, which tend to be privately owned, often by a private equity sponsor, and are companies that typically generate annual Adjusted EBITDA of $10.0 million to $75.0 million.	U.S. companies operating in a broad range of industries with annual revenue between $50.0 million and $1.0 billion.
Equity Investments	On a limited basis, Barings BDC may acquire equity interests in portfolio companies. In such cases, Barings BDC generally seeks to structure its equity investments as non-control investments that provide Barings BDC with minority rights.	Sierra may make equity investments in companies that Sierra believes will generate appropriate risk adjusted returns, although Sierra does not expect such investments to be a substantial portion of its portfolio.

Notwithstanding the differences in investment objective and strategy, Barings BDC does not anticipate any material repositioning of assets acquired in the Merger following the Merger.

The risks associated with an equity investment in Barings BDC and Sierra are similar, although there are differences in such risks due to the different investment objective, investment focus and target investment of Barings BDC and Sierra. See “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Merger—The investment objectives and investment strategy of Barings BDC differ from the investment objectives and investment strategy of Sierra and, therefore, an equity investment in Barings BDC has different risks than an equity investment in Sierra.”

Q: How will the combined company be managed following the Merger?

A: The directors of Barings BDC immediately prior to the Merger will remain the directors of Barings BDC and will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. In addition, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, two current independent members of the Sierra Board selected by Barings BDC will be added to the Barings BDC Board as Class II directors effective as of the Closing. Barings BDC has not yet determined which Sierra independent directors will be appointed. The officers of Barings BDC immediately prior to the Merger will remain the officers of Barings BDC and will hold office until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualify, or their earlier death, resignation or removal. Following the Merger, Barings BDC will continue to be managed by Barings, and there are not expected to be any material changes in Barings BDC’s investment objective or strategy.

Q: Are Barings BDC stockholders or Sierra stockholders able to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the Merger?

A: No. Neither Barings BDC stockholders nor Sierra stockholders will be entitled to exercise appraisal rights with respect to any matter to be voted upon at the Barings BDC Special Meeting or the Sierra Special Meeting, respectively.

Q: When do the parties expect to complete the Merger?

A: While there can be no assurance as to the exact timing, or that the Merger will be completed at all, Barings BDC and Sierra are working to complete the Merger in the first quarter of 2022. It is currently expected that the Merger will be completed promptly following receipt of the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval at the Barings BDC Special Meeting and the Sierra Stockholder Approval at the Sierra Special Meeting, along with the satisfaction or (to the extent legally permissible) waiver of the other closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Q: Is the Merger expected to be taxable to Sierra stockholders?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization,” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If the Merger qualifies as a reorganization, then generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. stockholders (as defined herein under the heading “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”) of Sierra Common Stock who receive a combination of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock and cash, other than cash in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock, in exchange for their Sierra Common Stock, will recognize gains, but will not recognize any losses, equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (including cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and the fair market value of the Barings BDC Common Stock received in the Merger (determined at the Effective Time) over (b) the U.S. stockholder’s tax basis in the shares of Sierra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger. A U.S. stockholder also will recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the Sierra Common Stock surrendered that is allocable to the fractional share. Any gains recognized generally will be capital gains, and any such capital gains generally will be long-term capital gains, provided certain holding period and other requirements are met. Sierra Tax Dividends (as defined in “Description of the Merger Agreement—Additional Covenants—Coordination of Dividends”) paid by Sierra should not be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as part of the consideration paid for shares of Sierra Common Stock in the Merger but instead should be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a distribution with respect to the Sierra Common Stock. The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Cash Consideration is uncertain in many respects. Sierra believes that its U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take a position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration, and, assuming such position is respected, any gain realized by a U.S. stockholder on the receipt of the Cash Consideration would be a capital gain if the shares of Sierra Common Stock were held by such U.S. stockholder as a capital asset. No assurances can be given, however, that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a contrary position under which the Cash Consideration could be subject to taxation as ordinary income. Barings BDC and Barings do not express any position on how the U.S. stockholders of Sierra should treat the Cash Consideration.

Sierra’s obligation to effect the Merger is conditioned on its receipt of an opinion from Sullivan & Worcester LLP (“S&W”) (or, if S&W is unable to deliver such an opinion, of such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to Sierra and Barings BDC), to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, Goodwin Procter LLP (“Goodwin Procter”) has delivered an opinion to Barings BDC to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Such opinions will be or are based on, among other things, certain facts, representations and covenants, each made by officers of Barings BDC and Sierra, and assumptions, all of which must be consistent with the state of facts existing at the time of the Merger. If any of these facts, representations, covenants and assumptions are, or become, inaccurate or incomplete, such opinion may be invalid, and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. An opinion of counsel represents counsel’s best legal judgment and is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) or the courts, which may not agree with the conclusions set forth in such opinion.

No ruling has been, or will be, sought by Barings BDC or Sierra from the IRS with respect to the Merger and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the qualification of the Merger as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the IRS or a court determines that the Merger should not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then a U.S. stockholder (as defined herein under the heading “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”) would generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of Sierra Common Stock for Barings BDC Common Stock and cash in the Merger (with potential ordinary income treatment, as noted above, for the Cash Consideration).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

For additional information, see the section entitled “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.” The tax consequences to you of the Merger will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. Please consult your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the Merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not consummated?

A: If the Merger is not completed for any reason, Sierra stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares of Sierra Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Instead, Sierra will remain an independent company. In addition, Sierra may, under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, be required to pay Barings BDC a termination fee of $11.0 million and reimburse Barings BDC and Barings for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the transactions, subject to a maximum reimbursement amount of $2.0 million. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement” for a more detailed discussion. The Sierra Board would also expect to consider other alternatives, including the replacement of SIC Advisors as its investment adviser, another merger transaction or Sierra’s liquidation, based on, among other things, then-current market circumstances, the performance of the Sierra portfolio and the financial position of Sierra. Sierra also might seek a modification to the Final Plan that would extend the Run-Off End Date so that SIC Advisors may continue to serve as Sierra’s investment adviser beyond March 31, 2022.

Q: Will stockholders of Barings BDC following the Merger pay a higher base management fee than stockholders of Barings BDC and Sierra prior to the Merger?

A: No. Currently, Barings BDC stockholders pay a base management fee equal to 1.250% of Barings BDC’s average gross assets under the amended and restated investment advisory agreement, dated as of December 23, 2020, by and between Barings BDC and Barings (the “Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement”). On September 21, 2021, the Barings BDC Board, including a majority of the Barings BDC Board Independent Directors, approved a second amended and restated investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings (the “New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement”), which will be entered into in connection with and effective upon the closing of the Merger. The New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement does not result in any change to the base management fee currently payable to Barings under the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement; the sole change is to increase the rate of return at which Barings would be entitled to an incentive payment from 2.0% to 2.0625% per quarter (or from 8.0% to 8.25% annualized) (the “Hurdle Rate Increase”). The Hurdle Rate Increase has the effect of reducing the likelihood that Barings will be eligible to receive an income incentive fee from Barings BDC, thus reducing the likelihood that Barings BDC will pay an income incentive fee to Barings.

Under the investment advisory agreement, dated as of April 5, 2012, by and between Sierra and SIC Advisors (the “Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement”), Sierra stockholders pay a 1.75% base management fee based on Sierra’s gross assets (which includes any borrowings for investment purposes) to SIC Advisors. Sierra stockholders will pay a base management fee to Barings under the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, which will be entered into in connection with and effective upon the closing of the Merger, that is less than the 1.75% base management fee otherwise payable to SIC Advisors.

The New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement is not required to be approved by the Barings BDC stockholders or the Sierra stockholders. However, if the Merger does not close because, for instance, Barings BDC has not obtained the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval or Sierra has not obtained the Sierra Stockholder Approval, the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, including the current hurdle rate, will continue in effect. For additional information about the terms of the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, see “The Merger—Terms of Second Amended and Restated Investment Advisory Agreement.”

The Parties to the Merger

Barings BDC, Inc.
300 South Tryon Street, Suite 2500
Charlotte, North Carolina 28202
(704) 805-7200

Barings BDC is a Maryland corporation incorporated on October 10, 2006. Barings BDC currently operates as a closed-end, non-diversified investment company and has elected to be treated as a BDC under the Investment Company Act.

In connection with the Barings BDC Externalization Transaction, Barings BDC changed its name from Triangle Capital Corporation to Barings BDC, Inc. and on August 3, 2018, began trading on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") under the symbol "BBDC."

Prior to the Barings BDC Externalization Transaction, Barings BDC's business was to provide capital to lower middle-market companies located primarily in the United States. Barings BDC focused on investments in companies with a history of generating revenues and positive cash flows, an established market position and a proven management team with a strong operating discipline. Barings BDC's target portfolio company had annual revenues between $20.0 million and $300.0 million and annual earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, as adjusted between $5.0 million and $75.0 million. Barings BDC invested primarily in senior and subordinated debt securities of privately held companies, generally secured by security interests in portfolio company assets. In addition, Barings BDC generally invested in one or more equity instruments of the borrower, such as direct preferred or common equity interests. Barings BDC's investments generally ranged from $5.0 million to $50.0 million per portfolio company.

At the time of the Barings BDC Externalization Transaction, Barings shifted the investment focus of Barings BDC to investing in syndicated senior secured loans, bonds and other fixed income securities. Since that time, Barings has transitioned Barings BDC's portfolio to primarily senior secured private debt investments in well-established middle-market businesses that operate across a wide range of industries. Barings' existing SEC co-investment exemptive relief under the Investment Company Act permits Barings BDC's and Barings' affiliated private and SEC-registered funds to co-invest in Barings-originated loans, which allows Barings to efficiently implement its senior secured private debt investment strategy for Barings BDC.

Barings employs fundamental credit analysis, and targets investments in businesses with relatively low levels of cyclicity and operating risk. The hold size of each position will generally be dependent upon a number of factors including total facility size, pricing and structure, and the number of other lenders in the facility. Barings has experience managing levered vehicles, both public and private, and will seek to enhance Barings BDC's returns through the use of leverage with a prudent approach that prioritizes capital preservation. Barings believes this strategy and approach offers attractive risk/return with lower volatility given the potential for fewer defaults and greater resilience through market cycles.

Barings BDC has elected for federal income tax purposes to be treated as a RIC under the Code.

Sierra Income Corporation
100 Park Avenue, 16th Floor
New York, New York 10017
(212) 759-0777

Sierra is a non-diversified closed-end management investment company incorporated in Maryland that has elected to be regulated as a BDC under the Investment Company Act.

Sierra's investment objective is to generate current income, and to a lesser extent, long-term capital appreciation. Sierra seeks to achieve its investment objective by primarily lending to and investing in the debt of privately owned U.S. middle-market companies. Sierra invests primarily in first lien senior secured debt, second lien secured debt and, to a lesser extent, subordinated debt of middle market companies in a broad range of industries with annual revenue between $50.0 million and $1.0 billion. Sierra will originate transactions sourced through SIC Advisors' direct origination network, and also expects to acquire debt securities through the secondary market. Sierra may make equity investments in companies that it believes will generate appropriate risk adjusted returns, although it does not expect such investments to be a substantial portion of the portfolio.

Sierra has elected for federal income tax purposes to be treated as a RIC under the Code.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub will be merged with and into Sierra. Sierra will be the surviving corporation in the First Merger and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Maryland. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Acquisition Sub will cease. Immediately after the Effective Time, Sierra will merge with and into Barings BDC, with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation in the Second Merger.

Based on the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock issued and outstanding on September 20, 2021, it is expected that, following consummation of the Merger, current Barings BDC stockholders will own approximately 58.7% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock and former Sierra stockholders will own approximately 41.3% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock.

The following diagram illustrates the First Merger, the Second Merger and the ownership structure of Barings BDC immediately following the Merger:

Merger Consideration

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $0.9783641 per share in cash, without interest, from Barings and (ii) 0.44973 of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of Barings BDC Common Stock, plus, if applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Exchange Ratio is fixed, other than customary anti-dilution adjustments in the event of certain changes in the number of outstanding shares of Barings BDC and Sierra common stock. For more information, see “Description of the Merger Agreement—Merger Consideration.”

Market Price of Securities

Shares of Barings BDC Common Stock trade on the NYSE under the symbol “BBDC.” Shares of Sierra Common Stock are illiquid investments for which there is currently no secondary market.

Risks Relating to the Proposed Merger

The Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to, among others, the following risks. Barings BDC stockholders and Sierra stockholders should carefully consider these risks before deciding how to vote on the proposals to be voted on at the Special Meetings.

- Because the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock will fluctuate, Sierra stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the Merger Consideration they will receive until the closing date of the Merger (the “Closing Date”).
- Sales of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock after the completion of the Merger may cause the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock to decline.
- Sierra stockholders and Barings BDC stockholders will experience a reduction in percentage ownership and voting power in the combined company as a result of the Merger.
- The NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock will be diluted if Barings BDC issues shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a price below the then-current NAV per share in connection with the First Merger.
- Barings BDC may be unable to realize the benefits anticipated by the Merger, including estimated cost savings, or it may take longer than anticipated to realize such benefits.
- The announcement and pendency of the proposed Merger could adversely affect both Barings BDC’s and Sierra’s business, financial results and operations.
- If the Merger does not close, neither Barings BDC nor Sierra will benefit from the expenses incurred in their pursuit of the Merger.
- The termination of the Merger Agreement could negatively impact Sierra and Barings BDC.
- Under certain circumstances, Sierra may be obligated to pay a termination fee upon termination of the Merger Agreement.
- Except in specified circumstances, if the Merger is not completed by March 31, 2022, either Sierra or Barings BDC may choose not to proceed with the Merger.
- The Merger is subject to closing conditions, including stockholder approvals, that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the Merger not being completed, which may result in material adverse consequences to Sierra’s and Barings BDC’s business and operations.
- Sierra and Barings BDC will be subject to contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending, including restrictions on pursuing alternatives to the Merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- The Merger Agreement contains provisions that could discourage or make it difficult for a third party to acquire Sierra prior to the completion of the Merger.
- If the Merger is not completed or Sierra is not otherwise acquired, Sierra may consider other strategic alternatives, which are subject to risks and uncertainties.
- Subject to applicable law, each party may waive one or more conditions to the Merger without resoliciting approval from its respective stockholders.
- The shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to be received by Sierra stockholders as a result of the First Merger will have different rights associated with them than shares of Sierra Common Stock currently held by them. For a more detailed discussion comparing the rights of Barings BDC stockholders and Sierra stockholders, see section entitled "Comparison of Barings BDC and Sierra Stockholder Rights."
- The market price of Barings BDC Common Stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock currently.
- The Merger may trigger certain "change of control" provisions and other restrictions in certain of Barings BDC's and Sierra's contracts and the failure to obtain any required consents or waivers could adversely impact the combined company.
- The opinion delivered to the Barings BDC Board by its financial advisor and the opinion delivered to the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee by Sierra's financial advisor will not reflect any changes in circumstances that may occur since the opinions were delivered prior to signing the Merger Agreement.
- Certain persons related to Sierra and Barings BDC have interests in the Merger that differ from the interests of Sierra and Barings BDC stockholders. For example, Sierra directors and officers are entitled to post-closing indemnification by Barings BDC under the Merger Agreement, Barings BDC has agreed to maintain a directors and officers' liability insurance policy covering current and former Sierra directors and officers for six years following the closing of the Merger and two independent members of the Sierra Board will be appointed to the Barings BDC Board following the Merger. In addition, Barings, the investment adviser of Barings BDC, has indirect financial interests in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement that are different from, and/or in addition to, the interests of Barings BDC stockholders. For more information, see "The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons Related to Barings BDC in the Merger" and "The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons Related to Sierra in the Merger."
- The combined company may not be able to obtain financing for additional capital requirements.
- Sierra and Barings BDC have incurred and expect to incur substantial transaction fees and costs in connection with the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed.
- Any litigation which may be filed against Sierra and Barings BDC in connection with the Merger, regardless of its merits, could result in substantial costs and could delay or prevent the Merger from being completed.
- The Merger may not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.
- The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Cash Consideration is not entirely clear. Sierra believes that its U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take a position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration, and, assuming such position is respected, any gain realized by a U.S. stockholder on the receipt of the Cash Consideration would be a capital gain if the shares of Sierra Common Stock were held by such U.S. stockholder as a capital asset. No assurances can be given, however, that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a contrary position under which the Cash Consideration could be subject to taxation as ordinary income. Barings BDC and Barings do not express any position on how the U.S. stockholders of Sierra should treat the Cash Consideration.
- The investment objectives and investment strategy of Barings BDC differ from the investment objectives and investment strategy of Sierra and, therefore, an equity investment in Barings BDC has different risks than an equity investment in Sierra.

See the section captioned "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Merger" below for a more detailed discussion of these factors.

Tax Consequences of the Merger

The Merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization,” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If the Merger qualifies as a reorganization, then generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, U.S. stockholders (as defined herein under the heading “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”) of Sierra Common Stock who receive a combination of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock and cash, other than cash in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock, in exchange for their Sierra Common Stock, will recognize gains, but will not recognize any losses, equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (including cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and the fair market value of the Barings BDC Common Stock received in the Merger (determined at the Effective Time) over (b) the U.S. stockholder’s tax basis in the shares of Sierra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger. A U.S. stockholder also will recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the Sierra Common Stock surrendered that is allocable to the fractional share. Any gains recognized generally will be capital gains, and any such capital gains generally will be long-term capital gains, provided certain holding period and other requirements are met. Sierra Tax Dividends paid by Sierra should not be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as part of the consideration paid for shares of Sierra Common Stock in the Merger but instead should be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a distribution with respect to the Sierra Common Stock. The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Cash Consideration is uncertain in many respects. Sierra believes that its U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take a position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration, and, assuming such position is respected, any gain realized by a U.S. stockholder on the receipt of the Cash Consideration would be a capital gain if the shares of Sierra Common Stock were held by such U.S. stockholder as a capital asset. No assurances can be given, however, that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a contrary position under which the Cash Consideration could be subject to taxation as ordinary income. Barings BDC and Barings do not express any position on how the U.S. stockholders of Sierra should treat the Cash Consideration.

Sierra’s obligation to effect the Merger is conditioned on its receipt of an opinion from S&W (or, if S&W is unable to deliver such an opinion, of such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to Sierra and Barings BDC), to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, Goodwin Procter has delivered an opinion to Barings BDC to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Such opinions will be or are based on, among other things, certain facts, representations and covenants, each made by officers of Barings BDC and Sierra, and assumptions, all of which must be consistent with the state of facts existing at the time of the Merger. If any of these facts, representations, covenants and assumptions are, or become, inaccurate or incomplete, such opinion may be invalid, and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. An opinion of counsel represents counsel’s best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, which may not agree with the conclusions set forth in such opinion.

No ruling has been, or will be, sought by Barings BDC or Sierra from the IRS with respect to the Merger and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the qualification of the Merger as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the IRS or a court determines that the Merger should not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then a U.S. stockholder (as defined herein under the heading “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger”) would generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of Sierra Common Stock for Barings BDC Common Stock and cash in the Merger (with potential ordinary income treatment, as noted above, for the Cash Consideration).

For additional information, see the section entitled “Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.” The tax consequences to you of the Merger will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. Please consult your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the Merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Vote Required—Barings BDC

Each share of Barings BDC Common Stock held by a holder of record as of the Barings BDC Record Date has one vote on each matter to be considered at the Barings BDC Special Meeting.

The Merger Stock Issuance Proposal

Approval of Merger Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

The Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal

Approval of the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of each of the following: (1) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock; and (2) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock that are not held by affiliated persons of Barings BDC. For purposes of this proposal, the Investment Company Act defines a “majority of the outstanding voting securities” as the vote of the lesser of: (1) 67% or more of the voting securities of Barings BDC present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC are present virtually or represented by proxy; or (2) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will have the effect of a vote “against” the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal.

The Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal

Approval of the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote of the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal.

Vote Required—Sierra

Each share of Sierra Common Stock held by a holder of record as of the Sierra Record Date has one vote on each matter to be considered at the Sierra Special Meeting.

The Merger Proposal

The approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock present at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat (“Sierra Stockholder Approval”). Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not count as affirmative votes cast and will therefore have the same effect as votes “against” the Merger Proposal.

The Sierra Adjournment Proposal

The approval of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the votes cast by holders of the shares of Sierra Common Stock present at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat, whether or not a quorum exists. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal. In addition, the chairman of the Sierra Special Meeting will have the authority to adjourn the Sierra Special Meeting from time-to-time for any reason without notice and without the vote or approval of the Sierra stockholders.

Completion of the Merger

As more fully described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, the completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. For information on the conditions that must be satisfied or waived for the Merger to occur, see “Description of the Merger Agreement—Conditions to Closing the First Merger.” While there can be no assurances as to the exact timing, or that the Merger will be completed at all, Barings BDC and Sierra are working to complete the Merger in the first quarter of 2022. It is currently expected that the Merger will be completed promptly following receipt of the stockholder approvals at the Barings BDC Special Meeting and the Sierra Special Meeting and satisfaction (or to the extent legally permitted, waiver) of the other closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger and Termination Fee and Expenses

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for Barings BDC and Sierra, each of which is discussed below in “Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement.” The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the valid termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Sierra may be required to pay or cause to be paid to Barings BDC a termination fee of $11.0 million and to reimburse Barings BDC’s and Barings’ expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, subject to a cap of $2.0 million. See “Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement” for a discussion of the circumstances that could result in the payment of the termination fee and expense reimbursement.

Reasons for the Merger

Barings BDC

Barings BDC’s Board consulted with Barings BDC’s management and Barings, as well as its legal and other advisors, and considered numerous factors and, as a result, the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, determined that the Merger is in Barings BDC’s best interests and the best interests of Barings BDC stockholders.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Certain material factors considered by the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, that favored the conclusion of the Barings BDC Board that the Merger is in the best interests of Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders included, among others:

- the combined company's increased scale and liquidity;
- the expected accretion to Barings BDC stockholders;
- the alignment of Barings and Barings BDC stockholders as a result of Barings agreeing to (1) fund the cash portion of the purchase price of $0.9783641 per share, or approximately $100.0 million and (2) provide up to $100.0 million of credit support pursuant to the Credit Support Agreement designed to limit downside to Barings BDC stockholders from net cumulative realized and unrealized losses on the acquired Sierra portfolio relative to purchase price while also allowing Barings BDC stockholders to benefit from long-term Sierra portfolio appreciation;
- the combined company's economies of scale;
- the combined company's quality of holdings and diversification of assets and liabilities;
- the combined company's increased market capitalization and commensurate increased trading volume;
- the structure and tax consequences of the Merger;
- the opinion of Barings BDC's financial advisor; and
- the terms of the Merger Agreement, including (1) the interim operating covenants applicable to Sierra's portfolio, (2) the non-solicitation covenants and (3) the provisions relating to Sierra's payment of the termination fee and reimbursement of Barings BDC's and Barings' expenses up to a cap under certain circumstances.

The Barings BDC Board considered that while the Merger could cause dilution to Barings BDC stockholders' voting interests and the NAV per share of the combined company's common stock, the potential benefits of the Merger (including each of the foregoing) outweighed this cost.

The foregoing list does not include all the factors that the Barings BDC Board considered in approving the proposed Merger and the Merger Agreement and recommending that Barings BDC stockholders approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal. For a further discussion of the material factors considered by the Barings BDC Board, see "The Merger—Reasons for the Merger—Barings BDC."

Sierra

In evaluating the merger proposal from Barings BDC, the Sierra Board, including the Sierra Independent Directors, and the Sierra Special Committee consulted with and received the advice of certain outside advisors, including financial and legal advisors. In reaching their decisions, the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee considered a number of factors, including the factors discussed below, and, as a result, determined that the First Merger is in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders.

Certain material factors considered by the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee favored the conclusion of the Sierra Board that the First Merger is in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders, including, among others:

- the consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders represents a premium to Sierra's NAV as of June 30, 2021;
- the First Merger will provide the Sierra stockholders with the opportunity for immediate liquidity upon the close of the Merger;
- the Sierra stockholders will have the option of selling the shares of Barings BDC they receive in the First Merger or remaining stockholders of Barings BDC;
- Barings BDC will increase the hurdle rate on the income incentive fee payable to Barings;
- The opportunity for Sierra stockholders to receive a higher dividend rate as holders of Barings BDC Common Stock;

- The combined company will be significantly larger and also more highly diversified than a standalone Sierra;
- With approximately $2.5 billion in assets (on a pro forma basis as of June 30, 2021), Barings BDC will have greater scale and thus is expected to be better able to successfully compete for investment opportunities and have access to lower cost financing sources than Sierra;
- the Credit Support Agreement is expected to give stockholders of the combined company downside protection on the Sierra portfolio and insulate the combined company's stockholders from certain losses in the Sierra portfolio for the ten years following the completion of the Merger;
- the Merger Agreement provides that Barings BDC will repurchase up to $30 million of its shares over a twelve-month period in the event the combined company's shares trade below a specified level of NAV following the completion of the first quarterly period ended after the closing of the Merger, subject to Barings BDC's compliance with certain contractual covenants and regulatory requirements;
- the Merger is expected to qualify as a tax-free transaction for federal income tax purposes;
- the terms of the Merger Agreement, including: (1) a provision that permits Sierra, under specified circumstances, to respond to and engage in discussions with, and provide information to, third parties regarding unsolicited proposals to acquire Sierra; (2) a provision that permits the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee, under specified circumstances in connection with an intervening event, to change their recommendation that Sierra stockholders vote in favor of the First Merger; (3) a provision whereby two Sierra Independent Directors will be appointed to the Barings BDC Board following the closing of the Merger; and (4) Barings BDC's obligation to complete the First Merger is not conditioned on Barings BDC receiving any third-party financing; and
- the opinion of the Sierra Special Committee's financial advisor.

The Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee considered, among other factors and risks, that while there are risks and costs to Sierra if the First Merger is not completed, the potential benefits resulting from the Merger outweighed such factors and risks.

The foregoing list does not include all the factors that the Sierra Board considered in approving the Merger Agreement and the First Merger and recommending that Sierra stockholders approve the First Merger. In view of the complexity and the large number of factors considered, the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors they considered in reaching their decisions. For a further discussion of the material factors considered by the Sierra Board, see "The Merger—Reasons for the Merger—Sierra" below.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC

Barings BDC retained Wells Fargo Securities, LLC ("Wells Fargo Securities") as the financial advisor to the Barings BDC Board in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of the Barings BDC Board on September 21, 2021, Wells Fargo Securities rendered its oral opinion to the Barings BDC Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing its opinion, the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Barings BDC. Wells Fargo Securities subsequently confirmed this oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Barings BDC Board, dated September 21, 2021.

The full text of the written opinion of Wells Fargo Securities dated September 21, 2021, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing its opinion, is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders of Barings BDC are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. Wells Fargo Securities' written opinion was addressed to the Barings BDC Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed Merger, was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Barings BDC of the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Merger and did not address any other aspect of the proposed Merger. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Barings BDC as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the proposed Merger or any other matter. For a description of the opinion that the Barings BDC Board received from Wells Fargo Securities, see “ The Merger—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC” beginning on page [-] of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Sierra Special Committee

In connection with the Merger, Broadhaven Capital Partners (“Broadhaven”) delivered a written opinion, dated September 21, 2021, as discussed in more detail in the section entitled “The Merger—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Sierra Special Committee,” to the Sierra Special Committee as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Sierra Common Stock of the Merger Consideration to be received by such holders in the Merger. The full text of the opinion, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Broadhaven in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the Sierra Special Committee (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. The opinion did not address the underlying business decision of Sierra to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement, nor did it constitute a recommendation to the Sierra Special Committee or the Sierra Board in connection with the Merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Sierra Common Stock as to how to vote in connection with the Merger or any other matter.

At the instruction of the Sierra Special Committee, a copy of Broadhaven’s opinion was provided to the Sierra Board for informational purposes only prior to its deliberations relating to the approval of the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this document, stockholders should carefully consider the risks described below in determining whether to approve, in the case of Barings BDC stockholders, (1) the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and (2) the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal and, in the case of Sierra stockholders, the Merger Proposal. The information in "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 is incorporated herein by reference for general risks related to Barings BDC. The information in "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of Sierra's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and in Part II, Item 1A of Sierra's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2021 and June 30, 2021 is incorporated herein by reference for general risks related to Sierra.

The risks, as set out below and incorporated by reference herein are not the only risks Barings BDC and Sierra and, following the Merger, the combined company, face. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to Barings BDC or Sierra or that they currently deem to be immaterial also may materially adversely affect their or, following the Merger, the combined company's, business, financial condition or operating results. If any of the following events occur, Barings BDC or Sierra or, following the Merger, the combined company's, business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially adversely affected. See also "Incorporation by Reference for Barings BDC," "Incorporation by Reference for Sierra" and "Where You Can Find More Information" in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Relating to the Merger

Because the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock will fluctuate, Sierra stockholders cannot be sure of the market value of the Merger Consideration they will receive until the Closing Date.

The Exchange Ratio is fixed in the Merger Agreement and the Merger Consideration will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each Sierra stockholder will have the right to receive 0.44973 newly issued shares of Barings BDC Common Stock for each share of Sierra Common Stock that they own immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject only to customary anti-dilution adjustments and with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares. The market value of the Merger Consideration may vary from the closing price of Barings BDC Common Stock on the date the Merger was announced, on the date that this joint proxy statement/prospectus was made available to stockholders, on the date of the Barings BDC Special Meeting or the date of the Sierra Special Meeting and on the date the Merger is completed. Any change in the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock prior to completion of the Merger will affect the market value of the aggregate Merger Consideration that Sierra stockholders will receive upon completion of the First Merger.

Accordingly, at the time of the Sierra Special Meeting, Sierra stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the Merger Consideration they would receive upon completion of the First Merger. Neither Barings BDC nor Sierra is permitted to terminate the Merger Agreement or resolicit the vote of their respective stockholders solely because of changes in the market price of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock.

Changes in the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock may result from a variety of factors, including, among other things:

- changes in the business, operations or prospects of Barings BDC;
- the financial condition of current or prospective portfolio companies of Barings BDC;
- interest rates or general market or economic conditions;
- market assessments of the likelihood that the Merger will be completed and the timing of completion of the Merger;
- market perception of the future profitability of the combined company;
- the duration and effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on Barings BDC's portfolio companies; and
- the duration and effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on equity trading prices generally, and specifically on the trading price of Barings BDC Common Stock and the common stock of the surviving corporation following the Merger.

See “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” for other factors that could cause the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock to change.

These factors are generally beyond the control of Barings BDC. The range of high and low closing sales prices of Barings BDC Common Stock, as reported on the NYSE for the nine months ended September 30, 2021, was a low of $8.83 to a high of $11.07. However, historical trading prices are not necessarily indicative of future performance. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Barings BDC Common Stock prior to the Special Meetings.

Sales of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock after the completion of the Merger may cause the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock to decline.

Based on the number of outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock as of the close of business on September 20, 2021, Barings BDC would issue approximately 46.0 million shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Former Sierra stockholders may decide not to hold the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock that they receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement. In addition, Barings BDC stockholders may decide not to hold their shares of Barings BDC Common Stock after completion of the Merger. In each case, such sales of Barings BDC Common Stock could have the effect of depressing the market price for Barings BDC Common Stock and may take place promptly following the completion of the Merger.

Sierra stockholders and Barings BDC stockholders will experience a reduction in percentage ownership and voting power in the combined company as a result of the Merger.

Sierra stockholders will experience a substantial reduction in their respective percentage ownership interests and effective voting power in respect of the combined company relative to their respective percentage ownership interests in Sierra prior to the Merger. Consequently, Sierra stockholders should expect to exercise less influence over the management and policies of the combined company following the Merger than they currently exercise over the management and policies of Sierra. Barings BDC stockholders will experience a substantial reduction in their respective percentage ownership interests and effective voting power in respect of the combined company relative to their respective ownership interests in Barings BDC prior to the Merger. Consequently, Barings BDC stockholders should expect to exercise less influence over the management and policies of the combined company following the Merger than they currently exercise over the management and policies of Barings BDC.

If the Merger is consummated, based on the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock and Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding on September 20, 2021, it is expected that current Barings BDC stockholders will own approximately 58.7% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock and former Sierra stockholders will own approximately 41.3% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock. In addition, both prior to and after completion of the Merger, subject to certain restrictions in the Merger Agreement and Barings BDC Stockholder Approval, Barings BDC may issue additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock (including, subject to certain restrictions under the Investment Company Act, at prices below Barings BDC Common Stock’s then-current NAV per share), all of which would further reduce the percentage ownership of the combined company held by former Sierra stockholders and current Barings BDC stockholders. In addition, the issuance or sale by Barings BDC of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a discount to NAV poses a risk of economic dilution to stockholders.

The NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock will be diluted if Barings BDC issues shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a price below the then-current NAV per share in connection with the First Merger.

At the Barings BDC Special Meeting, subject to certain determinations required to be made by the Barings BDC Board, Barings BDC stockholders are being asked to approve Barings BDC’s ability to issue shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a price below the then-current NAV per share in connection with the First Merger in the event that at the time of such issuance, Barings BDC’s then-current NAV per share is greater than the value of the shares of Sierra Common Stock being exchanged.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Exchange Ratio is fixed as of September 21, 2021, the signing date of the Merger Agreement, subject to certain adjustments pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The Exchange Ratio was determined taking into account the NAV per share of each of Barings BDC Common Stock and Sierra Common Stock as of June 30, 2021 and is not subject to adjustment based on changes in the NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock. In that regard, regardless of the date on which the Merger is consummated and the resulting date on which the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock are issued, the Exchange Ratio upon which the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock will be issued will not change (except for certain customary anti-dilution adjustments). Consequently, if, on the date that the Barings BDC Common Stock is issued, the per share value of the Sierra Common Stock were to decrease from its per share value as of June 30, 2021 and the NAV of Barings BDC Common Stock were to remain the same, then Barings BDC could be deemed to be issuing shares at a price below its then-current NAV per share. As a result, it is not known at this time whether Barings BDC will be issuing shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a price below the then-current NAV per share to Sierra stockholders in connection with the First Merger. The determination of whether Barings BDC is issuing its shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at a price below the then-current net asset value per share will be made at or around the time of the closing of the First Merger.

If Barings BDC were to issue shares of Barings BDC Common Stock below its then-current NAV per share in connection with the First Merger, such sales would result in an immediate dilution to the NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock. This dilution would occur as a result of the issuance of shares at a price below the then-current NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock and a proportionately greater decrease in the stockholders' interest in Barings BDC's earnings and assets and their voting interest in Barings BDC than the increase in Barings BDC's assets resulting from such issuance. Because the NAV of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock at or around the time of the First Merger is not currently known, the actual dilutive effect cannot be predicted.

Barings BDC may be unable to realize the benefits anticipated by the Merger, including estimated cost savings, or it may take longer than anticipated to realize such benefits.

The realization of certain benefits anticipated as a result of the Merger will depend in part on the integration of Sierra's investment portfolio with Barings BDC's and the integration of Sierra's business with Barings BDC's. There can be no assurance that Sierra's investment portfolio or business can be operated profitably or integrated successfully into Barings BDC's operations in a timely fashion or at all. The dedication of management resources to such integration may divert attention from the day-to-day business of the combined company and there can be no assurance that there will not be substantial costs associated with the transition process or there will not be other material adverse effects as a result of these integration efforts. Such effects, including incurring unexpected costs or delays in connection with such integration and failure of Sierra's investment portfolio to perform as expected, could have a material adverse effect on the financial results of the combined company.

Barings BDC also expects to achieve certain cost savings from the Merger when the two companies have fully integrated their portfolios. It is possible that the estimates of the potential cost savings could ultimately be incorrect. The cost savings estimates also assume Barings BDC will be able to combine the operations of Barings BDC and Sierra in a manner that permits those cost savings to be fully realized. If the estimates turn out to be incorrect or if Barings BDC is not able to successfully combine Sierra's investment portfolio or business with the operations of Barings BDC, the anticipated cost savings may not be fully realized, or realized at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

The announcement and pendency of the proposed Merger could adversely affect both Barings BDC's and Sierra's business, financial results and operations.

The announcement and pendency of the proposed Merger could cause disruptions in and create uncertainty surrounding both Barings BDC's and Sierra's business, including affecting relationships with their respective existing and future borrowers, which could have a significant negative impact on Barings BDC's future revenues and results of operations, regardless of whether the Merger is completed, and on Sierra's future revenues and results of operations if the Merger is not consummated. In addition, Barings BDC and Sierra have diverted, and will continue to divert, significant management resources towards the completion of the Merger, which could have a significant negative impact on each of their future revenues and results of operations.

Sierra and Barings BDC are also subject to restrictions on the conduct of each of their businesses prior to the completion of the Merger as provided in the Merger Agreement, generally requiring Sierra and Barings BDC to conduct their business only in the ordinary course and subject to specific limitations, including, among other things, certain restrictions on their respective ability to make certain investments and acquisitions, sell, transfer or dispose of their respective assets, amend their respective organizational documents and, in the case of Sierra, enter into or modify certain material contracts. These restrictions could prevent Sierra or Barings BDC from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities, industry developments and future opportunities and may otherwise have a significant negative impact on Barings BDC's future investment income and results of operations. For more information about the restrictions applicable to Barings BDC and Sierra, see "Description of the Merger Agreement—Interim Operations of Barings BDC" and "Description of the Merger Agreement—Interim Operations of Sierra," respectively.

If the Merger does not close, neither Barings BDC nor Sierra will benefit from the expenses incurred in their pursuit of the Merger and, under certain circumstances, Sierra may be required to pay an $11.0 million termination fee and to reimburse expenses incurred in connection with the Merger by Barings BDC and Barings, subject to a maximum expense reimbursement payment of $2.0 million.

For various reasons, the Merger may not be completed. If the Merger is not completed, Sierra and Barings BDC will have incurred substantial expenses for which no ultimate benefit will have been received. Both companies have incurred out-of-pocket expenses in connection with the Merger for investment banking, legal and accounting fees and financial printing and other related charges, much of which will be incurred even if the Merger is not completed. The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the valid termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, Sierra may be required to pay or cause to be paid to Barings BDC a termination fee of $11.0 million and to pay Barings BDC's and Barings' expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, subject to a maximum reimbursement payment of $2.0 million. See "Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement" for a discussion of the circumstances that could result in the payment of the termination fee and expenses.

The termination of the Merger Agreement could negatively impact Sierra and Barings BDC.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences, including:

- Sierra's and Barings BDC's businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger;
- the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock might decline to the extent that the market price prior to termination reflects a market assumption that the Merger will be completed;
- the Sierra Board would expect to consider alternatives, including the replacement of SIC Advisors as its investment adviser, another merger transaction (though Sierra may not be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price Barings BDC agreed to pay in the Merger) or Sierra's liquidation, based on, among other things, then-current market circumstances, the performance of the Sierra portfolio and the financial position of Sierra;
- Sierra also might seek a modification to the Final Plan to extend the Run-Off End Date so that SIC Advisors may continue to serve as Sierra's investment adviser beyond March 31, 2022; and
- the payment of any termination fee and reimbursement of expenses, if required under the circumstances, could adversely affect the financial condition and liquidity of Sierra.

Except in specified circumstances, if the Merger is not completed by March 31, 2022, either Sierra or Barings BDC may choose not to proceed with the Merger.

Either Sierra or Barings BDC may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Effective Time has not occurred by March 31, 2022. However, this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to Sierra or Barings BDC if the failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement has been the primary cause of or resulted in the failure of the Merger to be complete on or before such date. For more information, see the sections entitled "Description of the Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement."

The Merger is subject to closing conditions, including stockholder approvals, that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the Merger not being completed, which may result in material adverse consequences to Sierra's and Barings BDC's business and operations.

While there can be no assurances as to the exact timing, or that the Merger will be completed at all, Barings BDC and Sierra are working to complete the Merger in the first quarter of 2022. The Merger is subject to closing conditions, including required regulatory approvals (including the expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) and certain approvals of Barings BDC's and Sierra's respective stockholders that, if not satisfied, will prevent the Merger from being completed. The closing condition that Barings BDC stockholders approve the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in connection with the First Merger and the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in connection with the First Merger at a price below its then-current NAV may not be waived and must be satisfied for the Merger to be completed. Barings BDC currently expects that all directors and executive officers of Barings BDC will vote their shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in favor of the proposals presented at the Barings BDC Special Meeting. Additionally, Barings, as a party to the Merger Agreement, agreed to vote all shares of Barings BDC Common Stock over which it has voting power (other than in its fiduciary capacity) in favor of the proposals presented at the Barings BDC Special Meeting. The closing condition that Sierra stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement may not be waived and must be satisfied for the Merger to be completed. If the closing conditions to the Merger are not satisfied, including receipt of the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval and the Sierra Stockholder Approval, and the Merger is not completed, the resulting failure to complete the Merger could have a material adverse impact on Barings BDC's and Sierra's respective business and operations.

Sierra and Barings BDC will be subject to contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending, including restrictions on pursuing alternatives to the Merger.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger may have an adverse effect on Barings BDC and Sierra and, consequently, on the combined company following completion of the Merger. These uncertainties may impair Barings' and SIC Advisors' abilities to motivate key personnel until the Merger is consummated and could cause those who deal with Barings BDC and Sierra to seek to change their existing business relationships with Barings BDC and Sierra, respectively. In addition, the Merger Agreement restricts Barings BDC and Sierra from taking actions that they might otherwise consider to be in their best interests without the consent of the other party. These restrictions may prevent Barings BDC and Sierra from pursuing certain business opportunities that may arise prior to the completion of the Merger, including restrictions on them pursuing alternatives to the Merger. Please see the section entitled "Description of the Merger Agreement—Interim Operations of Sierra" and "Description of the Merger Agreement—Interim Operations of Barings BDC" for a description of the restrictive covenants to which Sierra and Barings BDC are subject.

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that could discourage or make it difficult for a third party to acquire Sierra prior to the completion of the proposed Merger.

The Merger Agreement prohibits Sierra from soliciting alternatives to the Merger and imposes limitations on Sierra's ability to respond to and negotiate unsolicited proposals received from third parties. The Merger Agreement contains customary non-solicitation and other provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit Sierra's ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of Sierra. Sierra can consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to an alternative proposal only in very limited circumstances so long as certain notice and other procedural requirements are satisfied. In addition, subject to certain procedural requirements (including the ability of Barings BDC to revise its offer) and the payment of an $11.0 million termination fee and the reimbursement of up to $2.0 million in expenses incurred by Barings BDC and Barings, Sierra may terminate the Merger Agreement and enter into an agreement with a third party that makes a superior proposal. These provisions may discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Sierra from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in connection with the Merger.

If the Merger is not completed, Sierra would expect to consider other strategic alternatives, which are subject to risks and uncertainties.

If the Merger is not completed, the Sierra Special Committee and the Sierra Board expect to consider alternatives, including the replacement of SIC Advisors as its investment adviser, another merger transaction or Sierra's liquidation, based on, among other things, then-current market circumstances, the performance of the Sierra portfolio and the financial position of Sierra. In addition, the terms of any such alternative transaction may be less attractive than the Merger. These strategic or other alternatives available to Sierra may involve various additional risks to its business, including, among others, distraction of its management team and associated expenses with exploring such alternatives, and risks and uncertainties related to its ability to complete any such alternatives and other variables which may adversely affect its operations.

Subject to applicable law, each party may waive one or more conditions to the Merger without resoliciting approval from its respective stockholders.

Certain conditions to Barings BDC's and Sierra's obligations to complete the Merger may be waived, in whole or in part, to the extent legally allowed, either unilaterally or by agreement of Barings BDC and Sierra. In the event that any such waiver does not require resolicitation of stockholders, the parties to the Merger Agreement will have the discretion to complete the Merger without seeking further stockholder approval. Accordingly, the terms and conditions as set forth in the Merger Agreement and described herein, including certain protections to Barings BDC and Sierra, may be waived. The conditions requiring the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval and the Sierra Stockholder Approval, however, cannot be waived.

The shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to be received by Sierra stockholders as a result of the First Merger will have different rights associated with them than shares of Sierra Common Stock currently held by them.

The rights associated with Sierra Common Stock are different from the rights associated with Barings BDC Common Stock. See "Comparison of Barings BDC and Sierra Stockholder Rights."

The market price of Barings BDC Common Stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock currently.

The businesses of Barings BDC and Sierra differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Barings BDC and Sierra. These factors include:

- a larger stockholder base;
- a different portfolio composition; and
- a different capital structure.

Accordingly, the historical trading prices and financial results of Barings BDC may not be indicative of these matters for the combined company following the Merger.

The Merger may trigger certain "change of control" provisions and other restrictions in certain of Barings BDC's and Sierra's contracts and the failure to obtain any required consents or waivers could adversely impact the combined company.

Certain agreements of Barings BDC and Sierra or their controlled affiliates will or may require the consent of one or more counterparties in connection with the Merger. The failure to obtain any such consent may permit such counter-parties to terminate, or otherwise increase their rights or Barings BDC's or Sierra's obligations under, any such agreement because the Merger may violate an anti-assignment, change of control or similar provision. If this happens, Barings BDC or Sierra may have to seek to replace that agreement with a new agreement or seek a waiver or amendment to such agreement. Barings BDC and Sierra cannot assure you that Barings BDC or Sierra will be able to replace, amend or obtain a waiver under any such agreement on comparable terms or at all.

If any such agreement is material, the failure to obtain consents, amendments or waivers under, or to replace on similar terms or at all, any of these agreements could adversely affect the financial performance or results of operations of the combined company following the Merger, including preventing Barings BDC from operating a material part of Sierra's business.

In addition, the consummation of the Merger may violate, conflict with, result in a breach of any provision of or the loss of any benefit under, constitute a default (or an event that, with or without notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in the termination, cancellation, acceleration or other change of any right or obligation (including any payment obligation) under Barings BDC's or Sierra's agreements. Any such violation, conflict, breach, loss, default or other effect could, either individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following completion of the Merger.

The opinion delivered to the Barings BDC Board by its financial advisor and the opinion delivered to the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee by Sierra's financial advisor will not reflect any changes in circumstances that may occur since the opinions were delivered prior to signing the Merger Agreement.

The opinion to the Barings BDC Board from its financial advisor and the opinion to the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee from Sierra's financial advisor were both delivered on, and dated, September 21, 2021. Changes in the operations and prospects of Barings BDC or Sierra, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Barings BDC or Sierra, may significantly alter the value of Sierra or the prices of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock by the time the Merger is completed. The opinions do not speak as of the time the Merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinions. The recommendations of the Barings BDC Board and the Sierra Board that their respective stockholders vote "FOR" the approval of the matters described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are made as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion of Sierra's financial advisor to the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee, see "The Merger—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Sierra Special Committee." For a description of the opinion that Barings BDC received from its financial advisor, see "The Merger—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC."

Certain persons related to Sierra and Barings BDC have interests in the Merger that differ from the interests of Sierra and Barings BDC stockholders.

Sierra's directors and executive officers have certain interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Sierra stockholders. The members of the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger and in recommending to Sierra stockholders that the First Merger be approved.

In addition, certain Barings BDC's directors and executive officers have certain interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Barings BDC stockholders. The members of the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

These interests are described in more detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons Related to Sierra in the Merger" and "The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons Related to Barings BDC in the Merger."

The combined company may not be able to obtain financing for additional capital requirements.

Following completion of the Merger, the combined company may seek significant ongoing capital funding and, although Sierra and Barings BDC anticipate that the combined company will be able to obtain such funding through cash generated from operations and subsequent debt, equity or hybrid offerings, there can be no assurances that the combined company will be able to obtain financing on acceptable terms or at all.

Sierra and Barings BDC have incurred and expect to incur substantial transaction fees and costs in connection with the Merger, whether or not the Merger is completed.

Sierra and Barings BDC have incurred and expect to incur additional material non-recurring expenses in connection with the Merger and completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Sierra and Barings BDC have incurred significant legal, advisory and financial services fees in connection with the process of negotiating and evaluating the terms of the Merger and, in the case of Sierra, the strategic review process that led to the Merger Agreement. Additional significant unanticipated costs may be incurred in the course of coordinating the businesses of Sierra and Barings BDC after completion of the Merger. Even if the Merger is not completed, Sierra and Barings BDC will need to pay certain costs relating to the Merger incurred prior to the date the Merger was abandoned, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory, filing and printing fees. Such costs may be significant and could have an adverse effect on the parties' future results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Litigation filed against Sierra or Barings BDC in connection with the Merger could result in substantial costs and could delay or prevent the Merger from being completed.

From time to time, Sierra and Barings BDC may be subject to legal actions, including securities class action lawsuits and derivative lawsuits, as well as various regulatory, governmental and law enforcement inquiries, investigations and subpoenas in connection with the Merger. These or any similar securities class action lawsuits and derivative lawsuits, regardless of their merits, may result in substantial costs and divert management time and resources. An adverse judgment in such cases could have a negative impact on Sierra's or Barings BDC's liquidity and financial condition or could prevent the Merger from being completed.

The Merger may not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

Barings BDC and Sierra intend that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code. No ruling has been, or will be, sought by Barings BDC or Sierra from the IRS with respect to the Merger and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the qualification of the Merger as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the IRS or a court determines that the Merger should not be treated as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then a U.S. stockholder (as defined herein under the heading "Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger") would generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of Sierra Common Stock for Barings BDC Common Stock and cash in the Merger (with potential ordinary income treatment, as noted below, for the Cash Consideration).

Sierra's obligation to effect the Merger is conditioned on its receipt of an opinion from S&W (or, if S&W is unable to deliver such an opinion, of such other nationally recognized tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to Sierra and Barings BDC), to the effect that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, Goodwin Procter has delivered an opinion to Barings BDC to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Such opinions will be or are based on, among other things, certain facts, representations and covenants, each made by officers of Barings BDC and Sierra, and assumptions, all of which must be consistent with the state of facts existing at the time of the Merger. If any of these facts, representations, covenants and assumptions are, or become, inaccurate or incomplete, such opinion may be invalid, and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. An opinion of counsel represents counsel's best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, which may not agree with the conclusions set forth in such opinion.

For additional information, see the section entitled "Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger." The tax consequences to you of the Merger will depend on your particular facts and circumstances. Please consult your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the Merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Cash Consideration is not clear and might be challenged by the IRS.

With respect to the Cash Consideration, there is limited authority addressing the tax consequences of the receipt of merger consideration from a party other than the acquiror and, as a result, the tax consequences of the receipt of the Cash Consideration are not clear. Sierra believes that its U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take a position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration, and, assuming such position is respected, any gain realized by a U.S. stockholder on the receipt of the Cash Consideration would be a capital gain if the shares of Sierra Common Stock were held by such U.S. stockholder as a capital asset. No assurances can be given, however, that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a contrary position under which the Cash Consideration could be subject to taxation as ordinary income. Barings BDC and Barings do not express any position on how the U.S. stockholders of Sierra should treat the Cash Consideration. Please refer to the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger."

The investment objectives and investment strategy of Barings BDC differ from the investment objectives and investment strategy of Sierra and, therefore, an equity investment in Barings BDC has different risks than an equity investment in Sierra.

As further described under the heading "How does Barings BDC's investment objective and strategy differ from Sierra's?" on page [•], Barings BDC's primary investment objective is to generate income by investing directly in privately-held middle-market companies to help these companies fund acquisitions, growth or refinancing. Barings BDC seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in senior secured private debt investments in well-established middle-market businesses that operate across a wide range of industries. Sierra's investment objective, by contrast, is to generate current income, and to a lesser extent, long-term capital appreciation. Sierra seeks to achieve its investment objective by primarily lending to and investing in the debt of privately owned U.S. companies middle-market companies. Stockholders of Sierra will become stockholders of Barings BDC in connection with the closing of the Merger and, therefore, should understand the risks of an investment in Barings BDC. Given the relative size of the constituent companies of the Merger (with Barings BDC having total assets of approximately $1.81 billion as of June 30, 2021 and Sierra having total assets of approximately $691.5 million as of June 30, 2021), the risks related to an investment in the combined company will be weighted more towards the risks related to an investment in Barings BDC. This will increasingly be the case as Sierra's assets mature over time and Barings BDC redeploys proceeds from such assets in accordance with Barings BDC's investment strategy.

For more information regarding the risks related to an investment in Barings BDC, please refer to “ Risk Factors” in Part I, Item 1A of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, which are incorporated by reference herein. For more information regarding the risks related to an investment in Sierra, please refer to Part I, Item 1A of Sierra's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 and in Part II, Item 1A of Sierra's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2021 and June 30, 2021, which are incorporated by reference herein.

COMPARATIVE FEES AND EXPENSES

Comparative Fees and Expenses Relating to the Merger

The following tables are intended to assist you in understanding the costs and expenses that an investor in the common stock of Barings BDC or Sierra bears directly or indirectly, and, based on the assumptions set forth below, the pro forma costs and expenses estimated to be incurred by the combined company in the first year following the Merger. Barings BDC and Sierra caution you that some of the percentages indicated in the table below are estimates and may vary. Except where the context suggests otherwise, whenever this document contains a reference to fees or expenses paid or to be paid by “you,” “Barings BDC” or “Sierra,” stockholders will indirectly bear such fees or expenses as investors in Barings BDC or Sierra, as applicable. The table below is based on information as of June 30, 2021 (except as noted below).

The SEC requires that the percentages in the table below be calculated as a percentage of net assets (defined as total assets less indebtedness before taking into account any incentive fees payable during the period), rather than total assets, including assets that have been funded with borrowed monies.

	Actual		Pro Forma
	Barings BDC (acquiring fund)	Sierra (target fund)

Total annual expenses	9.7%	6.5%	6.5%	6.2%

(1) Purchases of shares of common stock of Barings BDC or Sierra on the secondary market are not subject to sales charges, but may be subject to brokerage commissions or other charges. The table does not include any sales load (underwriting discount or commission) that stockholders may have paid in connection with their purchase of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock in a prior underwritten offering or otherwise.

(2) The estimated expenses associated with the respective distribution reinvestment plans are included in “Other expenses.”

(3) “Consolidated net assets attributable to common stock” equals total assets less indebtedness before taking into account any incentive fees payable at June 30, 2021. For the pro forma columns, the combined net assets of Barings BDC and Sierra on a pro forma basis as of June 30, 2021 were used.

(4) For Barings BDC, pursuant to the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, the base management fee is 1.25% of Barings BDC’s average gross assets, excluding cash and cash equivalents, at the end of the two most recently completed calendar quarters prior to the quarter for which such fees are being calculated. The fee table above shows the base management fee as a percentage of net assets as required by the SEC.

(5) For Sierra, the amount shown reflects a base management fee that is calculated at an annual rate of 1.75% of Sierra’s gross assets at the end of each completed calendar quarter and is payable quarterly in arrears. For purposes of calculating the base management fee, the term “gross assets” includes any assets acquired with the proceeds of leverage.

(6) Barings BDC’s incentive fee consists of two parts: (1) a portion based on Barings BDC’s pre-incentive fee net investment income (the “Income-Based Fee”) and (2) a portion based on the net capital gains received on Barings BDC’s portfolio of securities on a cumulative basis for each calendar year, net of all realized capital losses and all unrealized capital depreciation for that same calendar year (the “Capital Gains Fee”). Pursuant to the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, Barings BDC pays an Income-Based Fee to Barings which is 100% of Barings BDC’s pre-incentive fee net investment income, if any, that exceeds the hurdle rate of 2.00% per quarter (8.00% annualized) but is less than 2.50% (10.00% annualized) (the “Catch-Up Amount”) and 20.00% of Barings BDC’s pre-incentive fee net investment income, if any, that exceeds the Catch-Up Amount. The Catch-Up Amount is intended to provide

Barings with an Income-Based Fee of 20.00% on all of Barings BDC's pre-incentive fee net investment income when Barings BDC's pre-incentive fee net investment income reaches 2.00% per quarter (8.00% annualized). However, the Income-Based Fee will not be in excess of the incentive fee cap which is an amount equal to (1) 20.00% of the cumulative net return during the relevant trailing twelve quarters (the current calendar quarter and the eleven preceding calendar quarters beginning with the calendar quarter that commences on or after January 1, 2021, as the case may be, or the appropriate portion thereof in the case of any of Barings BDC's first eleven calendar quarters that commences on or after January 1, 2021) minus (2) the aggregate Income-Based Fee that was paid in respect of the first eleven calendar quarters (or the portion thereof) included in the relevant trailing twelve quarters. The incentive fee cap is not subject to recoupment. The Capital Gains Fee is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each calendar year (or upon termination of the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement), and is calculated at the end of each applicable year by subtracting (1) the sum of Barings BDC's cumulative aggregate realized capital losses and aggregate unrealized capital depreciation from (2) Barings BDC's cumulative aggregate realized capital gains, in each case calculated from August 2, 2018. If such amount is positive at the end of such year, then the Capital Gains Fee payable for such year is equal to 20% of such amount, less the cumulative aggregate amount of Capital Gains Fees paid in all prior years. If such amount is negative, then there is no Capital Gains Fee payable for such year. If the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement is terminated as of a date that is not a calendar year end, the termination date will be treated as if it were a calendar year end for purposes of calculating and paying a Capital Gains Fee.

- (7) "Incentive fees" for Sierra represent the annualized incentive fees based on actual incentive fees incurred during the three months ended June 30, 2021. The incentive fees, if any, are divided into two parts:
- a subordinated incentive fee on income, which, at a maximum, for any quarter in which Sierra's pre-incentive fee net investment income exceeds 2.1875% of its net assets at the end of the immediately preceding quarter, will equal 20% of the amount of its pre-incentive fee net investment income; and
 - an incentive fee on capital gains that will equal 20% of Sierra's capital gains, if any, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid incentive fee on capital gains; and the incentive fees are based on Sierra's performance and will not be paid unless Sierra achieves certain goals. Sierra will record an expense accrual relating to the capital gains incentive fee payable by it to its investment adviser (but not paid) when the unrealized gains on its investments exceed all realized capital losses on its investments given the fact that a capital gains incentive fee would be owed to its investment adviser if Sierra were to sell its investment portfolio at such time. The amount in the table assumes that no incentive fees on capital gains will be paid for the following 12-month period which is based on the actual realized capital gains (losses) for the three months ended June 30, 2021 and the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) of Sierra's investments as of such date and assumes that all such unrealized appreciation (depreciation) is converted to realized capital gains (losses) on such date. See "Business of Sierra — Investment Advisory Agreement and Fees" in Part I, Item 1 of Sierra's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, filed with the SEC on March 19, 2021 for more information concerning the incentive fees.

On April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into the Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement (as defined in "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions of Sierra") with SIC Advisors, pursuant to which SIC Advisors agreed to waive (i) 50% of any incentive fee on income payable to SIC Advisors for any fiscal quarter during the period beginning with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2021 and the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2022, and (ii) 50% of any incentive fee on capital gains payable to SIC Advisors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021. The Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement does not amend the calculation of the incentive fees as set forth in the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement. Other than the waiver contemplated by the Sierra Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement, the terms of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Following (i) the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2022 with respect to the waiver granted by SIC Advisors on any incentive fee payable on income, and (ii) the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021 with respect to the waiver granted by SIC Advisors on any incentive fee payable on capital gains, unless otherwise extended by Sierra and SIC Advisors, the Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement will terminate and the original terms of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement will be in full force and effect.

- (8) In the case of Barings BDC, other expenses include expenses incurred under the administration agreement, by and between Barings BDC and Barings, as the administrator, Barings BDC Board fees, directors and officers insurance costs, as well as legal and accounting expenses. The percentage presented in the table reflects actual amounts incurred during the three months ended June 30, 2021 on an annualized basis.

In the case of Sierra, other expenses include professional fees, administrator expenses and all other general and administrative expenses. Such expenses are annualized based on actual expenses incurred during the three months ended June 30, 2021. On April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into the Expense Limitation Agreement (as defined in "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions of Sierra") with Medley Capital, Sierra's administrator, pursuant to which, Medley Capital agreed that the amount of expenses payable and reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement (as defined in "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions of Sierra") will be capped at $2.2 million for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021. For the avoidance of doubt, other than the cap contemplated by the Expense Limitation Agreement, the Expense Limitation Agreement does not amend the allocation of costs and expenses that are payable or reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement. Following the quarter ending December 31, 2021, unless otherwise extended by Sierra and Medley Capital, the Expense Limitation Agreement will terminate and the original terms of the Sierra Administration Agreement will be in full force and effect.

In the case of pro forma expenses, other expenses reflect anticipated decreases in duplicative costs such as professional fees for legal, audit and tax, directors' fees, and other redundant administrative and operating expenses.

- (9) If the Merger closes, and the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement becomes effective upon the Closing, Barings BDC's base management fee under the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement will remain the same as the base management fee under the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, which is 1.250% of Barings BDC's average gross assets.
- (10) If the Merger closes, and the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement becomes effective upon the Closing, the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement will modify the Income-Based Fee solely to increase the hurdle rate of 2.00% per quarter (8.00% annualized) to 2.0625% per quarter (8.25% annualized) and therefore will increase the catch-up amount that is used in calculating the income incentive fee to correspond to the hurdle rate increase, as described under the caption "The Merger—Terms of Second Amended and Restated Investment Advisory Agreement" on page [•].

Example

The following example demonstrates the projected dollar amount of total cumulative expenses over various periods with respect to a hypothetical investment in Barings BDC, Sierra or the combined stock following the Merger on a pro forma basis. In calculating the following expense amounts, each of Barings BDC and Sierra has assumed that it would have no additional leverage and that its annual operating expenses would remain at the levels set forth in the tables above. Calculations for the pro forma combined company following the Merger assume that the Merger closed on June 30, 2021 and that the leverage and operating expenses of Barings BDC and Sierra remain at the levels set forth in the tables above. Transaction expenses related to the Merger are not included in the following examples.

	1 year	3 years	5 years	10 years
You would pay the following expenses on a $1,000 investment:
Barings BDC, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains or net unrealized capital appreciation)	$79	$248	$435	$ 989
Sierra, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains or net unrealized capital appreciation)	$65	$204	$358	$ 814
Barings BDC, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains and thus subject to the capital gains incentive fee)	$89	$277	$480	$1,064
Sierra, assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains and thus subject to the capital gains incentive fee)	$75	$233	$405	$ 897

Pro forma combined company following the Merger (Under Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement)

You would pay the following expenses on a $1,000 investment:

Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains or net unrealized capital appreciation)	$55	$173	$303	$ 689
Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains and thus subject to the capital gains incentive fee)	$65	$202	$351	$ 778

Pro forma combined company following the Merger (Under New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement)

You would pay the following expenses on a $1,000 investment:

Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes no return from net realized capital gains or net unrealized capital appreciation)	$55	$173	$303	$ 689
Assuming a 5% annual return (assumes return entirely from realized capital gains and thus subject to the capital gains incentive fee)	$65	$202	$351	$ 778

The foregoing tables are to assist you in understanding the various costs and expenses that an investor in Barings BDC, Sierra or, following the Merger, the combined company's common stock will bear directly or indirectly. While the example assumes, as required by the SEC, a 5% annual return, performance of Barings BDC, Sierra and the combined company will vary and may result in a return greater or less than 5%. The incentive fee under each of the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement and the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, assuming a 5% annual return, would either not be payable or have an immaterial impact on the expense amounts shown above in the example where there is no return from net realized capital gains, and thus are not included in those examples. Under each of the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement and the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, no incentive fee would be payable if Barings BDC, Sierra or the combined company, as applicable, has a 5% annual return with no capital gains, however, there would be incentive fees payable in the examples where the entire return is derived from realized capital gains. If sufficient returns are achieved on investments, including through the realization of capital gains, to trigger an incentive fee of a material amount, expenses, and returns to investors, would be higher. The example assumes that all dividends and other distributions are reinvested at NAV. Under certain circumstances, reinvestment of dividends and other distributions under the relevant dividend reinvestment plan may occur at a price per share that differs from NAV. See "Barings BDC Dividend Reinvestment Plan" and "Sierra Distribution Reinvestment Plan" for additional information regarding Barings BDC's and Sierra's dividend reinvestment plan, respectively.

The example and the expenses in the table above should not be considered a representation of Barings BDC's, Sierra's, or, following the Merger, the combined company's, future expenses, and actual expenses may be greater or less than those shown.

Quorum

A quorum must be present at the Sierra Special Meeting for any business to be conducted. The presence at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, of the holders of one-third of the shares of Sierra Common Stock entitled to be cast at the Sierra Special Meeting will constitute a quorum.

Broker Non-Votes

Broker non-votes are described as votes cast by a broker, bank, trustee or nominee on behalf of a beneficial holder who does not provide explicit voting instructions as to how to vote such beneficial holder's shares to such broker, bank, trustee or nominee and who does not attend the meeting. The Merger Proposal is a non-routine matter for Sierra. As a result, if a Sierra stockholder holds shares in “street name” through a broker, bank, trustee or nominee, the broker, bank, trustee or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to the Merger Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not count as affirmative votes cast and will therefore have the same effect as votes “against” the Merger Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal.

Vote Required

Each share of Sierra Common Stock held by a holder of record as of the Sierra Record Date has one vote on each matter to be considered at the Sierra Special Meeting.

The Merger Proposal

The affirmative vote of the holders of Sierra Common Stock constituting a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at the Sierra Special Meeting is required to approve the Merger Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not count as affirmative votes cast and will therefore have the same effect as votes “against” the Merger Proposal.

The Sierra Adjournment Proposal

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of the shares of Sierra Common Stock present at the Sierra Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, is required to approve the Sierra Adjournment Proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal.

Voting of Proxies

Sierra encourages Sierra stockholders to vote their shares by proxy via the Internet or telephone, which means that Sierra stockholders authorize someone else to vote their shares. Shares represented by duly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with Sierra stockholders' instructions. If Sierra stockholders execute a proxy without specifying their voting instructions, such Sierra stockholders' shares will be voted in accordance with the Sierra Board's recommendation. If any other business is brought before the Sierra Special Meeting, Sierra stockholders' shares will be voted at the Sierra Board's discretion unless Sierra stockholders specifically state otherwise on their proxy.

A Sierra stockholder may authorize a proxy by telephone or through the Internet using the toll-free telephone numbers or web address printed on your proxy card. Authorizing a proxy by telephone or through the Internet requires you to input the control number located on your proxy card. After inputting the control number, you will be prompted to direct your proxy to vote on each proposal. You will have an opportunity to review your directions and make any necessary changes before submitting your directions and terminating the telephone call or Internet link.

THE MERGER

The discussion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, which includes the material terms of the Merger and the principal terms of the Merger Agreement, is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

General Description of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub will be merged with and into Sierra. Sierra will be the surviving corporation and will continue its existence as a corporation under the laws of the State of Maryland and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Acquisition Sub will cease. Immediately after the Effective Time, Sierra will merge with and into Barings BDC, with Barings BDC as the surviving corporation in the Second Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) will be converted into and exchanged for the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Based on the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock issued and outstanding as of September 30, 2021, it is expected that, following consummation of the Merger, current Barings BDC stockholders will own approximately 58.7% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock and former Sierra stockholders will own approximately 41.3% of the outstanding Barings BDC Common Stock.

Background of the Merger

Since commencing operations in April 2012, Sierra has primarily invested in the indebtedness of privately owned U.S. companies, with a focus on senior secured debt, second lien debt and, to a lesser extent, subordinated debt. Sierra originates transactions sourced through its investment adviser's direct origination network, through its relationships with other lenders and borrowers, and also acquires debt securities through the secondary market. Sierra also may make equity investments in companies that it believes will generate appropriate risk adjusted returns.

On January 26, 2018, the Sierra Board established the Sierra Special Committee, which was and continues to be comprised of all of the Sierra Independent Directors, and authorized it to, among other things, evaluate the merits of a potential sale of substantially all of Medley LLC's and its subsidiaries' assets to a third party; as well as other alternatives. Discussions relating to a potential sale were subsequently terminated by the parties.

On July 2, 2018, the Sierra Board, among other things, authorized the Sierra Special Committee to evaluate and review the terms of a potential three-way combination of Sierra, Medley Capital Corporation ("MCC"), a BDC, and Medley Management Inc. ("MDLY"). Sierra and MCC at the time were both affiliates of MDLY by virtue of being managed by registered investment advisers that are wholly owned subsidiaries of MDLY.

On August 9, 2018, Sierra announced that it had entered into definitive agreements with MCC and MDLY (the "2018 Agreements"), pursuant to which Sierra agreed to acquire MCC and MDLY (the "2018 Proposed Transaction"). In the 2018 Proposed Transaction, MCC would have merged with and into Sierra, with Sierra as the surviving company, and simultaneously, Sierra would have acquired MDLY, and MDLY's existing asset management business, which would have been operated as a wholly owned subsidiary of Sierra. The 2018 Proposed Transaction was contingent upon stockholder approval, the SEC granting certain exemptive relief as well as other customary closing conditions.

In early 2019, Sierra, MCC and MDLY entered into negotiations to amend the 2018 Agreements to reflect changes to the parties' respective businesses and other developments since the 2018 Agreements had been negotiated.

On July 29, 2019, Sierra announced that it had entered into definitive amended agreements (the "2019 Amended Agreements") under which MCC would have merged with and into Sierra and Sierra would have simultaneously acquired MDLY and its existing asset management business, which would have been operated as a wholly owned subsidiary of Sierra (the "2019 Proposed Transaction"). The 2019 Proposed Transaction was also contingent on stockholder approval, the SEC granting certain exemptive relief as well as other customary closing conditions.

On May 5, 2020, Sierra announced that, effective as of May 1, 2020, the Sierra Board had terminated the 2019 Proposed Transaction as the outside date for the 2019 Proposed Transaction provided for in the 2019 Amended

Agreements to be completed had passed, and the 2019 Proposed Transaction had not been consummated. In determining to terminate the 2019 Amended Agreements, Sierra considered a number of factors, including, among other factors, changes in the relative valuations of Sierra, MCC, and MDLY, the changed circumstances and the unpredictable economic conditions resulting from the global health crisis caused by the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, and the uncertainty regarding the parties' ability to satisfy the conditions to closing in a timely manner.

On March 7, 2021 (the "Petition Date"), Medley LLC, the parent of Sierra's investment adviser, SIC Advisors, and administrator, Medley Capital, commenced the voluntary Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in the Bankruptcy Court. Concurrently with the commencement of the Bankruptcy Case on the Petition Date, Medley LLC filed its Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Medley LLC (the "Original Medley LLC Chapter 11 Plan") and the related proposed disclosure statement (the "Original Disclosure Statement").

On April 15, 2021, the Sierra Board, including all of the Sierra Independent Directors, approved the renewal of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement with SIC Advisors for an additional year. In their deliberations regarding the re-approval of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement, the Sierra Independent Directors took into consideration the terms of the Original Medley LLC Chapter 11 Plan, which contemplated the restructuring of Medley LLC's debt, and determined that, if the Original Medley LLC Chapter 11 Plan was ultimately confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, the impact on Sierra and its stockholders would be positive, as Sierra would benefit from both the increase in financial resources available to SIC Advisors following the restructuring of Medley LLC's debt and from certain management and governance changes which would be implemented in order to effectuate the terms of the Original Medley LLC Chapter 11 Plan.

On April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into the Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement (as defined in "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions of Sierra") with SIC Advisors, pursuant to which SIC Advisors agreed to waive (i) 50% of any incentive fee on income payable to SIC Advisors for any fiscal quarter during the period beginning with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2021 and the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2022, and (ii) 50% of any incentive fee on capital gains payable to SIC Advisors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021.

Also, on April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into the Expense Limitation Agreement (as defined in "Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions of Sierra") with Medley Capital, pursuant to which Medley Capital agreed that the amount of expenses payable and reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement with Medley Capital would be capped at $2.1 million for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021.

On May 13, 2021, Medley LLC filed a Form 8-K disclosing that on May 7, 2021, each of MDLY, Medley LLC, and six pre-IPO owners of Medley, each of whom is a current or former officer of Medley LLC (the "Individuals") received a "Wells Notice" from the SEC staff relating to MDLY's previously-disclosed SEC investigation. Although neither a formal charge of wrongdoing nor a final determination that MDLY, Medley LLC or the Individuals had violated any law, the Wells Notices informed MDLY, Medley LLC and the Individuals that the SEC staff had made a preliminary determination to recommend that the SEC file an enforcement action against MDLY, Medley LLC and each of the Individuals that would allege certain violations of the federal securities laws. The Wells Notices also stated that the SEC staff's recommendation may involve a civil injunctive action, public administrative proceeding, and/or cease-and-desist proceeding, and may seek remedies that include an injunction, a cease-and-desist order, disgorgement, pre-judgment interest, civil money penalties, censure, and limitations on activities or bars from association.

The Wells Notices relate to, among other matters: MDLY's and Medley LLC's disclosures relating to MDLY's assets under management ("AUM"), its fee-earning assets under management ("FEAUM"), trends and risks related to AUM and FEAUM, and specifically, alleged violations of the federal securities laws relating to such disclosures in MDLY's registration statement relating to its initial public offering, Medley LLC's registration statements relating to its bond offerings, and MDLY and Medley LLC's periodic reports under the Exchange Act; the effectiveness of MDLY's and Medley LLC's disclosure controls and procedures; and MDLY's financial projections included in a joint proxy statement/prospectus, including any amendments thereto, in connection with the 2018 Proposed Transaction and 2019 Proposed Transaction.

On May 13, 2021, Medley LLC withdrew the filing of the Original Medley LLC Chapter 11 Plan and Disclosure Statement. As discussed in more detail below, on July 6, 2021, Medley LLC filed a Combined Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization and Wind-Down with the Bankruptcy Court.

On May 17, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met telephonically with representatives of S&W, counsel to the Sierra Special Committee, to discuss certain updates concerning Medley LLC and potential future actions that could be taken by the Sierra Special Committee. The Chair of the Sierra Special Committee discussed his recent communications with representatives of Broadhaven, noting that Broadhaven had offered to assist the Sierra Special Committee in considering the various options available to Sierra. S&W representatives discussed their understanding of the status of the investigation by the SEC of Medley LLC and certain members of its management as well as the bankruptcy proceeding involving Medley LLC.

Also, on May 17, 2021, Brook Taube notified the Sierra Board that he was resigning as a Class II director of the Board, effective immediately.

On May 21, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met telephonically with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W to review the various options available to Sierra. Broadhaven representatives provided an overview of the current BDC market, noting that the strong BDC market would likely have a positive impact on the options available to Sierra. Broadhaven representatives also noted that multiple market participants, including Party A, had contacted Broadhaven to inquire whether Sierra might have an interest in entering into a transaction with them.

Broadhaven representatives reviewed options available to Sierra, including continuing as a stand-alone BDC with SIC Advisors as its manager, identifying a new manager to manage Sierra's investment portfolio, internalizing the portfolio management function, and liquidating Sierra's investment portfolio. Broadhaven representatives noted that there were a variety of ways for Sierra to change its manager, such as by entering into a management contract with a new manager or merging Sierra into another BDC managed by a different manager. Broadhaven representatives also discussed the possibilities of internalizing Sierra's portfolio management function and liquidating Sierra's investment portfolio. Broadhaven representatives then discussed with the Sierra Special Committee the various forms that a strategic review might take, including a broad or narrow process in terms of the number of potential counterparties solicited to participate in the auction process and whether the existence of such a review process, regardless of its form, should be publicly disclosed.

The Sierra Special Committee then discussed with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W the advantages and disadvantages of the options available to Sierra. Broadhaven representatives noted that identifying a new manager for Sierra either through a merger of Sierra with another BDC or the hiring a new adviser to manage Sierra would be the most likely path for maximizing value and other opportunities for Sierra stockholders. Broadhaven representatives noted that any further material negative developments at Medley LLC could adversely affect aspects of Sierra's business, as well as have a deleterious effect on Sierra's ability to conduct a robust strategic review process.

The Sierra Special Committee then discussed with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W the possibility of securing retention packages for Medley Capital personnel who provided essential services to Sierra in order to assure that the necessary personnel would remain during a strategic review process and facilitate prospective bidders' due diligence of Sierra during the auction process and any transactions contemplated by any transaction agreement entered into between Sierra and another party.

Broadhaven representatives discussed the advantages and disadvantages of undertaking a broad versus a narrow process and reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the steps involved in conducting a strategic review.

The Sierra Special Committee determined to defer any formal action until a later date so they could consider the various matters raised during the meeting.

On May 24, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met telephonically with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge ("Miles & Stockbridge"), Maryland legal counsel to Sierra, and S&W to discuss, among other matters, whether Sierra should undertake a strategic review. The Sierra Special Committee discussed with the representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W, among other things, the form a strategic review might take in terms of a broad process versus a narrow process and the possibility and advisability of a public announcement of a strategic review versus undertaking a private process. The Sierra Special Committee also discussed with the representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W the possibility of contributing to the funding of a retention package for Medley Capital personnel who provided essential services to Sierra in an effort to ensure there would be no disruption in the services provided to Sierra due to departures from Medley Capital. Representatives of S&W discussed conversations S&W had with Broadhaven about a proposed engagement letter, including the proposed compensation and expense reimbursement. Representatives of S&W then discussed the potential impact a strategic review by Sierra might have on the bankruptcy proceedings involving Medley LLC. The representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W also discussed with the Sierra Special Committee the formal actions that would need to be taken by the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee in order for Sierra to undertake a strategic review.

On May 26, 2021, the Sierra Board met via video conference with members of management and representatives of Eversheds Sutherland (US) LLP (“Eversheds Sutherland”), legal counsel to Sierra, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. The Chair of the Sierra Special Committee reviewed the Sierra Special Committee’s discussions amongst themselves and with representatives of S&W and Broadhaven. He indicated that the Sierra Special Committee had discussed the various options available to Sierra in view of the uncertainty around the timing and resolution of the bankruptcy proceeding involving Medley LLC and the SEC’s investigation of Medley LLC and certain members of its management. He noted that the Sierra Special Committee had discussed engaging Broadhaven to assist in connection with a strategic review by Sierra. After discussion, the Sierra Board authorized the Sierra Special Committee, on behalf of Sierra, to, among other things, conduct a formal review to evaluate strategic alternatives available to Sierra; consider, evaluate, review, and negotiate the terms and conditions of any strategic transaction; select and retain financial, legal and other advisors; and recommend to the Board the rejection or approval of any strategic transaction. The Sierra Independent Directors discussed with the members of management their preference to publicly announce the strategic review process. After hearing the views of the members of management, the Sierra Independent Directors met in an executive session with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. Following that executive session, the Sierra Board meeting was reconvened, and the Sierra Independent Directors informed the members of management that they had decided to publicly announce the strategic review. The Sierra Board then voted, among other things, to file a Form 8-K that publicly disclosed the commencement of a formal review process to evaluate strategic alternatives for Sierra.

On May 26, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee also met via video conference with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. The Sierra Special Committee discussed the possible engagement of various firms to assist it in its review of the strategic alternatives available to Sierra. In evaluating whether to re-engage Broadhaven to serve as its financial advisor, the Sierra Special Committee noted Broadhaven’s qualifications, experience, reputation, knowledge of the relevant industry and business in which Sierra operates. After further discussion, the Sierra Special Committee voted to engage Broadhaven as the financial advisor to the Sierra Special Committee and to approve an engagement letter with Broadhaven. The Sierra Special Committee also voted to approve the engagement of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W as legal advisors to the Sierra Special Committee in connection with the strategic review. The Sierra Special Committee in addition voted to engage a public relations firm to advise on public relations and investor relations in regard to a potential transaction. The Sierra Special Committee then discussed next steps with the representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W.

On May 27, 2021, Sierra publicly announced that the Sierra Board had entered into a formal review process to evaluate strategic alternatives for Sierra and had authorized the Sierra Special Committee to lead the process.

Following the public announcement, representatives of Broadhaven and S&W prepared a process letter for the strategic review, and S&W drafted a form of non-disclosure agreement (“NDA”), which included a non-solicit provision, that parties participating in the strategic review would be asked to execute. These were subsequently reviewed with and approved by the Sierra Special Committee.

On June 8, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review, while the representatives of S&W provided an update on the bankruptcy proceeding involving Medley LLC. Broadhaven representatives reported that they had had inbound and outbound conversations with interested parties and that they had sent out a process letter and NDA to any party who expressed an interest in exploring a transaction with Sierra.

Broadhaven representatives reviewed various components that interested parties were likely to include in their preliminary proposals and the benefits and issues that the Sierra Special Committee might wish to consider with respect to the potential transaction structures. The members of the Sierra Special Committee discussed various factors they believed would be important to Sierra stockholders, such as the amount of consideration to be paid to Sierra stockholders, the opportunity for liquidity, reductions or other changes to fee structures, payment of regular dividends and the tax treatment, under certain circumstances, of certain types of consideration Sierra stockholders might receive in a transaction, along with other factors, including, but not limited to, the reputation of prospective new advisers, experience in credit markets and with BDCs specifically, depth of available resources, performance in credit instruments similar in nature to Sierra's portfolio, and proficiency in restructurings and workouts. Broadhaven representatives discussed next steps in regard to the strategic review, noting that the deadline for bidders to submit their preliminary proposals was June 21, 2021. The Sierra Special Committee discussed the possibility of inviting Medley LLC, Medley Capital, MDLY and their respective affiliates (collectively, "Medley") to participate in the strategic review process. Following discussion and at the direction of the Sierra Special Committee, the Broadhaven representatives indicated that they would ask Medley whether it wished to submit a proposal to remain the external manager to Sierra.

The Sierra Special Committee also discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven and S&W contributing to a potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel who provided services to Sierra. Broadhaven and S&W representatives discussed their recent conversation with members of Medley management regarding a possible retention package. Broadhaven representatives indicated that the consulting firm specializing in compensation matters, which had been engaged at the direction of the Sierra Special Committee, had shared with Broadhaven its views concerning a potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel. A representative of S&W also provided an update on the bankruptcy proceeding involving Medley LLC.

On June 18, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with Mr. Howard Liao, Chief Executive Officer of Medley LLC, and representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Mr. Liao informed the Sierra Special Committee that he and certain other officers of MDLY intended to resign their positions with MDLY later that day but would retain their positions at Medley LLC in an effort to avoid any conflicts of interest that might arise in the future. He also discussed the potential impact of the resignations on MDLY, noting that he did not believe the resignations would have any impact on Medley's institutional clients. He also provided an update on certain of Medley's institutional accounts. Mr. Liao indicated that Medley LLC was likely to propose an orderly liquidation of its business in the Medley LLC bankruptcy proceeding. At this time, Mr. Liao was excused from the meeting.

The Sierra Special Committee also discussed contributing to a potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel who provided services to Sierra. A representative of S&W discussed S&W's conversations with various parties involved in the Medley LLC bankruptcy proceeding about contributing to a potential retention package. Broadhaven representatives discussed the retention package proposed by Medley and also discussed the view of the compensation consultant concerning potential retention payments, noting that the compensation consultant was recommending aggregate retention payments that were in some instances lower than the aggregate retention payments Medley was recommending. The Sierra Special Committee then began discussing possible terms of any additional compensation payment program with the assistance of S&W, Broadhaven and information provided by the compensation consultant.

Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review process. They reported that they had had conversations with over 40 parties concerning a possible transaction with Sierra and that Broadhaven expected to receive between 15 and 20 proposals from interested parties and that those parties' bid letters would be shared with the Sierra Special Committee. Broadhaven representatives reported that Medley was in the process of populating a virtual data room and that Medley's investment team would be available to meet with potential bidders starting the week of July 5, 2021.

On June 24, 2021, Medley notified Broadhaven that Medley had decided not to participate in Sierra's strategic review.

On June 25, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review process. They indicated that as of June 24, 2021, Broadhaven had received 27 executed NDAs from counterparties and also received 22 preliminary indications of interest. All of the persons submitting an indication of interest had executed a satisfactory NDA. They indicated that interested parties who had not submitted preliminary indications of interest generally had concluded that they were unable to submit a proposal that they believed would be competitive. Broadhaven representatives noted that of the 22 preliminary indications of interest received, there were nine merger proposals, three proposals to acquire Sierra's assets and ten proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser. They also noted that some of the bidders, including Party E, had proposed two or more transaction structures in their proposals. Broadhaven representatives indicated that access to the virtual data room would be given to those parties selected by the Sierra Special Committee to advance to the second round of the bid process.

Party A submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Party A proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party A in exchange for a combination of up to $250 million of cash consideration with the remaining merger consideration coming in the form of stock. In addition, Party A proposed to make a cash payment to Sierra stockholders in the aggregate amount of $10 million.

Party B submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Party B proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party B in exchange for a combination of approximately 50% stock consideration and approximately 50% cash consideration. Party B indicated its willingness to increase the stock consideration to 100% and to improve the offer by adding a cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Party B also indicated that it was open to becoming Sierra's manager if that was preferable to Sierra.

Barings submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Barings proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into Barings BDC in exchange for Barings BDC Common Stock at an exchange ratio of 0.4570 Barings BDC shares per Sierra share. In addition, Barings proposed a $50 million cash payment to Sierra. Barings also proposed to enter into a $100 million, ten-year credit support agreement ("CSA") with Barings BDC, which was anticipated to add approximately $50 million at fair value to the combined company's NAV. Barings also proposed a $20 million share repurchase program by Barings BDC to support the stock price of the common stock of the combined company following the closing of the proposed merger.

Party D submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Party D proposed to purchase all of Sierra's assets for an aggregate purchase price between $515 million to $570 million. Party D indicated that the consideration would be in the form of cash and potentially tradeable stock of a BDC managed by Party D. Party D also indicated that it was open to discussions on whether to structure the transaction as a stock or asset purchase.

Party E submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Party E's preliminary indication of interest consisted of three separate alternatives: a proposal to acquire Sierra's assets, a proposal to acquire 75% of Sierra's assets while allowing Sierra stockholders to retain ownership in a continuing BDC, and a proposal to become Sierra's manager. In the first alternative, Party E proposed that vehicles affiliated with Party E would acquire 100% of Sierra for cash. In the second alternative, Party E proposed that it would acquire for cash up to 75% of Sierra stockholders' interests in Sierra with the balance of Sierra stockholders' interests rolled into the continuing BDC. In the third alternative, Party E proposed to manage Sierra at reduced fees, including a 1.00% management fee, inject $100 million to $150 million of capital at NAV into Sierra and pay Sierra $7.5 million in cash. As part of this proposal, Party E also proposed, among other things, to increase the quarterly redemption right from the current 2.5% to 4.0%.

Party F submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 24, 2021. Party F's preliminary indication of interest consisted of two separate proposals: a proposal to become Sierra's manager and a proposal to merge Sierra into a BDC managed by Party F. Party F proposed to pay Sierra $70 million to become Sierra's manager. Alternatively, Party F proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into the BDC managed by Party F in exchange for stock. Party F's merger proposal also included a $70 million cash payment from Party F to Sierra stockholders.

Party G submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 18, 2021, which was subsequently revised on June 23, 2021. Party G proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party G in exchange for common stock. Party G's proposal also included the following: (1) special dividends of $0.01-$0.05 per share over two to four quarters, (2) a share repurchase plan of equal to or larger size than that of the BDC managed by Party G, (3) a ten-year CSA between the BDC and Party G to protect against net cumulative realized losses of up to $50 million and (4) one-time or fixed period waivers of management fees or incentive fees.

Party H submitted a non-binding, preliminary indication of interest to Broadhaven on June 21, 2021. Party H proposed to offer Sierra $60 million in a combination of fee waivers, special dividends and share buybacks to become Sierra's manager. Party H expressed its intent to grow Sierra's assets to over $1 billion over three to four years, which would make Sierra, in Party H's opinion, a viable candidate for publicly listing its shares on a securities exchange.

During the June 25, 2021 Sierra Special Committee meeting, the representatives of Broadhaven reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the various forms of consideration being offered by the bidders, along with the proposed structures of various proposals. They noted that some bidders' proposals discussed potential employment of Medley Capital employees but none identified any specific individuals. Broadhaven representatives indicated they would prepare an analysis that would allow the Sierra Special Committee to compare the various proposals on the basis of the estimated economic value to Sierra stockholders.

Broadhaven representatives next reviewed certain transaction considerations with the Sierra Special Committee. They then discussed with the Sierra Special Committee their summary of the three types of proposals received from the bidders.

The Sierra Special Committee discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven and S&W how the Sierra Special Committee might compare merger proposals and proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser.

Broadhaven representatives discussed next steps with the Sierra Special Committee, including the need to determine which bidders would be invited into the second round of the bid process.

The Sierra Special Committee next discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven and S&W contributing to a potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel, including the ability of Sierra to reallocate any amounts contributed by it in the event there were departures at Medley Capital. The Chair of the Sierra Special Committee indicated that he had confirmed with senior management at Medley Capital that all of the investment professionals currently at Medley Capital had responsibility for a portion of Sierra's investments or operations.

S&W representatives indicated that they had spoken to Medley LLC's bankruptcy counsel about conditioning any contribution by Sierra to a retention package for Medley Capital's personnel on the various parties to the bankruptcy releasing any potential claims against Sierra. After discussion, and upon a determination that a contribution by Sierra to a retention package for Medley Capital's personnel would be in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders, the Sierra Special Committee tentatively agreed to contribute up to $2.1 million toward a retention package for Medley Capital personnel, as a part of a total retention package of $5.7 million, provided Sierra would have the ability to reallocate amounts not paid in the event there were departures at Medley Capital and that Sierra would be released from any claims against it arising from Medley LLC's bankruptcy proceeding.

On June 28, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review process and their recommendations regarding the bidders that should be invited into the second round of the bid process. They indicated that since the Sierra Special Committee meeting held on June 25, 2021, they had received two additional proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser, including Party F, bringing the total number of proposals to 24.

The Broadhaven representatives noted that they were recommending that nine separate bidders be invited into the second round of the bid process and that two of these bidders had submitted asset purchase proposals. Broadhaven representatives indicated that among the bidders that had submitted merger proposals, Broadhaven recommended that the Sierra Special Committee invite the five bidders that had submitted BDC merger proposals offering the most economic value to the Sierra stockholders, which included Party B, Barings BDC and Party G, into the second round of the bid process. They also recommended that the Sierra Special Committee invite into the second round of the bid process the three bidders that submitted proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser offering the most value to the Sierra stockholders, which were Party E (which also submitted an asset purchase proposal), Party F (which also submitted a BDC merger proposal) and Party H, in addition to the two bidders that had submitted asset purchase proposals, which included Party E. Broadhaven representatives also noted, based on Broadhaven's analysis of the elements of value of the various proposals, that in terms of economic value to Sierra stockholders, the merger proposals were higher than the proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser.

After further discussion of the preliminary indications of interest and Broadhaven's recommendations, the Sierra Special Committee indicated that it agreed with Broadhaven's recommendations concerning the bidders that should be invited into the second round of the bid process on the basis of both quantitative and qualitative considerations. The Sierra Special Committee discussed other bidders that might be invited into the second round of the bid process in the event any of the bidders invited into the second round chose not to continue in the process.

Broadhaven representatives then discussed the second-round process with the Sierra Special Committee. They indicated that the second-round bidders would be notified of their selection; they would be given access to the virtual data room; they would be given the opportunity to meet with representatives of Medley, as adviser to Sierra, and Broadhaven; and they would be asked to provide their second-round bid proposals to Broadhaven by the end of July. The Sierra Special Committee discussed the possibility of the Sierra Special Committee meeting with each second-round bidder in order to gain an understanding of, among other things, the firm, its investment personnel, its historical investment performance and their proposals. Broadhaven and S&W representatives indicated that they would draft a second-round process letter to be sent to the second-round bidders.

The Sierra Special Committee then discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven and S&W the proposed retention package for Medley Capital personnel.

On June 28, 2021, Party D submitted a revised proposal to Broadhaven. In its revised proposal, Party D proposed to make a cash payment to become Sierra's manager rather than to acquire Sierra's assets. Party D proposed paying between $110 million and $125 million to Sierra stockholders. In its revised proposal, Party D indicated that it anticipated recommending to the board of a BDC it managed that Sierra be merged into that BDC within twenty-four months of the transaction closing.

On July 3, 2021, Party A submitted a revised proposal to Broadhaven. Party A revised its prior offer to increase the cash payment to Sierra stockholders from $10.0 million to $55.5 million.

Following receipt of the revised proposals, Broadhaven recommended, and, after discussion of Party A's and Party D's revised proposals and Broadhaven's recommendation, the Sierra Special Committee agreed that Party A and Party D should be invited into the second round based on their improved proposals. The Sierra Special Committee instructed Broadhaven to invite Party A and Party D into the second round, bringing the total number of parties in the second round to 11.

On July 3, 2021, S&W representatives received drafts of a Combined Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization and Wind-Down of Medley LLC and S&W provided comments on various drafts of the document until it was ultimately filed with the Bankruptcy Court on July 6, 2021 (as filed, the "Revised Medley Plan"). The Revised Medley Plan contemplated that Medley LLC would undergo a limited restructuring in chapter 11 in order to enable Medley LLC to maximize the remaining value of the remaining agreements of its subsidiary advisers.

On July 9, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review. They reported that since the June 28, 2021 Sierra Special Committee meeting, four parties, which included Party A and Party D, had revised their bids. Another party increased its bid to become Sierra's investment adviser, while still another bidder had added a cash payment from its manager to its proposal.

Broadhaven representatives then discussed next steps with respect to the strategic review. This included providing bidders with access to the virtual data room and an opportunity to request information from and, beginning the week of July 12, 2021, meet with the Medley management team. They indicated that the second-round process letter would be sent to bidders during the following week and included a second-round bid deadline of August 2, 2021 and that the Special Committee might consider meeting with certain bidders.

Broadhaven representatives reviewed a summary of the estimated total economic value per share of each of the proposals received from the 11 bidders which had been invited into the second round. They discussed with the Sierra Special Committee the assumptions underlying the summary. They noted that based on estimated total economic value per share, Barings BDC and Party G had offered the strongest merger proposals from a financial perspective, while Party D offered the strongest proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser from a financial perspective. The Sierra Special Committee discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven how they might compare a merger proposal to a proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser. The Sierra Special Committee asked that Broadhaven give consideration to the impact of potential tax consequences to Sierra stockholders associated with the various proposals. The Sierra Special Committee also discussed with the representatives of Broadhaven the possibility of combining a proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser and an asset purchase proposal. It was determined at this time to wait for the second-round bid proposals to be submitted by the second-round bidders before a final determination was made regarding the advisability of combining a proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser and an asset purchase proposal.

Broadhaven representatives reviewed an analysis that showed the estimated total economic value of the bids assuming Sierra's shares were valued at 80% of NAV as of March 31, 2021. This analysis included the estimated economic value of proposed fee structures and other components of value. Broadhaven provided an additional analysis that showed the estimated total economic value of the bids assuming Sierra's shares were valued at 90% of NAV as of March 31, 2021 and another analysis that assumed a decline in the estimated pro forma price to NAV following the closing of the merger transactions, which would have the effect of reducing the value of any stock consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders, among other analyses.

Broadhaven representatives indicated that they had informed four bidders, including Party E and Party F, that, based on their respective preliminary proposals, Broadhaven believed they were unlikely to be selected by Sierra as the winning bidder. They noted that all four firms indicated that they wished to remain in the process.

The Sierra Special Committee then discussed with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W next steps in regard to the strategic review. Following that discussion, the Sierra Special Committee instructed Broadhaven to proceed as recommended by Broadhaven earlier in the meeting.

S&W representatives provided an update on the potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel, noting that Medley LLC and the Creditors' Committee in the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case had expressed their preference to provide for a clawback of any payments made under the plan to Medley Capital personnel who subsequently left Medley Capital. The Sierra Special Committee expressed their opposition to any clawback provisions given the potential uncertainty they might generate and the potential negative impact on employee morale and retention.

S&W representatives then provided an update concerning the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case. The Sierra Special Committee instructed the S&W representatives to communicate to the relevant parties the conditions under which Sierra would agree to contribute to a retention package, having determined that such a contribution was in the best interests of both Sierra and Sierra stockholders.

On July 13, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. S&W representatives reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the draft merger agreement that would be provided to bidders in the second round of the bid process and responded to questions from the Sierra Special Committee. S&W representatives indicated that the draft merger agreement would be uploaded to the virtual data room and that prospective bidders proposing a merger would be asked to either provide a markup of the draft merger agreement or a list setting forth issues to be discussed by the parties.

Over the next few weeks, S&W representatives met with the representatives of multiple second-round bidders and their financial advisors and legal counsel and responded to various legal due diligence questions raised by the bidders and their financial advisors and legal counsel.

On July 16, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the second round of the bid process.

S&W representatives provided an update on the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case. The Sierra Special Committee also discussed the status of a potential retention package for Medley Capital personnel, noting potential actions Sierra might take in the event the various parties were unable to agree on a retention package.

On July 23, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the second round of the bid process. Broadhaven representatives discussed the possibility of pushing back the August 2, 2021 deadline for bidders to provide their second-round proposals, noting that there were advantages and disadvantages to doing so. In conversations subsequent to the meeting, and upon the recommendation of Broadhaven, the Sierra Special Committee agreed that the bid deadline would be pushed back to August 6, 2021, and that decision was communicated to bidders on July 26, 2021. Broadhaven representatives indicated that in response to the Sierra Special Committee's request they were preparing to discuss certain tax considerations regarding the forms of consideration payable in various proposals. They also indicated that they wanted to share Sierra's second quarter financial results and an estimate of transaction costs with the bidders so that the bidders could incorporate that data into their second-round proposals.

S&W representatives provided an update on the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case. They indicated that they had an opportunity to review and comment on a draft term sheet (the "Plan Term Sheet") which was being negotiated among Medley LLC, Medley Capital and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors appointed in the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case (the "Creditors Committee"), and which outlined the terms of a further revised Combined Disclosure Statement and Plan of Reorganization and Wind-Down of Medley LLC. The Plan Term Sheet included references to a proposed retention plan for Medley Capital personnel which were generally consistent with what the Sierra Special Committee had proposed. Under the draft term sheet Medley LLC would undertake an organized wind-down and Medley LLC's subsidiaries, including SIC Advisors, would agree to continue to perform their contractual obligations through March 31, 2022. The representatives of S&W indicated that Sierra's contribution to the retention package would be memorialized in a commitment letter among Sierra, Medley LLC, Medley Capital and SIC Advisors (the "Commitment Letter"), pursuant to which Sierra agreed to contribute $2.1 million of the total $5.7 million in payments toward the retention package for Medley Capital personnel.

On July 30, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the second round of the bid process. They indicated that one of the bidders that had proposed to acquire Sierra's assets had withdrawn from the process, noting that the bidder had concluded that its proposal was unlikely to be selected.

Broadhaven representatives then discussed next steps with the Sierra Special Committee, noting that the Sierra Special Committee was scheduled to meet on August 11, 2021, during which the Sierra Special Committee would review the bidders' second-round proposals and that the Sierra Special Committee would have an opportunity to meet with the final bidders the week of August 23, 2021. The Sierra Special Committee discussed the possibility of asking Dean Crowe, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sierra and a member of the Sierra Board, about his assessment of the various bidders before Sierra made a final determination about which bid to accept given his interactions with bidders during the course of their due diligence review of Sierra and to determine if he had become aware of any information that might be relevant to the Sierra Special Committee's evaluation of bidders.

On August 11, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven, S&W and Miles & Stockbridge to review the bidders' second-round proposals. Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review process. They reminded the Sierra Special Committee that of the parties who had submitted preliminary proposals, the Sierra Special Committee had invited 11 parties into the second round of the bid process and that second-round bids were due August 6, 2021. Broadhaven representatives noted that eight second round bids had been received which included five merger proposals and three proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser. They reported that three bidders, in total, had withdrawn from the process. They noted that none of the remaining bidders had proposed acquiring Sierra's assets. Broadhaven representatives noted that they had had multiple conversations with the bidders to clarify various elements of the bidders' proposals.

Broadhaven representatives discussed their views regarding the next steps in the process, noting that because the proposals were tightly grouped from a financial perspective, there was greater importance on the Sierra Special Committee evaluating qualitative factors. They indicated that they would provide those bidders invited by the Sierra Special Committee into the third round with Sierra's second quarter results and transaction fee estimates and would respond to any remaining diligence requests.

Broadhaven representatives discussed with the Sierra Special Committee various procedural options available to them, including identifying one party and offering exclusivity, selecting two or three parties that would meet with the Sierra Special Committee or meeting with most of the bidders to fully understand the qualitative factors offered by each bidder and better understand the bidder's proposal.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the second-round proposals that had been received, noting any changes from the bidders' preliminary indications of interest.

Party A submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 5, 2021. Party A proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party A in exchange for a combination of up to $250 million of cash consideration with the remaining merger consideration coming in the form of stock. In addition, Party A proposed to make a $55.5 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders.

Party B submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 6, 2021. Party B proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party B in exchange for a combination of stock and $153.0 million in cash. In addition, Party B proposed to make a $57.0 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Party B also expected to exclude non-performing investments acquired from Sierra from the calculation of its base management fee, and to voluntarily waive its income-based incentive fee to the extent necessary to maintain its current quarterly dividend per share through December 31, 2022.

Barings submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 6, 2021, which reflected a $15 million increase in its cash payment, from $50 million to $65 million, to Sierra stockholders and an increase in the incentive fee hurdle rate for Barings BDC from 8.00% to 8.25%. Barings proposed for Barings BDC to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into Barings BDC in exchange for Barings BDC common stock at an exchange ratio of 0.4469 Barings BDC shares per Sierra share. Barings also proposed to enter into a $100 million, ten-year CSA with Barings BDC, which was anticipated to add approximately $50 million at fair value to the combined company's NAV. Barings also proposed a $20 million share repurchase program by Barings BDC to support the stock price of the common stock of the combined company following the closing of the proposed merger.

Party D submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 6, 2021, which reflected an increase in the cash payment by Party D. Party D proposed to pay Sierra $150 million to become Sierra's manager. In addition, Party D indicated its intention to enter into an incentive fee waiver agreement similar to the current waiver agreement between Sierra and SIC Advisors and that it expected to extend the waiver period through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022. Party D indicated that once a substantial percentage of Sierra's portfolio was comprised of assets that were directly originated by Party D, which it estimated would be within twelve to twenty-four months of the transaction closing, it anticipated recommending a merger between Sierra and another BDC managed by Party D.

Party E submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 6, 2021, which was subsequently revised on August 9, 2021, to become Sierra's manager. Party E's revised second-round bid only included a proposal to become Sierra's manager. The bid reflected an increase in the capital injection into Sierra at NAV to $250 million, a further reduction in management fee to 0.90% and a $2.5 million reduction in the cash consideration, to a total of $5.0 million, to Sierra stockholders. In addition, Party E proposed a $50 million special cash dividend paid with cash from Sierra's balance sheet.

Party F submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven dated August 6, 2021, which reflected a $10 million increase in the cash payment by Party F to Sierra stockholders and an increase in stock consideration to Sierra stockholders by a BDC managed by Party F. Party F's second-round bid only included a proposal to merge Sierra into a BDC managed by Party F. Party F proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into the BDC in exchange for stock and an $80 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders.

Party G submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven on August 6, 2021, subsequently revised on August 10, 2021, which reflected the addition of a proposed cash payment by Party G to Sierra stockholders and transaction fee reimbursement. Party G proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party G in exchange for stock. Party G also proposed to make a $75 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders and to reimburse 50% of transaction fees and expenses, which it estimated to be $8 million. In addition, Party G proposed to enter into a $50 million, ten-year CSA with the BDC.

Party H submitted a non-binding, second-round bid to Broadhaven dated August 6, 2021, which reflected a proposed $30 million cash payment by Party H to Sierra stockholders and a $60 million share buyback over the two years following the transaction closing.

Broadhaven representatives indicated that they had focused on the merger consideration and cash payment being offered in comparing the merger proposals but that Sierra stockholders would also benefit from other bid components such as management and incentive fee structures, dividend rates, and share buyback commitments, among other things. In valuing the stock component of the consideration, Broadhaven used recent market prices for publicly traded BDCs and estimated the public market values for non-publicly traded BDCs. They indicated that in terms of stock and cash consideration, Barings BDC's offer of $5.53 per share to Sierra stockholders was $0.15 higher than the second highest bidder which was Party G.

Broadhaven representatives indicated that all of the bidders that had submitted a merger proposal had proposed a NAV for NAV merger, with various adjustments including, in most cases, a markdown of certain credits at Sierra. They noted that no bidder considered a discount to Sierra's NAV of more than 6%.

Broadhaven representatives next reviewed the fee structures of the proposed acquiring BDCs. They noted that the acquiring BDCs' base management fees ranged between 1.25% and 1.50% of assets, the incentive fees ranged between 17.5% and 20.0%, the hurdle rate for the incentive fees ranged between 7.00% and 8.25% and that all of the fee structures included a 100% catch-up on incentive fees. Broadhaven representatives noted that only two of the fee structures had a high-water mark. They indicated that Barings BDC had an industry leading fee structure, including that the hurdle rate of 8.25% would mean that stockholders of Barings BDC would benefit from investment returns up to that level before Barings would benefit from those returns in the form of incentive fees.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed other components and considerations with respect to the merger proposals such as the acquiring BDC's credit rating, where available, and the impact of the CSAs included in certain proposals, noting that a CSA would add value to the acquiring BDC's NAV and protect the acquiring BDC from credit losses in Sierra's investment portfolio following the closing of a transaction.

Broadhaven representatives next reviewed the historical performance of the potential merger partners, noting that a comparison of historical performance was of limited value due to particular circumstances involving each potential merger partner. Broadhaven representatives also reviewed various metrics concerning the performance of potential merger partners' common stock.

Broadhaven representatives next reviewed the proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser received from Party D, Party E and Party H. They indicated that Party D had offered to make a $150 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders in connection with its proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser, which was substantially more cash than was being offered by Party E and Party H. They noted that Party E proposed the lowest management fee among the three bidders seeking to become Sierra's investment adviser without a merger. Broadhaven representatives reviewed the economic value per share of the bids from Party D, Party E and Party H, assuming Sierra's common stock was valued at various discounts to NAV.

Broadhaven representatives indicated that when the estimated value per share of the merger proposals and proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser were compared, the merger proposal from Barings BDC offered the most economic value to Sierra stockholders, and the proposal to become Sierra's investment adviser from Party D offered the next highest economic value to Sierra stockholders. They noted that Party D contemplated a liquidity event (such as a merger with a publicly traded BDC) within one to two years after the transaction closed.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed the estimated economic value of the various proposals under different assumptions, for example, assuming Sierra's common stock was valued at 85% of NAV rather than 80% of NAV. They noted that changing this assumption benefitted the relative standing of all of the proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser because the value of such proposals were highly dependent on how Sierra's common stock was valued. Broadhaven then reviewed a summary of the proposals that took into account the impact of the likely tax treatment of the proposed transactions, which analysis took into account a number of assumptions and limitations conveyed to Broadhaven by Sierra and S&W.

Broadhaven representatives next reviewed the estimated value of the proposals after factoring in assumed values for other components of the bidders' proposals such as fee reductions and the value of the CSA, as applicable.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed the fee structures with respect to the three proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser. They also reviewed other components of the proposals, which included consulting arrangements or potential offers of employment for unidentified employees of Medley Capital who are involved in Sierra's investments or operations. Broadhaven and S&W representatives noted that there were possible opportunities for current members of the Sierra Board to have some role following a merger or change in manager transaction to ensure the interests of Sierra stockholders would be represented going forward.

A representative of S&W provided the Sierra Special Committee with an update on the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case. After discussion, the Sierra Special Committee indicated its willingness to make one modification to the Commitment Letter related to the retention plan for Medley Capital personnel. The Commitment Letter was finalized and signed on or about August 11, 2021. On August 13, 2021, Medley LLC, Medley Capital and the Creditors Committee filed the Third Amended Combined Disclosure Statement and Chapter 11 Plan of Medley LLC, which incorporated the provisions of the Term Sheet and the Commitment Letter.

On August 16, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven and S&W to communicate a decision on which parties to invite into the third round. At that meeting, the Sierra Special Committee instructed Broadhaven to invite Party A, Party B, Barings BDC, Party D, Party E, Party F and Party G into the next round. It was noted that the third round would include the submission of a 15(c) questionnaire by the seven remaining bidders and an opportunity to present to the Sierra Special Committee.

On August 23, 2021, August 24, 2021 and August 27, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee, along with representatives from Broadhaven and S&W, met with each of Party A, Party B, Barings BDC, Party D, Party E, Party F and Party G. During these meetings with the Sierra Special Committee and its advisors, representatives of each bidder reviewed, among other items, the bidding firm and its management and investment personnel, such firm's investment capabilities and historic investment performance, and the terms of such firm's second-round bid. The bidders responded to questions from the members of the Sierra Special Committee and representatives of Broadhaven and S&W. During its meeting with the Sierra Special Committee on August 24, 2021, Barings expressed its willingness, subject to obtaining internal approval, to increase Barings BDC's proposed share repurchase program to $30 million.

Following the Sierra Special Committee's meetings with the final bidders, the bidders responded to follow-up requests from the Sierra Special Committee, which included additional information about their historical investment returns and cash distributions.

On August 30, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. The representative of Miles & Stockbridge reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the standard of conduct that applied to directors of a Maryland corporation, noting that decisions by directors of a Maryland corporation were protected by the business judgment rule and that the members of the Sierra

Special Committee generally were entitled to rely on information from other members of the Sierra Special Committee, representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W as to any matter within their professional competence and representatives of Broadhaven, including any information, opinion, report or statement prepared by Broadhaven, if within their expert competence.

Broadhaven representatives provided an update on the strategic review process. They reminded the Sierra Special Committee that the deadline for best and final bids was August 27, 2021. They noted that, with the exception of Party D, all of the final bidders had improved their second-round bids, while Party D reaffirmed its second-round bid. Consistent with second-round bids, they indicated that Party A, Party B, Barings BDC, Party F and Party G had each submitted merger proposals, while Party D and Party E had submitted proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee the third-round bid proposals that had been received, noting any changes from the bidders' second-round proposals.

Party A submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven dated August 27, 2021, which reflected a $10 million increase in the cash merger consideration from a BDC managed by Party A, partly offset by a reduction in the stock consideration. Party A proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party A in exchange for a combination of up to $260 million of cash consideration with the remaining merger consideration coming in the form of stock. In addition, Party A proposed to make a $55.5 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total value of the merger consideration and cash payment was $5.34 per Sierra share, or 98% of NAV, and that the total economic value of the proposal was $5.57 per Sierra share, or 103% of NAV.

Party B submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 27, 2021, which reflected a $12.5 million increase in merger consideration and a $40 million increase in the cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Party B proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party B in exchange for a combination of $391.9 million in stock and $130.6 million in cash. In addition, Party B proposed to make a $97.0 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Party B also expected to exclude non-performing investments acquired from Sierra from the calculation of its base management fee, and to voluntarily waive its income-based incentive fee to the extent necessary to maintain its current quarterly dividend per share through December 31, 2022. Party B also expressed its willingness to enter into a $100 million, eight-year CSA with Party B's BDC. If Sierra preferred the CSA, then Party B indicated that the cash payment from Party B would be reduced by $20 million to $77 million. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total value of the merger consideration and cash payment was $5.45 per Sierra share, or 100% of NAV, and that the total economic value of the proposal was $5.91 per Sierra share, or 109% of NAV.

Barings submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 27, 2021, which reflected a $20 million increase in the cash payment to Sierra stockholders, a $25 million increase in the CSA and a $10 million increase in the share repurchase program. Barings proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into Barings BDC in exchange for Barings BDC common stock at an exchange ratio of 0.4522 Barings BDC shares per Sierra share. In addition, Barings proposed an $85 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Barings also proposed to enter into a $125 million, 10-year CSA with Barings BDC, which was anticipated to add approximately $62.5 million at fair value to the combined company's NAV. Barings also proposed a $30 million share repurchase program by Barings BDC to support the stock price of the common stock of the combined company following the closing of the proposed merger. In addition, Barings proposed to increase the incentive fee hurdle rate from 8.00% to 8.25%. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total value of the merger consideration and cash payment was $5.75 per Sierra share, or 106% of NAV, and that the total economic value of the proposal was $6.45 per Sierra share, or 119% of NAV.

Party D submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 27, 2021, in which Party D reaffirmed its second-round bid. Party D proposed to pay Sierra $150 million to become Sierra's manager. In addition, Party D indicated its intention to enter into an incentive fee waiver agreement similar to the current waiver agreement between Sierra and SIC Advisors and that it expected to extend the waiver period through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total economic value of the proposal was $5.96 per Sierra share, or 110% of NAV.

Party E submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 27, 2021, subsequently revised on August 29, 2021, which reflected a $4 million increase in the cash paid to Sierra, an increase in the price of the equity capital injection into Sierra, and a further reduction in management fees. Party E proposed to pay Sierra $9 million in cash to become Sierra's manager. Party E also proposed a $250 million equity capital injection into Sierra at a 0.5% premium to NAV. In addition, Party E proposed a $50 million special cash dividend paid with cash on Sierra's balance sheet. Party E also proposed a further reduction in management fees to 0.80%. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total economic value of the proposal was $5.81 per Sierra share, or 107% of NAV.

Party F submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 28, 2021, which reflected a $20.5 million increase in the merger consideration by the BDC managed by Party F and a $30 million increase in the cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Party F proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party F in exchange for stock and a $110 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total value of the merger consideration and cash payment was $5.81 per Sierra share, or 107% of NAV, and that the total economic value of the proposal was $6.04 per Sierra share, or 111% of NAV.

Party G submitted a non-binding, third-round bid to Broadhaven on August 27, 2021, which reflected an increase in merger consideration, a $5 million increase in the cash payment to Sierra stockholders and a $30 million increase in the CSA. Party G proposed to acquire all of Sierra's common stock through a merger of Sierra into a BDC managed by Party G in exchange for stock. In addition, Party G proposed to make an $80.0 million cash payment to Sierra stockholders, and to reimburse 50% of transaction fees and expenses which was estimated to be $8.0 million. Party G also proposed to enter into a $80 million, ten-year CSA with the BDC. Broadhaven estimated, on the basis of various assumptions, that the total value of the merger consideration and cash payment was $5.49 per Sierra share, or 101% of NAV, and that the total economic value of the proposal was $5.84 per Sierra share, or 108% of NAV.

Broadhaven representatives indicated that in comparing the economic values of the proposals, they had reviewed the merger consideration (cash and stock) and cash payment being offered in the merger proposals and that they also had factored in other bid components, such as management and incentive fee structures, CSAs, and share buyback commitments, among other things. In valuing the stock component of the consideration, Broadhaven used recent market prices for publicly traded BDCs and estimated what the public market values could be for non-publicly traded BDCs. Broadhaven noted that, based on the value of the merger consideration and cash payments of the merger proposals, the analysis showed that Party F's proposal offered the most value to Sierra stockholders. Broadhaven also noted that, based on the total economic value of all of the proposals, which included, in the case of the proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser, the assumption that Sierra's common stock was valued at 80% of NAV, Barings' proposal offered the most economic value to the Sierra stockholders.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed various sensitivities to key assumptions. Broadhaven reviewed the estimated economic value of the various proposals assuming Sierra's common stock was valued at 85% of NAV rather than 80% of NAV. They noted that changing this assumption benefitted the relative standing of all of the proposals to become Sierra's investment adviser because the value of such proposals were highly dependent on how Sierra's common stock was valued. Broadhaven then reviewed a summary of the proposals that took into account the impact of the likely tax treatments of the various proposed transactions, which analysis included a number of assumptions and limitations conveyed to Broadhaven by Sierra and S&W. It was noted that a significant percentage of Sierra stockholders held their shares in tax-deferred accounts and that such stockholders should be indifferent to whether the payments constituted ordinary income or capital gains.

Broadhaven representatives then discussed in greater detail the estimated value of certain components of the bidders' proposals other than stock consideration and cash consideration. They discussed the estimated economic value attributed to the CSAs that were being proposed by Barings BDC and Party G and was offered by Party B, noting they had the effect of increasing the pro forma NAV of the combined BDCs. They also noted that both Barings BDC and Party G proposed to increase the aggregate amount of the potential losses covered by their proposed CSAs and that Party B had expressed their willingness to implement a CSA but that it would reduce the cash payment from its manager by approximately $20 million.

Broadhaven representatives then reviewed the fee structures of the bidders. They indicated that Barings BDC had the most competitive fee structure, noting it had a low base management fee; it did not charge a fee on cash; it proposed the highest hurdle rate; and it had a high-water mark. Broadhaven representatives then discussed with the Sierra Special Committee the track records, historical performance and various characteristics of the bidders' common stock. The Sierra Special Committee reviewed with the representatives of Broadhaven and S&W certain follow-up questions and open matters to be discussed with the bidders. The Sierra Special Committee then discussed the bidders' proposals with the representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W and considered possible bidders to eliminate from the process.

On August 31, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. The members of the Sierra Special Committee discussed the various proposals from the bidders, noting the factors they believed would be most important to Sierra stockholders. The members of the Sierra Special Committee determined that Barings' proposal best addressed the items they believed were most important to Sierra stockholders and that Party F's and Party G's proposals were most likely alternatives to Barings' proposal. They agreed that Broadhaven should be notified of these conclusions and that Barings would be offered the opportunity to negotiate a transaction if it agreed to increase the cash payment from Barings to Sierra stockholders from $85 million to $100 million. In addition, the Sierra Special Committee instructed Broadhaven to request from Barings that two of the Sierra Independent Directors be added to the Barings BDC Board to ensure the interests of Sierra stockholders would be represented going forward, given that former Sierra stockholders would own approximately 40% of Barings BDC's common stock following the closing of the transaction, with the selection of the individuals to be added to be left to the discretion of the board of directors of Barings BDC.

The Chair of the Special Committee indicated that he would ask Howard Liao, Chief Executive Officer of Medley LLC, and Dean Crowe, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sierra, for their assessments of the top three bidders, Barings BDC, Party F and Party G to ensure that there were no issues of which they were aware that might be relevant to the Sierra Special Committee's evaluation of the bidders.

The members of the Sierra Special Committee noted that they had reviewed responses made by Barings BDC management to specific questions concerning investment, operations, and compliance activities in a 15(c) questionnaire that had been sent, on behalf of the Sierra Special Committee, to Barings BDC management.

The Sierra Special Committee discussed with the representatives of S&W Barings' markup of the draft merger agreement, noting that there were certain matters that should be addressed before Sierra selected Barings as the winning bidder.

Following the August 31, 2021 Sierra Special Committee meeting, S&W sent a revised draft of the merger agreement to Barings BDC's counsel, Goodwin Procter. The Sierra Special Committee instructed Broadhaven to ask Barings to increase the cash payment by the manager from $85 million to $100 million in exchange for reducing the proposed CSA from $125 million to $100 million, to agree to appoint two of the Sierra Independent Directors to the Barings BDC Board and to agree to certain modifications to the draft merger agreement. Barings agreed to such changes as long as Sierra would enter into an exclusivity agreement with Barings to complete the negotiation of terms.

On September 1, 2021, the Chair of the Sierra Special Committee spoke to Messrs. Liao, Crowe and David Richards of Medley to obtain their assessment of the top three bidders. The Chair subsequently reported to the other members of the Sierra Special Committee that the members of Medley management had not identified any matters that were materially relevant to the Sierra Special Committee's evaluation of the top three bidders.

On September 1, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with representatives of Miles & Stockbridge and S&W and reviewed the revised proposal from Barings BDC. After a discussion of the relative advantages and disadvantages of each proposal, the Sierra Special Committee determined to proceed with Barings BDC and authorized Sierra to enter into an exclusivity agreement with Barings BDC, to expire on September 23, 2021.

On September 8, 2021, representatives of S&W met with representatives of Goodwin to discuss pre-closing matters relating to the draft merger agreement and related matters.

On September 8, 2021, representatives of Broadhaven and S&W met with representatives of Barings and Wells Fargo Securities, financial advisor to Barings BDC, to conduct reverse due diligence of Barings and Barings BDC.

Between September 8, 2021 and September 20, 2021, S&W and Goodwin exchanged multiple drafts of the merger agreement along with drafts of the terms of the proposed Credit Support Agreement between Barings BDC and Barings and a proposed second amended and restated investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings.

On September 20, 2021, representatives of S&W met with representatives of Barings and its legal counsel to respond to questions from the representatives of S&W that arose during their reverse legal due diligence of Barings and Barings BDC.

On September 20, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with Dean Crowe, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sierra and a member of the Sierra Board, and representatives of Broadhaven, Eversheds Sutherland, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W.

Broadhaven representatives reviewed with the Sierra Special Committee Broadhaven's analysis with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Sierra Common Stock of the merger consideration to be received by such holders in the proposed Merger.

S&W representatives discussed their reverse legal due diligence of Barings BDC and Barings, noting that they had not identified any material matters during the course of that reverse legal due diligence.

S&W representatives then discussed the proposed Merger Agreement. They noted that under the interim operating covenants, Sierra's dividends would be limited to $0.03 per share for each quarter and that Sierra would be required to suspend its distribution reinvestment plan. They indicated that the Merger Agreement addressed, among other items, the proposed Credit Support Agreement, the share repurchase plan and the increase in the hurdle rate to be applied to the incentive fee payable to Barings. They also noted that the Merger Agreement would allow Sierra to enter into an interim advisory contract with SIC Advisors before the closing of the transaction under certain circumstances.

On September 21, 2021, the Sierra Special Committee met via video conference with Dean Crowe, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sierra and a member of the Sierra Board, and representatives of Broadhaven, Eversheds Sutherland, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W. The Sierra Special Committee continued its consideration of the proposed transaction between Sierra and Barings BDC. The Chair of the Sierra Special Committee noted that the Sierra Special Committee had received a presentation from representatives of Broadhaven in connection with its fairness opinion relating to the proposed Merger. Broadhaven representatives delivered to the Sierra Special Committee Broadhaven's oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated September 21, 2021, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Broadhaven as set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Sierra Common Stock, as more fully described in the section entitled "—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Sierra Special Committee" beginning on page [•] of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The Sierra Special Committee, after taking into consideration all of the information during Sierra Board meetings and Sierra Special Committee meetings with respect to the strategic review process and the proposed Merger, including the current meeting, approved the Merger Agreement and recommended that the Sierra Board, among other things, declare that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the First Merger, advisable and in the best interests of Sierra and the Sierra stockholders, and submit the First Merger to Sierra stockholders for approval.

Immediately following the Sierra Special Committee meeting, the Sierra Board met via video conference with representatives of Broadhaven, Eversheds Sutherland, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W.

The representative of Miles & Stockbridge reviewed with the Sierra Board the standard of conduct that applied to directors of a Maryland corporation, noting that decisions by the Board were protected by the business judgement rule and that the members of the Board generally were entitled to rely on the report from the Sierra Special Committee, representatives of Eversheds Sutherland, Miles & Stockbridge and S&W as to any matter within their professional competence and representatives of Broadhaven, including any information, opinion, report or statement prepared by Broadhaven, if within its expert competence.

The Chair of the Sierra Special Committee then provided the Sierra Board with the Sierra Special Committee report from the meetings held the previous day and the meeting held immediately prior to the current meeting. He noted that the current meeting was the culmination of a long and rigorous process undertaken by the Sierra Special Committee. He indicated that at its meeting earlier that day the Sierra Special Committee had met and had voted unanimously to approve the Merger Agreement and to recommend its approval to the Sierra Board.

Based upon the approval and recommendation of the Sierra Special Committee, the Sierra Board, after taking into consideration all of the information during Sierra Board meetings and Sierra Special Committee meetings with respect to the strategic review process and the proposed Merger, including the current meeting, determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the First Merger, were advisable and in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders, approved and adopted the Merger Agreement, directed that the First Merger be submitted to Sierra stockholders for approval, and authorized Sierra's officers to sign the Merger Agreement and such other documents required to effectuate the transactions contemplated thereby.

In the afternoon of September 21, 2021, the Barings BDC Board held a special meeting, which was attended by each of the Barings BDC Independent Directors and by representatives of Barings BDC's management. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities, Goodwin Procter and Dechert were also in attendance. Prior to the meeting, the Barings BDC Board was provided certain informational materials related to the potential business combination with Sierra, including presentations by each of Barings BDC's management, Goodwin Procter and Wells Fargo Securities and a draft of the proposed merger agreement. At the meeting, representatives of Goodwin Procter provided the Barings BDC Board with an update on the merger agreement negotiation process with Sierra and discussed with the Barings BDC Board the material terms of the merger agreement, the proposed amendment to the Barings BDC Advisory Agreement and the material terms of the Credit Support Agreement. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then reviewed with the Barings BDC Board its final financial analysis of the Exchange Ratio provided for in the Merger Agreement. Representatives of Wells Fargo Securities then delivered to the Barings BDC Board its oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated September 21, 2021, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Barings BDC, as more fully described below in the section entitled “— Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC” beginning on page [•] of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. After further discussion, the Barings BDC Board members in attendance, which included each of the Barings BDC Independent Directors, unanimously determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interests of Barings BDC and Barings BDC’s stockholders and approved and adopted the merger agreement, among other things.

On September 21, 2021, following approval of the Merger Agreement by the Sierra Board and the Barings BDC Board, Barings BDC, Sierra, Acquisition Sub and Barings executed and delivered the Merger Agreement. Barings BDC and Sierra issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement on September 21, 2021.

Reasons for the Merger

Barings BDC

At various telephonic meetings of the Barings BDC Board, the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, discussed the potential Merger and considered the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by that agreement. In connection with such consideration, the Barings BDC Board requested, and Barings provided, information regarding the proposed Merger, Sierra, and the anticipated effects of the Merger on Barings BDC and its stockholders, both immediately after the Merger and over the longer-term assuming that certain benefits and synergies of the Merger were realized. The Barings BDC Board also considered the effect of (1) the changes contemplated by the proposed New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement on the combined company following the closing of the Merger, (2) the proposed Credit Support Agreement and (3) the approximately $100.0 million cash payment by Barings to Sierra stockholders in connection with Barings BDC’s purchase of Sierra.

Over the course of its review of the materials and information provided and its consideration of the Merger, the Barings BDC Board, including each of the Independent Directors of the Barings BDC Board, consulted with Barings and Barings BDC’s legal counsel, and Wells Fargo Securities, the financial advisor to Barings BDC. In addition, the Barings BDC Independent Directors were advised by their independent legal counsel regarding the nature and adequacy of the information provided, the terms of the Merger Agreement and their fiduciary duties in approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered numerous factors, including the ones described below, in connection with its consideration and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. On September 21, 2021, the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, unanimously determined that the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in the Merger, are advisable and in the best interests of Barings BDC and its stockholders and that approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal should be recommended to such stockholders for their approval.

The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, weighed various benefits and risks in considering the Merger, both with respect to the immediate effects of the Merger on Barings BDC and its stockholders and with respect to the potential benefits that could be experienced by the combined company in the long term after the Merger. The determination to approve the Merger Agreement was made on the basis of each Barings BDC Board member’s judgment after consideration of all of the factors taken as a whole, though individual Barings BDC Board members may have attributed different weights to various factors. The material factors considered by the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, that contributed to the Barings BDC Board concluding that the Merger is in the best interests of Barings BDC and its stockholders included, among others:

Increased Scale and Liquidity. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered advantages expected to accrue to the combined company as a result of its larger size. The Barings BDC Board noted that the combined company is expected to have more than $2.2 billion of investments on a pro forma basis. The Barings BDC Board also considered that larger BDCs generally have broader coverage by equity research analysts as well as improved borrowing terms. This coverage is also expected to expand the potential stockholder base of the combined company, potentially resulting in a higher trading valuation and greater access to, and flexibility in, raising opportunistic capital on attractive terms. In addition, the Barings BDC Board considered the potential that, as a result of its larger scale, the combined company may have increased access to the institutional, index-eligible investment grade debt capital markets at a lower cost of capital.

The Transaction is Expected to be Accretive to Barings BDC Stockholders. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered management's estimates that Barings BDC's net investment income per share would be $0.24 in the first full quarter post-closing compared to $0.22 per share during the second quarter of 2021. Net investment income at that level would represent a net investment income yield of 8.25% on the combined company's NAV. The Barings BDC Board further considered management's estimate for short-term NAV accretion of approximately 4% and additional long-term accretion to NAV as assets acquired are realized and repositioned into Barings BDC's directly originated investments in the future.

Barings and Barings BDC Stockholder Alignment. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered that, as part of the transaction, Barings would (1) fund the cash portion of the purchase price of $0.9783641 per share, or approximately $100.0 million, (2) amend its advisory agreement in the form of the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement to increase the incentive fee hurdle rate from 8.0% to 8.25% (annualized) and (3) provide up to $100.0 million of credit support pursuant to the Credit Support Agreement designed to limit downside to Barings BDC stockholders from net cumulative realized and unrealized losses on the acquired Sierra portfolio relative to purchase price while also allowing Barings BDC stockholders to benefit from long-term Sierra portfolio appreciation. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered that the Credit Support Agreement will provide Barings BDC stockholders protection on the acquired Sierra assets from $612 million down to approximately $512 million of fair value, or 73% of Sierra's original cost (based on the total original cost of Sierra's portfolio of approximately $701 million and the total fair value of Sierra portfolio as of June 30, 2021 of approximately $631 million).

Economies of Scale. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, also considered that, as a result of the Merger, the ratio of Barings BDC's fixed costs (e.g., legal expenses, insurance, audit fees and other expenses) to assets under management is expected to be lower than Barings BDC's current expense ratio. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, noted that, if the Merger is consummated, the fixed costs and expenses would be spread across a larger asset base and duplicative fixed costs would be eliminated. As a result, the total annual expenses borne by Barings BDC stockholders on a pro forma basis are expected to be reduced due to an anticipated reduction in general and administrative expenses. Barings has estimated approximately $8.1 million in identified cost savings from duplicative general and administrative costs. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, found that the expected decrease in the total annual expense ratio of the combined entity would benefit Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders if the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were approved.

Diversification of Assets and Liabilities. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, reviewed Sierra's investment portfolio and noted that the Sierra assets were encumbered by a relatively low level of leverage. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, discussed how the combined company would have an increased asset base, which would allow for enhanced diversification and flexibility in periods of market stress, and an expansion of the balance sheet management solutions available to the combined company, including greater access to the unsecured debt markets. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, also reviewed the expected portfolio composition of the combined company and noted an enhanced diversification of portfolio assets; the combined portfolio would have 245 portfolio companies with the top 10 companies representing approximately 17% of the portfolio. The Barings BDC Board considered that the combined company could provide benefits to Barings BDC stockholders in the form of greater diversification and reduced concentration of investments and risks associated with such concentration of investments.

Increased Market Capitalization and Commensurate Increased Trading Volume. Given that Barings BDC will issue shares of its common stock as consideration in connection with the First Merger, the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered the potential for greater trading interest for Barings BDC Common Stock, which may result in tighter bid-ask spreads and increased trading volume. Barings BDC's pro forma trading liquidity profile after closing as implied by the public BDC peer set suggests an approximate 80% increase in Barings BDC's current three-month average daily trading volume. The Barings BDC Board noted that Barings BDC's increased profile could result in additional market coverage of Barings BDC by financial analysts and, potentially, an increased focus by current and potential investors on Barings BDC, including institutional investors. In addition, the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered the discount at which Barings BDC Common Stock trades as compared to its NAV and considered that the increased profile and coverage could potentially result in a narrowing of that discount. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, also considered the potential impact of the Credit Support Agreement on the trading of Barings BDC Common Stock following the closing of the Merger. In addition, the Investment Company Act prohibits mutual funds, registered closed-end funds, BDCs and most private funds from acquiring and owning more than 3% of the outstanding voting securities of a BDC like Barings BDC. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, noted that the Merger would increase Barings BDC's equity base, which would give these funds more leeway to invest in the combined company without implicating the 3% limitation.

Structure and Tax Consequences. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered that by structuring the Merger as a two-step transaction with the First Merger followed by the Second Merger, the Merger is anticipated to be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes and Barings BDC stockholders are not expected to recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Merger.

Opinion of Financial Advisor. The Barings BDC Board considered the oral opinion of Wells Fargo Securities delivered to the Barings BDC Board, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated September 21, 2021, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Barings BDC, as more fully described below under the section entitled “—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC” beginning on page [•] of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The full text of the written opinion of Wells Fargo Securities, dated September 21, 2021, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Wells Fargo Securities in preparing the opinion, is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Terms of the Merger Agreement. The Barings BDC Board considered the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the course of negotiations thereof, as described in further detail below:

- The Merger Agreement imposes customary restrictions on Sierra's ability to operate outside the ordinary course of business between the date of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time (or until the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement), including certain restrictions regarding Sierra's ability to transact with existing and future portfolio companies, issue equity securities, incur indebtedness and pay dividends.
- The Merger Agreement contains customary non-solicitation covenants. In particular, the Merger Agreement:
 - requires Sierra to immediately cease and cause to be terminated immediately any existing solicitation of, or discussions with, any third party relating to any competing proposal or any inquiry, discussion, offer or request that could reasonably be expected to lead to a competing proposal; and
 - prohibits Sierra from directly or indirectly initiating, soliciting or knowingly encouraging or facilitating (including by way of furnishing or disclosing information) any inquiries or the making, submission or implementation of any competing proposal, or entering into any agreement, arrangement, discussions or understanding with respect to any competing proposal or enter into any contract or understanding requiring it to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger, or initiating or engaging in negotiations or discussions with, or furnish any information to, any third party relating to a competing proposal.
- The Merger Agreement provides that Sierra will be required to pay a customary termination fee to Barings BDC under certain circumstances if the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are not consummated, along with Barings' and Barings BDC's expenses, subject to a cap of $2.0 million, in specific circumstances.

Other Considerations. The Barings BDC Board considered that the Merger is not expected to affect the ability of Barings BDC to comply with its regulatory obligations, including its ability to maintain appropriate leverage and continue to operate in compliance with the asset coverage requirements set forth in the Investment Company Act and to pay dividends required of RICs. The Barings BDC Board also considered benefits that could result from the Merger, such as an increase in scale of Barings BDC and an increase in “non-qualifying asset” capacity for higher yielding opportunities. In addition, the Barings BDC Board considered that Barings BDC will implement a $30.0 million stock purchase plan pursuant to Rule 10b-18 under the Exchange Act over a 12-month period in the event the combined company’s shares trade below a specific level of NAV per share following the completion of the first quarterly period ended after the closing of the merger, subject to a share repurchase agreement and liquidity and regulatory constraints. The Barings BDC Board also considered that while the Merger could cause dilution to Barings BDC stockholders’ voting interests and the NAV per share of the combined company’s common stock, the potential benefits of the Merger described above outweighed this cost.

Risks. In the course of its deliberations, the Barings BDC Board also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including (which are not in any relative order of importance):

- that it would be possible that the Merger may not be completed or may be delayed;
- shares issued by Barings BDC in connection with the First Merger may be issued below the then-current Barings BDC NAV and thus may result in a dilution of NAV to existing Barings BDC stockholders;
- certain restrictions are imposed on the conduct of Barings BDC’s business prior to completion of the Merger, requiring Barings BDC to conduct its business only in the ordinary course of business in accordance with the Merger Agreement, subject to specific limitations, which could delay or prevent Barings BDC from taking advantage of business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Merger;
- under most circumstances, Barings BDC will be responsible for the expenses incurred by Barings BDC in connection with the Merger and the completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, whether or not the Merger is consummated, including the costs and expenses of any filing and other fees payable by Barings BDC to the SEC in connection with the Merger;
- it is possible that the attention of management may be diverted toward finalizing the Merger during the period prior to completion of the Merger, which may adversely affect Barings BDC’s business; and
- various other risks associated with the Merger and the business of Barings BDC and the combined company described in the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page [•] and in the section entitled “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page [•].

When considering the information described above, including all of the anticipated effects of the Merger on Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders and the related pro forma information, the Barings BDC Board and the Barings BDC Independent Directors noted that information based on projections and assumptions may be incorrect, is subject to change, and may fluctuate over time. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, acknowledged that the projections and assumptions on which the potential expenses, earnings, yield, dividend and trading price information are based depend on many factors and variables, including, among other things, asset mix, the performance of individual investments, rate of the turnover of the Sierra portfolio, leverage, the cost of leverage, changes in interest rates and general market conditions. The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, noted that there is no assurance that any of the potential benefits to Barings BDC or Barings BDC stockholders as a result of the Merger will be realized, including any anticipated synergies, and that the combined entity could experience detrimental effects that had not been anticipated.

This discussion of the information and factors that the Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered in making its decision is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Barings BDC Board. Because of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and Merger Agreement and the complexity of those matters, the Barings BDC Board did not find it useful to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, the individual members of the Barings BDC Board may have given different weights to different factors.

The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, consulted with Wells Fargo Securities, as financial advisor to Barings BDC, in evaluating the financial terms of the Merger. In addition, the Barings BDC Board and the Barings BDC Independent Directors relied on their legal counsel for legal analysis in connection with the Merger.

The Barings BDC Board, including the Barings BDC Independent Directors, considered all of these factors and others as a whole and, on balance, determined the Merger to be in the best interests of Barings BDC and Barings BDC stockholders and unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and the Barings BDC Stock Issuance.

Sierra

In evaluating the merger proposal from Barings BDC, the Sierra Board, including the Sierra Independent Directors, and the Sierra Special Committee consulted with and received the advice of certain outside advisors, including financial and legal advisors. In reaching their decision, the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee considered a number of factors, including the factors discussed below, and, as a result, determined that the First Merger is in the best interests of Sierra and Sierra stockholders.

The following discussion of the information and factors considered by the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee is not intended to be exhaustive. However, Sierra believes it includes the material factors considered by the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee in evaluating the First Merger. In view of the complexity and the large number of factors considered, the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors they considered in reaching their decisions. Rather, they based their recommendation or approval, as applicable, on the totality of the information presented to and considered by them, including, in the case of the Sierra Board, the unanimous determination of the Sierra Special Committee to recommend that the Sierra Board approve the First Merger, and concluded that, overall, the positive factors of the First Merger to Sierra stockholders outweighed the potential negative factors related to the First Merger.

Certain Merits of the Transaction

- The consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders represents a premium to Sierra's NAV as of June 30, 2021.
- Every Sierra stockholder will receive a cash distribution of approximately $0.98 with respect to every share of Sierra Common Stock they own.
- The First Merger will provide the Sierra stockholders with the opportunity for immediate liquidity upon close of the Merger.
- The Sierra stockholders will have the option of selling the shares of Barings BDC they receive in the First Merger or remain stockholders of Barings BDC.
- The opportunity for Sierra stockholders to receive a higher dividend rate as holders of Barings BDC Common Stock.
- Barings BDC has a higher dividend rate than Sierra, which will begin accruing to Sierra stockholders immediately following the closing of the Merger, assuming the Sierra stockholders decide to retain their pro rata Barings BDC Common Stock exchanged for their shares of Sierra Common Stock.
- Barings BDC will increase the hurdle rate on the incentive fee payable to Barings.
- Barings BDC's base management fee was lower than Sierra's base management fee and its proposed incentive fee hurdle rate of 8.25% was higher than Sierra's hurdle rate.
- The Credit Support Agreement is expected to give stockholders of the combined company downside protection on the Sierra portfolio and insulate the combined company's stockholders from certain losses in the Sierra portfolio for the ten years following the completion of the Merger.
- The Merger Agreement provides that Barings BDC will repurchase up to $30 million of its shares over a twelve-month period in the event the combined company's shares trade below a specified level of NAV following the completion of the first quarterly period ended after the closing of the Merger, subject to Barings BDC's compliance with certain contractual covenants and regulatory requirements.

- The Merger is expected to qualify as tax-free transactions for federal income tax purposes, and Sierra believes that U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take the position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration.
- The Sierra Board and Sierra Special Committee believe the First Merger is more favorable to Sierra stockholders than remaining a stand-alone company or other alternative transactions available to Sierra.
- The financial analyses and presentations prepared by Broadhaven and its oral opinion delivered to the Sierra Special Committee on September 20, 2021, which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Broadhaven's written opinion dated September 21, 2021, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to various assumptions, limitations and qualifications described in its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by Sierra stockholders in the First Merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to such Stockholders.

Certain Other Considerations

- There are inherent uncertainties with regard to Sierra's ability to continue as a stand-alone BDC.
- There are inherent uncertainties with regard to the impact of the Medley LLC Bankruptcy Case on SIC Advisors.
- The fact that Barings, which represented approximately 21% of the outstanding shares of Barings BDC Common Stock as of October 15, 2021, agreed to vote all shares of Barings BDC Common Stock over which it has voting power (other than in a fiduciary capacity) in favor of the Barings BDC Proposals.
- Although a liquidation of Sierra could have been an alternative to a business combination, there are inherent uncertainties and a protracted timeline associated with the liquidation of a portfolio of private loans as well as risks that per share liquidation values would be below the implied per share Merger Consideration value.
- The combined company will maintain a large concentration of senior secured first and second lien assets, which are expected to provide Sierra stockholders with an attractive risk-adjusted return.
- The combined company will be significantly larger and also more highly diversified than a standalone Sierra, and Barings BDC has had substantially more favorable experience of non-accrual loans.
- Barings BDC has steadily paid dividends to its stockholders and those dividends have been steadily increasing.
- Barings BDC Common Stock has been trading above 90% of NAV in the last six months.
- Barings BDC has strong dividend coverage.
- Barings BDC has an investment grade rating.
- Barings BDC has successfully completed other BDC mergers.
- Barings BDC's base management fee of 1.25% of assets under management and its proposed incentive fee hurdle rate of 8.25%, along with its high watermark, is highly competitive.
- Barings BDC has meaningful management ownership of its shares, reflecting potentially greater alignment of management's and stockholders' interests.
- With approximately $2.5 billion in assets (on a pro forma basis as of June 30, 2021), Barings BDC will have greater scale and thus is expected to be better able to successfully compete for investment opportunities and have access to lower cost financing sources than Sierra.
- Barings BDC is managed by a large global asset manager, which has access to the resources of a large parent company.
- Barings BDC has strong institutional ownership relative to other BDCs and has broad analyst coverage.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Certain Merger Valuation Considerations

- The exchange ratio at which the First Merger will be effected has been adjusted for a 3% credit-related markdown, $9.1 million in transaction costs and a $2.1 million contribution by Sierra to a retention program for Medley Capital personnel.
- As a result of the First Merger, Sierra stockholders will own approximately 41% of Barings BDC's common stock following the consummation of the First Merger.
- The Merger Consideration is based on a fixed exchange ratio and therefore Sierra stockholders will benefit in the event that the market price of Barings BDC Common Stock increases relative to the value of Sierra Common Stock prior to the consummation of the First Merger.

History of Negotiations

- The Sierra Special Committee successfully negotiated, among other things, a significantly increased cash payment by Barings to Sierra stockholders in exchange for a reduced Credit Support Agreement commitment.
- The financial and other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the First Merger were the product of arm's length negotiations between the parties.

Terms of the Merger Agreement

- The Merger Agreement is required to be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at a special meeting of Sierra stockholders.
- There is a closing condition that a material adverse effect with respect to Barings BDC must not have occurred prior to the closing date of the First Merger, and that certain other representations and warranties regarding Barings BDC's and Barings' conduct of business be true and correct in all material respects at the closing of the First Merger.
- There is a provision that permits Sierra, under specified circumstances, to respond to and engage in discussions with, and provide information to, third parties regarding unsolicited proposals to acquire Sierra.
- There is a provision that permits the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee, under specified circumstances in connection with an intervening event, to change their recommendation that Sierra stockholders vote in favor of the First Merger.
- Two Sierra Independent Directors will be appointed to the Barings BDC Board following the closing of the Merger.
- Barings BDC's obligation to complete the First Merger is not conditioned on Barings BDC receiving any third-party financing.
- After consulting financial and legal advisors, the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee considered the other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement to be reasonable and consistent with precedents they deemed relevant.

The Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee also discussed the following factors and risks, which were determined to be outweighed by the potential benefits resulting from the Merger:

- There are risks and costs to Sierra if the First Merger is not completed, including uncertainty about the effect of the proposed First Merger on Sierra's portfolio investments, investors, service providers and other parties, which could cause portfolio companies, investors, service providers and other parties to seek to change or not enter into business relationships with Sierra.
- The Merger Agreement contains a fixed exchange ratio and therefore Sierra stockholders will not be compensated for a decline in the price of Barings BDC Common Stock relative to the value of Sierra Common Stock prior to the consummation of the First Merger.
- The Merger Agreement contains provisions that restrict the conduct of Sierra's business prior to the completion of the First Merger (including suspension of the distribution reinvestment plan), generally prohibiting Sierra from taking certain actions with respect to the conduct of its business without the prior consent of Barings BDC, and that such restrictions may delay or prevent Sierra from undertaking desirable business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the First Merger.

- As a result of their smaller percentage of equity ownership in the combined company, Sierra stockholders may have reduced influence over the board of directors, management and policies of the combined company as compared to the influence Sierra stockholders presently have over the Sierra Board, management and policies of Sierra.
- There is the possibility that, under specified circumstances under the Merger Agreement, Sierra may be required to pay a termination fee and reimburse certain expenses incurred by Barings BDC and Barings in connection with the Merger.
- There is the risk of incurring expenses in connection with the First Merger, including in connection with any litigation that may result from the announcement or pendency of the Merger.
- There is the risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Sierra's business and toward completion of the First Merger.
- Barings BDC's obligation to complete the First Merger is conditioned on obtaining Barings BDC stockholders' approval.

The Barings BDC Projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of management, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the Barings BDC Projections. For more information regarding the use of the Barings BDC Projections, please refer to the section entitled “—Financial Forecasts and Estimates” beginning on page [•] of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Wells Fargo Securities also assumed that the proposed Merger will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement thereof that is material to its analyses or opinion and that the final form of the Merger Agreement would not differ from the draft reviewed by Wells Fargo Securities in any respect material to its analysis or opinion. In addition, Wells Fargo Securities did not make any Wells Fargo Securities did not evaluate the solvency of Barings BDC or Sierra under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Wells Fargo further assumed that the final form of the Merger Agreement, when executed by the parties thereto, would conform to the draft reviewed by Wells Fargo Securities in all respects material to its analyses and opinion.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion only addressed the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to Barings BDC in the proposed Merger, and Wells Fargo Securities expressed no opinion as to the fairness to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Barings BDC of any other consideration, including the Cash Consideration, paid in connection with the proposed Merger. Furthermore, Wells Fargo Securities did not express any advice or opinion regarding matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax, environmental, executive compensation or other similar professional advice and has relied upon the assessments of Barings BDC and its advisors with respect to such advice.

Financial Analyses

In preparing its opinion to the Barings BDC Board, Wells Fargo Securities performed a variety of analyses, including those described below. The summary of Wells Fargo Securities' analyses is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Wells Fargo Securities' opinion. The preparation of such an opinion is a complex process involving various quantitative and qualitative judgments and determinations with respect to the financial, comparative and other analytical methods employed and the adaptation and application of these methods to the unique facts and circumstances presented. As a consequence, neither Wells Fargo Securities' opinion nor its underlying analyses is readily susceptible to summary description. Wells Fargo Securities arrived at its opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any individual analysis, methodology or factor. Accordingly, Wells Fargo Securities believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, methodologies and factors, without considering all analyses, methodologies and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying Wells Fargo Securities' analyses and opinion.

In performing its analyses, Wells Fargo Securities considered general business, economic, industry and market conditions, financial and otherwise, and other matters as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. None of the selected companies used in Wells Fargo Securities' analyses is identical to Barings BDC nor Sierra, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the proposed Merger. Evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. The financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities were performed for analytical purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, any analyses relating to the value of assets, businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which may depend on a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Barings BDC.

While the results of each analysis were taken into account in reaching its overall conclusion with respect to fairness, Wells Fargo Securities did not make separate or quantifiable judgments regarding individual analyses. Much of the information used in, and accordingly the results of, Wells Fargo Securities' analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Wells Fargo Securities' opinion was only one of many factors considered by the Barings BDC Board in evaluating the proposed Merger. Neither Wells Fargo Securities' opinion nor its analyses were determinative of the Exchange Ratio or of the views of the Barings BDC Board or management with respect to the proposed Merger or the Exchange Ratio. The type and amount of consideration payable in the proposed Merger were determined through negotiations between Barings BDC and Sierra, and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Barings BDC Board.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Wells Fargo Securities in connection with the preparation of its opinion rendered to, and reviewed with, the Barings BDC Board on September 21, 2021. The order of the analyses summarized below does not represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Wells Fargo Securities. The analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the analyses, as well as the methodologies underlying, and the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications affecting, each analysis, could create an incomplete view of Wells Fargo Securities' analyses.

The estimates of the future financial performance of the companies in the "Selected Public Companies Analysis" and the "Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis" listed below were based on public filings, including SEC and state regulatory filings, and research estimates for those companies and the estimates of the future financial performance of Barings BDC relied upon for the financial analyses described below were based on the Barings BDC Projections.

Taking into account the results of the selected companies analysis and based on Wells Fargo Securities' professional judgement, Wells Fargo Securities applied multiple ranges of 0.85x to 0.95x to Sierra's NAV per share on June 30, 2021, adjusted for a 3.0% write-down on Sierra's investment assets per instructions from Barings BDC management based on Barings BDC management's underwriting analysis of Sierra's investment portfolio, of $5.24. Sierra Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis

Wells Fargo Securities reviewed, among other things, financial data relating to the selected transactions that Wells Fargo Securities considered generally relevant as recent transactions involving target companies which Wells Fargo Securities judged to be sufficiently analogous to Sierra's business based on Wells Fargo Securities' experience and familiarity with the industries in which Sierra operates.

Using publicly available information, Wells Fargo Securities calculated, for each of the selected transactions, the multiple of the target company's implied price per share in the relevant transaction as of the announcement date of the relevant transaction to the target company's NAV per share based on the most recent reporting date before the announcement of the relevant transaction.

None of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the proposed Merger. However, the selected transactions were chosen because certain aspects of the transactions, for purposes of Wells Fargo Securities' analysis, may be considered similar to the proposed Merger. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the transactions differently than they would affect the proposed Merger.

Taking into account the results of the selected transactions analysis and based on Wells Fargo Securities' professional judgement, Wells Fargo Securities applied multiple ranges of 0.75x to 0.90x to NAV per share on

The NAV analysis indicated an implied NAV of $5.24 per share of Sierra Common Stock. The implied NAV per share was then compared to the implied offer price of $4.78 per share of Sierra Common Stock (based on the Exchange Ratio of 0.44973x, and the closing price per share of Barings BDC Common Stock of $10.63 on September 20, 2021, the trading day immediately preceding the date of the written opinion dated September 21, 2021, and excluding the Cash Consideration).

- a September 20, 2021 valuation date;
- a range for cost of equity of 8.25% to 10.25%; and
- a range of terminal values based on 2024 estimated NAV per share and calculated by applying a Price / NAV multiple range of 0.90x to 1.00x.

These calculations resulted in an implied range of equity values per share for Barings BDC Common Stock of approximately $10.16 to $11.59, as compared to the closing price per share of Barings BDC Common Stock of $10.63 on September 20, 2021.

Pro Forma Value Creation Analysis

Wells Fargo Securities conducted an analysis of the pro forma value creation, based on the Barings BDC Projections and the Pro Forma Projections, to existing holders of Barings BDC Common Stock. Wells Fargo Securities performed a dividend discount analysis of Barings BDC Common Stock assuming completion of the proposed Merger based on the Pro Forma Projections for the purpose of determining the implied pro forma equity value per share of Barings BDC Common Stock. In performing its analysis, Wells Fargo Securities used, among others, the following assumptions, which were reviewed and approved by Barings BDC's management:

- a September 20, 2021 valuation date;
- a range for cost of equity of 8.25% to 10.25%;
- an Exchange Ratio of 0.44973x;
- estimates of Synergies and transaction-related expenses provided by Barings BDC's management; and
- a range of terminal values based on 2024 estimated NAV per share and calculated by applying a Price / NAV multiple range of 0.90x to 1.00x.

With the consent of Barings BDC Board, the intrinsic value creation analysis did not take into consideration the Cash Consideration, the Credit Support Agreement or the Parent Trading Plan. These calculations resulted in an implied range of pro forma equity values per share for Barings BDC Common Stock of $10.56 to $12.04. Wells Fargo Securities then compared the mid-point of the implied equity value range per share of Barings BDC Common Stock on a standalone basis described above under the section titled "—Barings BDC Dividend Discount Analysis" to the midpoint of the implied pro forma equity value per share of Barings BDC Common Stock. This analysis indicated that the proposed Merger would result in an accretion in value of $0.42 per share of Barings BDC Common Stock, or 3.9%. There can be no assurance, however, that the Synergies, transaction-related expenses and other impacts referred to above will not be substantially greater or less than those estimated by Barings BDC's management.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to the Sierra Special Committee

The Sierra Special Committee engaged Broadhaven to act as its financial advisor and provide an opinion in connection with the Merger. The Sierra Special Committee selected Broadhaven to act as its financial advisor based on Broadhaven's qualifications, experience and reputation and its knowledge of the relevant industry and the business in which Sierra operates.

As part of its engagement, representatives of Broadhaven attended the meetings of the Sierra Special Committee held on August 30, 2021, September 20, 2021 and September 21, 2021, at which the Sierra Special Committee evaluated the proposed Merger. At these meetings, Broadhaven reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed Merger and, at the September 21 meeting, rendered its opinion to the Sierra Special Committee to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Broadhaven as set forth in such opinion, the Merger Consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Sierra Common Stock.

The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion, which is attached as Annex E to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

Broadhaven's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the Sierra Special Committee in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. The opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of Sierra Common Stock of the Merger Consideration. It did not address the underlying business decision of Sierra to engage in the Merger or enter into the Merger Agreement or constitute a recommendation to the Sierra Special Committee or the Sierra Board in connection with the Merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Sierra Common Stock as to how to vote in connection with the Merger or any other matter (including whether or not any such stockholder should exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such stockholder).

Broadhaven's opinion was reviewed and approved by Broadhaven's Fairness Opinion Committee on September 17, 2021, in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

In connection with the opinion set forth herein, Broadhaven has, among other things:

- Reviewed certain business and audited and unaudited financial information, and other operating data, regarding Barings BDC, Barings and Sierra;
- Reviewed the recent stock price performance and trading activity of the Barings BDC Common Stock, the financial performance of Barings BDC, and a comparison with that of certain other comparable companies the securities of which are publicly traded, and that were, in its judgment, comparable in certain respects to Barings BDC;

In addition, with the Sierra Special Committee’s consent, Broadhaven further relied upon assurances of the management of Barings BDC and Barings and management of Sierra and SIC Advisors that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading and that no material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Barings BDC or Sierra had occurred since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, relating to Barings BDC or Sierra, respectively, made available to Broadhaven. Further, Broadhaven expressed no view as to, or as to the likelihood of achieving, the Barings BDC Projections or the Pro Forma Projections, nor the assumptions on which they were based.

Broadhaven assumed, in all cases at the Sierra Special Committee’s direction and with its consent, that (1) the final executed Merger Agreement did not differ from the Draft Agreement in any respect material to Broadhaven’s analysis or its opinion; (2) the Barings BDC Projections and Pro Forma Projections were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Barings BDC and Barings of the future financial performance of Barings BDC, on a standalone basis and following the acquisition of Sierra, respectively; (3) the proposed Merger would be consummated in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without any waiver, modification, amendment or delay of any terms or conditions in any manner that would be material to Broadhaven’s analysis or its opinion; (4) the revenues and earnings projected in Barings BDC Projections and the Pro Forma Projections would be realized in the amounts and at the times projected in all respects material to Broadhaven’s analysis and its opinion; (5) the proposed Merger would not result in the assumption or other acquisition of any material tax, regulatory or other liabilities (including liabilities of Sierra) beyond those provided for in the Merger Agreement; (6) all applicable judicial, governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents (including but not limited to client consents) required for the proposed Merger would be obtained, and no delays, limitations, conditions (including any required divestitures) or restrictions would be imposed that would have any adverse effect on Sierra, its assets under management, Barings BDC, its assets under management, or the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the proposed Merger in any respect material to Broadhaven's analysis or its opinion; (7) all material information requested from Sierra, SIC Advisors, Barings BDC and Barings during the scope of Broadhaven's engagement were provided to Broadhaven fully and in good faith; (8) the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were and would be accurate and complete in all respects material to Broadhaven's analysis and its opinion; and (9) none of the potential adjustments (if any) to the Cash Consideration or the Share Consideration would be material to Broadhaven's analysis.

Broadhaven acted as financial advisor only and relied upon, without independent verification, the assessments of Sierra and its legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to legal, tax and regulatory matters.

Broadhaven was not requested to make, and did not make, any independent valuation or appraisal of Barings BDC, Sierra or their respective assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance sheet assets and liabilities and including either of Barings BDC's or Sierra's loan portfolio), nor has Broadhaven relied upon any such valuations or appraisals furnished to Broadhaven. Further, Broadhaven did not conduct a physical inspection of Sierra or its assets, and Broadhaven's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Broadhaven as of the date of, the opinion. Broadhaven assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on events occurring after the date of Broadhaven's opinion (regardless of the closing date of the Merger). Broadhaven's opinion speaks only as of the date thereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Broadhaven's opinion does not in any manner address the impact of the proposed Merger on the solvency or viability of Barings BDC or Sierra or the ability of Barings BDC or Sierra to pay their respective obligations as and when they come due.

Broadhaven expressed no view or opinion as to what the value of Barings BDC Common Stock or any other security of Barings BDC would be when issued pursuant to the Merger or otherwise. Further, Broadhaven expressed no view or opinion as to the prices at which any of the respective portfolio investments or assets of Sierra or Barings BDC may be purchased, sold or exchanged, or otherwise be transferable, at any time.

Broadhaven expressed no view or opinion as to the form or structure of the proposed Merger or any related transaction. Broadhaven's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date thereof, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Sierra Common Stock for each share of Sierra Common Stock (other any cancelled shares as set forth in the Merger Agreement) to the extent expressly addressed therein. Further, Broadhaven expressed no opinion as to any other term or aspect of the Merger Agreement or the proposed Merger or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Merger Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the proposed Merger (including, without limitation, the credit support agreement and trading plan provided for in the Agreement or the potential amendment of the investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings). Broadhaven was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion did not in any manner address, the underlying business decision by Sierra to proceed with or effect the proposed Merger or the likelihood of consummation of the proposed Merger. Moreover, Broadhaven's opinion did not address the relative merits of the proposed Merger as compared to any alternative transaction or business strategy in which Sierra would engage, or whether or not such alternatives would be achieved or were available, or the effect of any other transaction which Sierra may consider in the future. Broadhaven's opinion did not address, and Broadhaven expressed no opinion as to (1) the tax, accounting or legal consequences of the proposed Merger or any related transaction; or (2) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the proposed Merger, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration.

In its analyses, Broadhaven considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion, many of which are beyond the control of Sierra. No company, business or transaction reviewed is identical to Sierra, Barings BDC or the Merger. An evaluation of these analyses is not entirely mathematical; rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies, businesses or transactions reviewed. The estimates contained in Broadhaven's analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by its analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold or acquired. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Broadhaven's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Broadhaven was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the Merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger was determined through negotiations between Sierra and Barings BDC, and the decision of Sierra to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee. Broadhaven's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee in their consideration of the Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Sierra Board, the Sierra Special Committee or Sierra's management with respect to the Merger or the consideration to be paid in the Merger.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses provided to the Sierra Board and the Sierra Special Committee in connection with Broadhaven's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Broadhaven did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Broadhaven's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Broadhaven's financial analyses.

Implied Transaction Value for the Merger. For purposes of the financial analysis of Sierra described below, Broadhaven utilized an implied value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock, calculated as the sum of the Cash Consideration of $0.9783641 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock and the value of the Share Consideration of $4.78 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock based on the closing price of Barings BDC Common Stock of $10.63 per share on September 20, 2021. When evaluating the Merger Consideration at Barings BDC's NAV per outstanding share of Barings BDC Common Stock as of June 30, 2021 of $11.39 per share, the implied value of the Share Consideration is $5.12 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock and the total implied value of the Merger Consideration at NAV would be $6.10 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock. Broadhaven noted that the implied value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock represented 106% of Sierra's NAV per share as of June 30, 2021 based on Sierra filings, and a multiple of 30.2x to Sierra's last twelve months net investment income as of June 30, 2021 based on Sierra filings. Broadhaven also noted that the Cash Consideration of $0.9783641 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock represented a multiple of 12.6x of illustrative pro forma management fees payable to Barings, based on applying the management fee rate payable to Barings of 1.25% to Sierra's gross assets, net of cash, as of June 30, 2021, of $637.4 million.

Public Market BDC Comparables Analysis. Using publicly available information, Broadhaven compared the trading ratios of thirty-five publicly traded, externally managed business development companies to the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per outstanding share of Sierra Common Stock. Among other things, Broadhaven compared stock price as a ratio of NAV per share ("P / NAV"), stock price as a multiple of 2021E net investment income based on analyst consensus estimates ("2021E P / NII"), dividend yield based on most recent quarterly dividend annualized ("Annualized MRQ Dividend Yield"), and estimated 2021E operating return on equity ("ROE") based on consensus analyst estimates as of September 20, 2021. To perform this analysis, Broadhaven used market price information and estimates as of September 20, 2021 and reported NAV per share data as of the end of the most recent completed quarterly period available in company filings. The selected companies were the following (the "Selected BDCs"):

- Apollo Investment Corporation
- Ares Capital Corporation
- Bain Capital Specialty Finance, Inc.
- Barings BDC
- New Mountain Finance Corporation
- Oaktree Specialty Lending Corporation

Broadhaven also noted a range of 2021E P / NII per share multiples of 6.1x to 9.4x based on the 25th percentile and 75th percentile of the Selected BDCs implied values of $1.21 to $1.88 per share of Sierra, compared to the value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per share. Broadhaven noted an Annualized MRQ Dividend Yield range of 7.8% to 9.8% based on the 25th percentile and 75th percentile of the Selected BDCs implied values of $1.23 to $1.54 per share of Sierra, compared to the value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per share. Finally, Broadhaven compared Sierra's ROE adjusted for normalized leverage ("Normalized Leverage Run Rate ROE") with the relationship between 2021 ROEs based on analyst consensus estimates and current P / NAV trading levels for Selected BDCs as of September 20, 2021. Sierra's Normalized Leverage Run Rate ROE of 6.6% was estimated based on adjusting Sierra's net debt / equity from 0.13x to 0.97x (industry average) and assuming incremental investment yield of 8%. Other assumptions on the impact of incremental assets are in line with Sierra historical financials for the three-month period ended June 30, 2021. Sierra's Normalized Leverage Run Rate ROE is in line with 2018 operating ROE of 6.7%. These Sierra operating ROE levels implied a trading price per share equal to 77% of Sierra's NAV based on such regression analysis and implied values of $4.18 to $4.20 per share of Sierra, compared to the value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per share. This analysis was prepared for illustrative purposes only as a hypothetical approximation of the levels at which Sierra would publicly trade on a standalone basis. There can be no assurance of the prices, if listed, at which Sierra shares would trade at any time.

The below table summarizes the implied value per share of Sierra based on the 25th percentile and 75th percentile ranges described above, as compared to the value of the Merger Consideration of $5.76 per share of Sierra based on Barings BDC market price of $10.63 per share as of September 20, 2021:

Miscellaneous. Broadhaven acted as financial advisor to the Sierra Special Committee in connection with the proposed Merger and did not act as an advisor to or agent of any other person. Pursuant to the engagement agreement between Sierra and Broadhaven Securities, LLC (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadhaven), Sierra agreed to pay Broadhaven (i) commencing on June 1, 2021, a monthly retainer in the amount of $50,000 (the "Monthly Retainer"); (ii) a fee in the amount of $1,750,000 for rendering its opinion (the "Opinion Fee"); and (iii) a cash fee equal to $5,150,000 in connection with the proposed Merger, payable upon consummation of the Merger, to be reduced by the Opinion Fee and the Monthly Retainers. Sierra also agreed to reimburse Broadhaven, subject to certain caps, for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its engagement (including, without limitation, fees, disbursements and other charges of Broadhaven's legal counsel, Dechert LLP) and to indemnify Broadhaven against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of Broadhaven's engagement or Broadhaven's role in connection therewith. During the two years preceding the date of Broadhaven's opinion, Broadhaven and its affiliates provided financial advisory services to the Sierra Special Committee for which compensation was received. Broadhaven and its affiliates did not provide financial advisory services to Barings BDC, Barings, or its affiliates during the two years preceding the date of Broadhaven's opinion. Broadhaven and its affiliates may in the future provide financial advisory and other services to Barings BDC, Barings, Sierra and Sierra External Adviser and receive compensation for such services.

Financial Forecasts and Estimates

Barings BDC

Barings BDC does not as a matter of course make public forecasts as to future performance, earnings or other prospective financial information, and Barings BDC is especially reluctant to make forecasts for extended periods due to the inherent uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, in August 2021, Barings BDC's management prepared and provided to the Barings BDC Board certain non-public, unaudited prospective financial forecasts regarding (1) Barings BDC's anticipated future operations (without giving effect to the Merger) for the third and fourth quarter of fiscal year 2021 and each of the fiscal years of 2022, 2023 and 2024 (the “Barings BDC Projections”) and (2) Barings BDC’s anticipated future operations (after giving effect to the Merger) for the third and fourth quarter of fiscal year 2021 and each of the fiscal years of 2022, 2023 and 2024 (the “Pro Forma Projections”, and together with the Barings BDC Projections, the “Projections”). At the direction of the Barings BDC Board, the Projections were provided to Wells Fargo Securities for its use and reliance in connection with Wells Fargo Securities’ financial analyses and opinion described above under the section entitled “—Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Barings BDC.” As described below, certain of these unaudited prospective financial forecasts were also provided to Sierra and its financial advisor, Broadhaven, for use and reliance in connection with Broadhaven’s financial analysis and opinion. Barings BDC has included below a summary of the Projections for the purpose of providing Barings BDC stockholders access to certain non-public information considered by the Barings BDC Board for purposes of evaluating the Merger.

The Projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, nor were they prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of financial forecasts or in accordance with GAAP. Barings BDC’s independent registered public accounting firm has not examined, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the accompanying prospective financial information and, accordingly, such independent registered public accounting firm does not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The reports of such independent registered public accounting firm incorporated by reference to this joint proxy statement/prospectus relate only to Barings BDC’s historical financial information. They do not extend to prospective financial information or and should not be read to do so. The Projections included below are not being included to influence your decision whether to vote for the matters described in this proxy statement, but instead because they were provided by Barings BDC to the Barings BDC Board.

While presented with numeric specificity, the Projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, including (but not limited to):

- the performance of investment assets;
- the amount of income;
- the amount of dividend payments;
- the degree and methods of portfolio leverage;
- industry performance and competition;
- general business, economic, market and financial conditions; and
- additional matters specific to Barings BDC’s or Sierra’s business, as applicable.

Many of these assumptions are inherently subjective and uncertain and are beyond the control of Barings BDC. Important factors that may affect actual results and cause uncertainties relating to Barings BDC’s and Sierra’s businesses (including the combined company’s ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over applicable periods), industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other factors discussed in the sections entitled “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” and “Risk Factors.” The Projections also reflect numerous variables, expectations and assumptions available at the time they were prepared as to certain business decisions that are subject to change. As a result, actual results may differ materially from those contained in the Projections. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Projections summarized below will be realized.

The inclusion of a summary of the Projections in this joint proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Barings BDC, Barings, Sierra or their respective affiliates, advisors or other representatives considered the Barings BDC Projections or the Pro Forma Projections to necessarily be predictive of actual future events, and these internal financial forecasts should not be relied upon as such nor should the information contained in the Projections be considered appropriate for other purposes. None of Barings BDC, Barings, Sierra or their respective affiliates, advisors or other representatives can give you any assurance that actual results will not differ materially from the Barings BDC Projections or the Pro Forma Projections and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the Barings BDC Projections or the Pro Forma Projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date these internal financial forecasts were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying these forecasts are shown to be in error.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Since the Projections cover multiple years, such information by its nature becomes subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. Barings BDC does not intend to make publicly available any update or other revision to these internal financial forecasts. None of Barings BDC, Barings, Sierra or their respective officers, directors, affiliates, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation to any stockholder or other person regarding the combined company's ultimate performance compared to the information contained in these internal financial forecasts or that the forecasted results will be achieved. Barings BDC has made no representation to Sierra, in the Merger Agreement or otherwise, concerning these internal financial forecasts. Barings BDC urges all of its stockholders to review Barings BDC's financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a description of Barings BDC's reported financial results.

Barings BDC Projections

The following is a summary of the Barings BDC Projections. The Barings BDC Projections were prepared by Barings BDC's management based solely on the information available to Barings BDC's management at that time. The Barings BDC Forecasts were finalized in August 2021.

	For the Fiscal Quarter Ended		For the Fiscal Year Ended
	9/30/21	12/31/21	12/31/22	12/31/23	12/31/24
Core Net Investment Income per Share	$ 0.23	$ 0.23	$ 0.91	$ 0.92	$ 0.92
Dividend per Share	$ 0.21	$ 0.22	$ 0.88	$ 0.88	$ 0.88

Key Barings BDC Forecast Assumptions

The Barings BDC forecasts were based on numerous variables and assumptions, including, but not limited to, certain material assumptions regarding:

- Management fee assumptions including (1) a base management fee projected at 1.25% throughout the projections, (2) net operating income incentive compensation low hurdle rate set at 8% with a 100% catch up between 8% and 10%, and 20% above 10% (consistent with Barings BDC's current net operating income incentive fee formula).
- Operating assumptions including, but not limited to:
 - The assumption of no changes in portfolio value and as a result there are no unrealized gains nor losses during the periods presented.
 - Investment income is calculated using a 3-year discount margin, which assumes investments have a 3-year average life.
 - The highest net debt-to-equity leverage ratio during the projection period is 1.16x.
 - Non-accrual rates of 2.5% per quarter.
- Barings BDC sometimes obtains equity co-investments, warrants, or other similar forms of investments with debt originations. Although it is generally expected that these provide a positive return to offset potential loan losses, such potential upside is not factored into the projections.
- No additional outside equity raised and no share repurchases by Barings BDC through the projection period.

Pro Forma Projections

The following is a summary of the Pro Forma Projections. The Pro Forma Projections were prepared by Barings BDC's management based solely on the information available to Barings BDC's management at that time. The Pro Forma Projections were finalized in August 2021.

	For the Fiscal Quarter Ended		For the Fiscal Year Ended
	9/30/21	12/31/21	12/31/22	12/31/23	12/31/24
Core Net Investment Income per Share	$ 0.23	$ 0.23	$ 0.97	$ 0.98	$ 0.98
Dividend per Share	$ 0.21	$ 0.22	$ 0.95	$ 0.96	$ 0.96
NAV per Share	$11.41	$11.42	$11.82	$11.84	$11.85

Key Pro Forma Projections Assumptions

The Pro Forma Projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, including, but not limited to, certain material assumptions including:

- The Merger is consummated on February 15, 2022.
- Management fee assumptions including (1) a base management fee projected at 1.25% throughout the projections, (2) net operating income incentive compensation low hurdle rate set at 8.25% with a 100% catch up between 8.25% and 10.31%, and 20% above 10.31% (consistent with Barings BDC's current net operating income incentive fee formula).
- Operating assumptions including, but not limited to:
 - The assumption of no changes in portfolio value and as a result there are no unrealized gains nor losses during the periods presented.
 - Investment income is calculated using a 3-year discount margin, which assumes investments have a 3-year average life.
 - The highest net debt-to-equity leverage ratio during the projection period is 1.42x.
 - Non-accrual rates of 2.5% per quarter.
- Barings BDC sometimes obtains equity co-investments, warrants, or other similar forms of investments with debt originations. Although it is generally expected that these provide a positive return to offset potential loan losses, such potential upside is not factored into the projections.
- Other than shares of Barings BDC Common Stock issued in the First Merger, no additional outside equity raised and no share repurchases by Barings BDC through the projection period.
- The Credit Support Agreement has an initial fair value of $50.0 million.
- 5% of the investment portfolio acquired from Sierra either matures or is repaid per quarter through the projection period.

Terms of Credit Support Agreement

Promptly following the closing of the Merger, Barings and Barings BDC will enter into the Credit Support Agreement under which Barings will agree to provide credit support to Barings BDC in the amount of up to $100.0 million relating to the net cumulative realized and unrealized losses on the acquired Sierra investment portfolio over the next 10 years. A summary of the material terms of the Credit Support Agreement, which are attached as Annex C hereto, is as follows:

- There will be no fee or other payment by Barings BDC to Barings or any of its affiliates in connection with the Credit Support Agreement.
- The effective date of the Credit Support Agreement will be the Closing Date.
- The Credit Support Agreement will cover all of the investments acquired by Barings BDC in the Merger and any investments received by Barings BDC in connection with the restructuring, amendment, extension or other modification (including the issuance of new securities) of any of the investments acquired by Barings BDC in the Merger (collectively, the "Reference Portfolio").

- Barings will have an obligation to provide credit support to Barings BDC in an amount equal to the excess of (1) the aggregate realized and unrealized losses on the Reference Portfolio over (2) the aggregate realized and unrealized gains on the Reference Portfolio, in each case from the Closing Date through the Designated Settlement Date (up to a $100.0 million cap) (such amount, the “Covered Losses”). For purposes of the Credit Support Agreement, “Designated Settlement Date” means the earlier of (1) the date which is ten years from the closing of the Merger and (2) the date on which the entire Reference Portfolio has been realized or written off. No credit support will be required to be made by Barings to Barings BDC under the Credit Support Agreement if the aggregate realized and unrealized gains on the Reference Portfolio exceed realized and unrealized losses of the Reference Portfolio on the Designated Settlement Date.
- Barings will settle any credit support obligation under the Credit Support Agreement as follows. If the Covered Losses are greater than $0.00, then, in satisfaction of Barings’ obligation set forth in the Credit Support Agreement, Barings will irrevocably waive during the Waiver Period (as defined below) (1) the incentive fees payable under the then current investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings (including any incentive fee calculated on an annual basis during the Waiver Period), and (2) in the event that Covered Losses exceed such incentive fees, the base management fees payable under the then current investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings. The “Waiver Period” means the four quarterly measurement periods immediately following the quarter in which the Designated Settlement Date occurs. If the Covered Losses exceed the aggregate amount of incentive fees and base management fees waived by Barings during the Waiver Period, then, on the date on which the last incentive fee or base management fee payment would otherwise be due during the Waiver Period, Barings shall make a cash payment to Barings BDC equal to the positive difference between the Covered Losses and the aggregate amount of incentive fees and base managements fee previously waived by Barings during the Waiver Period.
- The Credit Support Agreement and the rights of Barings BDC thereunder shall automatically terminate if Barings (or an affiliate of Barings) ceases to serve as the investment adviser to Barings BDC or any successor thereto, other than as a result of the voluntary termination by Barings of the then current investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings. In the event of such a voluntary termination by Barings of the then current investment advisory agreement with Barings BDC, Barings will remain obligated to provide the credit support contemplated by the Credit Support Agreement. In the event of a non-voluntary termination of the advisory agreement or its expiration (due to non-renewal by the Barings BDC Board), Barings will have no obligations under the Credit Support Agreement.
- It is expected that the Credit Support Agreement will initially be recorded as an asset on Barings BDC’s financial statements in an amount equal to the value thereof and thereafter such value will fluctuate each quarter based on the change in the payment obligation owed under the Credit Support Agreement. The Credit Support Agreement will be accounted for by Barings BDC as a derivative under ASC 815 and a credit to contributed (paid-in) capital from Barings.

The Credit Support Agreement is intended to give stockholders of the combined company downside protection from net cumulative realized and unrealized losses on the acquired Sierra portfolio and insulate the combined company’s stockholders from potential value volatility and losses in Sierra’s portfolio following the closing of the Merger. Any cash payment from Barings to Barings BDC under the Credit Support Agreement will be excluded from the combined company’s incentive fee calculations under the then current investment advisory agreement between Barings BDC and Barings BDC.

Terms of Second Amended and Restated Investment Advisory Agreement

On September 21, 2021, the Barings BDC Board, including a majority of the Barings BDC Board Independent Directors, approved the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, which will be entered into in connection with and effective upon the closing of the Merger. The New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement will increase the current hurdle rate from 2.0% to 2.0625% per quarter (or from 8.0% to 8.25% annualized) (the “Hurdle Rate Increase”) and therefore will increase the catch-up amount that is used in calculating the income incentive fee to correspond to the Hurdle Rate Increase (the “Catch-Up Amount Increase”). All other terms and provisions of the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, including with respect to the calculation of the other fees payable to Barings, remain unchanged under the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement. In this regard, the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement does not result in any change to the base management fee currently payable to Barings under the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, which is calculated based on Barings BDC's gross assets at an annual rate of 1.25%. A copy of the form of New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement is attached hereto as Annex B.

Barings' recommendation that the Barings BDC Board approve the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement was driven by the Merger, as the Barings BDC Board's approval of the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement is a condition precedent to the closing of the Merger. In determining to approve the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, the Barings BDC Board considered information it had received relating to the shareholder-friendly effects of the Hurdle Rate Increase on Barings BDC's fee structure. The Barings BDC Board considered that, because Barings BDC's net investment income must exceed the hurdle rate before Barings can receive an income incentive fee from Barings BDC, the Hurdle Rate Increase has the effect of reducing the likelihood that Barings will be eligible to receive an income incentive fee from Barings BDC, thus reducing the likelihood that Barings BDC will pay an income incentive fee to Barings. In addition, the Barings BDC Board considered that the Hurdle Rate Increase would provide shareholders of the combined company following the Merger with the highest hurdle rate among BDCs in the industry.

No stockholder approval of the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement by the Barings BDC stockholders or the Sierra stockholders is required. Accordingly, no stockholder vote will be taken with respect to the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement. As approved by the Barings BDC Board, the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, including the Hurdle Rate Increase and the Catch-Up Amount Increase, will become effective upon and subject to the closing of the Merger. If the Merger does not close because, for instance, Barings BDC has not obtained the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval or Sierra has not obtained the Sierra Stockholder Approval, the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, including the current hurdle rate and the current catch-up amount, will continue in effect.

In determining whether to approve, in the case of Barings BDC stockholders, the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal, and in the case of Sierra stockholders, the Merger Proposal, stockholders should carefully consider that the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement, including the Hurdle Rate Increase and the Catch-Up Amount Increase (each as described above), will take effect only upon and subject to the closing of the Merger.

Interests of Certain Persons Related to Sierra in the Merger

Indemnification and Insurance

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, following the Effective Time, Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub will, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless and advance expenses to the current or former directors, officers, managers, or employees, as the case may be, of Sierra, its controlled subsidiaries or affiliates, including but not limited to officers and employees of Sierra's investment advisor, SIC Advisors, to the extent related to the management of Sierra (the "D&O Indemnified Parties"), with respect to all acts or omissions by them in their capacities as such at any time prior to or at the Effective Time (including any matters arising in connection with the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby).

The Merger Agreement requires Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub to maintain for a period of six years following the Effective Time a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy covering the D&O Indemnified Parties or any other person entitled to the benefit under the Merger Agreement, containing terms and conditions no less advantageous as that coverage currently provided by Sierra's current policies, except that Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub are not required to expend more than 300% of the last amount expended by Sierra for its policies.

Barings BDC Board Composition

Upon completion of the Merger, the members of Barings BDC Board will continue as directors of Barings BDC. However, at the Effective Time, the size of the Barings BDC Board will be increased by two and two current independent members of the Sierra Board who will be selected by Barings BDC between the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the completion of the Merger will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Interests of Certain Persons Related to Barings BDC in the Merger

Barings BDC's investment adviser, Barings, has indirect financial interests in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, that are different from, and/or in addition to, the interests of Barings BDC stockholders. For example, the base management fee Barings currently receives under the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement and will receive under the New Barings BDC Advisory Agreement (as further described in "The Merger—Terms of Second Amended and Restated Investment Advisory Agreement") is based on the average value of Barings BDC's gross assets (excluding cash and cash equivalents). Because total assets under management will increase as a result of the Merger, the dollar amount of Barings' base management fee will likely increase as a result of the Merger.

Certain members of the Barings BDC Board, Barings BDC's senior management and members of Barings' investment committee have indirect financial and other interests in Barings, as detailed below. Eric Lloyd, Chairman of the Barings BDC Board and the Chief Executive Officer of Barings BDC, also serves as the Global Head of Private Assets of Barings and as a Managing Director of Barings. David Mihalick, a member of the Barings BDC Board, is also the Head of U.S. Public Fixed Income, Head of U.S. High Yield and a Member of Global High Yield Allocation Committee of Barings. As a result of their roles with Barings, such persons may have indirect financial interests in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, that are different from, and/or in addition to, the interests of Barings BDC stockholders due to Barings' interests described above.

Approvals Required for the Merger

The obligations of Barings BDC and Sierra to complete the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or, where permissible, waiver of certain conditions, including the condition that Barings BDC Common Stock to be issued as part of the Merger Consideration has been approved for listing by the NYSE and that the registration statement on Form N-14 (of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part) has become effective under the Securities Act. Barings BDC and Sierra have agreed to cooperate with each other and use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary actions or non-actions, consents and approvals from governmental authorities or other persons necessary in connection with the consummations of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the making of all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with governmental authorities, if any) and the taking of all commercially reasonable steps as may be reasonably necessary to obtain approval from, or to avoid a proceeding by, any governmental authority or other persons necessary in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the First Merger.

There can be no assurance that such regulatory approvals will be obtained, that such approvals will be received on a timely basis or that such approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that, individually or in the aggregate, would or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations, assets or business of the combined company following completion of the Merger.

Management of the Combined Company Following the Merger

Promptly after the effectiveness of the Merger, Barings BDC shall increase the size of the Barings BDC Board in order to cause two current independent members of the Sierra Board (the "Designees") to be appointed to the Barings BDC Board as Class II directors as of immediately after the effectiveness of the Merger. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each such Designee shall be selected by Barings BDC at its discretion, shall not be an "interested person" of Barings BDC (as such term is defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act) and shall have no current or past relationship with KPMG LLP, Barings BDC's independent public accounting firm, that would cause KPMG LLP not to be deemed independent of Barings BDC under applicable auditor independence standards. The Designees will be chosen by Barings BDC between the date of the Merger Agreement and the Closing Date.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary, which includes certain of material terms of the Merger Agreement, is qualified by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. Barings BDC and Sierra encourage you to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub will be merged with and into Sierra, whereupon the separate existence of Acquisition Sub will cease, and Sierra will continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Barings BDC (the "Surviving Corporation"). Immediately after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will be merged with and into Barings BDC, whereupon the separate existence of the Surviving Corporation will cease, and Barings BDC will continue as the surviving corporation in the Second Merger.

Closing; Completion of the Proposed Merger

Subject to the satisfaction of various conditions to closing (including approval by Barings BDC's and Sierra's stockholders, as described herein), the closing of the First Merger shall take place at 10:00 a.m. (local time) on a date to be specified by Barings BDC and Sierra, but no later than the second business day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the closing set forth in the Merger Agreement, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties to the Merger Agreement.

Concurrently with the closing of the First Merger, Sierra will cause articles of merger with respect to the First Merger (the "Articles of First Merger") to be executed and filed with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland (the "SDAT") as provided under the Maryland General Corporation Law (the "MGCL"). The First Merger shall become effective on the date and time at which the Articles of First Merger have been accepted for record by the SDAT or at such other date and time as is agreed between Barings BDC and Sierra and specified in the Articles of First Merger.

Immediately after the Effective Time and as part of a single integrated transaction with the First Merger, Barings BDC and the Surviving Corporation shall cause articles of merger with respect to the Second Merger (the "Articles of Second Merger") to be executed and filed with the SDAT as provided under the MGCL. The Second Merger shall become effective on the date and time at which the Articles of Second Merger have been accepted for record by the SDAT or at such other date and time as is agreed between Barings BDC and Sierra and specified in the Articles of Second Merger.

Merger Consideration

At the Effective Time, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive (1) $0.9783641 in cash, without interest, payable by Barings and (2) 0.44973 of a validly issued share of Barings BDC Common Stock (as may be adjusted as described below), plus any cash in lieu of fractional shares. The issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock in connection with the First Merger is referred to herein as the "Barings BDC Stock Issuance." At the closing of the First Merger, each Canceled Share shall cease to exist, and no consideration or payment shall be delivered therefor or in respect thereof.

If at any time during the period between the signing of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the number of outstanding shares of Barings BDC Common Stock or Sierra Common Stock occurs as a result of a reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the Exchange Ratio and any similarly dependent items shall be appropriately adjusted to provide the same economic effect as contemplated by the Merger Agreement prior to such event (provided that any such adjustment shall not prevent the Merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code).

No fractional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock will be issued upon the conversion of Sierra Common Stock into Barings BDC Common Stock in connection with the First Merger, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to any Barings BDC Common Stock or to vote or to any other rights of a holder of Barings BDC Common Stock. All fractional shares to which a single record holder of Sierra Common Stock would be otherwise entitled to receive will be aggregated and calculations will be rounded to three decimal places. In lieu of any such fractional shares, each holder of Sierra Common Stock which would otherwise be entitled to such fractional shares will instead be entitled to an amount of cash, without interest, rounded up to the nearest cent, equal to the product of (1) the amount of the fractional interest in a share of Barings BDC Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled and (2) an amount equal to the average of the volume weighted average price per share of Barings BDC Common Stock on the NYSE (as reported by Bloomberg L.P. or, if not reported therein, in another authoritative source mutually selected by Barings BDC and Sierra) on each of the five consecutive trading days ending with the third complete trading day immediately prior to the Closing Date).

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Book-Entry Shares

At the Effective Time, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Canceled Shares) will be automatically converted into and exchanged for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, in all cases without interest. Each such share of Sierra Common Stock will no longer be outstanding and will be automatically cancelled and cease to exist, and the holders of any such share of Sierra Common Stock will thereafter cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except (other than in the case of Canceled Shares) the right to receive the Merger Consideration, to be paid in consideration therefor upon surrender or cancellation (as applicable) of such certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock or share of Sierra Common Stock held in book-entry form, as well as any dividends to which Sierra stockholders become entitled in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

After the Effective Time, there will be no registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of Sierra of shares of Sierra Common Stock that that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If book-entry shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they will be cancelled against delivery of the applicable Merger Consideration.

Letter of Transmittal; Lost Certificates

As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time and in any event not later than the second business day thereafter, Barings BDC will cause an exchange agent that is appointed prior to the closing of the First Merger (the "Exchange Agent") to mail to each holder of record of a stock certificate or book entry shares that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock (1) a letter of transmittal, which will specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates or book-entry shares, if applicable, shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the certificates or book-entry shares, if applicable, to the Exchange Agent and which shall be in the form and have such other provisions as Barings BDC and Sierra may reasonably specify and (2) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for (a) cash in an amount equal to the Cash Consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Sierra Common Stock previously represented by such certificates or book-entry shares, (b) the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock (which shall be in book-entry form unless a certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares that such holder has the right to receive in respect of such certificate or book-entry shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (c) any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement and (d) cash in lieu of fractional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock calculated pursuant to the formula set forth in the Merger Agreement and described above.

Upon surrender of a certificate (or affidavit or loss in lieu thereof) or book-entry share for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with a letter of transmittal duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such certificate or book-entry share shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor, and Barings BDC and, with respect to the Cash Consideration, Barings, shall cause the Exchange Agent to pay and deliver in exchange thereof as promptly as practicable, but in any event within two business days following the later to occur of (a) the Effective Time or (b) the Exchange Agent's receipt of such certificate or book-entry shares (1) cash in an amount equal to the Cash Consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Sierra Common Stock previously represented by such certificates or book-entry shares, (2) the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock (which shall be in book-entry form unless a certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of shares that such holder has the right to receive in respect of such certificate or book-entry shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (3) any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement and (4) cash in lieu of fractional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock calculated pursuant to the formula set forth in the Merger Agreement and described above, and the certificates or book-entry shares so surrendered shall be canceled. The Exchange Agent shall accept such certificates and book-entry upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. No interest shall be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of the book-entry shares on the cash payable upon the surrender of the certificates book-entry shares.

If any certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit of that fact (in a form reasonably satisfactory to Barings BDC and the Exchange Agent) by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Exchange Agent, the posting of a bond as indemnity with respect to such certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver the Merger Consideration to which such person is entitled in respect of such certificate.

The Sierra Board has approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and recommended that Sierra stockholders vote to approve the First Merger (the "Sierra Board Recommendation"). Except as expressly provided by the Merger Agreement, neither the Sierra Board nor any committee thereof will (1) withhold, withdraw or modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withhold, withdraw or modify or qualify the Sierra Board Recommendation, in each case in a manner materially adverse to Barings BDC, (2) fail to include the Sierra Board Recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or (3) approve, determine to be advisable or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, determine to be advisable or recommend, any Competing Proposal (as defined herein under the heading "—Additional Covenants—No Solicitation") (each such action in (1), (2) and (3) being referred to as a "Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change"). Access to Information; Confidentiality

Upon reasonable notice, each of Sierra and Barings BDC shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) afford reasonable access to the other's representatives, in a manner not disruptive to the operations of the business of such party, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice throughout the period prior to the closing of the Merger (or until the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement), to its and its subsidiaries properties, books and records and personnel and, during such period, shall (and shall cause each of its subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to such representatives all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of such party and its subsidiaries as may reasonably be requested.

No Solicitation

Sierra has agreed to, and to cause its subsidiaries and instruct its representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing solicitation of, or discussions or negotiations with, any third party relating to any Competing Proposal or any inquiry, discussion, offer or request that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Competing Proposal (an "Inquiry").

the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement from any third party, Sierra and its representatives may contact such third party to clarify the terms and conditions thereof. In addition, Sierra and the Sierra Board and its representatives may engage or participate in negotiations or substantive discussions with, or furnish any information and other access, to any third party making such Competing Proposal and its representatives, affiliates and prospective debt and equity financing sources only where:

- such Competing Proposal either constitutes a Superior Proposal or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and a failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Sierra directors' duties under applicable law;
- prior to furnishing any material non-public information concerning Sierra and its subsidiaries, Sierra receives from such person, to the extent such person is not already subject to a confidentiality agreement with Sierra, a confidentiality agreement containing confidentiality terms that are not materially less favorable in the aggregate to Sierra than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Sierra and Barings BDC (an "Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement"); and
- Sierra shall (subject to the terms of any confidentiality agreement existing prior to the date of the Merger Agreement) promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) provide or make available to Barings BDC any non-public information concerning it or its subsidiaries that it provides to any third party given such access was not previously made available to Barings BDC and its representatives.

Until the closing of the Merger (or the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement), Sierra shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable, and in any event within two business days, of receiving and Inquiry or Competing Proposal, notify Barings BDC of such Inquiry or Competing Proposal (including the identity of the person (or group of persons) making such Inquiry or Competing Proposal and, if applicable, the material terms and conditions of any such Competing Proposal and copies of any written materials received by Sierra in connection with any of the foregoing.

Sierra will also keep Barings BDC informed on a reasonably current basis of the status and material terms and conditions (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such Inquiry or Competing Proposal.

The Sierra Board shall not effect a Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change and shall not approve or recommend, or allow Sierra or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, or definitive merger or similar agreement with respect to any Competing Proposal (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement), and neither the Sierra Board nor any committee thereof will resolve, agree or publicly propose to take any such actions, except as follows. At any time prior to the receipt of the Sierra Stockholder Approval, the Sierra Board may (A) effect a Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change if, upon the occurrence of an Intervening Event, the Sierra Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Sierra directors' duties under applicable law or (B) authorize, adopt or approve a Superior Proposal and cause or permit Sierra to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal (an "Alternative Acquisition Agreement") if Sierra has received a bona fide written Competing Proposal that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement that the Sierra Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside professional advisors, constitutes a Superior Proposal, provided in the case of both clause (A) and (B) above that:

- Sierra shall have provided prior written notice to Barings BDC, at least three business days in advance, that it intends to effect a Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change and/or terminate the Merger Agreement, which notice shall specify in reasonable detail the basis for the Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change and/or termination and, in the case of a Superior Proposal, the identity of the person or group of persons making such Superior Proposal and the material terms and conditions thereof and copies of the proposed transaction documents, or (B) in the case of an Intervening Event, reasonable detail regarding the Intervening Event;
- after providing such notice and prior to effecting such Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change and/or terminating the Merger Agreement, Sierra shall have negotiated, and shall have caused its representatives to be available to negotiate, with Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub in good faith (to the extent Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub desire to negotiate) during such three business day period to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement as would obviate the need for Sierra to effect the Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change and/or terminate the Merger Agreement (provided that any change to the financial or other material terms of the Superior Proposal giving rise to this notice shall require a new notice and a new two business day period); and

- following the end of such negotiation period, the Sierra Board shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and, with respect to clause (A) below, its financial advisor, taking into account any changes to the Merger Agreement proposed in writing by Barings BDC in response to the notice of the Sierra Adverse Recommendation and/or notice of a Superior Proposal, that (A) the Superior Proposal giving rise to the notice of Superior Proposal continues to be a Superior Proposal or (B) in the case of an Intervening Event, the failure of the Sierra Board to effect a Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change would continue to be inconsistent with Sierra's directors' duties under applicable law.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement:

- "Competing Proposal" means any inquiry, proposal, discussions, negotiations or offer from any person or group (as defined in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of persons (other than Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub or any affiliate thereof) (1) with respect to a merger, consolidation, tender offer, exchange offer, stock acquisition, asset acquisition, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture or similar transaction involving Sierra or any of its subsidiaries, (2) relating to any direct or indirect acquisition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of (a) assets or businesses (including any mortgage, pledge or similar disposition thereof but excluding any bona fide financing transaction) that constitute or represent, or would constitute or represent if such transaction is consummated, 20% or more of the total assets, net revenue or net income of Sierra and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, for the 12 month period ending on the last day of Sierra's then most recently completed fiscal quarter, or (b) 20% or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, Sierra or in any of its subsidiaries, in each case other than the Merger, or (3) to replace SIC Advisors as Sierra's investment adviser and become the primary investment adviser to Sierra (other than in connection with a transaction covered in the foregoing clause (1) or (2)), whether or not such change is coupled with a capital infusion into Sierra, a purchase of shares of Sierra or a commitment to provide credit support to Sierra (or an undertaking to make such a capital infusion, purchase of shares or to provide credit support).
- "Superior Proposal" means an unsolicited Competing Proposal (with all percentages in the definition of Competing Proposal increased to 50%) made by a third party that did not result from a breach of the no solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement that the Sierra Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal advisors, and considering such factors as the Sierra Board considers to be appropriate, (1) is more favorable from a financial point of view to Sierra stockholders than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including any revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement committed to by Barings BDC to Sierra in writing in response to such Competing Proposal made to Sierra under the Merger Agreement), (2) is reasonably likely to be consummated (taking into account, among other things, legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal, including any conditions and the identity of the offeror) on a timely basis, and (3) in respect of which any financing required has been determined by the Sierra Board to be reasonably likely to be obtained as evidenced by a written commitment of a reputable financing source.
- "Intervening Event" means a material event, occurrence, development or change in circumstances with respect to Sierra and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that occurred or arose after the date of the Merger Agreement, which was unknown to, nor reasonably foreseeable by, the Sierra Board as of the date of the Merger Agreement and becomes known to or by the Sierra Board prior to the time the Sierra Stockholder Approval is obtained; provided, however, that the receipt, existence of or terms of an Inquiry or Competing Proposal or any matter relating thereto or consequence thereof will not constitute or be considered in determining whether there has been, an Intervening Event.

Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance

Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub have agreed that all rights to exculpation and indemnification for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the closing of the Merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the closing of the Merger (including any matters arising in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), existing as of the date of the Merger Agreement in favor of the current or former directors, officers, managers, or employees, as the case may be, of Sierra, its subsidiaries or affiliates, including, but not limited to officers and employees of SIC Advisors, Sierra's investment adviser, to the extent related to the management of Sierra (the "D&O Indemnified Parties") as provided in their respective organizational documents or any contract as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement shall continue in full force and effect Barings BDC has also agreed to:

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- indemnify and hold harmless each D&O Indemnified Party against and from any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, liabilities and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any claim, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to the extent such claim, proceeding or investigation arises out of or pertains to: (1) any alleged action or omission in such D&O Indemnified Party's capacity as a director, officer or employee of Sierra, its investment adviser or any of its subsidiaries prior to the closing of the Merger, or (2) the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby; and
- pay in advance of the final disposition of any such claim, proceeding or investigation the expenses (including attorneys' fees) of such D&O Indemnified Party upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such D&O Indemnified Party to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such D&O Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified by applicable law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Merger Agreement, Barings BDC will not settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment or otherwise seek termination with respect to any claim, proceeding or investigation, unless such settlement, compromise, consent or termination includes an unconditional release of all of the D&O Indemnified Parties covered by the claim, proceeding or investigation from all liability arising out of such claim, proceeding or investigation.

Barings BDC has agreed to, and will cause its subsidiaries to purchase and maintain in full force and effect, a six year "tail" policy, on terms and conditions no less advantageous to the D&O Indemnified Parties than the existing directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary insurance maintained by Sierra as of the date of the Merger Agreement, covering claims arising from facts, events, acts or omissions that occurred at or prior to the closing of the Merger, including the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (provided that Barings BDC will not be required to pay a total premium for such tail policy in excess of 300% of the annual premium currently paid by Sierra for such insurance, but in such case shall purchase as much of such coverage as possible for such amount).

Notification of Certain Matters

Subject to applicable law, Sierra will give prompt written notice to Barings BDC, and Barings BDC will give prompt written notice to Sierra, of (1) any notice or other communication received by such party from any governmental authority in connection with the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or from any person alleging that the consent of such person is or may be required in connection with the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, if the subject matter of such communication or the failure of such party to obtain such consent could be material to Sierra, the Surviving Corporation or Barings BDC, and (2) any claims, investigations or proceedings commenced or, to such party's knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting such party or any of its subsidiaries which relate to the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Sierra may, without Barings BDC's or Acquisition Sub's consent, communicate to its employees, portfolio companies, customers, suppliers and consultants in a manner consistent with prior communications of Sierra or in a manner that is consistent with a communications plan previously agreed to by Barings BDC and Sierra.

No Control of the Other Party's Business

Nothing contained in the Merger Agreement is intended to give Barings BDC or Sierra, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the other party or its subsidiaries prior to the closing of the Merger. Prior to the closing of the Merger, each of Barings BDC and Sierra will exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its subsidiaries' operations.

Prior to the closing of the Merger, each of Barings BDC and Sierra will take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions or deemed dispositions of Sierra Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Sierra Common Stock) or acquisitions or deemed acquisitions of Barings BDC Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Barings BDC Common Stock) resulting from the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to Sierra or will become subject to such reporting requirements with respect to Barings BDC, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Each of Sierra, Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, including by not taking any action that such party knows is reasonably likely to prevent such qualification. Each of Sierra, Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub shall report the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement in a manner consistent with the intended tax treatment of the Merger.

During the period from the date of the Merger Agreement to the closing of the Merger, each of Barings BDC and Sierra will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the other party, take any action, or knowingly fail to take any action, which action or failure to act is reasonably likely to cause such party to fail to qualify as a RIC.

Each of Sierra and Barings BDC will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the tax opinion described in the fourth bullet point under the heading "—Conditions to Closing the First Merger—Conditions to the Obligation of Sierra to Effect the First Merger," including making representations and covenants requested by tax counsel in order to render such tax opinion.

Takeover Statutes and Provisions

None of Sierra, Barings BDC or the Acquisition Sub will take any action that would cause the First Merger and related transactions to be subject to requirements imposed by any takeover statutes. Each of Sierra and Barings BDC will take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the First Merger from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable takeover statute, as now or hereafter in effect.

Sierra agreed that the Sierra Board will, consistent with the requirements of Section 15 of the Investment Company Act, take all commercially reasonable steps to ensure the effectiveness of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement at all times between the date of the Merger Agreement and the earlier of the Effective Time and the date, if any, on which the Merger Agreement is validly terminated. In addition, the Merger Agreement contemplates that (a) the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement might be automatically terminated as a result of its "assignment" (as defined in the Investment Company Act) and (b) the Sierra Board may determine in good faith, after consultation with Barings, to terminate the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement or, if applicable, an Interim Investment Advisory Agreement (as defined below) because SIC Advisors is no longer performing its duties and obligations under the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement or such Interim Investment Advisory Agreement. In either event, the Sierra Board, subject to its fiduciary obligations under applicable law, will approve an interim investment advisory agreement (an "Interim Investment Advisory Agreement") for Sierra with, in the case of clause (a) above, SIC Advisors or, in the case of clause (b) above, such other entity chosen in good faith by the Sierra Board (subject to the consent of Barings, such consent not to be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld) in accordance with Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act, to become effective immediately following the event resulting in the "assignment" or termination of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement (or as soon as practicable thereafter) and remain in effect until the earlier of the Effective Time or 150 days after the effective date of the termination of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement. An Interim Investment Advisory Agreement will contain terms and conditions that are, taken as a whole, substantially the same in all material respects as the terms and conditions of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement (except for changes thereto to the extent necessary to comply with Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act). Frustration of Closing Conditions

No party to the Merger Agreement may rely either as a basis for not consummating the First Merger any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or terminating the Merger Agreement and abandoning the First Merger on the failure of any condition set forth in the Merger Agreement to be satisfied if such failure was primarily caused by such party's failure to perform or comply with any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the Merger, whether before or after the Sierra Stockholder Approval or Barings BDC Stockholder Approval, is obtained (except as otherwise expressly noted), as follows:

- (1) by mutual written consent of Barings BDC and Sierra;
- (2) by either Barings BDC or Sierra, if:
 - (a) the First Merger shall not have been consummated on or before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on March 31, 2022 (the "Termination Date");
 - (b) prior to the closing of the Merger, any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction shall have promulgated, issued or entered any law or order or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and such law or order or other action shall have become final and non-appealable; provided, that the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement shall have used its reasonable best efforts to remove such law or order or other action; or
 - (c) (i) the Sierra Special Meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) shall have been duly held and completed and the Sierra Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at such special meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) at which a vote on the approval of the First Merger is taken and (ii) the Barings BDC Special Meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) shall have been duly held and completed and the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at such special meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) at which a vote on the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal and the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal is taken.

provided, however, that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to clauses (2)(a) or (2)(b) above will not be available to any party that has breached in any material respect its obligations in any manner that has been the primary cause of or resulted in the failure to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

- (3) by Sierra, if:
 - (a) Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub or Barings breaches or fails to perform any of their respective representations, warranties and covenants under the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would result in the failure to be satisfied of a condition of each party to the Merger Agreement or a condition to the obligations of Sierra, and such breach is not curable prior to the Termination Date or if curable on or before the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) the date that is 30 days following Sierra's delivery of written notice to Barings BDC of such breach or failure to perform; provided, however, that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to this clause will not be available to Sierra if it is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants under the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions of each party or conditions of the obligations of Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub to effect the First Merger to be satisfied or if Barings BDC's breach of the Merger Agreement has been primarily cause by a breach of the Merger Agreement by Sierra; or
 - (b) prior to obtaining the Sierra Stockholder Approval, in order to substantially concurrently enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement providing for the consummation of a Superior Proposal to the extent permitted by, and subject to the applicable terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement (provided that such right to terminate shall only apply if (x) the proposal did not result from Sierra's breach of any of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement and

(y) prior to or simultaneously with such termination, Sierra pays Barings BDC a termination fee of $11.0 million (the "Sierra Termination Fee"), plus the expenses of Barings BDC and Barings in an amount not to exceed $2.0 million); or

(4) by Barings BDC, if:

- (a) Sierra breaches or fails to perform its representations, warranties and covenants under the Merger Agreement, which breach or failure to perform would result in the failure to be satisfied of a condition of each party to the Merger Agreement or a condition to the obligations of Barings BDC and Acquisition Sub, and such breach is not curable prior to the Termination Date or if curable on or before the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) the date that is 30 days following the Barings BDC's delivery of written notice to Sierra of such breach or failure to perform; provided, however, that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to this clause will not be available to Barings BDC if Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub or Barings is then in material breach of any of its respective representations, warranties or covenants under the Merger Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions of each party or conditions of the obligations of Sierra to effect the Merger to be satisfied or if Barings BDC's breach of the Merger Agreement has been primarily cause by a breach of the Merger Agreement by Sierra; or
- (b) at any time prior to the receipt of Sierra Stockholder Approval, if (w) the Sierra Board (or any committee thereof) shall have made a Sierra Adverse Recommendation Change, (x) Sierra or any of its subsidiaries has entered into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement or a Competing Agreement (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement), (y) Sierra shall have willfully breached its obligations under the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, and such breach remains uncured for five business days following the written notice thereof by Barings BDC to Sierra or (z) a Competing Proposal structured as a tender offer for Sierra Common Stock is commenced and, within 10 business days after the public announcement thereof, Sierra has not issued a public statement (and filed a Schedule 14D-9) reaffirming the Sierra Board Recommendation and recommending that the stockholders of Sierra reject such Competing Proposal, provided that Barings BDC's right to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to this clause will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the 10th business day following the date on which Barings BDC became aware of such right to terminate.

Termination Fees and Expenses

The Merger Agreement provides for the payment by Sierra to Barings BDC the Sierra Termination Fee plus the expenses of Barings BDC and Barings in an amount not to exceed $2.0 million if, and only if:

- Barings BDC terminates the Merger Agreement because of Sierra's willful breach of the Merger Agreement or either Barings BDC or Sierra terminates the Merger Agreement because the Sierra Stockholder Vote was not obtained, and, in either case, (x) prior to such termination (or the Sierra Special Meeting in the case of termination due to a failure to achieve the Sierra Stockholder Vote), a Competing Proposal that has been made after the date of the Merger Agreement shall have been publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Sierra Board and not withdrawn prior to such date and (y) within 12 months after such termination, Sierra enters into a definitive acquisition agreement with respect to any Competing Proposal with a third party, and such Competing Proposal is subsequently consummated (regardless of whether such consummation happens prior to or following such 12-month period) (provided, however, that for this purpose only, the references to "20%" in the definition of Competing Proposal shall be deemed to be references to "50%");
- Sierra terminates the Merger Agreement to enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement in respect of a Superior Proposal; or
- Barings BDC terminates the Merger Agreement under the circumstances described in (4)(b) above under "—Termination of the Merger Agreement."

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Except in cases involving fraud, Barings BDC's right to receive payment from Sierra of the Sierra Termination Fee and expenses constitutes the sole and exclusive monetary remedy of Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub and Barings against Sierra and its subsidiaries and any of their respective former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives or assignees for all losses and damages suffered as a result of the failure of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform under the Merger Agreement.

Effect of Termination

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Merger abandoned, written notice thereof shall be given by the terminating party to the other party, specifying the provisions of the Merger Agreement pursuant to which such termination is made, and the Merger Agreement shall become null and void and of no effect without liability on the part of any party to the Merger Agreement, and all rights and obligations of any party to the Merger Agreement shall cease, except that (1) each party to the Merger Agreement will remain liable to the others for any damages incurred arising out of any willful breach of the Merger Agreement (prior to such termination) or fraud (2) the confidentiality agreement by and between Barings BDC and Sierra and certain designated provisions of the Merger Agreement will survive the termination, including, but not limited to, the termination and termination fee provisions and provisions with respect to the payment of expenses.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Subject to applicable law, each of the parties to the Merger Agreement may modify or amend the Merger Agreement by written agreement executed and delivered by the duly authorized officers of each of the respective parties, except that no amendment shall be made to the Merger Agreement after the closing of the Merger. However, after receipt of the Sierra Stockholder Approval or the Barings BDC Stockholder Approval, if any such amendment shall by applicable law require further approval of the stockholders of Sierra or Barings BDC, as applicable, the effectiveness of such amendment shall be subject to the approval of the applicable stockholders.

Extension; Waiver

The conditions to each of the parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are for the sole benefit of such party and may be waived by such party (without the approval of the stockholders of Sierra) in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable law.

At any time prior to the closing of the Merger, Sierra and Barings BDC may (1) waive or extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub or Barings, in the case of Sierra, or Sierra, in the case of Barings BDC, or (2) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the Merger Agreement on the part of Barings BDC, Acquisition Sub or Barings, in the case of Sierra, or Sierra, in the case of Barings BDC.

Expenses; Transfer Taxes

In general, each party to the Merger Agreement shall be responsible for paying the expenses incurred by it in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, provided that each of Barings BDC and Sierra shall each be responsible for 50% of all filing fees in connection with the filing of any required notices under the HSR Act or other antitrust laws.

Other than taxes imposed upon holders of Sierra Common Stock, Barings BDC will pay all (1) transfer, stamp and documentary taxes or fees and (2) sales, use, gains, real property transfer and other similar taxes or fees arising out of or in connection with the Merger Agreement.

Governing Law; Jurisdiction

The Merger Agreement is governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland applicable to contracts made and performed entirely within such state, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles that would cause the application of the laws of another jurisdiction, except to the extent governed by the Investment Company Act, in which case the latter shall control.

Each of the parties to the Merger Agreement have agreed that any proceeding brought by any party to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement shall be brought in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland, or if jurisdiction over the matter is vested exclusively in federal courts, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, and the appellate courts to which orders and judgments therefore may be appealed.

Specific Performance

The Merger Agreement provides that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any party to the Merger Agreement does not perform the provisions of the Merger Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of it thereunder to consummate the Merger Agreement) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breach such provisions. Accordingly, each of the parties to the Merger Agreement have agreed that the others shall be entitled to an injunction, specific performance and other equity relief to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement to specifically enforce the terms and provisions thereof (without proof of actual damages), in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or equity, without providing any bond or other security.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT OF THE MERGER

Barings BDC will account for the Merger as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805-50, Business Combinations—Related Issues. Under asset acquisition accounting, acquiring assets in groups not only requires ascertaining the cost of the asset (or net assets), but also allocating that cost to the individual assets (or individual assets and liabilities) that make up the group. Per ASC 805-50-30-1, the acquired assets (as a group) are recognized based on their cost to the acquiring entity, which generally includes transaction costs of the asset acquisition, and no gain or loss is recognized unless the fair value of noncash assets given as consideration differs from the assets carrying amounts on the acquiring entity's records. ASC 805-50-30-2 goes on to say asset acquisitions in which the consideration given is cash are measured by the amount of cash paid. However, if the consideration given is not in the form of cash (that is, in the form of noncash assets, liabilities incurred, or equity interests issued), measurement is based on the cost to the acquiring entity or the fair value of the assets (or net assets) acquired, whichever is more clearly evident and, thus, more reliably measured.

The cost of the group of assets acquired in an asset acquisition is allocated to the individual assets acquired or liabilities assumed based on their relative fair values of net identifiable assets acquired other than "non-qualifying" assets (for example cash) and does not give rise to goodwill.

If the fair value of the net assets to be acquired exceeds the fair value of the Share Consideration to be paid by Barings BDC, then Barings BDC would recognize a deemed contribution from Barings in an amount up to approximately $100.0 million. If the fair value of net assets to be acquired exceeds the fair value of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Barings BDC and by Barings, then Barings BDC would also recognize a purchase accounting gain. Alternatively, if the fair value of the net assets to be acquired is less than the fair value of the portion of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Barings BDC, then Barings BDC would recognize a purchase accounting loss. Barings BDC expects any potential gain or loss would be classified as unrealized on the statement of operations until the underlying assets are sold.

The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the Merger is completed and after completion of a final analysis to determine the estimated relative fair values of the acquired assets and liabilities. Increases or decreases in the estimated fair values of the net assets, commitments, and other items of Sierra as compared to the information shown in this joint proxy statement/prospectus may occur. Accordingly, the final adjustments may be materially different from the pro forma adjustments presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

CERTAIN MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

Scope of Discussion

The following is a general discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to holders of Sierra Common Stock that exchange their shares of Sierra Common Stock for the Merger Consideration and of the payment of any Sierra Tax Dividend to holders of Sierra Common Stock. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax consequences. The effects of other U.S. federal tax laws, such as estate and gift tax laws, and any applicable state, local or non-U.S. tax laws are not discussed.

This discussion is based on the Code, Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions, and published rulings and administrative pronouncements of the IRS, in each case in effect as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. These authorities may change or be subject to differing interpretations, and any such change or differing interpretation may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of Sierra Common Stock. Neither Barings BDC nor Sierra has sought any rulings from the IRS or an opinion from counsel regarding the matters discussed below. In addition, no legal opinion regarding the matters discussed below is a condition precedent to closing under the Merger Agreement. There can be no assurance the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position to that discussed below regarding the tax consequences of the Merger or any related transactions.

This discussion is limited to Sierra stockholders that hold Sierra Common Stock as a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a stockholder's particular circumstances. In addition, it does not address consequences relevant to stockholders subject to special rules, including, without limitation:

- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- persons subject to the alternative minimum tax;
- persons holding Sierra Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a conversion transaction or other integrated investment;
- banks, insurance companies, and other financial institutions;
- brokers, dealers or traders in securities;
- "controlled foreign corporations," "passive foreign investment companies," and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- partnerships or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and investors therein);
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- persons subject to the three-year holding period rule in Section 1061 of the Code;
- persons deemed to sell Sierra Common Stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;
- persons who hold or receive Sierra Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any employee stock option or otherwise as compensation; and
- tax-qualified retirement plans.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Sierra Common Stock, the tax treatment of a partner will depend on the status of the partner, the activities of the partnership, and certain determinations made at the partner level. If you are a partner of a partnership holding Sierra Common Stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. HOLDERS OF SIERRA COMMON STOCK ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING AN INVESTMENT IN BARINGS BDC COMMON STOCK, ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.

Qualification of the Merger as a Reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code

Sierra and Barings BDC intend for the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, based on certain factual assumptions, including that the fair market value of the Barings BDC Common Stock received by Sierra stockholders in the Merger will equal at least 40% of the aggregate consideration in the Merger.

No ruling has been, or will be, sought by Barings BDC or Sierra from the IRS with respect to the Merger and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the qualification of the Merger as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the Merger does not qualify as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, then a U.S. stockholder (as defined below) would generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of Sierra Common Stock for Barings BDC Common Stock and cash in the Merger (with potential ordinary income treatment, as noted below under the heading “—U.S. Stockholders,” for the Cash Consideration). The remainder of this discussion assumes that the Merger qualifies as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, Goodwin Procter LLP has delivered an opinion to Barings BDC to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code based on, among other things, certain facts, representations and covenants, each made by officers of Barings BDC and Sierra, and assumptions, all of which must be consistent with the state of facts existing at the time of the Merger. If any of these facts, representations, covenants and assumptions are, or become, inaccurate or incomplete, such opinion may be invalid, and the conclusions reached therein could be jeopardized. An opinion of counsel represents counsel’s best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or the courts, which may not agree with the conclusions set forth in such opinion.

Certain Tax Consequences if the Merger Qualifies as a Reorganization

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. stockholder” is any beneficial owner of Sierra Common Stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust that (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and the control of one or more “United States persons” (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code), or (2) has a valid election in effect to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A “non-U.S. stockholder” is any beneficial owner of Sierra Common Stock that is neither a U.S. stockholder nor an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

As discussed previously in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, upon completion of the Merger, each Sierra stockholder will receive, in exchange for each share of Sierra Common Stock, the Merger Consideration consisting of (1) the Share Consideration and (2) the Cash Consideration.

U.S. Stockholders

If the Merger qualifies as a reorganization, then generally, and subject to the discussion herein, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- Each U.S. stockholder will recognize gains, but not losses, in the Merger, equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (and excluding cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (including cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and the fair market value of the Barings BDC

Common Stock received in the Merger (determined at the Effective Time) over (b) the U.S. stockholder's tax basis in the shares of Sierra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger. A U.S. stockholder also will generally recognize gain or loss attributable to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the portion of the basis of the Sierra Common Stock surrendered that is allocable to the fractional share. A Sierra Tax Dividend should not be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as part of the consideration paid for shares of Sierra Common Stock in the Merger but instead should be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a distribution with respect to the Sierra Common Stock. See the discussion below under the heading "—Sierra's Pre-Merger Income and Gains, Sierra Tax Dividends and Sierra Deemed Distributions";

- A U.S. stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock received in the Merger (including any fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock for which cash is received) will be the same as his, her or its aggregate tax basis in the Sierra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger, increased by the amount of gains recognized (excluding any gains attributable to the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock) and decreased by the amount of cash received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock); and
- The holding period of the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock received in the Merger (including any fractional share of Barings BDC Common Stock for which cash is received) by a U.S. stockholder will include the holding period of the shares of Sierra Common Stock that he, she or it surrendered.

The tax treatment of the receipt of the Cash Consideration that U.S. stockholders would receive in the Merger is unclear because there is limited authority addressing the tax consequences of the receipt of merger consideration from a party other than the acquiror. If the Cash Consideration is treated as additional merger consideration received in exchange for Sierra Common Stock, such payment would be treated as part of the total consideration received in exchange for the Sierra Common Stock and treated in the manner described above with respect to other cash consideration provided in the Merger or simply as cash received in a taxable sale or exchange of shares. It is possible, however, that the Cash Consideration may be treated as ordinary income, and not as received in exchange for a U.S. stockholder's Sierra Common Stock.

Sierra believes that its U.S. stockholders have a reasonable basis upon which to take a position that the Cash Consideration should be treated as additional merger consideration, and, assuming such position is respected, any gain realized by a U.S. stockholder on the receipt of the Cash Consideration would be a capital gain if the shares of Sierra Common Stock were held by such U.S. stockholder as a capital asset. No assurances can be given, however, that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a contrary position under which the Cash Consideration could be subject to taxation as ordinary income. Barings BDC and Barings do not express any position on how the U.S. stockholders of Sierra should treat the Cash Consideration. Following the closing, the Cash Consideration will be reported to U.S. stockholders on a Form 1099-MISC.

Subject to the discussion below under "— Potential Treatment of Cash as a Dividend," any gains recognized in the Merger generally will be long-term capital gains if the U.S. stockholder's holding period for the shares of Sierra Common Stock surrendered is more than one year at the Effective Time. Each U.S. stockholder is urged to consult his, her or its tax advisor about the application of these rules. The amount of gains (or non-recognized losses) must be computed separately for each block of Sierra Common Stock if those blocks were purchased at different prices or at different times, and a loss realized on one block of stock may not be used to offset gains realized on another block of stock. If a U.S. stockholder acquired different blocks of shares of Sierra Common Stock at different prices or at different times, the U.S. stockholder is urged to consult his, her or its tax advisor about the calculation of gains (or non-recognized losses) for different blocks of Sierra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger and the identification of the tax basis and holding periods of the particular shares of Barings BDC Common Stock received in the Merger.

Potential Treatment of Cash as a Dividend

It is possible that all or part of the gains that a U.S. stockholder recognizes in the Merger could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gains if (1) the U.S. stockholder is a significant stockholder of Barings BDC or (2) the U.S. stockholder's percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in Barings BDC after the Merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely shares of Barings BDC Common Stock rather than a combination of cash and shares in the Merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock by such holder, ownership of Barings BDC Common Stock by a person related to such holder or a share repurchase by Barings BDC from other Barings BDC stockholders. The IRS has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a stockholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gains as opposed to dividend treatment.

Net Investment Income Tax on Certain Investment Income

Certain non-corporate U.S. stockholders whose income exceeds certain thresholds may also be subject to a 3.8% tax on their “net investment income” up to the amount of such excess. Gain or loss recognized in the Merger will be includable in a U.S. stockholder’s net investment income for purposes of this tax. Non-corporate U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the possible effect of this tax.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

U.S. stockholders may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments they receive in the Merger, including cash in lieu of fractional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. Payments will not be subject to backup withholding if the U.S. stockholder (i) is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact or (ii) provides Barings BDC or the transfer agent, as appropriate, with a properly completed IRS Form W-9 (or its successor form) certifying that such U.S. stockholder is a U.S. person, the taxpayer identification number provided is correct and such U.S. stockholder is not subject to backup withholding. The taxpayer identification number of an individual is his or her Social Security number. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will generally be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. stockholder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the U.S. stockholder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Stockholders

If the Merger qualifies as a reorganization, then generally, and subject to the discussion herein, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, gains recognized by a non-U.S. stockholder upon the exchange of Sierra Common Stock for the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Merger generally should not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

- the gains are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of such non-U.S. stockholder (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the non-U.S. stockholder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such gains are attributable), in which case the non-U.S. stockholder generally would be subject to tax on such gains in the same manner as a U.S. stockholder and, if the non-U.S. stockholder is a foreign corporation, such corporation may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty);
- the non-U.S. stockholder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the Merger and certain other requirements are met, in which case the non-U.S. stockholder generally would be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty), which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the non-U.S. stockholder, if any, provided the non-U.S. stockholder has timely filed U.S. federal income tax returns with respect to such losses; or
- Sierra is or has been a “United States real property holding corporation” for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time during the shorter of (1) the five-year period ending on the date of the Merger and (2) the non-U.S. stockholder’s holding period in the Sierra Common Stock, and the non-U.S. stockholder owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) more than 5% of Sierra’s outstanding common stock at any time during the applicable period.

As discussed above under the heading “—U.S. Stockholders,” the tax treatment of the receipt of the Cash Consideration is not entirely clear. Although it is not free from doubt, Sierra, Barings and Barings BDC believe that non-U.S. stockholders that do not otherwise hold their shares of Sierra Common Stock in connection with a

U.S. trade or business and are not otherwise subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to their shares of Sierra Common Stock should not be subject to U.S. federal income tax, nor be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax, with respect to the payment and receipt of the Cash Consideration; however, none of Sierra, Barings and Barings BDC can be certain that the paying agent or other applicable withholding agent would not take the position that it is required to withhold U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or, if applicable, a reduced rate under a tax treaty) with respect to any Cash Consideration paid to such a non-U.S. stockholder. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund or credit may be obtainable, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. Non-U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of U.S. federal income tax and withholding to the Cash Consideration.

If the Cash Consideration received by a non-U.S. stockholder is effectively connected with the non-U.S. stockholder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States, the non-U.S. stockholder will be exempt from the potential U.S. federal withholding tax described immediately above. To claim the exemption, the non-U.S. stockholder must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a valid IRS Form W-8ECI, certifying that the Cash Consideration is effectively connected with the non-U.S. stockholder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States. Any such effectively connected income will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated rates. A non-U.S. stockholder that is a corporation may also be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected income, as adjusted for certain items. Non-U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

A non-U.S. stockholder will be subject to information reporting and, in certain circumstances, backup withholding with respect to the Merger Consideration received by such holder pursuant to the Merger, unless such non-U.S. stockholder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a non-U.S. stockholder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person as defined under the Code) or such holder otherwise establishes an exemption from backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a non-U.S. stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Limitations on Utilization of Loss Carryforwards and Unrealized Losses

In general, it is expected that certain limitations under the Code will apply to loss carryforwards and unrealized losses of Sierra and its subsidiaries (if any) to the extent Sierra stockholders before the Merger hold less than 50% of the outstanding shares of Barings BDC immediately following the Merger. Similarly, it is expected that these same limitations will apply to loss carryforwards and unrealized losses of Barings BDC as a result of the issuance of Barings BDC Common Stock to holders of Sierra Common Stock in the Merger. Barings BDC (including all subsidiaries) had approximately $311.7 million of capital loss carryforwards reported on its fiscal year 2020 tax returns. Sierra (including all subsidiaries) had approximately $251.2 million of capital loss carryforwards reported on its fiscal year 2020 tax return.

Accordingly, the Merger is expected to result in potential limitations on the ability of Barings BDC to use its and/or Sierra's loss carryforwards and potentially to use unrealized capital losses inherent in the tax basis of its assets and the assets acquired, once realized, and on the ability of Sierra's and Barings BDC's taxable subsidiaries to use their net operating loss and capital loss carryforwards, if any. These potential limitations generally would be imposed on an annual basis. Losses in excess of the limitation may be carried forward indefinitely for capital loss carryforwards and post-2017 net operating loss carryforwards while pre-2018 net operating loss carryforwards are subject to a 20-year expiration from the year incurred. The limitations generally would equal the product of the fair market value of Sierra's (or Sierra's taxable subsidiaries, as the case may be), in the case of Sierra, and the fair market value of Barings BDC's (or Barings BDC's taxable subsidiaries, as the case may be), in the case of Barings BDC, equity immediately prior to the Merger and the "long-term tax-exempt rate," as published quarterly by the IRS, in effect at such time. No assurance can be given as to what long-term tax-exempt rate will be in effect at the time of the Merger.

Each of Barings BDC and Sierra (or their taxable subsidiaries, as the case may be) will be prohibited from using their respective capital loss carryforwards, if any, and unrealized losses (once realized) against the unrealized gains in Barings BDC's and Sierra's portfolios at the time of the Merger, if any, to the extent such gains are realized within five years following the Merger, if Barings BDC or Sierra, respectively, has a net unrealized built in gains at the time of the Merger. The ability of Barings BDC and/or Sierra to absorb its losses in the future depends upon a variety of factors that cannot be known in advance. Even if Barings BDC and/or Sierra is able to utilize its respective capital loss carryforwards or unrealized losses, the tax benefit resulting from those losses will be shared by both Barings BDC and Sierra stockholders following the Merger. Therefore, a Barings BDC stockholder or Sierra stockholder may pay more taxes, or pay taxes sooner, than such stockholder otherwise would have paid if the Merger did not occur.

The ability of Barings BDC to use Sierra's losses in the future depends upon a variety of factors that cannot be known in advance. A RIC cannot carry forward or carry back any net operating losses for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, Barings BDC cannot use any net operating losses inherited from Sierra in the Merger. Even if Barings BDC is able to utilize capital loss carryforwards or unrealized losses of Sierra, the tax benefit resulting from those losses will be shared by both Sierra and Barings BDC stockholders following the Merger. Therefore, a Sierra stockholder may pay more taxes, or pay taxes sooner, than such stockholder otherwise would have paid if the Merger did not occur.

Further, in addition to the other limitations on the use of losses, under Section 381 of the Code, for the tax year of the Merger, only that percentage of Barings BDC's capital gains net income for such tax year (excluding capital loss carryforwards), if any, equal to the percentage of its tax year that remains following the Merger can be reduced by Sierra's capital loss carryforwards (as otherwise limited under Sections 382, 383 and 384 of the Code, as described above).

Sierra's Pre-Merger Income and Gains, Sierra Tax Dividends and Sierra Deemed Distributions

Sierra's 2021 taxable year will end on December 31, 2021, and Sierra's next taxable period will end on the Closing Date. Under applicable U.S. tax rules, for each of Sierra's 2021 taxable year and for the taxable period ending on the Closing Date, Sierra will be required to declare a dividend of at least 90% of its net ordinary income and short term capital gains in order to maintain Sierra's treatment as a RIC. Sierra may choose to increase a dividend above that minimum, since additional amounts it pays out will reduce the amount of income subject to corporate-level U.S. federal income or excise tax for such taxable year or taxable period (as applicable). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Sierra will be required to declare a dividend on or prior to December 31, 2021 for its 2021 taxable year and on or prior to the Closing Date with respect to its taxable period ending on the Closing Date in an amount at least sufficient to allow it to maintain RIC status (the "Required Dividend"). In addition, the Merger Agreement permits Sierra to pay dividends in excess of the Required Dividend ("Additional Dividends"), so long as the sum of the Required Dividend and any Additional Dividends does not exceed the Sierra Tax Dividend amount. In the event Sierra does not pay an Additional Dividend, Sierra will be required to pay corporate income tax on any retained net ordinary income, net short-term capital gain, and net long term capital gain. If Sierra retains and pays tax on any net long term capital gain ("Net Capital Gain"), it will designate any such Net Capital Gain as a "deemed distribution" to its stockholders pursuant to an election made under Section 852(b)(3)(D) of the Code for each of the taxable year ending December 31, 2021 and the taxable period ending on the Closing Date (any such deemed distribution, a "Sierra Deemed Distribution").

If Sierra designates a Sierra Deemed Distribution, among other consequences, Sierra will pay corporate income tax on the retained Net Capital Gain, each U.S. stockholder will be required to include such stockholder's share of the deemed distribution in income as if it had been actually distributed to the U.S. stockholder, and the U.S. stockholder will be entitled to claim a credit (for U.S. income tax purposes) equal to such stockholder's allocable share of the tax paid thereon by Sierra. The amount of the deemed distribution net of such tax will be added to the U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis for such stockholder's Sierra Common Stock. A Sierra stockholder that is not subject to U.S. federal income tax or otherwise required to file a U.S. federal income tax return would be required to file a U.S. federal income tax return on the appropriate form to claim a refund with respect to such stockholder's allocable share of the taxes that were paid by Sierra. All Sierra stockholders should consult with their own tax advisors to determine how they should report their allocable share of any Sierra Deemed Distribution, and their allocable share of any taxes paid by Sierra with respect thereto, on their U.S. federal, state and local income tax returns.

A dividend paid by Sierra should be treated as a distribution with respect to the Sierra Common Stock. Distributions of Sierra's investment company taxable income ("ICTI") (which is, generally, Sierra's net ordinary income plus realized net short-term capital gains in excess of realized net long-term capital losses) will be taxable as ordinary income to the extent of Sierra's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions from the excess of long-term capital gains over short-term capital losses will be taxable as long term capital gains, if so designated by Sierra in a notice to stockholders. To the extent any portion of a dividend paid by Sierra is attributable to dividends from U.S. corporations and certain qualified foreign corporations, that portion may be eligible for taxation at a preferential rate for Sierra stockholders that are taxed at individual rates. In this regard, it is anticipated that a dividend paid by Sierra will generally not be attributable to dividends and, therefore, generally will not qualify for the preferential rate. Distributions in excess of Sierra's earnings and profits first will reduce a Sierra stockholder's adjusted tax basis in its Sierra Common Stock and, after the adjusted basis is reduced to zero, will constitute capital gains to a Sierra stockholder.

A dividend paid by Sierra paid to a non-U.S. stockholder generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal tax at a 30% rate (or lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty) to the extent attributable to a distribution of Sierra's ICTI out of current and accumulated earnings and profits, unless the distributions are properly designated as (1) paid by Sierra in respect of Sierra's "qualified net interest income" (generally, Sierra's U.S. source interest income, other than certain contingent interest and interest from obligations of a corporation or partnership in which Sierra is at least a 10% stockholder, reduced by expenses that are allocable to such income) or (2) paid by Sierra in connection with Sierra's "qualified short-term capital gains" (generally, the excess of Sierra's net short-term capital gains over Sierra's net long-term capital losses for such taxable year or taxable period, as applicable). If any portion of a dividend paid by Sierra is in excess of Sierra's current and accumulated earnings and profits that portion of the dividend paid by Sierra generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax and will reduce the non-U.S. stockholder's basis in its Sierra Common Stock. If a dividend paid by Sierra is effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business by a non-U.S. stockholder, and, if an income tax treaty applies, attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States, the non-U.S. stockholder will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax on the dividend paid by Sierra, but generally will be subject to tax on the dividend paid by Sierra in the same manner as a U.S. stockholder, as described in the preceding paragraph.

Additional Withholding Tax on Payments Made to Foreign Accounts

Withholding taxes may be imposed under Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code (such Sections commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or "FATCA"). Pursuant to FATCA, the relevant withholding agent generally will be required to withhold 30% on certain types of income from sources within the United States, which may include the dividend paid by Sierra and Cash Consideration (subject to proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations as discussed below) paid to (i) a foreign financial institution unless such foreign financial institution agrees to verify, report and disclose its U.S. accountholders and meets certain other specified requirements or (ii) a non-financial foreign entity that is the beneficial owner of the payment unless such entity certifies that it does not have any substantial U.S. owners or provides the name, address and taxpayer identification number of each substantial U.S. owner and such entity meets certain other specified requirements. If FATCA withholding tax is withheld from such payments, non-U.S. stockholders that are otherwise eligible for an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding taxes with respect to such payments will be required to seek a credit or refund from the IRS to obtain the benefit of such exemption or reduction. In certain cases, the relevant foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity may qualify for an exemption from, or be deemed to be in compliance with, these rules. Certain jurisdictions have entered into agreements with the United States that may supplement or modify these rules.

Under proposed Treasury Regulations, withholding under FATCA does not apply to gross proceeds from any sale or disposition of Sierra Common Stock. Taxpayers may generally rely on those proposed regulations until final regulations are issued.

Sierra stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the potential application of withholding under FATCA to the Cash Consideration and any dividend paid by Sierra.

U.S. Federal Income Taxation of an Investment in Barings BDC Common Stock

Election to be Taxed as a RIC

As a BDC, Barings BDC has elected to be treated as a RIC under the Code. As a RIC, Barings BDC generally will not pay corporate-level income taxes on its income and net capital gain that Barings BDC distributes to its stockholders as dividends on a timely basis. Barings BDC will be subject to U.S. federal corporate-level income tax on any undistributed income and/or gains. To qualify as a RIC, Barings BDC must, among other things, meet certain source of income and asset diversification requirements (as described below). In addition, Barings BDC must distribute to its stockholders, for each taxable year, generally an amount equal to at least 90% of Barings BDC's ICTI (the "Annual Distribution Requirement"). See "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020.

Taxation as a RIC

If Barings BDC:

- qualifies as a RIC; and
- satisfies the Annual Distribution Requirement;

then Barings BDC will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the portion of its ICTI and net capital gain that Barings BDC distributes (or is deemed to distribute) to stockholders. Barings BDC will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the regular corporate rates on any income or net capital gain not distributed (or deemed distributed) to Barings BDC stockholders.

Barings BDC will be subject to a 4% nondeductible U.S. federal excise tax on certain undistributed income unless Barings BDC distributes in a timely manner an amount at least equal to the sum of (1) 98% of Barings BDC's ordinary income for each calendar year, (2) 98.2% of Barings BDC's capital gains net income for the one-year period ending October 31 in that calendar year and (3) any income recognized, but not distributed, in preceding years (collectively, the "Excise Tax Requirement"). Barings BDC has paid in the past, and can be expected to pay in the future, such excise tax on a portion of its income.

Moreover, Barings BDC's ability to dispose of assets to meet its distribution requirements may be limited by (1) the illiquid nature of Barings BDC's portfolio and (2) other requirements relating to Barings BDC's status as a RIC, including the Diversification Tests (as defined below). If Barings BDC disposes of assets to meet the Annual Distribution Requirement, the Diversification Tests, or the Excise Tax Requirement, Barings BDC may make such dispositions at times that, from an investment standpoint, are not advantageous.

To qualify as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, Barings BDC generally must, among other things:

- qualify to be treated as a BDC at all times during each taxable year;
- derive in each taxable year at least 90% of its gross income from (a) dividends, interest, payments with respect to certain securities loans, gains from the sale of stock or other securities or other income derived with respect to its business of investing in such stock or securities or (b) net income derived from an interest in a "qualified publicly traded partnership," or "QPTP" (collectively, the "90% Income Test"); and
- diversify its holdings so that at the end of each quarter of the taxable year:
 - at least 50% of the value of its assets consists of cash, cash equivalents, U.S. Government securities, securities of other RICs and other securities that, with respect to any issuer, do not represent more than 5% of the value of its assets or more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of that issuer; and
 - no more than 25% of the value of its assets is invested in the securities, other than U.S. Government securities or securities of other RICs, of (i) one issuer, (ii) two or more issuers that are controlled, as determined under applicable tax rules, by Barings BDC and that are engaged in the same or similar or related trades or businesses or (iii) securities of one or more QPTPs (collectively, the "Diversification Tests").

Barings BDC may be required to recognize taxable income in circumstances in which it does not receive cash, such as income from hedging or foreign currency transactions. For example, if Barings BDC holds debt obligations that are treated under applicable tax rules as having original issue discount (such as debt instruments with PIK interest or, in certain cases, that have increasing interest rates or that are issued with warrants), Barings BDC must include in income each year a portion of the original issue discount that accrues over the life of the obligation, regardless of whether cash representing such income is received by it in the same taxable year. Because any original issue discount or other amounts accrued will be included in Barings BDC's ICTI for the year of accrual, Barings BDC may be required to make a distribution to its stockholders in order to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement and/or the Excise Tax Requirement, even though Barings BDC will not have received any corresponding cash amount.

Furthermore, a portfolio company in which Barings BDC invests may face financial difficulty that requires Barings BDC to work-out, modify or otherwise restructure Barings BDC's investment in the portfolio company. Any such restructuring could, depending on the specific terms of the restructuring, result in unusable capital losses and future non-cash income.

In addition, certain of Barings BDC's investment practices may be subject to special and complex U.S. federal income tax provisions that may, among other things, (a) disallow, suspend or otherwise limit the allowance of certain losses or deductions, (b) convert long-term capital gains (currently taxed at lower rates for non-corporate taxpayers) into higher taxed short-term capital gains or ordinary income, (c) convert an ordinary loss or a deduction into a capital loss (the deductibility of which is more limited), (d) adversely affect the time when a purchase or sale of stock or securities is deemed to occur or (e) adversely alter the characterization of certain complex financial transactions. Barings BDC will monitor its transactions and may make certain tax elections in order to mitigate the effects of these provisions; however, no assurance can be given that Barings BDC will be eligible for any such tax elections or that any elections Barings BDC makes will fully mitigate the effects of these provisions.

Gain or loss recognized by Barings BDC from warrants acquired by Barings BDC as well as any loss attributable to the lapse of such warrants generally will be treated as capital gain or loss. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term or short-term, depending on how long Barings BDC held a particular warrant.

Barings BDC's investment in non-U.S. securities may be subject to non-U.S. income, withholding and other taxes. In that case, Barings BDC's yield on those securities would be decreased. Stockholders will generally not be entitled to claim a U.S. foreign tax credit or deduction with respect to non-U.S. taxes paid by Barings BDC.

If Barings BDC purchases shares in a "passive foreign investment company" (a "PFIC"), Barings BDC may be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a portion of any "excess distribution" or gains from the disposition of such shares, even if such income is distributed as a taxable dividend by Barings BDC to its stockholders. Additional charges in the nature of interest may be imposed on Barings BDC in respect of deferred taxes arising from such distributions or gains. If Barings BDC invests in a PFIC and elects to treat the PFIC as a "qualified electing fund" under the Code (a "QEF"), in lieu of the foregoing requirements, Barings BDC will be required to include in income each year a portion of the ordinary earnings and net capital gains of the QEF, even if such income is not distributed to Barings BDC. Alternatively, Barings BDC may elect to mark-to-market at the end of each taxable year Barings BDC's shares in such PFIC; in this case, Barings BDC will recognize as ordinary income any increase in the value of such shares, and as ordinary loss any decrease in such value to the extent it does not exceed prior increases included in income. Barings BDC's ability to make either election will depend on factors beyond its control, and Barings BDC is subject to limitations which may limit the availability or benefit of these elections. Under either election, Barings BDC may be required to recognize in any year income in excess of Barings BDC's distributions from PFICs and Barings BDC's proceeds from dispositions of PFIC stock during that year, and such income will nevertheless be subject to the Annual Distribution Requirement and will be taken into account for purposes of determining whether Barings BDC satisfies the Excise Tax Requirement.

Barings BDC has invested in foreign securities that are treated as controlled foreign corporations (each a "CFC") for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, Barings BDC will generally be required to include in gross income each year, as ordinary income that is included in net investment income, its share of certain amounts of a CFC's income, whether or not the CFC distributes such amounts to Barings BDC. Under recently finalized regulations, such inclusions will be treated as "qualifying income" for purposes of the income requirement described above to the extent they are either (i) timely and currently repatriated or (ii) derived with respect to Barings BDC's business of investing in stock, securities or currencies. Investments by Barings BDC in CFCs could cause Barings BDC to recognize taxable income in excess of cash generated by such investments, potentially requiring Barings BDC to borrow money or dispose of investments to make the distributions required to qualify for treatment as a RIC and to eliminate a Barings BDC level tax and could affect the amount, timing and character of Barings BDC's distributions.

Barings BDC's functional currency is the U.S. dollar for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Under Section 988 of the Code, gains or losses attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates between the time Barings BDC accrues income, expenses or other liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and the time Barings BDC actually collects such income or pay such expenses or liabilities may be treated as ordinary income or loss. Similarly, gains or losses on foreign currency forward contracts, the disposition of debt denominated in a foreign currency and other financial transactions denominated in foreign currency, to the extent attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates between the acquisition and disposition dates, may also be treated as ordinary income or loss.

If Barings BDC borrows money, it may be prevented by loan covenants from declaring and paying dividends in certain circumstances. Even if Barings BDC is authorized to borrow funds and to sell assets in order to satisfy distribution requirements, under the Investment Company Act, Barings BDC generally is not permitted to make distributions to its stockholders while Barings BDC's debt obligations and senior securities are outstanding unless certain "asset coverage" tests or other financial covenants are met. Limits on Barings BDC's payment of dividends may prevent Barings BDC from meeting the Annual Distribution Requirement or the Excise Tax Requirement, and may, therefore, jeopardize Barings BDC's qualification for taxation as a RIC, or subject Barings BDC to the 4% excise tax on undistributed income.

Some of the income and fees that Barings BDC recognizes, such as management fees, may not count towards satisfaction of the 90% Income Test. In order to ensure that such income and fees do not disqualify Barings BDC as a RIC for a failure to satisfy the 90% Income Test, Barings BDC may be required to recognize such income or fees through one or more entities treated as U.S. corporations for U.S. federal income tax purposes. While Barings BDC expects that recognizing such income through such corporations will assist Barings BDC in satisfying the 90% Income Test, no assurance can be given that this structure will be respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which could result in such income not being counted towards satisfying the 90% Income Test. If the amount of such income were too great and Barings BDC were otherwise unable to mitigate this effect, it could result in Barings BDC's disqualification as a RIC. If, as Barings BDC expects, the structure is respected, such corporations will be required to pay U.S. corporate income tax on their earnings, which ultimately will reduce the yield on such income and fees.

If Barings BDC fails to satisfy the 90% Income Test or the Diversification Tests in any taxable year, Barings BDC may be eligible for relief provisions if the failures are due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect and if a penalty tax is paid with respect to each failure to satisfy the applicable requirements. Additionally, relief is provided for certain de minimis failures of the diversification requirements where Barings BDC corrects the failure within a specified period. If the applicable relief provisions are not available or cannot be met, all of Barings BDC's income would be subject to corporate-level income tax as described below. Barings BDC cannot provide assurance that it would qualify for any such relief should Barings BDC fail the 90% Income Test or the Diversification Test.

If Barings BDC fails to satisfy the Annual Distribution Requirement or otherwise fails to qualify as a RIC in any taxable year, and is not eligible for relief as described above, Barings BDC will be subject to tax in that year on all of its taxable income, regardless of whether Barings BDC makes any distributions to its stockholders. In that case, all of Barings BDC's income will be subject to corporate-level income tax, reducing the amount available to be distributed to its stockholders. In contrast, assuming Barings BDC qualifies as a RIC, Barings BDC's U.S. federal corporate-level income tax should be substantially reduced or eliminated. See "Election to Be Taxed as a RIC" above and "Risk Factors" in Part I, Item 1A of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020.

Taxation of U.S. Stockholders

Whether an investment in the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock is appropriate for a U.S. stockholder will depend upon that person's particular circumstances. An investment in the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock by a U.S. stockholder may have adverse tax consequences. The following summary generally describes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock by taxable U.S. stockholders and not by U.S. stockholders that generally are exempt from U.S. federal income taxation. U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors before investing in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock, including with respect to the applicable state, local and non-U.S. consequences of such investment.

Distributions on Barings BDC Common Stock

Distributions by Barings BDC generally are taxable to U.S. stockholders as ordinary income or long-term capital gain. Distributions of Barings BDC's ICTI (which is, generally, Barings BDC's ordinary income excluding net capital gain) will be taxable as ordinary income to U.S. stockholders to the extent of Barings BDC's current and accumulated earnings and profits, whether paid in cash or reinvested in additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. Distributions of Barings BDC's net capital gain properly reported by Barings BDC as "capital gains dividends" will be taxable to U.S. stockholders as long-term capital gains (which, under current law, are taxed at preferential rates in the case of individuals, trusts or estates). This is true regardless of U.S. stockholders' holding periods for their Barings BDC Common Stock and regardless of whether the dividend is paid in cash or reinvested in additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock.

Distributions in excess of Barings BDC's earnings and profits first will reduce a U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis in such stockholder's Barings BDC Common Stock and, after the adjusted tax basis is reduced to zero, will constitute capital gains to such U.S. stockholder. Barings BDC has made distributions in excess of its earnings and profits and may continue to do so in the future. As a result, a U.S. stockholder will need to consider the effect of Barings BDC's distributions on such U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis in Barings BDC Common Stock in their individual circumstances.

A portion of Barings BDC's ordinary income dividends, but not capital gains dividends, paid to corporate U.S. stockholders may, if certain conditions are met, qualify for the dividends-received deduction to the extent that Barings BDC has received dividends from certain corporations during the taxable year, but only to the extent such ordinary income dividends are treated as paid out of Barings BDC's earnings and profits. Barings BDC expects only a small portion of its dividends to qualify for this deduction, if any. Corporate U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors in determining the application of these rules in their particular circumstances.

In general, "qualified dividend income" realized by non-corporate U.S. stockholders is taxable at the same rate as net capital gain. Generally, qualified dividend income is dividend income attributable to certain U.S. and foreign corporations, as long as certain holding period requirements are met. As long as certain requirements are met, Barings BDC's dividends paid to non-corporate U.S. stockholders attributable to qualified dividend income may be treated by such U.S. stockholders as qualified dividend income, but only to the extent such ordinary income dividends are treated as paid out of Barings BDC's earnings and profits. Barings BDC expects only a small portion of its dividends to qualify as qualified dividend income, if any.

Although Barings BDC currently intends to distribute any of its net capital gain for each taxable year on a timely basis, Barings BDC may in the future decide to retain some or all of its net capital gain, and may designate the retained amount as a "deemed distribution" to its stockholders pursuant to an election made under Section 852(b)(3)(D) of the Code. In that case, among other consequences, Barings BDC will pay tax on the retained amount, each U.S. stockholder will be required to include such stockholder's share of the deemed distribution in income as if it had been actually distributed to the U.S. stockholder, and the U.S. stockholder will be entitled to claim a credit equal to such stockholder's allocable share of the tax paid thereon by Barings BDC. The amount of the deemed distribution net of such tax will be added to the U.S. stockholder's adjusted tax basis for such stockholder's Barings BDC Common Stock. A U.S. stockholder that is not subject to U.S. federal income tax or otherwise is not required to file a U.S. federal income tax return would be required to file a U.S. federal income tax return on the appropriate form in order to claim a refund for the taxes Barings BDC paid. In order to utilize the deemed distribution approach, Barings BDC must provide a written statement to its stockholders reporting the deemed distribution after the close of the relevant taxable year. Barings BDC cannot treat any of its ICTI as a "deemed distribution."

For purposes of determining (1) whether the Annual Distribution Requirement is satisfied for any year and (2) the amount of dividends paid for that year, Barings BDC may, under certain circumstances, elect to treat a dividend that is paid during the following taxable year as if it had been paid during the taxable year in question. If Barings BDC makes such an election, the U.S. stockholder will still be treated as receiving the dividend in the taxable year in which the distribution is made. However, any dividend declared by Barings BDC in October, November or December of any calendar year, payable to stockholders of record on a specified date in such a month and actually paid during January of the following year, will be treated as if it had been received by Barings BDC's U.S. stockholders on December 31 of the year in which the dividend was declared.

Barings BDC has the ability to declare a large portion of a dividend in shares of its stock. As long as a portion of such dividend is paid in cash (which portion could generally be as low as 20%) and certain requirements are met, the entire distribution will be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result,

Barings BDC stockholders will be taxed on 100% of the fair market value of the dividend on the date the dividend is received in the same manner as a cash dividend, even though most of the dividend was paid in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock, which may result in Barings BDC's U.S. stockholders having to pay tax on such dividends, even if no cash is received.

If investors purchase shares of Barings BDC Common Stock shortly before the record date of a distribution, the price of the shares will include the value of the distribution and the investors will be subject to tax on the distribution even though it represents a return of their investment. Barings BDC has built-up or has the potential to build up large amounts of unrealized gains which, when realized and distributed, could have the effect of a taxable distribution to stockholders.

Sale or Other Disposition of Barings BDC Common Stock

A U.S. stockholder generally will recognize taxable gain or loss if the U.S. stockholder sells or otherwise disposes of such stockholder's shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. The amount of gain or loss will be measured by the difference between such stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the stock sold and the amount of the proceeds received in exchange. Any gains arising from such sale or disposition generally will be treated as long-term capital gains or losses if the stockholder has held such stockholder's shares of Barings BDC Common Stock for more than one year. Otherwise, such gain or loss will be classified as short-term capital gain or loss. However, any capital loss arising from the sale or disposition of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock held for six months or less will be treated as long-term capital loss to the extent of the amount of capital gains dividends received, or undistributed capital gains deemed received, with respect to such shares. In addition, all or a portion of any loss recognized upon a disposition of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock may be disallowed if substantially identical stock or securities are purchased (whether through reinvestment of distributions or otherwise) within 30 days before or after the disposition.

In general, U.S. stockholders that are individuals, trusts or estates are taxed at preferential rates on their net capital gains (generally, the excess of net long-term capital gains over net short-term capital losses for a taxable year, including long-term capital gains derived from an investment in Barings BDC shares). Such rate is lower than the maximum rate on ordinary income currently payable by individuals. Corporate U.S. stockholders currently are subject to U.S. federal income tax on net capital gains at the maximum rate that also applies to ordinary income. Non-corporate U.S. stockholders with net capital losses for a year (i.e., capital loss in excess of capital gain) generally may deduct up to $3,000 of such losses against their ordinary income each year; any net capital losses of a non-corporate U.S. stockholder in excess of $3,000 generally may be carried forward and used in subsequent years as provided in the Code. Corporate U.S. stockholders generally may not deduct any net capital losses for a year, but may carry back such losses for three years or carry forward such losses for five years.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Barings BDC will send to each of its U.S. stockholders, after the end of each calendar year, a notice providing, on a per share and per distribution basis, the amounts includible in such U.S. stockholder's taxable income for such year as ordinary income and as long-term capital gain. In addition, the U.S. federal tax status of each year's distributions generally will be reported to the IRS.

Barings BDC may be required to withhold U.S. federal income tax ("backup withholding") from all taxable distributions to any non-corporate U.S. stockholder (1) who fails to furnish Barings BDC with a correct taxpayer identification number or a certificate that such stockholder is exempt from backup withholding or (2) with respect to whom the IRS notifies Barings BDC that such stockholder has failed to properly report certain interest and dividend income to the IRS and to respond to notices to that effect. An individual's taxpayer identification number is his or her social security number. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amount withheld under backup withholding is allowed as a credit against the U.S. stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle such stockholder to a refund, provided that proper information is timely provided to the IRS.

Taxation of Non-U.S. Stockholders

Whether an investment in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock is appropriate for a non-U.S. stockholder will depend upon that person's particular circumstances. An investment in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock by a non-U.S. stockholder may have adverse tax consequences and, accordingly, may not be appropriate for a non-U.S. stockholder. Non-U.S. stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors before investing in Barings BDC Common Stock.

Distributions on Barings BDC Common Stock

Distributions of Barings BDC's ICTI to non-U.S. stockholders will be subject to U.S. withholding tax of 30% (unless lowered or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty) to the extent payable from Barings BDC's current and accumulated earnings and profits unless the distributions are properly designated as (1) paid by Barings BDC in respect of Barings BDC's "qualified net interest income" (generally, Barings BDC's U.S. source interest income, other than certain contingent interest and interest from obligations of a corporation or partnership in which Barings BDC is at least a 10% stockholder, reduced by expenses that are allocable to such income) or (2) paid by Barings BDC in connection with Barings BDC's "qualified short-term capital gains" (generally, the excess of Barings BDC's net short-term capital gains over Barings BDC's net long-term capital losses for such taxable year). No assurance can be given that Barings BDC will distribute any interest-related or short-term capital gains dividends. Furthermore, in the case of shares of Barings BDC stock held through an intermediary, the intermediary may withhold U.S. federal income tax even if Barings BDC reports the payment as an interest-related dividend or short-term capital gains dividend.

If any portion of a distribution is in excess of Barings BDC's current and accumulated earnings and profits, that portion of the distribution generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax. If the distribution is effectively connected with the non-U.S. stockholder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business, and, if an income tax treaty applies, attributable to a permanent establishment in the United States, the non-U.S. stockholder will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax, but generally will be subject to tax on the distribution in the same manner as a U.S. stockholder, as described in the preceding section, "U.S. Federal Income Taxation of an Investment in Barings BDC Common Stock—Taxation of U.S. Stockholders—Distributions on Barings BDC Common Stock."

In that case, Barings BDC will not be required to withhold U.S. federal income tax if the non-U.S. stockholder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements. Special certification requirements apply to a non-U.S. stockholder that is a foreign trust and such entities are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Actual or deemed distributions of Barings BDC's net capital gain to a non-U.S. stockholder, and gains recognized by a non-U.S. stockholder upon the sale of Barings BDC Common Stock, will not be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax and generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless (1) the distributions or gains, as the case may be, are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the non-U.S. stockholder and, if an income tax treaty applies, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. stockholder in the United States (as discussed above) or (2) the non-U.S. stockholder is an individual, has been present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year, and certain other conditions are satisfied. For a corporate non-U.S. stockholder, distributions (both actual and deemed), and gains recognized upon the sale of Barings BDC Common Stock that are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business may, under certain circumstances, be subject to an additional "branch profits tax" (unless lowered or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty). Non-U.S. stockholders of Barings BDC Common Stock are encouraged to consult their own advisors as to the applicability of an income tax treaty in their particular circumstances.

If Barings BDC distributes its net capital gain in the form of deemed rather than actual distributions (which Barings BDC may do in the future), a non-U.S. stockholder will be entitled to a U.S. federal income tax credit or tax refund equal to the non-U.S. stockholder's allocable share of the tax Barings BDC pays on the capital gains deemed to have been distributed. In order to obtain the refund, the non-U.S. stockholder must obtain a U.S. taxpayer identification number (if one has not been previously obtained) and file a U.S. federal income tax return even if the non-U.S. stockholder would not otherwise be required to obtain a U.S. taxpayer identification number or file a U.S. federal income tax return.

Barings BDC has the ability to declare a large portion of a dividend in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. As long as a portion of such dividend is paid in cash (which portion could generally be as low as 20%) and certain requirements are met, the entire distribution will be treated as a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, Barings BDC's non-U.S. stockholders will be taxed on 100% of the fair market value of the dividend on the date the dividend is received in the same manner as a cash dividend (including the application of withholding tax rules described above), even though most of the dividend was paid in shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. In such a circumstance, Barings BDC may be required to withhold all or substantially all of the cash or shares of Barings BDC Common Stock Barings BDC would otherwise distribute to a non-U.S. stockholder.

A non-U.S. stockholder who is otherwise subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding of U.S. federal income tax on dividends unless the non-U.S. stockholder provides Barings BDC or the dividend paying agent with an IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8BEN-E (or an acceptable substitute form) or otherwise meets documentary evidence requirements for establishing that it is a non-U.S. stockholder or otherwise establishes an exemption from backup withholding.

Withholding and Information Reporting on Foreign Financial Accounts

Pursuant to FATCA, the relevant withholding agent generally will be required to withhold 30% of any dividends paid on Barings BDC Common Stock and (subject to proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations as discussed below) 30% of the gross proceeds from a sale of Barings BDC Common Stock to (i) a foreign financial institution unless such foreign financial institution agrees to verify, report and disclose its U.S. accountholders and meets certain other specified requirements or (ii) a non-financial foreign entity that is the beneficial owner of the payment unless such entity certifies that it does not have any substantial U.S. owners or provides the name, address and taxpayer identification number of each substantial U.S. owner and such entity meets certain other specified requirements. If this tax is withheld, non-U.S. stockholders that are otherwise eligible for an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding taxes with respect to such dividends or proceeds will be required to seek a credit or refund from the IRS to obtain the benefit of such exemption or reduction. In certain cases, the relevant foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity may qualify for an exemption from, or be deemed to be in compliance with, these rules. Certain jurisdictions have entered into agreements with the United States that may supplement or modify these rules.

Under proposed Treasury Regulations, withholding under FATCA does not apply to gross proceeds from any sale or disposition of Barings BDC Common Stock. Taxpayers may generally rely on those proposed regulations until final regulations are issued. Non-U.S. stockholders are urged consult with their tax advisors regarding the particular consequences to them of FATCA. Barings BDC will not pay any additional amounts in respect of any amounts withheld.

Reportable Transactions

Under U.S. Treasury regulations, if a stockholder recognizes a loss with respect to shares of $2 million or more for a non-corporate stockholder or $10 million or more for a corporate stockholder in any single taxable year (or a greater loss over a combination of years), the stockholder must file with the IRS a disclosure statement on Form 8886. Direct stockholders of certain portfolio securities in many cases are excepted from this reporting requirement, but under current guidance, stockholders of a RIC are not excepted. Future guidance may extend the current exception from this reporting requirement to stockholders of most or all RICs. The fact that a loss is reportable under these regulations does not affect the legal determination of whether the taxpayer's treatment of the loss is proper. Significant monetary penalties apply to a failure to comply with this reporting requirement. States may also have a similar reporting requirement. Stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors to determine the applicability of these regulations in light of their individual circumstances.

Failure to Qualify as a RIC

If Barings BDC were unable to qualify for treatment as a RIC, and relief were not available as discussed above, Barings BDC would be subject to tax on all of its taxable income at regular corporate rates. Barings BDC would not be able to deduct distributions to stockholders and would not be required to make distributions for tax purposes. Distributions generally would be taxable to Barings BDC stockholders as ordinary dividend income to the extent of Barings BDC's current and accumulated earnings and profits. Subject to certain limitations under the Code, corporate U.S. stockholders would be eligible for the dividends-received deduction. Distributions in excess of Barings BDC's current and accumulated earnings and profits would be treated first as a return of capital to the extent of the stockholder's tax basis, and any remaining distributions would be treated as a capital gain. If Barings BDC were to fail to meet the RIC requirements for more than two consecutive years and then sought to requalify as a RIC, Barings BDC would be subject to tax on any unrealized net built-in gains in the assets held by Barings BDC during the period in which Barings BDC failed to qualify as a RIC that are recognized within the subsequent ten years, unless Barings BDC makes a special election to pay corporate-level tax on such built-in gains at the time of its requalification as a RIC.

BARINGS BDC PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER STOCK ISSUANCE PROPOSAL

Barings BDC is asking Barings BDC stockholders to approve the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Upon completion of the First Merger, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive, in accordance with the Merger Agreement, the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “Description of the Merger Agreement—Merger Consideration.”

The issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders is a condition to the closing of the First Merger and the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal is required for completion of the Merger. In the event the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal is approved by Barings BDC stockholders, but the Merger Agreement is terminated (without the First Merger being completed) prior to the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Barings BDC will not issue any shares of Barings BDC Common Stock as a result of the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal.

Under the NYSE rules, a company is required to obtain stockholder approval prior to the issuance of shares of common stock in connection with the acquisition of the stock or assets of another company if, among others, the number of shares of common stock to be issued is, or will be upon issuance, equal to or in excess of 20% of the number of shares of common stock outstanding before the issuance of the shares of common stock. Based on the number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the close of business on [•], 2021, the last practicable date before the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, it is estimated that Barings BDC will issue approximately [•] shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders in the aggregate upon completion of the First Merger. The aggregate number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock that Sierra will issue in the First Merger will exceed 20% of the shares of Barings BDC Common Stock outstanding before such issuance, and, for this reason, Barings BDC is seeking the approval of its stockholders for the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

THE BARINGS BDC BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT BARINGS BDC STOCKHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” THE MERGER STOCK ISSUANCE PROPOSAL.

Barings BDC stockholders may vote “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or they may “ABSTAIN” from voting on, the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of this proposal. Proxies received will be voted “FOR” the approval of the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal unless Barings BDC stockholders designate otherwise.

BARINGS BDC PROPOSAL 2: THE BARINGS BDC BELOW NAV ISSUANCE PROPOSAL

Barings BDC is asking Barings BDC stockholders to approve the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement at a price below its then-current NAV per share, if applicable. It is a condition to completion of the First Merger that Barings BDC issue shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Upon completion of the First Merger, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive, in accordance with the Merger Agreement, the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “Description of the Merger Agreement—Merger Consideration.”

The issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders at a price below Barings BDC’s then-current NAV per share, if applicable, may be necessary to complete the First Merger. The approval of the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal is required for completion of the First Merger if the issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is at a price below Barings BDC’s then-current NAV per share.

Examples of Dilutive Effect of the Issuance of Shares of Barings BDC Common Stock Below Net Asset Value in Connection with the First Merger (if necessary)

The table below illustrates the level of NAV dilution that would be experienced by Barings BDC stockholders (solely in their capacity as Barings BDC stockholders) in an issuance of 45,996,985 shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders in connection with the First Merger at three different hypothetical levels of discount from Barings BDC’s NAV per share (each, a “Dilutive Offering”). The number of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to be issued to Sierra stockholders in the First Merger was determined by multiplying 102,276,889.12 shares of Sierra Common Stock outstanding prior to the First Merger by the Exchange Ratio of 0.44973. Although issuance of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock to Sierra stockholders at a price below Barings BDC’s then-current NAV per share, if applicable, may be necessary to complete the First Merger, it is not possible to predict the level of any potential discount prior to Closing. The actual discount, if any, may differ from the presentation below.

The examples assume that Barings BDC has 65,316,085 shares of common stock outstanding, current net assets of $744,127,561, and a current NAV per share of $11.39, which reflects Barings BDC’s shares outstanding, net assets, and NAV per share as of June 30, 2021. The table illustrates the dilutive effect on a hypothetical Barings BDC stockholder of (1) a Dilutive Offering at $10.82 per share (a 5% discount from NAV), (2) a Dilutive Offering at $10.25 per share (a 10% discount from NAV) and (3) a Dilutive Offering at $9.11 per share (a 20% discount from NAV).

THE BARINGS BDC BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT BARINGS BDC STOCKHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” THE BARINGS BDC BELOW NAV ISSUANCE PROPOSAL.

Barings BDC stockholders may vote “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or they may “ABSTAIN” from voting on, the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of each of the following: (1) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock; and (2) a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock that are not held by affiliated persons of Barings BDC. For purposes of this proposal, the Investment Company Act defines a “majority of the outstanding voting securities” as the vote of the lesser of: (1) 67% or more of the voting securities of Barings BDC present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC are present virtually or represented by proxy; or (2) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will have the effect of a vote “against” the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal. Proxies received will be voted “FOR” the approval of the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal unless Barings BDC stockholders designate otherwise.

BARINGS BDC PROPOSAL 3: THE BARINGS BDC ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

Barings BDC is asking Barings BDC stockholders to approve the adjournment of the Barings BDC Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes at the time of the Barings BDC Special Meeting to approve the Merger Stock Issuance Proposal or the Barings BDC Below NAV Issuance Proposal.

THE BARINGS BDC BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT, IF NECESSARY OR APPROPRIATE, BARINGS BDC STOCKHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” THE BARINGS BDC ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

Barings BDC stockholders may vote “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or they may “ABSTAIN” from voting on, the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal. Approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of votes cast by holders of shares of Barings BDC Common Stock present at the Barings BDC Special Meeting, virtually or represented by proxy, and entitled to vote thereat. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of this proposal. Proxies received will be voted “FOR” the approval of the Barings BDC Adjournment Proposal unless Barings BDC stockholders designate otherwise.

SIERRA PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGER PROPOSAL

Sierra is asking Sierra stockholders to approve the First Merger, in which Acquisition Sub will merge with and into Sierra, with Sierra as the surviving corporation, and immediately thereafter, as part of a single integrated transaction, Sierra will merge with and into Barings BDC, with Barings BDC continuing as the surviving corporation. Upon completion of the Merger, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each share of Sierra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Canceled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive, in accordance with the Merger Agreement, the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled "Description of the Merger Agreement—Merger Consideration."

Approval of the Merger Proposal is required for the completion of the Merger. In the event that the Merger Proposal is approved by Sierra stockholders, but the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to the closing of the First Merger, the First Merger will not be completed.

THE SIERRA BOARD UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT SIERRA STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

Sierra stockholders may vote "FOR" or "AGAINST," or they may "ABSTAIN" from voting on, the Merger Proposal. Adoption of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of Sierra Common Stock constituting a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at the Sierra Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Proposal. Proxies received will be voted "FOR" the approval of the Merger Proposal unless Sierra stockholders designate otherwise.

Appraisal Rights

Sierra stockholders will not be entitled to exercise appraisal rights in connection with the First Merger under the laws of the State of Maryland.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not be included in determining the number of votes cast and, as a result, will have no effect on the voting outcome of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal. Proxies received will be voted “FOR” the approval of the Sierra Adjournment Proposal unless Sierra stockholders designate otherwise.

(1) NAV per share is determined as of the last day in the relevant quarter and therefore may not reflect the NAV per share on the date of the high and low closing sales prices. The NAVs shown are based on outstanding shares at the end of each period.

(2) Calculated as of the respective high or low closing sales price divided by the quarter-end NAV.

(3) Because the Barings BDC Board has not yet determined the NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock as of September 30, 2021, information dependent on such NAV per share of Barings BDC Common Stock is marked as "N/A" in this table.

The last reported price for Barings BDC Common Stock as of October 28, 2021 was $11.06 per share. As of October 28, 2021, Barings BDC had 100 stockholders of record. This does not include the number of stockholders that hold shares through banks or broker-dealers.

Barings BDC cannot predict the price at which its common stock will trade. Shares of closed-end investment companies frequently trade at a discount to their NAV and Barings BDC Common Stock may also be discounted in the market. This characteristic of closed-end investment companies is separate and distinct from the risk that Barings BDC's NAV per share may decline. Barings BDC cannot predict whether shares of its common stock will trade above, at or below its NAV. The risk of loss associated with this characteristic of closed-end investment companies may be greater for investors expecting to sell shares of common stock soon after the purchase of such shares of common stock. In addition, if Barings BDC Common Stock trades below its NAV, it will generally not be able to issue additional shares of its common stock at its market price without first obtaining the approval of Barings BDC stockholders and the Barings BDC Independent Directors.

Pursuant to Barings BDC's dividend reinvestment plan, Barings BDC will reinvest all cash dividends or distributions declared by the Barings BDC Board on behalf of stockholders who do not elect to receive their distributions in cash. As a result, if the Barings BDC Board declares a distribution, then stockholders who have not elected to "opt out" of Barings BDC's dividend reinvestment plan will have their distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of Barings BDC Common Stock. See "Business—Dividend Reinvestment Plan" in Part I, Item 1 of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, which is incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus for additional information regarding Barings BDC's dividend reinvestment plan.

Sierra

There is currently no publicly traded market for Sierra Common Stock. Sierra's distributions, if any, are determined by the Sierra Board. Sierra has elected, and intends to qualify annually, to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code. To maintain RIC tax treatment, Sierra must timely distribute at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any. Sierra will be subject to a 4% nondeductible U.S. federal excise tax on its undistributed income unless it distributes in a timely manner an amount at least equal to the sum of (1) 98% of its ordinary income for each calendar year, (2) 98.2% of its capital gain net income (both long-term and short-term) for the one-year period ending October 31 in that calendar year and (3) any income realized, but not distributed, in preceding years and on which it did not pay U.S. federal income tax.

The following table reflects the cash distributions per share that Sierra has declared or paid to Sierra Stockholders for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020 and the current fiscal year to date. An independent registered public accounting firm has performed agreed-upon procedures related to the accuracy of the total amount outstanding exclusive of treasury securities as of December 31, 2017, 2018 and 2019 and the asset coverage per unit as of December 31, 2017, 2018 and 2019. The information in the senior securities table for 2016 was audited by Ernst & Young LLP and their report thereon is incorporated by reference herein. The information in the senior securities table for 2020 was audited by KPMG LLP and their report thereon is incorporated by reference herein.

(2) Total amount of each class of senior securities outstanding for 2017-2020 were derived from and should be read in conjunction with Barings BDC's audited consolidated financial statements.

(4) Asset coverage per unit is the ratio of the carrying value of Barings BDC's total consolidated assets, less all liabilities and indebtedness not represented by senior securities, to the aggregate amount of senior securities representing indebtedness. Asset coverage per unit is expressed in terms of dollar amounts per $1,000 of indebtedness. All prior period ratios have been conformed with this current presentation.

(5) The amount to which such class of senior security would be entitled upon the involuntary liquidation of the issuer in preference to any security junior to it. The "—" indicates information which the SEC expressly does not require to be disclosed for certain types of senior securities.

(6) Average market value per unit for Barings BDC's unsecured notes issued in March 2012 due 2019 (referred to in the table above as the "2019 Notes"), Barings BDC's unsecured notes issued in October 2012 and November 2012 due 2022 (referred to in the table above as the "December 2022 Notes") and Barings BDC's unsecured notes issued in February 2015 due 2022 (referred to in the table above as the "March 2022 Notes") represent the average of the daily closing prices as reported on the NYSE for each security during 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017, as applicable. - (1) All debt investments are income producing, unless otherwise noted. Equity and any equity-linked investments are non-income producing, unless otherwise noted. The Barings BDC Board determined in good faith that all investments were valued at fair value in accordance with Barings BDC's valuation policies and procedures and the Investment Company Act, based on, among other things, the input of the Barings, the Audit Committee of the Barings BDC Board and independent valuation firms that have been engaged to assist in the valuation of the Barings BDC's middle-market investments. In addition, all debt investments are variable rate investments unless otherwise noted. Index-based floating interest rates are generally subject to a contractual minimum interest rate. A majority of the variable rate loans in Barings BDC's investment portfolio bear interest at a rate that may be determined by reference to LIBOR, EURIBOR, GBP LIBOR, BBSY, STIBOR, CDOR, SONIA or an alternate Base Rate (commonly based on the Federal Funds Rate or the Prime Rate), which typically reset semi-annually, quarterly, or monthly at the borrower's option. The borrower may also elect to have multiple interest reset periods for each loan.
- (2) All of Barings BDC's portfolio company investments (including joint venture and short-term investments), which as of June 30, 2021 represented 211.7% of Barings BDC's net assets, are subject to legal restrictions on sales. The acquisition date represents the date of Barings BDC's initial investment in the relevant portfolio company.
- (3) Investment is not a qualifying investment as defined under Section 55(a) of the Investment Company Act. Non-qualifying assets represent 25.6% of total investments at fair value as of June 30, 2021. Qualifying assets must represent at least 70% of total assets at the time of acquisition of any additional non-qualifying assets. If at any time qualifying assets do not represent at least 70% of Barings BDC's total assets, Barings BDC will be precluded from acquiring any additional non-qualifying asset until such time as it complies with the requirements of Section 55(a).
- (4) As defined in the Investment Company Act, Barings BDC is deemed to be an "affiliated person" of the portfolio company as Barings BDC owns between 5% or more, up to 25% (inclusive), of the portfolio company's voting securities ("non-controlled affiliate").

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS OF SIERRA

Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement

Sierra has entered into the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement with SIC Advisors and pays SIC Advisors a management fee and incentive fee. The incentive fee is computed and paid on income that Sierra may not have yet received in cash. This fee structure may create an incentive for SIC Advisors to invest in certain types of securities that may have a high degree of risk. Additionally, Sierra relies on investment professionals from SIC Advisors to assist the Sierra Board with the valuation of its portfolio investments. SIC Advisors' management fee and incentive fee are based on the value of Sierra's investments and there may be a conflict of interest when personnel of SIC Advisors are involved in the valuation process for Sierra's portfolio investments. In particular, Richard T. Allorto Jr., Sierra's Chief Financial Officer, also serves as the Chief Financial Officer for SIC Advisors. Dean Crowe and Richard T. Allorto Jr. also have indirect financial interests in SIC Advisors.

On April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into an incentive fee waiver agreement with SIC Advisors (the "Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement"), pursuant to which SIC Advisors agreed to waive (i) 50% of any incentive fee on income payable to SIC Advisors for any fiscal quarter during the period beginning with the fiscal quarter ending September 30, 2021 and the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2022, and (ii) 50% of any incentive fee on capital gains payable to SIC Advisors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021. For the avoidance of doubt, the Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement does not amend the calculation of the incentive fees as set forth in the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement. Other than the waiver contemplated by the Incentive Fee Wavier Agreement, the terms of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Following (i) the fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2022 with respect to the waiver granted by SIC Advisors on any incentive fee payable on income, and (ii) the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021 with respect to the waiver granted by SIC Advisors on any incentive fee payable on capital gains, unless otherwise extended by Sierra and SIC Advisors, the Incentive Fee Waiver Agreement will terminate, and the original terms of the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement will be in full force and effect.

Sierra Administration Agreement

On April 5, 2012, Sierra entered into an administration agreement (the "Sierra Administration Agreement") with Medley Capital, pursuant to which Medley Capital furnishes Sierra with administrative services necessary to conduct its day-to-day operations. Medley Capital is reimbursed for administrative expenses it incurs on Sierra's behalf in performing its obligations. Such costs are reasonably allocated to Sierra on the basis of assets, revenues, time records or other reasonable methods. Sierra does not reimburse Medley Capital for any services for which it receives a separate fee or for rent, depreciation, utilities, capital equipment or other administrative items allocated to a controlling person of Medley Capital. Medley Capital is an affiliate of SIC Advisors.

Pursuant to the Investment Company Act, the Sierra Administration Agreement remained in effect for an initial period of two years from its effective date. The Sierra Administration Agreement became effective on April 17, 2012, the date that Sierra met its minimum offering requirement. Pursuant to its terms, and unless earlier terminated as described below, the Sierra Administration Agreement will remain in effect from year-to-year if approved annually by a majority of the Sierra Independent Directors, and either the holders of a majority of Sierra's outstanding voting securities or the Sierra Board. Most recently, on April 15, 2021, the Sierra Board approved the renewal of the Sierra Administration Agreement for an additional one-year term, which will expire on April 17, 2022. In connection with the foregoing, on April 23, 2021, Sierra entered into an expense limitation agreement with Medley Capital (the "Expense Limitation Agreement"), pursuant to which Medley Capital agreed that the amount of expenses payable and reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement will be capped at $2,200,000 for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021. The amount of expenses payable and reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020, 2019 and 2018 was $2,231,015, $2,538,480 and $2,699,176, respectively. For the avoidance of doubt, other than the cap contemplated by the Expense Limitation Agreement, the Expense Limitation Agreement does not amend the allocation of costs and expenses that are payable or reimbursable by Sierra under the Sierra Administration Agreement. Following the quarter ending December 31, 2021, unless otherwise extended by Sierra and Medley Capital, the Expense Limitation Agreement will terminate, and the original terms of the Sierra Administration Agreement will be in full force and effect.

Additionally, as a BDC, Sierra must offer managerial assistance to its portfolio companies. This managerial assistance may include monitoring the operations of the portfolio companies, participating in board and management meetings, consulting with and advising officers of its portfolio companies and providing other organizational and financial guidance. Medley Capital will make available such managerial assistance, on Sierra's behalf, to Sierra's portfolio companies regardless of whether they request this assistance. Sierra may receive fees for these services and will reimburse Medley Capital for its allocated costs in providing such assistance pursuant to the Sierra Administration Agreement, subject to review and approval by the Sierra Board.

Co-Investment Opportunities

As a BDC, Sierra will not generally be permitted to invest in any portfolio company in which SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates currently have a controlling interest or to make any co-investments with SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates without an exemptive order from the SEC. Sierra may, however, invest alongside SIC Advisors and its affiliates' other clients in certain circumstances where doing so is consistent with applicable law and SEC staff interpretations. For example, Sierra may invest alongside such other clients' accounts consistent with guidance promulgated by the SEC staff permitting Sierra and such other clients' accounts to purchase interests in a single class of privately placed securities so long as certain conditions are met, including that no investment adviser, acting on Sierra's behalf or on behalf of other clients, negotiates any term other than price. Sierra may also invest alongside other clients as otherwise permissible under regulatory guidance, applicable regulations and SIC Advisors' allocation policies.

In addition, on November 25, 2013, Sierra received an exemptive order from the SEC that permits it to participate in negotiated co-investment transactions with certain affiliates, each of whose investment adviser is Medley LLC or an investment adviser controlled by Medley LLC in a manner consistent with Sierra's investment objective, strategies and restrictions, as well as regulatory requirements and other pertinent factors (the "Prior Exemptive Order"). On March 29, 2017, Sierra, SIC Advisors and certain other affiliated funds and investment advisers received an exemptive order (the "Exemptive Order") that supersedes the Prior Exemptive Order and allows affiliated registered investment companies to participate in co-investment transactions with Sierra that would otherwise be prohibited under Section 17(d) and 57(a)(4) and Rule 17d-1. On October 4, 2017, Sierra, SIC Advisors and certain of their affiliates received an exemptive order that supersedes the Exemptive Order (the "Current Exemptive Order") and allows, in addition to the entities already covered by the Exemptive Order, Medley LLC and its subsidiary, Medley Capital, to the extent they hold financial assets in a principal capacity, and any direct or indirect, wholly- or majority-owned subsidiary of Medley LLC that is formed in the future, to participate in co-investment transactions with Sierra that would otherwise be prohibited by either or both of Sections 17(d) and 57(a)(4) of the Investment Company Act. Co-investment under the Current Exemptive Order is subject to certain conditions therein, including the condition that, in the case of each co-investment transaction, the Sierra Board determines that it would be in Sierra's best interest to participate in the transaction. Neither Sierra nor the affiliated funds are obligated to invest or co-invest when investment opportunities are referred to Sierra or the affiliated funds.

Subject to this restriction on co-investments with affiliates, SIC Advisors will offer Sierra the right to participate in all investment opportunities that it determines are appropriate for Sierra in view of its investment objective, policies and strategies and other relevant factors. In accordance with SIC Advisors' allocation policies, Sierra might not participate in each individual opportunity, but will, on an overall basis, be entitled to participate equitably with other entities managed by SIC Advisors and its affiliates.

To the extent that Sierra competes with entities managed by SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates for a particular investment opportunity, SIC Advisors will allocate investment opportunities across the entities for which such opportunities are appropriate, consistent with (1) its internal conflict resolution and allocation policies, (2) the requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and (3) the conditions of the Current Exemptive Order and other restrictions under the Investment Company Act regarding co-investments with affiliates. SIC Advisors' allocation policies are intended to ensure that Sierra may generally share equitably with other investment funds managed by SIC Advisors or its affiliates in investment opportunities, particularly those involving a security with limited supply or involving differing classes of securities of the same issuer which may be suitable for Sierra and such other investment funds.

License Agreement

Sierra has entered into a license agreement with SIC Advisors under which SIC Advisors has granted Sierra a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use the name "Sierra" for specified purposes in our business. Under the license agreement, Sierra will have a right to use the "Sierra" name, subject to certain conditions, for so long as SIC Advisors or one of its affiliates remains Sierra's investment advisor. Other than with respect to this limited license, Sierra will have no legal right to the "Sierra" name.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF BARINGS BDC

The following description summarizes material provisions of the MGCL, the Barings BDC Charter, and the Barings BDC Bylaws. This summary is not necessarily complete, and we refer you to the MGCL, the Barings BDC Charter, and the Barings BDC Bylaws for a more detailed description of the provisions summarized below.

Stock

Barings BDC's authorized capital stock consists of 150,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of which 65,316,085 shares were outstanding as of October 15, 2021. There are no outstanding options or warrants to purchase Barings BDC Common Stock. No Barings BDC Common Stock has been authorized for issuance under any equity compensation plans. Under Maryland law, the Barings BDC stockholders generally are not personally liable for the indebtedness or obligations of Barings BDC.

Under the Barings BDC Charter, the Barings BDC Board is authorized to classify and reclassify any unissued shares of Barings BDC Common Stock into other classes or series of stock, and to cause the issuance of such shares, without obtaining stockholder approval. In addition, as permitted by the MGCL, but subject to the Investment Company Act, the Barings BDC Charter provides that a majority of the entire Barings BDC Board, without any action by the Barings BDC stockholders, may amend the charter from time to time to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock or the number of shares of stock of any class or series that Barings BDC has authority to issue.

All shares of Barings BDC Common Stock have equal rights as to earnings, assets, distribution and voting privileges, except as described below, and, when they are issued, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Distributions may be paid to the holders of Barings BDC Common Stock if, as and when authorized by the Barings BDC Board and declared by Barings BDC out of assets legally available therefor. Shares of Barings BDC Common Stock have no preemptive, exchange, conversion or redemption rights and are freely transferable, except where their transfer is restricted by federal and state securities laws or by contract.

In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Barings BDC, each share of Barings BDC Common Stock would be entitled to share ratably in all of Barings BDC's assets that are legally available for distribution after Barings BDC pays all debts and other liabilities and subject to any preferential rights of holders of Barings BDC preferred stock, if any preferred stock is outstanding at such time.

Each share of Barings BDC Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting of stockholders duly called and at which a quorum is present will be sufficient to approve any matter which may properly come before the meeting, unless more than a majority of the votes cast is required by statute or by the Barings BDC Charter. Except as provided with respect to any other class or series of stock, the holders of Barings BDC Common Stock will possess exclusive voting power. There is no cumulative voting in the election of the Barings BDC directors, which means that holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of Barings BDC Common Stock can elect all of the Barings BDC directors.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting if there is filed with the records of stockholders meetings an unanimous written consent which sets forth the action and is signed by each stockholder entitled to vote on the matter and a written waiver of any right to dissent signed by each stockholder entitled to notice of the meeting but not entitled to vote at it.

Limitation on Liability of Directors and Officers; Indemnification and Advance of Expenses

Maryland law permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment and which is material to the cause of action. The Barings BDC Charter contains such a provision which eliminates directors' and officers' liability to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act.

The Barings BDC Charter authorizes Barings BDC, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act, to indemnify any present or former director or officer or any individual who, while a director and at Barings BDC's request, serves or has served another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, partner, or trustee, from and against any claim or liability to which that person may become subject or which that person may incur by reason of his or her status as a present or former director or officer and to pay or reimburse their reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding. The Barings BDC Bylaws obligate Barings BDC, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act, to indemnify any present or former director or officer or any individual who, while a director and at Barings BDC's request, serves or has served another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, partner, or trustee and who is made a party to the proceeding by reason of his service in that capacity from and against any claim or liability to which that person may become subject or which that person may incur by reason of his or her status as a present or former director or officer and to pay or reimburse their reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding. The Barings BDC Charter and the Barings BDC Bylaws also permit Barings BDC to indemnify and advance expenses to any person who served a predecessor of Barings BDC in any of the capacities described above and any of Barings BDC's employees or agents or any employees or agents of Barings BDC's predecessor. In accordance with the Investment Company Act, Barings BDC will not indemnify any person for any liability to which such person would be subject by reason of such person's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office.

Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Barings BDC Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity. Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (1) was committed in bad faith or (2) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification, and then only for expenses. In addition, Maryland law permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (x) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (y) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

Barings BDC has also entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its directors, under which Barings BDC has agreed to indemnify such individuals to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (including the MGCL and the Investment Company Act), including indemnification and/or advancement of expenses incurred in connection with participating in any action or proceeding, including any action or proceeding by or in right of Barings BDC, arising out of the individual's services as a director or executive officer of Barings BDC. In addition, Barings BDC has obtained primary and excess insurance policies insuring its directors and officers against certain liabilities they may incur in their capacity as directors and officers, including liabilities and expenses that may arise out of activities that Barings BDC's directors or officers have performed for another entity at Barings BDC's request. The policy is subject to customary exclusions.

Certain Provisions of the MGCL and the Barings BDC Charter and Bylaws

The MGCL, the Barings BDC Charter, and the Barings BDC Bylaws contain provisions that could make it more difficult for a potential acquirer to acquire Barings BDC by means of a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. These provisions are expected to discourage certain coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids and to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Barings BDC to negotiate first with the Barings BDC Board.

Classified Board of Directors

Barings BDC has elected to be subject to the provisions of Section 3-803 of the MGCL resulting in the Barings BDC Board being classified, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Barings BDC Charter and Barings

TABLE OF CONTENTS

BDC Bylaws. Pursuant to this election and the Barings BDC Bylaws, the Barings BDC Board is divided into three classes, designated Class I, Class II and Class III, as nearly equal in number as possible, and the term of office of directors of one class shall expire at each annual meeting of stockholders. Upon expiration of the term of office of each class, the successors to the class of directors whose term expires at each annual meeting of stockholders will be elected to hold office for a term continuing until the annual meeting of stockholders in the third year following the year of their election and until their successors are elected and qualify.

Election of Directors

Pursuant to the Barings BDC Bylaws, a nominee for director is elected to the Barings BDC Board if the number of votes cast for such nominee's election exceed the number of votes cast against such nominee's election. Pursuant to the Barings BDC Charter, the Barings BDC Board may amend the Barings BDC Bylaws to alter the vote required to elect directors.

Number of Directors; Vacancies; Removal

The Barings BDC Charter provides that the number of directors will be set only by the Barings BDC Board in accordance with the Barings BDC Bylaws. The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that a majority of the entire Barings BDC Board may at any time increase or decrease the number of directors. However, unless the Barings BDC Bylaws are amended, the number of directors may never be less than one nor more than 12. Barings BDC has elected to be subject to the provision of Subtitle 8 of Title 3 of the MGCL regarding the filling of vacancies on the Barings BDC Board. Accordingly, except as may be provided by the Barings BDC Board in setting the terms of any class or series of preferred stock, any and all vacancies on the Barings BDC Board may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors in office, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum, and any director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the full term of the directorship in which the vacancy occurred and until a successor is elected and qualifies, subject to any applicable requirements of the Investment Company Act. The Barings BDC Charter provides that a director may be removed only for cause, as defined in the Barings BDC Charter, and then only by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors.

Action by Stockholders

Under the MGCL, stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders or (unless the charter provides for stockholder action by less than unanimous written consent, which the Barings BDC Charter does not) by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. These provisions, combined with the requirements of the Barings BDC Bylaws regarding the calling of a stockholder-requested special meeting of stockholders discussed below, may have the effect of delaying consideration of a stockholder proposal until the next annual meeting.

Advance Notice Provisions for Stockholder Nominations and Stockholder Proposals

The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, nominations of individuals for election to the Barings BDC Board and the proposal of other business to be considered by stockholders may be made only (1) pursuant to Barings BDC's notice of the meeting, (2) by or at the direction of the Barings BDC Board or (3) by a stockholder who is a stockholder of record both at the time of giving the notice required by the Barings BDC Bylaws and at the time of the meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting in the election of each individual so nominated or on any such other business and who has complied with the advance notice procedures of the bylaws. With respect to special meetings of stockholders, only the business specified in the notice of the meeting may be brought before the meeting. Nominations of individuals for election to the Barings BDC Board at a special meeting may be made only (1) by or at the direction of the Barings BDC Board or (2) provided that the meeting has been called in accordance with the Barings BDC Bylaws for the purpose of electing directors, by a stockholder who is a stockholder of record both at the time of giving the notice required by the Barings BDC Bylaws and at the time of the meeting, who is entitled to vote at the meeting in the election of each individual so nominated and who has complied with the advance notice provisions of the bylaws.

For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to the Barings BDC Bylaws, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to Barings BDC's secretary and such other business must otherwise be a proper matter for action by the stockholders. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must set forth all information required under the Barings BDC Bylaws and must be delivered to the Secretary at Barings BDC's principal executive office not earlier than the 120th day nor later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the 90th day prior to the first anniversary of the date of the proxy statement for the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced or delayed by more than 30 days from the first anniversary of the date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to the date of such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to the date of such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

Calling of Special Meetings of Stockholders

The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the Barings BDC Board and certain of Barings BDC's officers. Additionally, the Barings BDC Bylaws provide that, subject to the satisfaction of certain procedural and informational requirements by the stockholders requesting the meeting, a special meeting of stockholders shall be called by Barings BDC's secretary to act upon any matter that may properly be considered at a meeting of stockholders upon the written request of stockholders entitled to cast not less than a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on such matter at such meeting.

Approval of Extraordinary Corporate Action; Amendment of Charter and Bylaws

Under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation generally cannot dissolve, amend its charter, merge, convert, sell all or substantially all of its assets, engage in a share exchange or engage in similar transactions outside the ordinary course of business, unless approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. However, a Maryland corporation may provide in its charter for approval of these matters by a lesser percentage, but not less than a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. The Barings BDC Charter generally provides for approval of charter amendments and extraordinary transactions by the stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. The Barings BDC Charter also provides that certain charter amendments, any proposal for the conversion of Barings BDC, whether by merger or otherwise, from a closed-end company to an open-end company and any proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Barings BDC requires the approval of the stockholders entitled to cast at least 75% of the votes entitled to be cast on such matter. However, if such amendment or proposal is approved by at least 75% of Barings BDC's continuing directors (in addition to approval by the Barings BDC Board), such amendment or proposal may be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on such a matter. In either event, in accordance with the requirements of the Investment Company Act, any such amendment or proposal that would have the effect of changing the nature of Barings BDC's business so as to cause Barings BDC to cease to be, or to withdraw Barings BDC's election as, a BDC would be required to be approved by a majority of Barings BDC's outstanding voting securities, as defined under the Investment Company Act. The "continuing directors" are defined in the Barings BDC Charter as (a) Barings BDC's current directors, (b) those directors whose nomination for election by the stockholders or whose election by the directors to fill vacancies is approved by a majority of Barings BDC's continuing directors then on the Barings BDC Board.

The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that the Barings BDC Board will have the exclusive power to make, alter, amend or repeal any provision of the bylaws.

No Appraisal Rights

Except with respect to appraisal rights arising in connection with the Control Share Acquisition Act discussed below, as permitted by the MGCL, the Barings BDC Charter provides that stockholders will not be entitled to exercise appraisal rights unless a majority of the Barings BDC Board shall determine such rights apply.

Control Share Acquisitions

Subtitle 7 of Title 3 of the MGCL, or the Control Share Acquisition Act, provides that control shares of a Maryland corporation acquired in a control share acquisition have no voting rights except to the extent approved by a vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. Generally, control shares are shares of issued and outstanding voting stock acquired in a secondary market transaction which, if aggregated with all other shares of stock owned by the acquirer or in respect of which the acquirer is able to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy), would entitle the acquirer to exercise voting power in electing directors within one of the following ranges of voting power:

- one-tenth or more but less than one-third;
- one-third or more but less than a majority; or
- a majority or more of all voting power.

The requisite stockholder approval must be obtained to cross any of the above thresholds of voting power. Control shares do not include shares the acquiring person is then entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained stockholder approval. A control share acquisition means the acquisition of control shares, subject to certain exceptions.

A person who has made or proposes to make a control share acquisition may compel the board of directors of the corporation to call a special meeting of stockholders to be held within 50 days of demand to consider the voting rights of the shares. Shares owned by the acquirer, by officers or by employees who are directors of the corporation are excluded from shares entitled to vote on the matter. The right to compel the calling of a special meeting is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including an undertaking to pay the expenses of the meeting. If no request for a meeting is made, the corporation may itself present the question at any stockholders meeting.

If voting rights are not approved at the meeting or if the acquiring person does not deliver an acquiring person statement as required by the statute, then the corporation may redeem for fair value any or all of the control shares, except those for which voting rights have previously been approved. The right of the corporation to redeem control shares is subject to certain conditions and limitations, including, as provided in the Barings BDC Bylaws, compliance with the Investment Company Act. Fair value is determined, without regard to the absence of voting rights for the control shares, as of the date of the last control share acquisition by the acquirer or of any meeting of stockholders at which the voting rights of the shares are considered and not approved. If voting rights for control shares are approved at a stockholders meeting and the acquirer becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares entitled to vote, all other stockholders may exercise appraisal rights. The fair value of the shares as determined for purposes of appraisal rights may not be less than the highest price per share paid by the acquirer in the control share acquisition. The Control Share Acquisition Act does not apply (a) to shares acquired in a merger, consolidation or share exchange if the corporation is a party to the transaction or (b) to acquisitions approved or exempted by the charter or bylaws of the corporation.

Currently, the Barings BDC Bylaws contain a provision exempting from the Control Share Acquisition Act any and all acquisitions by any person of Barings BDC stock. There can be no assurance that such provision will not be amended or eliminated at any time in the future. Barings BDC will only amend its bylaws to be subject to the Control Share Acquisition Act if the Barings BDC Board determines that doing so would be in the best interests of Barings BDC and it does not conflict with the Investment Company Act.

Business Combinations

Under certain provisions of Maryland law referred to as the Business Combination Act, "business combinations" between a Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder or an affiliate of an interested stockholder are prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder. These business combinations include a merger, consolidation, share exchange or, in circumstances specified in the statute, an asset transfer or issuance or reclassification of equity securities. An interested stockholder is defined as:

- any person who beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation's outstanding voting stock; or
- an affiliate or associate of the corporation who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 10% or more of the voting power of the outstanding stock of the corporation.

A person is not an interested stockholder under this statute if the board of directors approved in advance the transaction by which the stockholder otherwise would have become an interested stockholder. However, in approving a transaction, the board of directors may provide that its approval is subject to compliance, at or after the time of approval, with any terms and conditions determined by the board.

After the five-year prohibition, any business combination between the Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder generally must be recommended by the board of directors of the corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least:

- 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of voting stock of the corporation; and
- two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by the interested stockholder with whom or with whose affiliate the business combination is to be effected or held by an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder.

These super-majority vote requirements do not apply if the corporation's common stockholders receive a minimum price, as defined under Maryland law, for their shares in the form of cash or other consideration in the same form as previously paid by the interested stockholder for its shares.

The statute permits various exemptions from its provisions, including business combinations that are exempted by the board of directors before the time that the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder. The Barings BDC Board has adopted a resolution explicitly subjecting Barings BDC to the Business Combination Act. The Barings BDC Board may by further resolution at any time in the future approve or exempt from the provisions of the Business Combination Act any business combinations, whether specifically, generally or generally by types or as to specifically identified or unidentified existing or future interested stockholders or their affiliates, as contemplated by Section 3-603(c) of the MGCL.

Conflict with Investment Company Act

The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that, if and to the extent that any provision of the MGCL, or any provision of the Barings BDC Charter or Bylaws conflicts with any provision of the Investment Company Act, the applicable provision of the Investment Company Act will control.

Exclusive Forum

The Barings BDC Bylaws provide that, unless Barings BDC consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland (the "Maryland Circuit Court") or the state court located within the City of Raleigh in Wake County, North Carolina (the "NC State Court"), or, if neither of these courts have jurisdiction, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, Baltimore Division or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, will be the sole and exclusive forum for (a) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of Barings BDC, (b) any action asserting an internal corporate claim (as defined in the MGCL) or (c) any other action asserting a claim against Barings BDC or any director or officer or other employee of Barings BDC that is governed by the internal affairs doctrine. Any stockholder (or beneficial owner of stock) who is a party to any action or proceeding governed by the exclusive forum provision of the bylaws will be deemed to have consented to the jurisdiction of the foregoing courts solely for the purpose of adjudicating any action or proceeding governed by such provisions. With respect to an action or proceeding in the Maryland Circuit Court and the NC State Court governed by the exclusive forum provisions of the Barings BDC Bylaws, Barings BDC and the stockholders (or beneficial owners of stock) will be deemed to have consented to the assignment of the action or proceeding to the Business and Technology Case Management Program for the State of Maryland (or any successor program governing complex corporate proceedings) and the North Carolina Business Court, respectively.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK OF SIERRA

The following description summarizes material provisions of the MGCL, the Second Articles of Amendment and Restatement of Sierra, as supplemented and amended by those certain Articles Supplementary, which were accepted for record by the SDAT on October 5, 2015 (the "Sierra Charter"), and the Bylaws of Sierra (the "Sierra Bylaws"). This summary is not necessarily complete, and we refer you to the MGCL, the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws for a more detailed description of the provisions summarized below.

Common Stock, $0.001 Par Value Per Share

Under the terms of the Sierra Charter, Sierra's authorized capital stock consists solely of 250,000,000 shares of Sierra Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share. Under the terms of the Sierra Charter, the Sierra Board is authorized to classify and reclassify any unissued shares of stock into other classes or series of stock, and to cause the issuance of such shares, without obtaining stockholder approval. In addition, as permitted by the MGCL, but subject to the Investment Company Act, the Sierra Charter provides that the Sierra Board, without any action by Sierra stockholders, may amend the Sierra Charter from time to time to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock or the number of shares of stock of any class or series that Sierra has authority to issue. Under the Sierra Charter and the MGCL generally, Sierra stockholders are not personally liable for Sierra's debts or obligations.

All policies shall be equally applicable and enforceable to each stockholder, including but not limited to those pertaining to liquidation, conversion and redemption rights. No shares of Sierra Common Stock are subject to further calls or to assessments, sinking fund provisions, obligations of Sierra or potential liabilities associated with ownership of the security (not including investment risks).

Under the terms of the Sierra Charter, all shares of Sierra Common Stock, when they are issued, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Distributions may be paid to the holders of Sierra Common Stock, as and when authorized by the Sierra Board and declared by the Sierra Board out of funds legally available therefor. Except as may be provided by the Sierra Board in setting the terms of classified or reclassified stock, shares of Sierra Common Stock will have no preemptive, exchange, conversion or redemption rights and will be freely transferable, except where their transfer is restricted by federal and state securities laws or by contract. In the event of Sierra's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each share of a class of Sierra Common Stock would be entitled to be paid, out of the assets of Sierra that are legally available for distribution to its stockholders after Sierra pays or makes reasonable provisions for the payment of all claims and obligations and subject to any preferential rights of holders of preferred stock, if any preferred stock is outstanding at such time. Each share of Sierra Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors, and subject to the express terms of any class or series of preferred stock, holders of Sierra Common Stock shall have the exclusive right to vote on all matters as to which a stockholder is entitled to vote pursuant to applicable law at all meetings of stockholders provided, however, that the holders of Sierra Common Stock will have exclusive voting rights on an amendment to the Sierra Charter that would alter only the contract rights, as expressly set forth in the Sierra Charter. There will be no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock will be able to elect all of Sierra's directors, provided that there are no shares of any other class or series of preferred stock outstanding entitled to vote in the election of directors, and holders of less than a majority of such shares will be unable to elect any director.

Limitation on Liability of Directors and Officers; Indemnification and Advance of Expenses

Maryland law permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment and which is material to the cause of action. The Sierra Charter provides that, subject to certain limitations under the Sierra Charter and federal securities laws, no director or officer of Sierra shall be liable to Sierra or its stockholders for money damages to the fullest extent of Maryland law.

Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Sierra Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding in which the director or officer was successful. Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (1) was committed in bad faith or (2) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification, and then only for expenses. In addition, Maryland law permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (b) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

The Sierra Charter provides that Sierra shall indemnify, to the fullest extent of Maryland law, (i) any individual who is a present or former director or officer of Sierra and who is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity, and (ii) any individual who, while serving as a director or officer of Sierra and at the request of Sierra, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner or director of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise and who is made or threatened to be made a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity or (ii) SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates acting as an agent of Sierra. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sierra Charter provides that (i) any present or former director or officer; (ii) any individual who, while a director or officer and at Sierra's request, serves or has served another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, or partner; or (iii) SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates acting as an agent for Sierra (each such person, an "Indemnitee") shall not be entitled to indemnification (including reasonable attorneys' fees and amounts reasonably paid in settlement) for any liability or loss suffered by Sierra, nor shall an Indemnitee be held harmless for any loss or liability suffered by Sierra, unless each of the following conditions are met: (1) the Indemnitee has determined, in good faith, that the course of conduct which caused the loss or liability was in Sierra's best interests, (2) the Indemnitee was acting on behalf of or performing services for Sierra, (3) the liability or loss suffered was not the result of (A) negligence or misconduct, in the case that the Indemnitee is SIC Advisors or an affiliate thereof acting as Sierra's agent, or an officer of Sierra, or (B) gross negligence or willful misconduct, in the case that the Indemnitee is a director of Sierra (and is not also an officer of Sierra, SIC Advisors or an affiliate thereof) and (4) the indemnification or agreement to hold harmless is only recoverable out of Sierra's net assets and not from Sierra stockholders. The Sierra Charter further limits any indemnification, as required by the Investment Company Act, to prohibit indemnification for any liability resulting from willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct.

Provisions of the MGCL and the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws

The MGCL, the Sierra Charter and Sierra Bylaws contain provisions that could make it more difficult for a potential acquirer to acquire Sierra by means of a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. These provisions are expected to discourage certain coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids and to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Sierra to negotiate first with the Sierra Board. Sierra believes that the benefits of these provisions outweigh the potential disadvantages of discouraging any such acquisition proposals because, among other things, the negotiation of such proposals may improve their terms.

Election of Directors

As permitted by the MGCL, Sierra's directors will be elected by a plurality of all votes cast by holders of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Thus, stockholders have the sole power to elect directors (except to fill vacancies, as discussed further below).

Classified Board of Directors

Pursuant to the Sierra Charter, the Sierra Board is divided into three classes of directors serving staggered three-year terms. At each annual meeting of stockholders, the successors to the class of directors whose term expires at such meeting will be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders held in the third year following the year of their election. Each director holds office for the term to which he or she is elected and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualifies. Sierra believes that the longer time required to elect a majority of a classified board of directors will help to ensure the continuity and stability of its management and policies.

Number of Directors; Vacancies; Removal

The Sierra Charter provides that the number of directors is five, which number may be increased or decreased by the Sierra Board in accordance with the Sierra Bylaws. The Sierra Bylaws provide that a majority of the Sierra Board may at any time increase or decrease the number of directors. The Sierra Bylaws provide that the number of directors may never be less than three or more than twelve. Except as may be provided by the Sierra Board in setting the terms of any class or series of preferred stock, and pursuant to an election in the Sierra Charter, pursuant to Section 3-804(c) of the MGCL, any and all vacancies on the Sierra Board may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors in office, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum, and any director elected to fill a vacancy will serve for the remainder of the full term of the directorship in which the vacancy occurred and until a successor is elected and qualifies, subject to any applicable requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Stockholders may only remove a director with cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast in the election of directors.

Sierra currently has a total of five members on the Sierra Board, three of whom are Sierra Independent Directors. The Sierra Charter provides that a majority of the Sierra Board must be Sierra Independent Directors except for a period of up to 60 days after the death, removal or resignation of a Sierra Independent Director pending the election of his or her successor.

Action by Stockholders

The MGCL provides that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders or by unanimous consent in lieu of a meeting. Although the MGCL allows Maryland corporations to authorize informal stockholder action by the written consent of less than all stockholders entitled to vote, the Sierra Charter does not contain such a provision. This, combined with the requirements of the Sierra Bylaws regarding the calling of a stockholder requested special meeting discussed below, may have the effect of delaying consideration of a stockholder proposal until the next annual meeting.

Advance Notice Provisions for Stockholder Nominations and Stockholder Proposals

The Sierra Bylaws provide that with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, nominations of persons for election to the Sierra Board and the proposal of business to be considered by stockholders may be made only (a) pursuant to Sierra's notice of the meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Sierra Board or (c) by a stockholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has complied with the advance notice procedures of the Sierra Bylaws. With respect to a special meeting, only the business specified in the notice of the meeting may be brought before the meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Sierra Board at a special meeting may be made only (a) pursuant to the notice of the meeting, (b) by the Sierra Board or (c) provided that the Sierra Board has determined that directors will be elected at the meeting, by a stockholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who has complied with the advance notice provisions of the Sierra Bylaws.

The purpose of requiring stockholders to give Sierra advance notice of nominations and other business is to afford the Sierra Board a meaningful opportunity to consider the qualifications of the proposed nominees and the advisability of any other proposed business and, to the extent deemed necessary or desirable by the Sierra Board, to inform stockholders and make recommendations about such qualifications or business, as well as to provide a more orderly procedure for conducting meetings of stockholders. Although the Sierra Bylaws do not give the Sierra Board any power to disapprove stockholder nominations for the election of directors or proposals recommending certain action, they may have the effect of precluding a contest for the election of directors or the consideration of stockholder proposals if proper procedures are not followed and of discouraging or deterring a third party from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or to approve its own proposal without regard to whether consideration of such nominees or proposals might be harmful or beneficial to Sierra and Sierra stockholders.

Calling of a Special Meeting

The Sierra Bylaws provide that a special meeting may be called by the Sierra Board and certain officers. In addition, the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws provide that, subject to the satisfaction of certain procedural and informational requirements by the stockholders requesting the meeting, a special meeting will be called by the secretary of the corporation upon the written request of stockholders entitled to cast 10% or more of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting.

Access to Records

Any stockholder will be permitted access to all of Sierra's records to which they are entitled under applicable law at all reasonable times and may inspect and copy any of them for a reasonable copying charge. Inspection of Sierra records by the office or agency administering the securities laws of a jurisdiction will be provided upon reasonable notice and during normal business hours.

Under the MGCL, stockholders are entitled to inspect and copy, upon written request during usual business hours, the following corporate documents: (i) the Sierra Charter, (ii) the Sierra Bylaws, (iii) minutes of the proceedings of stockholders, (iv) annual statements of affairs, and (v) any voting trust agreements. A stockholder may also request access to any other corporate records, which may be evaluated solely in the discretion of the Sierra Board.

Additionally, under the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws, an alphabetical list of the names, addresses and telephone numbers of stockholders, along with the number of shares of Sierra Common Stock held by each of them, will be maintained as part of Sierra's books and records and will be available for inspection by any stockholder or by a stockholder's designated agent at the office. A stockholder may request a copy of the stockholder list in connection with matters relating to voting rights and the exercise of stockholder rights under federal proxy laws. A stockholder requesting a list will be required to pay reasonable costs of postage and duplication.

In addition to the foregoing, stockholders have rights under Rule 14a-7 under the Exchange Act, which provides that, upon the request of investors and the payment of the expenses of the distribution, Sierra is required to distribute specific materials to stockholders in the context of the solicitation of proxies for voting on matters presented to stockholders or, at Sierra's option, provide requesting stockholders with a copy of the list of stockholders so that the requesting stockholders may make the distribution of proxies themselves. A stockholder may also request access to any other corporate records. If a proper request for the stockholder list or any other corporate records is not honored, then the requesting stockholder will be entitled to recover certain costs incurred in compelling the production of the list or other requested corporate records as well as actual damages suffered by reason of the refusal or failure to produce the list. However, a stockholder will not have the right to, and Sierra may require a requesting stockholder to represent that it will not, secure the stockholder list or other information for the purpose of selling or using the list for a commercial purpose not related to the requesting stockholder's interest in Sierra's affairs. Sierra may also require such stockholder to sign a confidentiality agreement in connection with the request.

Approval of Extraordinary Corporate Action; Amendment of the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws

Under the mandatory provisions of the MGCL, a Maryland corporation generally cannot dissolve, amend its charter, merge, sell all or substantially all of its assets, convert to another form of entity, engage in a share exchange or engage in similar transactions outside the ordinary course of business, unless first declared advisable by the Sierra Board and approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. However, a Maryland corporation may provide in its charter for approval of these matters by a lesser percentage, but not less than a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. Thus, under the mandatory provisions of Maryland law, stockholders are not permitted to vote on (1) amending the Sierra Charter, (2) causing the dissolution or termination of Sierra, (3) conversion of the corporation or (4) selling or substantially all of Sierra's assets other than in the ordinary course of business or causing the merger or other reorganization of Sierra, unless the Sierra Board has first declared such matters advisable. However, the Sierra Board is also required to obtain, as a matter of law, the approval of stockholders before Sierra may engage in any such transactions.

Generally, under the Sierra Charter, actions that require approval of a majority of stockholders includes:

- amending the Sierra Charter;
- amending the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement;
- amending the Sierra Administration Agreement;
- approving or disapproving the sale of all or substantially all of Sierra's assets when such sale is to be made other than in the ordinary course of Sierra's business;
- causing a merger or other reorganization of Sierra;
- dissolving Sierra;
and
- removing SIC Advisors and electing a new investment adviser.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, amendments to the Sierra Charter to make Sierra Common Stock a "redeemable security" or to convert Sierra, whether by merger or otherwise, from a closed-end company to an open-end company must be approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes entitled cast on the matter.

The Sierra Charter also provides that the Sierra Board will have the exclusive power to make, alter, amend or repeal any provision of the Sierra Bylaws.

Without the approval of a majority of Sierra stockholders, SIC Advisors may not:

- amend the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement except for amendments that would not adversely affect the interests of Sierra stockholders;
- voluntarily withdraw as Sierra's investment adviser unless such withdrawal would not affect Sierra's tax status and would not materially adversely affect Sierra's stockholders;
- appoint a new investment adviser;
- sell all or substantially all of Sierra's assets other than in the ordinary course of business; and
- cause the merger or any other reorganization of Sierra.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sierra Charter also provides certain voting rights for stockholders, including the right to direct that the Sierra Board to cause Sierra to (i) amend the Sierra Charter, (ii) dissolve Sierra, (iii) approve the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Sierra, or (iv) cause the merger or other reorganization of Sierra.

No Appraisal Rights

In certain extraordinary transactions, the MGCL provides the right to objecting stockholders to demand and receive the fair value of their shares, subject to certain procedures and requirements set forth in the statute. Those rights are commonly referred to as appraisal rights or, under the MGCL, rights of an objecting stockholder. Except with respect to appraisal rights arising in connection with the Control Share Acquisition Act (if available), defined and discussed below, as permitted by the MGCL, and similar rights in connection with a proposed roll-up transaction, the Sierra Charter provides that stockholders will not be entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

Control Share Acquisitions

The MGCL provides that holders of control shares of a Maryland corporation acquired in a control share acquisition have no voting rights with respect to control shares except to the extent approved by a vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, referred to as the Control Share Acquisition Act. Shares owned by the acquirer, or by officers or directors who are employees of the corporation, are excluded from shares entitled to vote on the matter. Control shares are voting shares of stock which, if aggregated with all other shares of stock owned by the acquirer or in respect of which the acquirer is able to exercise or direct the exercise of voting power (except solely by virtue of a revocable proxy), would entitle the acquirer to exercise voting power in electing directors within one of the following ranges of voting power:

- one-tenth or more but less than one-third;
- one-third or more but less than a majority; or
- a majority or more of all voting power.

The requisite stockholder approval must be obtained each time an acquirer crosses one of the thresholds of voting power set forth above. Control shares do not include shares the acquiring person is then entitled to vote as a result of having previously obtained stockholder approval. A control share acquisition means the acquisition of control shares, subject to certain exceptions.

A person who has made or proposes to make a control share acquisition may compel the Sierra Board of the corporation to call a special meeting of stockholders to be held within 50 days of demand to consider the voting rights of the shares. The right to compel the calling of a special meeting is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including an undertaking to pay the expenses of the meeting. If no request for a meeting is made, the corporation may itself present the question at any stockholders meeting.

If voting rights are not approved at the meeting or if the acquiring person does not deliver an acquiring person statement, as required by the statute, then the corporation may repurchase for fair value any or all of the control shares, except those for which voting rights have previously been approved. The right of the corporation to repurchase control shares is subject to certain conditions and limitations, including, as provided in the Sierra Bylaws, compliance with the Investment Company Act. Fair value is determined, without regard to the absence of voting rights for the control shares, as of the date of the last control share acquisition by the acquirer or of any meeting of stockholders at which the voting rights of the shares are considered and not approved. If voting rights for control shares are approved at a stockholders meeting and the acquirer becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares entitled to vote, all other stockholders may exercise appraisal rights. The fair value of the shares as determined for purposes of appraisal rights may not be less than the highest price per share paid by the acquirer in the control share acquisition.

The Control Share Acquisition Act does not apply (a) to shares acquired in a merger, consolidation or share exchange if the corporation is a party to the transaction or (b) to acquisitions approved or exempted by the charter or bylaws of a corporation.

The Sierra Bylaws contain a provision exempting from the Control Share Acquisition Act any and all acquisitions by any person of shares of Sierra Common Stock. There can be no assurance that such provision will not be amended or eliminated at any time in the future. However, Sierra will amend the Sierra Bylaws to be subject to the Control Share Acquisition Act only if the Sierra Board determines that it would be in Sierra's best interest and if the SEC staff does not object to Sierra's determination that being subject to the Control Share Acquisition Act does not conflict with the Investment Company Act.

Business Combinations

Under Maryland law, certain "business combinations" between a Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder or an affiliate of an interested stockholder are prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder, which is referred to as the Business Combination Act. These business combinations include a merger, consolidation, share exchange or, in circumstances specified in the statute, an asset transfer or issuance or reclassification of equity securities. An interested stockholder is defined as:

- any person who beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation's shares; or
- an affiliate or associate of the corporation who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock of the corporation.

A person is not an interested stockholder under this statute if the Sierra Board approved in advance the transaction by which he otherwise would have become an interested stockholder. However, in approving a transaction, the Sierra Board may provide that its approval is subject to compliance, at or after the time of approval, with any terms and conditions determined by the board.

After the five-year prohibition, any business combination between the Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder generally must be recommended by the Sierra Board of the corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least:

- 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of voting stock of the corporation; and
- two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by the interested stockholder with whom or with whose affiliate the business combination is to be effected or held by an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder.

These super-majority vote requirements do not apply if the corporation's common stockholders receive a minimum price, as defined under Maryland law, for their shares in the form of cash or other consideration in the same form as previously paid by the interested stockholder for its shares.

The statute permits various exemptions from its provisions, including business combinations that are exempted by the Sierra Board before the time that the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder.

The Sierra Board has adopted a resolution that any business combination between Sierra and any other person is exempted from the provisions of the Business Combination Act, provided that the business combination is first approved by the Sierra Board, including a majority of Independent Directors. This resolution, however, may be altered or repealed in whole or in part at any time. If this resolution is repealed, or the Sierra Board does not otherwise approve a business combination, the statute may discourage others from trying to acquire control of Sierra and increase the difficulty of consummating any offer.

Additional Provisions of Maryland Law

Maryland law provides that a Maryland corporation that is subject to the Exchange Act and has at least three outside directors can elect by resolution of the board of directors to be subject to some corporate governance provisions that may be inconsistent with the corporation's charter and bylaws. Under the applicable statute, a board of directors may classify itself without the vote of stockholders. A board of directors classified in that manner cannot be altered by amendment to the charter of the corporation. Further, the board of directors may, by electing into applicable statutory provisions and notwithstanding the articles of incorporation or bylaws:

- reserve for itself the right to fix the number of directors;
- provide that a director may be removed only by the vote of the holders of two-thirds of the stock entitled to vote;
- retain for itself sole authority to fill vacancies created by the death, removal or resignation of a director; and
- provide that all vacancies on the board of directors may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, in office, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum.

In addition, if the board of directors is classified, a director elected to fill a vacancy under this provision will serve for the balance of the unexpired term instead of until the next annual meeting of stockholders. A board of directors may implement all or any of these provisions without amending the articles of incorporation or bylaws and without stockholder approval. A corporation may be prohibited by its charter or by resolution of its board of directors from electing any of the provisions of the statute. Sierra is not prohibited from implementing any or all of the statute.

Pursuant to the Sierra Charter, Sierra has elected to be subject to a specific provision of the statute such that, at all times that Sierra is eligible to make that election, all vacancies on the Sierra Board resulting from an increase in the size of the board or the death, resignation or removal of a director may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum. That election by the Sierra Board is subject to applicable requirements of the Investment Company Act and subject to any provisions of a class or series of preferred stock established by the Sierra Board, and provided that

Independent Directors shall nominate replacements for any vacancies among the Independent Directors' positions. While certain other of the provisions available for election under the statute are already contemplated by the Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws, the law would permit the Sierra Board to override further changes to the Sierra Charter or the Sierra Bylaws.

Limited Repurchase Rights

The Sierra Charter contains provisions governing Sierra's share repurchase program (the "Sierra Share Repurchase Program") and Sierra's repurchase of shares upon the death or disability of a stockholder. These repurchase obligations terminate, among other times, on the date that Sierra Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange.

Repurchase Upon Death or Disability

In the event of the death or disability of a stockholder, Sierra will repurchase the shares of Sierra Common Stock held by such stockholder, upon such shares being under the Share Repurchase Program, presented to Sierra for repurchase, at a price equal to the NAV per share of shares of Sierra Common Stock as disclosed in the most recently filed periodic report filed with the SEC immediately following the death or disability of such stockholder. However, Sierra will not be obligated to repurchase shares if more than 360 days have elapsed since the date of the death or disability of a stockholder and, in the case of disability, if the stockholder fails to provide an opinion of a qualified independent physician. For purposes of this repurchase right, a disability will be deemed to have occurred when a stockholder suffers a disability for a period of time, as determined by the Sierra Board and confirmed by a qualified independent physician. The Sierra Board will have no obligation to repurchase shares if it would cause Sierra to violate federal law or Maryland law. Moreover, the Sierra Board has the right to suspend or terminate this repurchase right to the extent that it determines that it is in Sierra's best interest to do so. Finally, this repurchase right will terminate on the date that the Sierra Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange or is included for quotation in a national securities market. All shares to be repurchased under the Share Repurchase Program must be (i) fully transferable and not be subject to any liens or other encumbrances and (ii) free from any restrictions on transfer. If Sierra determines that a lien or other encumbrance or restriction exists against the shares requested to be repurchased, Sierra will not repurchase any such shares. On September 1, 2021, the Sierra Board suspended the repurchases of shares of Sierra Common Stock in the event of the death or disability of a stockholder.

Conflict with the Investment Company Act

The Sierra Charter and the Sierra Bylaws provide that, if and to the extent that any provision of the MGCL or any provision of the Sierra Charter or the Sierra Bylaws conflicts with any provision of the Investment Company Act, the applicable provision of the Investment Company Act will control.

BARINGS BDC DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

The information in "Business—Dividend Reinvestment Plan" in Part 1, Item 1 of Barings BDC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020 is incorporated herein by reference.

SIERRA DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT PLAN

The Sierra distribution reinvestment plan (the "Sierra DRIP") described below has been suspended pursuant to the Merger Agreement. As a result, beginning with Sierra's first distribution following its September 2021 distribution, any distributions declared by Sierra will be paid in cash to all Sierra stockholders unless and until the DRIP is reinstated. Set forth below is a description of the current Sierra DRIP.

The Sierra DRIP is an "opt-in" distribution reinvestment plan pursuant to which Sierra stockholders may elect to have the full amount of cash distributions by Sierra reinvested in additional shares of Sierra Common Stock. There are no selling commissions, dealer manager fees or other sales charges to a Sierra stockholder if such stockholder elects to participate in the Sierra DRIP. Sierra pays the reinvestment agent's fees under the Sierra DRIP.

If a Sierra stockholder wishes to receive Sierra distributions in cash, no action is required on such stockholder's part to do so. Registered Sierra stockholders may elect to have such stockholder's entire distribution reinvested in shares of additional Sierra Common Stock by notifying DST Systems, Inc., the reinvestment agent and Sierra's transfer agent and registrar ("DST Systems"), in writing so that such notice is received by DST Systems no later than the record date for the applicable distribution to Sierra stockholders. If a Sierra stockholder participates in the Sierra DRIP, (1) all distributions thereafter declared by the Sierra Board shall be payable in shares of Sierra Common Stock, and no further action shall be required on such stockholder's part to receive a distribution in shares of Sierra Common Stock and (2) DST Systems will set up an account for shares such stockholder acquires through the Sierra DRIP and will hold such shares in non-certificated form. If a Sierra stockholder's shares are held by a broker-dealer or other financial intermediary, such stockholder may "opt-in" to the Sierra DRIP by notifying such broker-dealer or other financial intermediary of such election.

Any purchases of Sierra Common Stock pursuant to the Sierra DRIP are dependent on the continued registration of Sierra's securities or the availability of an exemption from registration in the recipient's home state. Participants in the Sierra DRIP are free to elect or revoke their participation in the Sierra DRIP within a reasonable time as specified in the plan.

The reinvestment purchase price under the Sierra DRIP will be 94.5% of the NAV per share of Sierra Common Stock on the distribution date. Shares issued pursuant to the Sierra DRIP will have the same voting rights as other outstanding shares of Sierra Common Stock.

A participant in the Sierra DRIP may terminate his, her or its account under the Sierra DRIP by filling out the transaction request form located at the bottom of the participant's statement and sending it to the DST Systems at P.O. Box 219731, Kansas City, Missouri 64121-9731 or by calling the DST Systems at (816) 435-1000. Such termination will be effective immediately if the participant's notice is received by DST Systems at least two days prior to any distribution record date; otherwise, such termination will be effective only with respect to any subsequent distribution.

During each quarter, but in no event later than 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter, DST Systems will mail and/or make electronically available to each participant in the Sierra DRIP, a statement of account describing, as to such participant, the distributions received during such quarter, the number of shares of Sierra Common Stock purchased during such quarter, and the per share purchase price for such shares. At least annually, Sierra will include tax information for income earned on shares under the Sierra DRIP on a Form 1099-DIV that is mailed to participants. Sierra reserves the right to amend, suspend or terminate the Sierra DRIP.

Additional information about the Sierra DRIP may be obtained by contacting stockholder services for Sierra at (212) 759-0777. This description of the Sierra DRIP is only a summary of certain provisions of the Sierra DRIP and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Sierra DRIP, which is filed as an exhibit to Sierra's filings with the SEC. These provisions address a number of transactions, including joint ventures, sales and leases to and from Sierra, loans to and from Sierra, as well as general restrictions on affiliated transactions with Sierra's investment advisers and their respective affiliates.	cast not less than two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors. Certain amendments relating to (i) making the Sierra Common Stock a "redeemable security" or converting Sierra, whether by merger or otherwise, from a "closed-end company" to an "open-end company," (ii) extraordinary actions, (iii) determinations by the Sierra Board, and (iv) charter amendments require the approval of stockholders entitled to cast at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. Additionally, as permitted by the MGCL, the Sierra Charter provides that a majority of the Sierra Board may amend the Sierra Charter from time to time without stockholder approval to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock or the number of shares of stock of any class or series.	Except for those amendments permitted to be made without stockholder approval under Maryland law or by specific provision in the Barings BDC Charter or as set forth in the following sentence, the Barings BDC Charter may be amended only if the amendment is declared advisable by the Barings BDC Board and approved by the affirmative vote of Barings BDC stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter at a special or annual meeting. 		Additionally, as permitted by the MGCL and set forth above, the Barings BDC Charter provides that a majority of the Barings BDC Board may amend the Barings BDC Charter from time to time without stockholder approval to increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of stock or the number of shares of capital stock of any class or series.
Mergers, Consolidations and Sale of Assets	Subject to certain exceptions, Sierra may merge, consolidate, convert, sell, lease, exchange or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of its assets, engage in a share exchange or engage in similar transactions outside the ordinary course of business only if such transaction is declared advisable by the Sierra Board and approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. In addition, the Sierra Charter provides that, subject to and in addition to the provisions of any class or series of shares then outstanding and the mandatory provisions of any applicable laws or regulations, including the MGCL, upon a vote by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on a matter, stockholders may, without the necessity for concurrence by the investment advisers, direct that the Sierra Board cause Sierra to: (i) amend the Sierra Charter, the Sierra Investment Advisory Agreement, or the Sierra Administration Agreement; (ii) remove SIC Advisors; (iii) dissolve Sierra; (iv) approve or disapprove the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Sierra when such sale is to be made other than in the ordinary course of Sierra's business; or (v) cause the merger or other reorganization of Sierra.	Subject to certain exceptions, Barings BDC may merge, consolidate, convert, sell, lease, exchange or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of its assets, engage in a share exchange or engage in similar transactions outside the ordinary course of business only if such transaction is declared advisable by the Barings BDC Board and approved by the affirmative vote of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. The Barings BDC Charter does not contain any analogous rights that would permit stockholders to direct any action of the Barings BDC Board, other than through a non-binding shareholder proposal.

Within 20 days after such request is made, Sierra must prepare such information and have it available on file at its principal office.

The Sierra Charter provides that Sierra stockholders may access Sierra's records upon reasonable notice and during business hours pursuant to the MGCL and in accordance with the Sierra Bylaws. The Sierra Bylaws provide that an alphabetical list of the names, addresses and telephone numbers of Sierra stockholders, along with the number of shares of stock owned by each of them, will be available for inspection by any stockholder or the stockholder's designated agent upon request. This repurchase obligation terminates, among other times, on the date that the Sierra Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange. Upon an event of death or disability of a holder of Sierra Common Stock, the Sierra Charter obligates Sierra to repurchase from such holder all of the holder's shares of Sierra Common Stock for an amount equal to the NAV per share of the common stock as disclosed in Sierra's most recently filed annual report on Form 10-K or quarterly report on Form 10-Q following the date of death or disability of such holder. This repurchase obligation terminates, among other times, on the date that the Sierra Common Stock is listed on a national securities exchange.
Distributions In-Kind	Pursuant to the Sierra Charter, distributions in kind are not permitted, except for (a) distributions of readily marketable securities, (b) distributions of beneficial interests in a liquidating trust established for Sierra's dissolution and the liquidation of its assets in accordance with the Sierra Charter or (c) distributions in which (1) the Sierra Board advises each stockholder of the risks associated with direct ownership of the property, (2) the Sierra Board offers each stockholder the election of receiving such in-kind distributions and (3) in-kind distributions are made only to those stockholders that accept such offer.	The Barings BDC Charter contains no restrictions on distributions in-kind.
Roll-Up Transactions	Under the Sierra Charter, a "Roll-up Transaction" is a transaction involving the acquisition, merger, conversion or consolidation, directly or indirectly, of Sierra and the issuance of securities of an entity (a	The Barings BDC Charter contains no restrictions on roll-up transactions. “Roll-up Entity”) that is created or would survive after the successful completion of a Roll-up Transaction. This term does not include (a) a transaction involving securities of a company that have been listed on a national securities exchange for at least 12 months; or (b) a transaction involving Sierra’s conversion to corporate, trust or association form if, as a consequence of the transaction, there will be no significant adverse change in stockholder voting rights, the term of Sierra’s existence, compensation to Sierra’s investment adviser or Sierra’s investment objectives.

In connection with any Roll-up Transaction involving the issuance of securities of a Roll-up Entity, an appraisal of all of Sierra’s assets must be obtained from a competent independent appraiser. The assets must be appraised on a consistent basis, and the appraisal will be based on the evaluation of all relevant information and will indicate the value of the assets as of a date immediately prior to the announcement of the proposed Roll-up Transaction. The appraisal must assume an orderly liquidation of assets over a 12-month period. The terms of the engagement of the independent appraiser must clearly state that the engagement is for the benefit of Sierra and its stockholders. A summary of the appraisal, indicating all material assumptions underlying the appraisal, must be included in a report to stockholders in connection with any proposed Roll-up Transaction.

In connection with a proposed Roll-up Transaction, the sponsor of the Roll-up Transaction must offer to common stockholders who vote “no” on the proposal the choice of: (a) accepting the securities of the Roll-up Entity offered in the proposed Roll-up Transaction; or (b) one of the following: (i) remaining as holders of Sierra’s stock and preserving their interests therein on the same terms and conditions as existed previously or (ii) receiving cash in an amount equal to the stockholder’s pro rata share of the appraised value of Sierra’s net assets.

Sierra is prohibited from participating in any Roll-up Transaction: (a) that would result in the common stockholders having voting rights in a Roll-up Entity that are less than those provided in the Sierra Charter and the Sierra

Indemnification of Officers and Directors	Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Sierra Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding in which the director or officer was successful. Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (1) was committed in bad faith or (2) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under Maryland law, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification, and then only for expenses. A court may order indemnification if it determines that the director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, even though the director or officer did not meet the prescribed standard of conduct or was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (b) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

The Sierra Charter provides that Sierra shall indemnify, to the fullest extent of Maryland law, (i) any individual who is a present or former director or officer of Sierra and who is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity, and (ii) any individual who, while serving as a director or officer of Sierra and at the request of Sierra, services or has served as a director, officer, partner or director of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise and who is made or threatened to be made a party to the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity or (iii) SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates acting as an agent of Sierra.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sierra Charter provides that (i) any present or former director or officer; (ii) any individual who, while a director or officer and at Sierra's request, serves or has served another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, or partner; or (iii) SIC Advisors or any of its affiliates acting as an agent for Sierra (each such person, a "Sierra Indemnitee") shall not be entitled to indemnification (including reasonable attorneys' fees and amounts reasonably paid in settlement) for any liability or loss suffered by Sierra, nor shall a Sierra Indemnitee be held harmless for any loss or liability suffered by Sierra, unless each of the following conditions are met: (1) the Sierra Indemnitee has determined, in good faith, that the course of conduct which caused the loss or liability was in Sierra's best interests, (2) the Sierra Indemnitee was acting on behalf of or performing services for Sierra, (3) the liability or loss suffered was not the result of (A) negligence or misconduct, in the case that the Sierra Indemnitee is SIC Advisors or an

In addition, Maryland law permits a Maryland corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon receipt of (1) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification and (2) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

To the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law and the Investment Company Act, the Barings BDC Charter authorizes Barings BDC to obligate itself to indemnify and pay or reimburse reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding, and the Barings BDC Bylaws require Barings BDC to indemnify and, without requiring a preliminary determination of the ultimate entitlement to indemnification, pay or reimburse reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding, to (1) any present or former director or officer or (2) any individual who, while a director or officer and at Barings BDC's request, serves or has served another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise as a director, officer, partner or trustee, in each case who is made or threatened to be made a party to, or witness in, the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity.

The Barings BDC Charter and Barings BDC Bylaws permit Barings BDC, with the approval of the Barings BDC Board, to provide indemnification and advance of expenses to a person who served a predecessor of Barings BDC in any of the capacities described above and to any employee or agent of Barings BDC or such predecessor.

The Sierra Charter further limits any indemnification, as required by the Investment Company Act, to prohibit indemnification for any liability resulting from willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct.

Additionally, Sierra has indemnification agreements in place with its directors and officers.

BROKERAGE ALLOCATION AND OTHER PRACTICES

Since Barings BDC generally acquires and disposes of Barings BDC's investments in privately negotiated transactions, Barings BDC infrequently uses brokers in the normal course of its business. Barings is primarily responsible for the execution of any publicly traded securities portion of Barings BDC's portfolio transactions and the allocation of brokerage commissions. Barings BDC does not expect to execute transactions through any particular broker or dealer, but will seek to obtain the best net results for Barings BDC, taking into account such factors as price (including the applicable brokerage commission or dealer spread), size of order, difficulty of execution, operational facilities of the firm and the firm's risk and skill in positioning blocks of securities. While Barings BDC generally seeks reasonably competitive trade execution costs, Barings BDC will not necessarily pay the lowest spread or commission available. Subject to applicable legal requirements, if Barings BDC uses a broker, Barings BDC may select a broker based partly upon brokerage or research services provided to Barings BDC. In return for such services, Barings BDC may pay a higher commission than other brokers would charge if Barings BDC determines in good faith that such commission is reasonable in relation to the services provided.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the representations, warranties and covenants and subject to the conditions herein contained, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGERS

Section 1.1 The Mergers.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, and in accordance with the MGCL, at the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub shall be merged with and into the Company, whereupon the separate existence of Acquisition Sub shall cease, and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent.

(b) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and in accordance with the MGCL, immediately after the Effective Time and as part of a single integrated transaction with the First Merger, the Surviving Corporation shall be merged with and into Parent, whereupon the separate existence of the Surviving Corporation shall cease, and Parent shall continue as the surviving corporation.

Section 1.2 The Closing. Subject to the provisions of Article VII, the closing of the First Merger (the "Closing") shall take place remotely by electronic exchange of documents and signatures at 10:00 a.m. (local time) on a date to be specified by the parties hereto, but no later than the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions), unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto (such date being the "Closing Date").

Section 1.3 Effective Time.

(a) Concurrently with the Closing, the Company shall cause articles of merger with respect to the First Merger (the "Articles of First Merger") to be executed and filed with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland (the "SDAT") as provided under the MGCL. The First Merger shall become effective on the date and time at which the Articles of First Merger have been accepted for record by the SDAT or at such other date and time as is agreed between Parent and the Company and specified in the Articles of First Merger (such date and time being hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Time").

(b) Immediately after the Effective Time and as part of a single integrated transaction with the First Merger, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall cause articles of merger with respect to the Second Merger (the "Articles of Second Merger") to be executed and filed with the SDAT as provided under the MGCL. The Second Merger shall become effective on the date and time at which the Articles of Second Merger have been accepted for record by the SDAT or at such other date and time as is agreed between Parent and the Company and specified in the Articles of Second Merger (such date and time being hereinafter referred to as the "Second Effective Time").

(c) The Mergers shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement and the applicable provisions of the MGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) from and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Acquisition Sub, and all of the obligations, liabilities, and duties of the Company and Acquisition Sub shall become the obligations, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation, and (ii) from and after the Second Effective Time, Parent shall possess all rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Surviving Corporation and Parent, and all of the obligations, liabilities, and duties of the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall become the obligations, liabilities and duties of Parent.

Section 1.4 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

(a) At the Effective Time, the articles of incorporation of the Company as the Surviving Corporation shall be amended to be identical to that set forth in Exhibit A hereto until thereafter amended in accordance with Applicable Law and the applicable provisions of the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation (subject to Section 6.7).

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) At the Effective Time, and without any further action on the part of the Company and Acquisition Sub, the bylaws of Acquisition Sub in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation (except the references to Acquisition Sub's name shall be replaced by references to "Sierra Income Corporation"), until thereafter amended in accordance with Applicable Law and the applicable provisions of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation (subject to Section 6.7).

Section 1.5 Board of Directors.

(a) The board of directors of the Surviving Corporation effective as of, and immediately following, the Effective Time shall consist of the members of the board of directors of Acquisition Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected, designated or qualified, as the case may be.

(b) Parent shall take such actions as are necessary (including, but not limited to, increasing the size of the Parent Board) to cause two (2) individuals who are currently serving as independent directors on the Company Board as of the date hereof (the "Designees") to be appointed to serve as members of the Parent Board as Class II directors as of immediately after the Effective Time, provided that each such Designee (i) shall be selected by Parent at its discretion, (ii) shall not be an "interested person" of Parent (as such term is defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act) and (iii) shall have no current or past relationship with KPMG LLP, Parent's independent public accounting firm, that would cause KPMG LLP to not be deemed independent of Parent under applicable auditor independence standards.

Section 1.6 Officers.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, the officers of Acquisition Sub at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation, until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, as the case may be.

(b) From and after the Second Effective Time, the officers of Parent at the Second Effective Time shall continue to be the officers of Parent, until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, as the case may be.

ARTICLE II

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

Section 2.1 Effect on Securities.

(a) First Merger. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the First Merger and without any action on the part of the Company, Parent, Acquisition Sub or the holders of any securities of the Company or Acquisition Sub:

(i) Cancellation of Company Securities. Each share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company (the "Company Common Stock") issued and outstanding and held by a Subsidiary of the Company or held, directly or indirectly, by Parent or Acquisition Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration or payment shall be delivered in exchange therefor or in respect thereof.

(ii) Conversion of Company Securities. Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding any shares canceled pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(i)) shall be converted into the right to receive (A) $0.9783641 per share in cash, without interest, from the Parent External Adviser (such amount of cash, as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(iv), the "Cash Consideration"), and (B) 0.44973 (such ratio, as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(iv), the "Exchange Ratio") of a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock of Parent, par value $0.001 per share (the "Parent Common Stock") (and, if applicable, cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock payable in accordance with Section 2.1(a)(v) and such share of Parent Common Stock and any such cash in lieu of fractional shares, the "Share Consideration") (the consideration payable in accordance with Section 2.1(a)(ii)(A) and Section 2.1(a)(ii)(B), collectively, the "Merger Consideration"). Each share of Company Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in this Section 2.1(a)(ii) shall no longer be outstanding and shall be automatically canceled and shall cease to exist, and the holders of certificates (the “Certificates”) or book-entry shares (“Book-Entry Shares”) which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented such Company Common Stock, shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Company Common Stock other than the right to receive, upon surrender of such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in accordance with Section 2.2, the Merger Consideration. The amount of cash each holder of Company Common Stock is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.1(a)(ii) shall be rounded to the nearest cent, and computed after aggregating all cash amounts for all shares of Company Common Stock held by such holder.

(iii) Conversion of Acquisition Sub Capital Stock. Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Acquisition Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one (1) fully paid share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation and constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(iv) Adjustments. Without limiting the other provisions of this Agreement, if at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the number of outstanding shares of Parent Common Stock or Company Common Stock shall occur as a result of a reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the Exchange Ratio and any other similarly dependent items, as the case may be, shall be appropriately adjusted to provide the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such event, provided that any such adjustment shall not prevent the Mergers from qualifying for the Intended Tax Treatment. Nothing in this Section 2.1(a)(iv) shall be construed to permit any party to take any action that is otherwise prohibited or restricted by any other provision of this Agreement.

(v) Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the conversion of Company Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(ii), and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to any Parent Common Stock or to vote or to any other rights of a holder of Parent Common Stock. All fractional shares to which a single record holder of Company Common Stock would be otherwise entitled to receive shall be aggregated and calculations shall be rounded to three (3) decimal places. In lieu of any such fractional shares, each holder of Company Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to such fractional shares shall be entitled to an amount in cash, without interest, rounded up to the nearest cent, equal to the product of (A) the amount of the fractional share interest in a share of Parent Common Stock to which such holder would, but for this Section 2.1(a)(v), be entitled under Section 2.1(a)(ii) and (B) an amount equal to the average of the volume weighted average price per share of Parent Common Stock on the NYSE (as reported by Bloomberg L.P. or, if not reported therein, in another authoritative source mutually selected by Parent and the Company) on each of the five (5) consecutive trading days ending with the third (3rd) complete trading day immediately prior to the Closing Date, provided that any such payment of cash shall not prevent the Mergers from qualifying for the Intended Tax Treatment. As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of Company Common Stock in lieu of any fractional share interests in Parent Common Stock, the Exchange Agent shall make available such amount, without interest, to the holders of Company Common Stock entitled to receive such cash. The payment of cash in lieu of fractional share interests pursuant to this Section 2.1(a)(v) is not a separately bargained-for consideration.

(b) Second Merger. At the Second Effective Time, by virtue of the Second Merger and without any action on the part of the Surviving Corporation or Parent or the holders of any securities of the Surviving Corporation or Parent, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Second Effective Time shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist without any consideration being payable therefor.

Section 2.2 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Designation of Exchange Agent; Deposit of Exchange Fund. Prior to the Closing, Parent and the Parent External Adviser shall enter into a customary exchange agreement with a nationally recognized financial institution designated by Parent and reasonably acceptable to the Company (the “Exchange Agent”) for the payment of the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1(a)(ii). At least one (1) Business Day prior to the Effective Time, (i) Parent shall deposit, or cause to be deposited with the Exchange Agent, for exchange in accordance with Article II, through the Exchange Agent, Book-Entry Shares (or certificates if requested by the Company) representing the full number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(ii) in exchange for outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and (ii) the Parent External Adviser shall deposit cash in an aggregate amount necessary to pay the cash portion of the Merger Consideration, and Parent shall, after the Effective Time on the appropriate payment date, if applicable, provide or cause to be provided to the Exchange Agent any dividends or other distributions payable on such shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.2(d) (such shares of Parent Common Stock and cash provided to the Exchange Agent, together with any dividends or other distributions with respect thereto, are hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange Fund”). For purposes of the deposit, Parent shall assume that there will not be any fractional shares of Parent Common Stock. Parent shall make available to the Exchange Agent, for addition to the Exchange Fund, from time to time as needed, cash sufficient to pay cash in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.1(a)(v). In the event the Exchange Fund shall at any time be insufficient to make the payments contemplated by Section 2.1(a)(ii), Parent or the Parent External Adviser, as applicable, shall promptly deposit, or cause to be deposited, additional funds with the Exchange Agent in an amount which is equal to the deficiency in the amount required to make such payment. Parent and the Parent External Adviser shall cause the Exchange Fund to be (x) held for the benefit of the holders of Company Common Stock and (y) applied promptly to making the payments pursuant to Section 2.1(a)(ii). The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than to fund payments pursuant to Section 2.1(a), except as expressly provided for in this Agreement.

The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. No interest shall be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares on the cash payable upon the surrender of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares.

(d) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared with respect to Parent Common Stock to stockholders of record on or after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby, in each case unless and until the surrender of such Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares in accordance with this Article II. Subject to Applicable Law, following surrender of a Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, there shall be paid to the holder of the Parent Common Stock issued in exchange for such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares, without interest, (i) at the time of delivery of such Parent Common Stock by the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 2.2(c), the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such delivery of such Parent Common Stock by the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 2.2(c), and a payment date subsequent to such delivery of such Parent Common Stock by the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 2.2(c), payable with respect to such shares of Parent Common Stock.

(f) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for one (1) year after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent or its designee, upon demand, and any such holders prior to the First Merger who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only (i) to Parent and the Surviving Corporation as general creditor thereof for payment of their claims for Share Consideration and any dividends or distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock as contemplated by Section 2.2(d) and (ii) the Parent External Adviser as general creditor thereof for payment of their claims for the Cash Consideration. Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall pay all charges and expenses, including those of the Exchange Agent, in connection with the exchange of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares for the Merger Consideration.

(g) No Liability. None of Parent, the Parent External Adviser, Acquisition Sub, the Company, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any Person in respect of any shares of Parent Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash held in the Exchange Fund delivered to a Governmental Authority pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate Taxing Authority by Parent, the Parent External Adviser, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent on behalf of the Person, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Parent, the Parent External Adviser, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent.

Section 2.3 Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation or Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation or Parent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to this Article II.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as disclosed in the Company SEC Documents filed by the Company prior to the date of this Agreement (but in each case excluding any risk factor or similar disclosure under the headings "Risk Factors" or "Forward Looking Statements" or any similar non-specific, predictive, precautionary or forward-looking statements, in each case, other than any specific factual information contained therein) or as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Letter, the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent as follows:

Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except where the failure to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect. The Company's Second Articles of Amendment and Restatement (as amended or supplemented, the "Company's Charter") and Bylaws (as amended, the "Company's Bylaws"), as currently in effect, are included in the Company SEC Documents and are in full force and effect and the Company is not in violation of such documents. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Company, and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby (other than the Second Merger), have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action by the Company, and except for the Company Stockholder Approval and the filing of the Articles of First Merger with the SDAT, no other corporate action or proceeding on the part of the Company is necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Company and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby (other than the Second Merger). This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement by the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except that (i) such enforcement may be subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar Laws, now or hereafter in effect, affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and (ii) the remedies of specific performance and injunctive and other forms of equitable relief may be subject to equitable defenses and to the discretion of the court before which any Proceeding therefor may be brought (collectively, the "Bankruptcy and Equity Exception").

(c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company nor the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby will (i) violate any provision of Company's Charter or the Company's Bylaws or the articles of incorporation or bylaws (or equivalent organizational documents) of any Subsidiary of the Company, (ii) assuming that the Consents, registrations, declarations, filings and notices referred to in Section 3.4 have been obtained or made, any applicable waiting periods referred to therein have expired and any condition precedent to any such Consent has been satisfied, conflict with or violate any Law applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or by which any property or asset of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is bound or affected, or (iii) assuming the repayment in full of all obligations under the Existing Loan Agreement and termination of the commitments thereunder, result in any breach of, or constitute a default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under, or give rise to any right of termination, acceleration or cancellation of, or require the consent, or notice to or filing with any Third Party pursuant to, any Company Material Contract, or result in the creation of a Lien, other than any Permitted Lien, upon any of the material property or assets of the Company or any of its consolidated Subsidiaries, other than, in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii), any such consent, notice, filing, conflict, violation, breach, default, termination, acceleration, cancellation or Lien that would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.4 Required Filings and Consents. No consent, approval, license, permit, order or authorization (a "Consent") of, or registration, declaration or filing with, or notice to, any Governmental Authority is required to be obtained or made by or with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than (i) applicable requirements of and filings with the SEC under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and the Investment Company Act, (ii) the filing of the Articles of First Merger with, and acceptance for record of the Articles of First Merger by, the SDAT and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of the other jurisdictions in which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is qualified to do business, (iii) such filings as may be required in connection with the Taxes described in Section 8.6 or a Tax Dividend, (iv) such other items required solely by reason of the participation of Parent, the Parent External Adviser or Acquisition Sub and their respective Subsidiaries in the transactions contemplated hereby (including compliance with the applicable rules and regulations of the NYSE), (v) compliance with and filings or notifications under the HSR Act and any other applicable United States or foreign competition, antitrust, merger control or investment Laws (together with the HSR Act, "Antitrust Laws"), (vi) applicable requirements under corporation or Blue Sky Laws of various states and (vii) such other Consents, registrations, declarations, filings or notices the failure of which to be obtained or made would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.5 Permits; Compliance with Laws.

(a) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries are in compliance, and have been operated in compliance since January 1, 2019, in all material respects, with all Applicable Law, including, if and to the extent applicable, the Investment Company Act, the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, other than as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any written or, to the Knowledge of the Company, oral notification from a Governmental Authority of any material non-compliance with any Applicable Law, which non-compliance would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries (i) are and have been at all times in compliance with the applicable money laundering Laws applicable to the Company and its Subsidiaries and (ii) have not, directly or indirectly, taken any action that would cause the Company or its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the FCPA, or any other anticorruption or anti-bribery Laws applicable to the Company or its Subsidiaries, other than, any non-compliance that would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(c) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries are in compliance, and since January 1, 2019, have complied with the Company's investment policies and restrictions and portfolio valuation methods, if any, as such policies and restrictions have been set forth in the Company's registration statement (as amended from time to time) or reports that the Company has filed with the SEC under the Exchange Act, the Securities Act and Applicable Law, if any, other than any non-compliance that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

There have been no “Material Compliance Matters” for the Company, as such term is defined in Rule 38a-1(e)(2) under the Investment Company Act, other than those that have been reported to the Company Board and satisfactorily remedied or are in the process of being remedied or those that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to be material to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(e) The Company and each of its Subsidiaries holds and is in compliance with all Permits required in order to permit the Company and each of its Subsidiaries to own or lease their properties and assets and to conduct their businesses under and pursuant to all Applicable Law as presently conducted, other than any failure to hold or non-compliance with any such Permit that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. All such Permits are valid and in full force and effect, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. There is no material Proceeding pending and served or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened that would result in any such disqualification.

(g) The minute books and other similar records of the Company contain a true and complete record in all material respects of all action taken at all meetings and by all written consents in lieu of meetings of the stockholders of the Company, the Company Board and any committees of the Company Board.

(h) The Company Investment Advisory Agreement has been duly approved and continued and at all times has been in compliance in all material respects with Section 15 of the Investment Company Act (to the extent applicable). The Company or its Affiliates have paid, or caused to be paid, all premiums due under all material insurance policies covering the Company or its Subsidiaries and all such insurance policies are in full force and effect other than as would not, individually or in the aggregate, be material to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. None of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has received written notice that they are in default with respect to any obligations under such policies other than as would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect. None of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries has received any written notice of cancellation or termination with respect to any existing material insurance policy, or refusal or denial of any material coverage, reservation of rights or rejection of any material claim under any existing material insurance policy, in each case, that is held by, or for the benefit of, the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, other than as would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.23 Investment Assets. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries owns all securities, Indebtedness and other financial instruments held by it, free and clear of any material Liens, except to the extent such securities, Indebtedness or other financial instruments, as applicable, are pledged in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice to secure obligations of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries and except for Liens consisting of restrictions on transfer agreed to in respect of investments entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice. Each of Parent and its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it makes such qualification or licensing necessary, except where the failure to be so duly qualified or licensed and in good standing would not have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any written or, to the Knowledge of Parent, oral notification from a Governmental Authority of any material non-compliance with any Applicable Law, which non-compliance would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Since January 1, 2019, Parent and each of its Subsidiaries (i) are and have been in compliance with the applicable money laundering Laws applicable to Parent and its Subsidiaries and (ii) have not, directly or indirectly, taken any action that would cause Parent or its Subsidiaries to be in violation of the FCPA, or any other anticorruption or anti-bribery Laws applicable to Parent or its Subsidiaries, other than, any non-compliance that would not reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(c) Parent and each of its Subsidiaries are in compliance, and since January 1, 2019, have complied with Parent's investment policies and restrictions and portfolio valuation methods, if any, as such policies and restrictions have been set forth in Parent's registration statement (as amended from time to time) or reports that Parent has filed with the SEC under the Exchange Act, the Securities Act and Applicable Law, if any, other than any non-compliance that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

There have been no "Material Compliance Matters" for Parent, as such term is defined in Rule 38a-1(e)(2) under the Investment Company Act, other than those that have been reported to the Parent Board and satisfactorily remedied or are in the process of being remedied or those that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to be material to Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

All such Permits are valid and in full force and effect, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries has received any written or, to the Knowledge of Parent, oral notification from a Governmental Authority of any material non-compliance with any such Permits, and no Proceeding is pending or threatened in writing to suspend, cancel, modify, revoke or materially limit any such Permits, which Proceeding would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

Section 6.3 Preparation of the Form N-14 and the Joint Proxy Statement: Stockholder Meetings.

(a) (i) The Company and Parent shall cooperate to prepare the Joint Proxy Statement and the Form N-14 as promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, and (ii) Parent shall file with the SEC the Form N-14, in which the Joint Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus, in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the Parent Common Stock to be issued in the First Merger as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement but no later than forty (40) Business Days following the date of this Agreement. Each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to (i) cause the Form N-14 and the Joint Proxy Statement, respectively, to comply with the applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC and (ii) have the Form N-14 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing (including by responding to comments from the SEC), and, prior to the effective date of the Form N-14, Parent shall take all action reasonably required to be taken under any applicable state securities Laws in connection with the issuance of Parent Common Stock in connection with the First Merger. Each of Parent and the Company shall furnish all information as may be reasonably requested by the other in connection with any such action and the preparation, filing and distribution of the Form N-14 and the Joint Proxy Statement. As promptly as practicable after the Form N-14 shall have become effective, each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Joint Proxy Statement to be mailed to their respective stockholders. No filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Form N-14 will be made by Parent, and no filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Joint Proxy Statement will be made by the Company, in each case without providing the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon. If, at any time prior to the Effective Time, any information relating to Parent, the Parent External Adviser, the Company or any of their respective Affiliates, directors or officers, should be discovered by Parent, the Parent External Adviser, or the Company which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to either the Form N-14 or the Joint Proxy Statement, so that either such document would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be prepared and, following a reasonable opportunity for the other party (and its counsel) to review and comment on such amendment or supplement, promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by Applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of Parent and the Company. Each party shall notify the other promptly of the time when the Form N-14 has become effective, of the issuance of any stop order or suspension of the qualification of the Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the First Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or of the receipt of any comments from the SEC or the staff of the SEC and of any request by the SEC or the staff of the SEC for amendments or supplements to the Joint Proxy Statement or the Form N-14 or for additional information and shall supply each other with copies of all correspondence between it or any of its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC or its staff, on the other hand, with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement, the Form N-14 or the First Merger.

(b) Subject to the earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article VIII, the Company shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following the effectiveness of the Form N-14, duly call, give notice of, convene (on a date selected by the Company in consultation with Parent, which date is intended to be the date of the Parent Stockholders' Meeting) and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the "Company Stockholders' Meeting") for the purpose of seeking the Company Stockholder Approval and shall not submit any other proposal to such stockholders in connection with the Company Stockholders' Meeting without prior written consent of Parent; provided that the Company may postpone or adjourn to a later date the Company Stockholders' Meeting (i) with the written consent of Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), (ii) for the absence of a quorum (not to exceed 120 days from the original record date), (iii) to allow reasonable additional time (not to exceed 120 days from the original record date) to obtain approval of the First Merger or solicit additional proxies if the Company has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of Company Common Stock to approve the First Merger or any other matter on which the stockholders are voting, whether or not a quorum is present, (iv) if required by Applicable Law or (v) to allow reasonable additional time for the filing and dissemination of any supplemental or amended disclosure if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board (after consultation with outside legal counsel), the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Company directors' duties under Applicable Law. If the Company Board has not made a Company Adverse Recommendation Change, the Company shall, through the Company Board, make the Company Recommendation, and shall include such Company Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement, and use its reasonable best efforts to lawfully solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the approval of the First Merger. Except as expressly permitted in Section 6.6, neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (x) withhold, withdraw or modify or qualify, or propose publicly to withhold, withdraw or modify or qualify the Company Recommendation, in each case in a manner materially adverse to Parent, (y) fail to include the Company Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement or (z) approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, or propose publicly to approve, determine to be advisable, or recommend, any Competing Proposal ((x), (y) and (z) being referred to as a "Company Adverse Recommendation Change"). Notwithstanding any Company Adverse Recommendation Change, unless this Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, the obligations of the parties hereunder shall continue in full force and effect and such obligations shall not be affected by the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to the Company of any Competing Proposal (whether or not a Superior Proposal) or any Intervening Event.

(c) Subject to the earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article VIII, Parent shall, as soon as practicable following the effectiveness of the Form N-14, duly call, give notice of, convene (on a date selected by Parent in consultation with the Company, which date is intended to be the date of the Company Stockholders' Meeting) and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the "Parent Stockholders' Meeting") for the purpose of seeking the Parent Stockholder Approval and shall not submit any other proposal to such stockholders in connection with the Parent Stockholders' Meeting without prior written consent of the Company; provided that Parent may postpone or adjourn to a later date the Parent Stockholders' Meeting (i) for the absence of a quorum, (ii) to allow reasonable additional time (not to exceed 120 days from the original record date) to obtain approval of the First Merger or solicit additional proxies if Parent has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of Parent Common Stock to approve the Parent Stockholder Approval matters, whether or not a quorum is present, (iii) if required by Applicable Law or (iv) to allow reasonable additional time for the filing and dissemination of any supplemental or amended disclosure if, in the good faith judgment of the Parent Board (after consultation with outside legal counsel), the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its duties under Applicable Law. Neither the Parent Board nor any committee thereof shall (x) withhold, withdraw, modify, qualify, or propose publicly to withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify the Parent Recommendation, in each case in a manner materially adverse to the Company or (y) fail to include the Parent Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement.

To the extent required by Applicable Law, each of the parties hereto shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the execution of this Agreement, make and not withdraw its respective filings under the HSR Act, and thereafter make any other applications and filings as reasonably determined by the Company and Parent under other applicable Antitrust Laws with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than as required by Law.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, neither of the parties hereto will have any obligation to take or commit to take any actions under this Section 6.4 that would or would reasonably be expected to result in either a Parent Material Adverse Effect or a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(c) In connection with and without limiting the efforts referenced in this Section 6.4, each of the parties hereto will furnish to the other such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other may reasonably request in connection with the preparation of any required governmental filings or submissions and will cooperate in responding to any investigation or other inquiry from a Governmental Authority or in connection with any Proceeding initiated by a private party, including immediately informing the other party of such inquiry, consulting in advance before making any presentations or submissions to a Governmental Authority, or in connection with any Proceeding initiated by a private party, to any other Person, and supplying each other with copies of all material correspondence, filings or communications between either party and any Governmental Authority, or in connection with any Proceeding initiated by a private party, between either party and any other Person with respect to this Agreement. Section 6.5 Access to Information; Confidentiality.

(a) Upon reasonable notice, the Company shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) afford reasonable access to Parent's Representatives, in a manner not disruptive to the operations of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice throughout the period prior to the Effective Time (or until the earlier termination of this Agreement), to the properties, books and records of the Company and its Subsidiaries, to the officers of the Company and to the personnel of the Company Investment Adviser (provided, that with respect to the personnel of the Company Investment Adviser the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to provide such access) and, during such period, shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to) furnish promptly to such Representatives all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of the Company and its Subsidiaries as may reasonably be requested; provided, however, that nothing herein shall require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to disclose any information to Parent or Acquisition Sub if such disclosure would, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, (i) cause significant competitive harm to the Company or its Subsidiaries if the transactions contemplated hereby are not consummated, (ii) violate Applicable Law or the provisions of any Contract to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or (iii) jeopardize any attorney-client, attorney work product or any other legal privilege; provided, that the parties will use reasonable best efforts to make appropriate substitute arrangements in circumstances where any of the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii) of this Section 6.5(a) applies. No investigation or access permitted pursuant to this Section 6.5(a) shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by the Company hereunder. Parent and the Parent External Adviser agree that it and they will not, and will cause its and their Representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.5(a) for any competitive or other purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. (b) Upon reasonable notice, Parent shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries and Acquisition Sub to) afford reasonable access to the Company's Representatives, in a manner not disruptive to the operations of the business of Parent and its Subsidiaries, during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice throughout the period prior to the Effective Time (or until the earlier termination of this Agreement), to the properties, books and records of Parent and its Subsidiaries and to the officers of Parent and the personnel of the Parent External Adviser and, during such period, shall (and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) to) furnish promptly to such Representatives all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of Parent and its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) as may reasonably be requested; provided, however, that nothing herein shall require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) to disclose any information to the Company if such disclosure would, in the reasonable judgment of Parent, (i) cause significant competitive harm to Parent or its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) if the transactions contemplated hereby are not consummated, (ii) violate Applicable Law or the provisions of any Contract to which Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including Acquisition Sub) is a party or (iii) jeopardize any attorney-client, attorney work product or any or other legal privilege; provided, that the parties will use reasonable best efforts to make appropriate substitute arrangements in circumstances where any of the foregoing clauses (i)-(iii) of this Section 6.5(b) applies. No investigation or access permitted pursuant to this Section 6.5(b) shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by Parent or Acquisition Sub hereunder. The Company agrees that it will not, and will cause its Representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.5(b) for any competitive or other purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. The Confidentiality Agreement shall apply with respect to information furnished by Parent, the Parent External Adviser, its Subsidiaries, Acquisition Sub and Parent's officers, employees and other Representatives hereunder.

Section 6.6 No Solicitation.

(a) Subject to Section 6.6(c), the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and instruct its Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing solicitation of, or discussions or negotiations with, any Third Party relating to any Competing Proposal or any inquiry, discussion, offer or request that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Competing Proposal (an "Inquiry"). The Company shall promptly demand that each Person (other than Parent or its Representatives) that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement with respect to the Company's potential consideration of a Competing Proposal immediately return or destroy all confidential information heretofore furnished to such Person (for the avoidance of doubt, subject to the ability of such Person to retain such confidential information consistent with the express terms of such confidentiality agreement) and immediately terminate all physical and electronic data room access previously granted to any such Person, its Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives with respect to any Competing Proposal. Until the Effective Time (or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement), the Company shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable, and in any event within two (2) Business Days of receipt by it or any of its Representatives of any Inquiry or Competing Proposal, deliver to Parent a written notice setting forth: (A) the identity of the Third Party making such Competing Proposal or Inquiry and (B) if applicable, the material terms and conditions of any such Competing Proposal and copies of any written materials received by the Company in connection with any of the foregoing. The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed of the status and material terms and conditions (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such Inquiry or Competing Proposal.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Section 6.6, until the Effective Time or, if earlier, the termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and instruct its Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit or knowingly encourage or facilitate (including by way of furnishing or disclosing non-public information) any Inquiries or the making, submission or implementation of any Competing Proposal, (ii) enter into any agreement, arrangement or discussions with respect to any Competing Proposal (including any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding or confidentiality agreement) or enter into any Contract (including any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding or confidentiality agreement) requiring it to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger (collectively, a "Competing Agreement"), or (iii) initiate or engage in any way in negotiations or discussions with respect to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, a Competing Proposal (it being understood that the Company may inform Persons of the provisions contained in this Section 6.6 and shall be permitted to grant a waiver of, or terminate, any "standstill" or similar obligation of any Third Party with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to allow such Third Party to submit a Competing Proposal).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, at any time prior to the date that the Company Stockholder Approval is obtained, in the event that the Company (or its Representatives on the Company's behalf) receives an unsolicited bona fide written Competing Proposal from any Third Party that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.6, (i) the Company and its Representatives may contact such Third Party to clarify the terms and conditions thereof (without the Company Board being required to make the determination in clause (ii) of this Section 6.6(c)) and (ii) the Company and the Company Board and its Representatives may engage or participate in negotiations or substantive discussions with, or furnish any information and other access to, any Third Party making such Competing Proposal and its Representatives, Affiliates and prospective debt and equity financing sources if the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that such Competing Proposal (A) either constitutes a Superior Proposal or could reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and (B) that failure to consider such Competing Proposal would be inconsistent with the Company directors' duties under Applicable Law; provided (y) prior to furnishing any material non-public information concerning the Company and its Subsidiaries the Company receives from such Person, to the extent such Person is not already subject to a confidentiality agreement with the Company, a confidentiality agreement containing confidentiality terms that are not materially less favorable in the aggregate to the Company than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreement (unless the Company offers to amend the Confidentiality Agreement to reflect such more favorable terms) (it being understood and agreed that such confidentiality agreement need not restrict the making of Competing Proposals (and related communications) to the Company or the Company Board) (an "Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement"), and (z) the Company shall (subject to the terms of any confidentiality agreement existing prior to the date hereof) within twenty-four (24) hours provide or make available to Parent any non-public information concerning it or its Subsidiaries that it provides to any Third Party given such access that was not previously made available to Parent or its Representatives. It is understood and agreed that any contacts, disclosures, discussions or negotiations permitted under this Section 6.6, including any public announcement that the Company or the Company Board has made any determination required under this Section 6.6(c) to take or engage in any such actions (provided that the Company Board expressly publicly reaffirms the Company Recommendation in connection with such public disclosure), shall not constitute a Notice of Adverse Recommendation or otherwise constitute a basis for Parent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, (i) the Company Board shall not effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change and (ii) the Company Board shall not approve or recommend, or allow the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding or definitive merger or similar agreement with respect to any Competing Proposal (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company Board may (x) effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change if, upon the occurrence of an Intervening Event, the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Company directors' duties under Applicable Law or (y) if the Company has received an unsolicited bona fide written Competing Proposal that did not result from a breach of Section 6.6 that the Company Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside professional advisors, constitutes a Superior Proposal, authorize, adopt or approve such Superior Proposal and cause or permit the Company to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal (an “Alternative Acquisition Agreement”) concurrently with the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(c)(ii), provided that, in the case of either clause (x) or (y):

(i) the Company shall have provided prior written notice to Parent, at least three (3) Business Days in advance, that it intends to effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change (a “Notice of Adverse Recommendation”) and/or terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(ii) (a “Notice of Superior Proposal”), which notice shall specify in reasonable detail the basis for the Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or termination and (A) in the case of a Superior Proposal, the identity of the Person or group of Persons making such Superior Proposal and the material terms and conditions thereof and copies of the proposed transaction documents, or (B) in the case of an Intervening Event, reasonable detail regarding the Intervening Event;

(ii) after providing such notice and prior to effecting such Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(ii), the Company shall have negotiated, and shall have caused its Representatives to be available to negotiate, with Parent and Acquisition Sub in good faith (to the extent Parent and Acquisition Sub desire to negotiate) during such three (3) Business Day period to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would obviate the need for the Company to effect the Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(ii) (it being understood that any change to the financial terms or other material terms of the Superior Proposal giving rise to a Notice of Superior Proposal shall require a new notice and a new two (2) Business Day period); and

(iii) following the end of such two (2) or three (3), as applicable, Business Day period, the Company Board shall have determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and, with respect to clause (A) below, its financial advisor, taking into account any changes to this Agreement proposed in writing by Parent in response to the Notice of Adverse Recommendation and/or Notice of Superior Proposal, that (A) the Superior Proposal giving rise to the Notice of Superior Proposal continues to be a Superior Proposal or (B) in the case of an Intervening Event, the failure of the Company Board to effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change would continue to be inconsistent with the Company’s directors’ duties under Applicable Law.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section 6.6 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to prohibit the Company or the Company Board or any committee thereof from (i) complying with its disclosure obligations under Applicable Law, including taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act (or any similar communication to stockholders) or (ii) making any “stop-look-and-listen” communication to stockholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act (or any similar communications to stockholders of the Company, including any such similar communication in response to a Competing Proposal that is not a tender offer or exchange offer); provided, however, that (x) except as provided in the next sentence, any disclosure made as permitted under clause (i) of this Section 6.6(e) (other than any “stop-look-and-listen” or similar communication) that relates to a Competing Proposal shall be deemed to be a Company Adverse Recommendation Change unless the Company Board expressly publicly reaffirms the Company Recommendation in connection with such disclosure, and (y) neither the Company nor the Company Board (nor any committee thereof) shall be permitted to recommend any Competing Proposal or otherwise effect a Company Adverse Recommendation Change with respect thereto, except as permitted by this Section 6.6(e).

(f) For purposes of this Agreement:

(i) “Competing Proposal” shall mean any inquiry, proposal, discussions, negotiations or offer from any Person or group (as defined pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of Persons (other than Parent, Acquisition Sub or any Affiliate thereof) (A) with respect to a merger, consolidation, tender offer, exchange offer, stock acquisition, asset acquisition, share exchange, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, (B) relating to any direct or indirect acquisition, in one transaction or a series of transactions, of (1) assets or businesses (including any mortgage, pledge or similar disposition thereof but excluding any bona fide financing transaction) that constitute or represent, or would constitute or represent if such transaction is consummated, twenty percent (20%) or more of the total assets, net revenue or net income of the Company and such its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, for the 12 month period ending on the last day of the Company's then most recently completed fiscal quarter, or (2) twenty percent (20%) or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, the Company or in any of its Subsidiaries, in each case other than the Mergers, or (C) to replace the Company Investment Adviser and become the primary investment adviser to the Company (other than in connection with a transaction covered in the foregoing (A) or (B)), whether or not such change is coupled with a capital infusion into the Company, a purchase of shares of the Company or a commitment to provide credit support to the Company (or an undertaking to make such a capital infusion, purchase of shares or to provide credit support).

(ii) "Superior Proposal" shall mean an unsolicited Competing Proposal (with all percentages in the definition of Competing Proposal increased to fifty percent (50%)) made by a Third Party that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.6 that the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal advisors, and considering such factors as the Company Board considers to be appropriate, (x) is more favorable from a financial point of view to the Company's stockholders than the transactions contemplated hereby (including any revisions to the terms of this Agreement committed to by Parent to the Company in writing in response to such Competing Proposal made to the Company under the provisions of Section 6.6(d)), (y) is reasonably likely to be consummated (taking into account, among other things, legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal, including any conditions and the identity of the offeror) on a timely basis, and (z) in respect of which any financing required has been determined by the Company Board to be reasonably likely to be obtained as evidenced by a written commitment of a reputable financing source.

Section 6.7 Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Parent and Acquisition Sub agree that all rights to exculpation and indemnification for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time (including any matters arising in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby), now existing in favor of the current or former directors, officers, managers, or employees, as the case may be, of the Company, its Subsidiaries or the Company's Affiliates, including but not limited to officers and employees of the Company Investment Adviser to the extent related to the management of the Company (collectively, the "D&O Indemnified Parties") as provided in their respective organizational documents as in effect on the date of this Agreement or in any Contract as in effect on the date hereof shall survive the Mergers and shall continue in full force and effect. Parent shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and advance expenses to the D&O Indemnified Parties with respect to all acts or omissions by them in their capacities as such at any time prior to the Effective Time (including any matters arising in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby), to the fullest extent that the Company or its Subsidiaries would be permitted by Applicable Law and to the fullest extent required by the organizational documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries as in effect on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that all rights to indemnification in respect of any action pending or asserted or any claim made within such period shall continue until the disposition of such action or resolution of such claim. To the maximum extent permitted by the Laws of the State of Maryland, for a period of six (6) years following the Effective Time, Parent shall cause its and the Surviving Corporation's (and any of their respective successors') articles of incorporation, bylaws or other organizational documents to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitation of director, officer and employee liability that are no less favorable to the D&O Indemnified Parties than those set forth in the Company's and its Subsidiaries' organizational documents as of the date of this Agreement, which provisions thereafter shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the D&O Indemnified Parties.

(b) Without limiting the provisions of Section 6.7(a), to the fullest extent that the Company would be permitted by Applicable Law to do so, Parent shall: (i) indemnify and hold harmless each D&O Indemnified Party against and from any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, liabilities and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any claim, Proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to the extent such claim, Proceeding or investigation arises out of or pertains to: (A) any alleged action or omission in such D&O Indemnified Party's capacity as a director, officer or employee of the Company, the Company Investment Adviser or any of the Company's Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time; or (B) this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; and (ii) pay in advance of the final disposition of any such claim, Proceeding or investigation the expenses (including attorneys' fees) of any D&O Indemnified Party upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such D&O Indemnified Party to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such D&O Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified by Applicable Law. Any determination required to be made with respect to whether the conduct of any D&O Indemnified Party complies or complied with any applicable standard shall be made by independent legal counsel selected by the D&O Indemnified Party, which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to Parent, and the reasonable fees of such counsel shall be paid by Parent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.7(b) or elsewhere in this Agreement, Parent shall not settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment or otherwise seek termination with respect to any claim, Proceeding or investigation, unless such settlement, compromise, consent or termination includes an unconditional release of all of the D&O Indemnified Parties covered by the claim, Proceeding or investigation from all liability arising out of such claim, Proceeding or investigation.

(c) Parent shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to purchase and maintain in full force and effect a six (6) year "tail" policy, on terms and conditions no less advantageous to the D&O Indemnified Parties, or any other Person entitled to the benefit of this Section 6.7, as applicable, than the existing directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary insurance maintained by the Company as of the date of this Agreement, covering claims arising from facts, events, acts or omissions that occurred at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated hereby (provided that Parent shall not be required to pay an annual premium for such insurance in excess of three hundred percent (300%) of the aggregate annual premiums currently paid by the Company on an annualized basis, but in such case shall purchase as much of such coverage as possible for such amount). Parent and Parent External Adviser shall not, and shall not permit their respective Subsidiaries to, take any action that would prejudice the rights of, or otherwise impede recovery by, the beneficiaries of any such insurance, whether in respect of claims arising before or after the Effective Time.

(d) The D&O Indemnified Parties to whom this Section 6.7 applies shall be third-party beneficiaries of this Section 6.7. The provisions of this Section 6.7 are intended to be for the benefit of each D&O Indemnified Party and his or her successors, heirs or representatives. Parent shall pay all reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, that may be incurred by any D&O Indemnified Party in enforcing its indemnity and other rights under this Section 6.7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, this Section 6.7 shall survive the consummation of the Mergers indefinitely and shall be binding, jointly and severally, on all successors and assigns of Parent and the Surviving Corporation, and shall be enforceable by the D&O Indemnified Parties and their successors, heirs or representatives.

Section 6.8 Notification of Certain Matters. Subject to Applicable Law, the Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company, of (a) any notice or other communication received by such party from any Governmental Authority in connection with this Agreement, the Mergers or the transactions contemplated hereby, or from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the Mergers or the transactions contemplated hereby, if the subject matter of such communication or the failure of such party to obtain such consent could be material to the Company, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, and (b) any claims, investigations or Proceedings commenced or, to such party's Knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting such party or any of its Subsidiaries which relate to this Agreement, the Mergers or the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 6.9 Public Announcements. Except as otherwise contemplated by Section 6.6 (and, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall limit the rights of the Company or the Company Board under Section 6.6), prior to any Company Adverse Recommendation Change, the Company, Parent and Acquisition Sub shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or public announcement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and none of the parties or their Affiliates shall issue any such press release or public announcement prior to obtaining the other parties' consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except that no such consent shall be necessary to the extent disclosure may be required by Law, Order or applicable stock exchange rule or any listing agreement of any party hereto.

The Company may, without Parent or Acquisition Sub's consent, communicate to its employees, Portfolio Companies, customers, suppliers and consultants in a manner consistent with prior communications of the Company or is consistent with a communications plan previously agreed to by Parent and the Company in which case such communications may be made consistent with such plan.

Section 6.10 Acquisition Sub. Parent will take all actions necessary to (a) cause Acquisition Sub to perform its obligations under this Agreement and to consummate the First Merger on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and (b) ensure that, prior to the Effective Time, Acquisition Sub shall not conduct any business, or incur or guarantee any indebtedness or make any investments, other than as specifically contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 6.11 No Control of the Other Party's Business.

(a) Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of the Company or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' operations.

(b) Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' operations.

Section 6.12 Rule 16b-3 Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall take all such steps as may be required to cause any dispositions or deemed dispositions of Company Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Company Common Stock) or acquisitions or deemed acquisitions of Parent Common Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Parent Common Stock) resulting from the transactions contemplated hereby by each individual who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company or will become subject to such reporting requirements with respect to Parent, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law.

Section 6.13 Repayment of Existing Loan Agreement. At least five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent a draft copy of one or more customary payoff letters (and applicable Lien releases providing that all Liens and all guarantees in connection therewith related to the assets and properties of the Company and its Subsidiaries securing such obligations shall automatically and permanently be, released and terminated upon the payment of the applicable payoff amount on the Closing Date) in form reasonably acceptable to Parent, in each case from the "Administrative Agent" and/or the "Collateral Agent", as applicable, under the Existing Loan Agreement (subject to delivery of funds as arranged by Parent) (collectively, the "Payoff Letters") and, on or prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Parent an executed copy of the Payoff Letters to be effective upon the Closing. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, deliver all the documents required for the termination of commitments under the Existing Loan Agreement, subject to the occurrence of the Closing and the repayment in full of all obligations then outstanding thereunder (using funds arranged by Parent).

Section 6.14 Certain Tax Matters.

(a) For United States federal income Tax purposes, (i) the parties intend that the Mergers, taken together, will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code (the "Intended Tax Treatment"), and (ii) this Agreement is intended to be, and is hereby adopted as, a "plan of reorganization" for purposes of Section 354 and 361 of the Code and Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-2(g) and 1.368-3(a), to which the Company, Parent and Acquisition Sub are parties under Section 368(b) of the Code.

(b) Each of the Company, Parent, and Acquisition Sub shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Mergers to qualify for the Intended Tax Treatment, including by not taking any action that such party knows is reasonably likely to prevent such qualification. Each of the Company, Parent, and Acquisition Sub shall report the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby in a manner consistent with the Intended Tax Treatment.

(c) Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Tax opinion described in Section 7.3(d), including making representations and covenants requested by Tax counsel in order to render such Tax opinion. Prior to the Effective Time (or at such other times as requested by counsel), each of Parent and the Company shall execute and deliver to Tax counsel, tax representation letters (which will be used in connection with the Tax opinion described in Section 7.3(d)). Each of the Company, Parent and Acquisition Sub shall use its reasonable best efforts not to take or cause to be taken any action that would cause to be untrue (or fail to take or cause not to be taken any action which inaction would cause to be untrue) any of the representations and covenants made to Tax counsel in furtherance of such Tax opinion.

(d) To the extent necessary, Company, Parent and Acquisition Sub shall work together in good faith to effect the combination contemplated by this Agreement using an alternative structure that would be tax-free to the extent of the Share Consideration in the event that (i) the Intended Tax Treatment cannot be achieved, or (ii) the Tax opinion described in Section 7.3(d) is not issued with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, except as expressly contemplated or permitted by this Agreement, (i) Parent shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of Company take any action, or knowingly fail to take any action, which action or failure to act is reasonably likely to cause Parent to fail to qualify as a RIC, and (ii) the Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of Parent, take any action, or knowingly fail to take any action, which action or failure to act is reasonably likely to cause the Company to fail to qualify as a RIC.

Section 6.15 Stock Exchange Listing. Parent shall use its best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the First Merger to be listed on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

Section 6.16 Takeover Statutes and Provisions. None of the Company, Parent or Acquisition Sub will take any action that would cause the First Merger and related transactions to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Statutes. Each of the Company and Parent shall take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the First Merger from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Statute, as now or hereafter in effect.

Section 6.17 Stockholder Litigation. The parties to this Agreement shall reasonably cooperate and consult with one another in connection with the defense and settlement of any Proceeding by the Company's stockholders or Parent's stockholders against any of them or any of their respective directors, officers or Affiliates with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Each of Parent and the Company (a) shall provide the other party with prompt written notice of any such Proceeding brought by its stockholders and shall keep the other party reasonably informed of any material developments in connection therewith and (b) shall not settle any such Proceeding without the prior written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld).

Section 6.18 Update to NAV. No later than close of business on the tenth (10th) Business Day immediately following the end of each calendar month ending after the date of this Agreement, the Company shall deliver to Parent its estimated NAV as of the end of such month.

Section 6.19 Coordination of Dividends. Parent and the Company shall coordinate with each other in designating the record and payment dates for any dividends or distributions to its stockholders, including a Tax Dividend, declared in accordance with this Agreement in any calendar quarter in which the Closing Date might occur.

Section 6.20 Credit Support Agreement; Parent Trading Plan.

(a) Promptly following the Closing, the Parent External Adviser and Parent shall enter into a credit support agreement to be prepared in reasonable consultation with the Company on or prior to the Closing Date, providing for enhancement of shareholder credit in an aggregate amount of $100,000,000 on substantially the terms set forth on Exhibit B.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(b) Promptly following the Closing, the Parent Board shall announce Parent's commitment (the "Parent Trading Plan") to purchase up to $30,000,000 (the "Maximum Purchase Amount") worth of shares of Parent Common Stock in the aggregate in open market transactions, at the then-current market price, if the shares of Parent Common Stock trade below the target net asset value per share set forth in Section 6.20(b) of the Parent Disclosure Letter, during the twelve (12) month period commencing upon the first day of the Parent Trading Plan, subject to Parent's compliance with its covenant and regulatory requirements. The actual amount of Parent Common Stock purchased under the Parent Trading Plan will be the Maximum Purchase Amount times a fraction, the numerator of which is the total number of trading days during such 12-month period on which the closing price of a share of Parent Common Stock on the NYSE is less than the target net asset value per share set forth in Section 6.20(b) of the Parent Disclosure Schedule, and the denominator of which is the total number of trading days in such 12-month period. Purchases made pursuant to the Parent Trading Plan shall be in accordance with Rule 10b-18 under the Exchange Act.

Section 6.21 Company Advisory Agreement. The Company covenants and agrees that the Company Board shall, consistent with the requirements of Section 15 of the Investment Company Act, take, or cause to be taken, all commercially reasonable steps to ensure, the effectiveness of the Company Investment Advisory Agreement at all times between the date of this Agreement and the earlier of the Effective Time and the date, if any, on which this Agreement is validly terminated pursuant to Section 8.1. The parties acknowledge and agree that, during the period between the date of this Agreement and the earlier of the Effective Date and the date, if any, on which this Agreement is validly terminated pursuant to Section 8.1, (a) the Company Investment Advisory Agreement might be automatically terminated as a result of its "assignment" (as such term is defined in the Investment Company Act) or (b) the Company Board may determine in good faith, after consultation with the Parent External Adviser, to terminate the Company Investment Advisory Agreement or, if applicable, the Interim Company Investment Advisory Agreement (as such term is defined below) because the Company Investment Adviser is no longer performing its duties and obligations thereunder. In either such event, the Company Board, subject to its fiduciary obligations under Applicable Law, shall approve an interim investment advisory agreement (the "Interim Company Investment Advisory Agreement") for the Company with, in the case of clause (a) above, the Company Investment Adviser or, in the case of clause (b) above, such other entity chosen in good faith by the Company Board (subject to the consent of the Parent External Adviser, such consent not to be unreasonably delayed, conditioned or withheld) in accordance with Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act, to become effective immediately following the event resulting in the "assignment" or termination of the Company Investment Advisory Agreement (or as soon as practicable thereafter) and remain in effect until the earlier of the Effective Time or one hundred and fifty days after the effective date of the termination of the Company Investment Advisory Agreement as permitted by Rule 15a-4. The Interim Company Investment Advisory Agreement shall contain terms and conditions that are, taken as a whole, substantially the same in all material respects as the terms and conditions of the Company Investment Advisory Agreement (except for changes thereto to the extent necessary to comply with Rule 15a-4 under the Investment Company Act). Under circumstances when the Company Investment Adviser is going to be replaced in accordance with this Section 6.21, the Company and the Parent External Adviser agree to negotiate in good faith for the Parent External Adviser to serve as the Company's investment adviser under the terms of the Interim Company Investment Advisory Agreement.

Section 6.22 Voting Agreement. The Parent External Adviser agrees to vote all shares of Parent over which it has voting power (other than in a fiduciary capacity) in favor of the Parent Stock Issuance and the Parent Below-NAV Issuance.

ARTICLE VII

The obligations of Parent and Acquisition Sub to effect the First Merger are subject to the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by Law) waiver by Parent at or prior to the Effective Time of the following additional conditions:

(c) Parent shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of the Company certifying as to the matters set forth in Section 7.2(a), Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(d);

(d) since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred and be continuing any Company Material Adverse Effect; and

(e) the Administration Agreement by and between the Company and its administrator, as then in effect, and the Company Investment Advisory Agreement shall have been terminated.

Section 7.3 Conditions to Obligation of the Company to Effect the First Merger. The obligation of the Company to effect the First Merger is further subject to the satisfaction or (to the extent permitted by Law) waiver by the Company at or prior to the Effective Time of the following additional conditions:

(a) each of the representations and warranties of Parent, Acquisition Sub and the Parent External Adviser contained in (i) the first sentence of Section 4.1, Section 4.2(a), Section 4.2(b), Section 4.2(c), Section 4.3(a), Section 4.3(b), Section 4.9(b), Section 4.21, Section 4.22, Section 4.23, the first sentence of Section 5.1 and Section 5.2(a) (collectively, the “Parent Fundamental Representations”) shall be true and correct in all respects as of the date hereof (other than de minimis inaccuracies) and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of such date (except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly made as of a specific date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be so true and correct as of such specific date only), and (ii) this Agreement (other than the Parent Fundamental Representations), without giving effect to any materiality, “Parent Material Adverse Effect” or “Adviser Material Adverse Effect” qualifications therein, shall be true and correct as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of such date (except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly made as of a specific date, in which case such representations and warranties shall be so true and correct as of such specific date only), except for such failures to be true and correct as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect or an Adviser Material Adverse Effect;

(b) Parent, Acquisition Sub and the Parent External Adviser shall have performed or complied in all material respects with its obligations required under this Agreement to be performed or complied with on or prior to the Closing Date;

(c) the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of Parent certifying as to the matters set forth in Section 7.3(a), Section 7.3(b), Section 7.3(f) and Section 7.3(g);

(d) the Company shall have received the written opinion of Sullivan & Worcester LLP, or such other nationally recognized Tax counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company and Parent, as of the Closing Date to the effect that the Mergers will qualify for the Intended Tax Treatment. In rendering the opinion described in this Section 7.3(d), the Tax counsel rendering such opinion may require and rely upon (and may incorporate by reference) reasonable and customary representations and covenants, including those contained in certificates of officers of the Company and Parent;

(e) the Parent Investment Advisory Agreement shall have been duly amended and restated in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C;

(f) since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred and be continuing any Parent Material Adverse Effect; and

(g) since the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred and be continuing any Adviser Material Adverse Effect.

Section 7.4 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Company may rely either as a basis for not consummating the First Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby or terminating this Agreement and abandoning the Mergers on the failure of any condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied if such failure was primarily caused by such party's failure to perform or comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 8.1 Termination. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the Company Stockholder Approval or the Parent Stockholder Approval is obtained (except as otherwise expressly noted), as follows:

(a) by mutual written consent of each of Parent and the Company; or

(b) by either Parent or the Company, if:

(i) the First Merger shall not have been consummated on or before 5:00 p.m. (New York time) on March 31, 2022 (the "Termination Date"); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(i) shall not be available to any party if the failure of such party to perform or comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement has been the primary cause of or resulted in the failure of the Closing to have occurred on or before the Termination Date;

(ii) prior to the Effective Time, any Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have promulgated, issued or entered any Law or Order or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting or making unlawful the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and such Law or Order or other action shall have become final and non-appealable; provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall have used its reasonable best efforts to remove such Law or Order or other action; and provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b)(ii) shall not be available to a party if the promulgation of such Law or issuance of such Law or Order or taking of such action was proximately caused by the failure of such party, and in the case of Parent, including the failure of Acquisition Sub, to perform or comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

(iii) (A) the Company Stockholders Meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) shall have been duly held and completed and the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at such Company Stockholders Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) at which a vote on the approval of the First Merger is taken or (B) the Parent Stockholders' Meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) shall have been duly held and completed and the Parent Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained at such Parent Stockholders' Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement thereof) at which a vote on the approval of the Parent Stock Issuance and/or the Parent Below-NAV Issuance is taken; or

(c) by the Company if:

(i) Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Parent External Adviser shall have breached or failed to perform any of their respective representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements set forth in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (A) would result in the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.1 or Section 7.3 and (B) is not capable of being cured by Parent, Acquisition Sub, or the Parent External Adviser, as applicable, by the Termination Date or, if capable of being cured, shall not have been cured by Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Parent External Adviser, as applicable, on or before the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) the date that is thirty (30) days following the Company's delivery of written notice to Parent of such breach or failure to perform; provided that the Company shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(c)(i) if the Company is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants under this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 or Section 7.2 not to be satisfied; provided, further, that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(c)(i) if Parent's breach has been primarily caused by a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company; or

(ii) at any time prior to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, in order to substantially concurrently enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement providing for a Superior Proposal to the extent permitted by, and subject to the applicable terms and conditions of, Section 6.6; provided that such right to terminate shall only apply if (A) such proposal did not result from a breach of any of the provisions set forth in Section 6.6 and (B) prior to or simultaneously with such termination the Company pays Parent the Company Termination Fee, plus the Expenses actually incurred by Parent and the Parent External Adviser on or prior to the termination of this Agreement; or

(d) by Parent if:

(i) the Company shall have breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements set forth in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (A) would result in the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.1 or Section 7.2 and (B) is not capable of being cured by the Company by the Termination Date or, if capable of being cured, shall not have been cured by the Company on or before the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) the date that is thirty (30) days following Parent's delivery of written notice to the Company of such breach or failure to perform; provided that Parent shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d)(i) if Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Parent External Adviser is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants under this Agreement so as to cause any of the conditions set forth in Section 7.1 or Section 7.3 not to be satisfied; provided, further, that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d)(i) if the Company's breach has been primarily caused by a breach of any provision of this Agreement by Parent; or

(ii) at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, if (A) the Company Board (or any committee thereof) shall have made a Company Adverse Recommendation Change, (B) the Company or any of its Subsidiaries has entered into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement or a Competing Agreement (for the avoidance of doubt, other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement), (C) the Company shall have willfully breached (as defined below) its obligations under Section 6.6, and such breach remains uncured for five (5) Business Days following the written notice thereof by Parent to the Company or (D) a Competing Proposal structured as a tender offer for the Company's Common Stock is commenced and, within ten (10) Business Days after the public announcement thereof, the Company shall not have issued a public statement (and filed a Schedule 14D-9) reaffirming the Company Recommendation and recommending that the stockholders of the Company reject such Competing Proposal; provided that Parent's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.1(d)(ii) will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the tenth (10th) Business Day following the date on which Parent first became aware of such right to terminate.

Section 8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event that this Agreement is terminated and the Mergers abandoned pursuant to Section 8.1, written notice thereof shall be given by the terminating party to the other party, specifying the provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is made, and this Agreement shall forthwith become null and void and of no effect without liability on the part of any party hereto, and all rights and obligations of any party hereto shall cease; provided, however, that, except as otherwise provided in Section 8.3 or in any other provision of this Agreement, no such termination shall relieve any party hereto of any liability or damages (which the parties acknowledge and agree shall not be limited to reimbursement of expenses or out-of-pocket costs) resulting from any willful breach of this Agreement prior to such termination or fraud, in which case, except as provided in Section 8.3, the aggrieved party shall be entitled to all remedies available at law or in equity; and provided, further, that the Confidentiality Agreement, this Section 8.2, Section 8.3, Section 8.6 and Article IX shall survive any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1. For purposes of this Agreement, "willful breach" means a material breach of this Agreement that is the consequence of an act or omission by a party with the actual knowledge or intention that the taking of such act or omission would, or would reasonably be expected to, constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

Section 8.3 Termination Fees.

(a) If, but only if, this Agreement is terminated by:

(i) Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(i) (but only if the breach giving rise to such termination under Section 8.1(d)(i) was a willful breach), or either Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii)(A), and in either such case (x) prior to such termination (or the Company Stockholders' Meeting in the case of termination pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii)(A)), a Competing Proposal that has been made after the date of this Agreement shall have been publicly disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Company's Board of Directors and not withdrawn prior to such date and (y) within twelve (12) months after such termination, the Company enters into a definitive acquisition agreement with respect to any Competing Proposal with a Third Party, and such Competing Proposal is subsequently consummated (regardless of whether such consummation happens prior to or following such twelve (12)-month period) (provided, however, that for purposes of this Section 8.3(a)(i), the references to "twenty percent (20%)" in the definition of Competing Proposal shall be deemed to be references to "fifty percent (50%)");

(ii) the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(ii); or

(iii) Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(ii),

then, in any such case, the Company shall pay, or cause to be paid, to Parent the Company Termination Fee and the Expenses actually incurred by Parent and the Parent External Adviser.

Any payments required to be made under this Section 8.3(a) shall be made by wire transfer of same day funds to the account or accounts designated by Parent, (x) in the case of clause (i) above, on the same day as the consummation of the transaction contemplated therein, (y) in the case of clause (ii) above, immediately prior to or concurrently with such termination and (z) in the case of clause (iii) above, promptly, but in no event later than three (3) Business Days after the date of such termination.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the parties agree that in no event shall the Company be required to pay the Company Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, but subject to Section 9.9, Parent's right to receive payment from the Company of the Company Termination Fee and Expenses pursuant to Section 8.3(a) shall constitute the sole and exclusive monetary remedy of Parent, the Parent External Adviser and Acquisition Sub against the Company and its Subsidiaries and any of their respective former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, Representatives or assignees (collectively, the “Company Related Parties”) for all losses and damages suffered as a result of the failure of the transactions contemplated hereby to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform hereunder or otherwise following a termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms in a situation in which the Company Termination Fee and Expenses are required to be paid, and upon payment of such amounts, none of the Company Related Parties shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby (except that the Company shall remain obligated to comply with the provisions of this Agreement that survive termination pursuant to Section 8.3(d)).

(d) Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that (i) the agreements contained in this Section 8.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) the Company Termination Fee and Expenses are not a penalty, but are liquidated damages, in a reasonable amount that will compensate Parent in the circumstances in which such fee and expenses are payable for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities foregone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision, and (iii) without these agreements, the parties would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company fails to timely pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.3 and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the payment of any amount set forth in this Section 8.3, the Company shall pay Parent its reasonable costs and expenses in connection with such suit, together with interest on such amount at the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made through the date such payment was actually received, or such lesser rate as is the maximum permitted by Applicable Law.

Section 8.4 Amendment. Subject to Applicable Law, the parties hereto may modify or amend this Agreement, by written agreement executed and delivered by the duly authorized officers of each of the respective parties; provided that no amendment shall be made to this Agreement after the Effective Time; provided, further, that after receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval or the Parent Stockholder Approval, if any such amendment shall by Applicable Law require further approval of the stockholders of the Company or Parent, as applicable, the effectiveness of such amendment shall be subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Company or Parent, as applicable.

Section 8.5 Extension; Waiver. The conditions to each of the parties’ obligations to consummate the Mergers are for the sole benefit of such party and may be waived by such party (without the approval of the stockholders of the Company) in whole or in part to the extent permitted by Applicable Law. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the Company or Parent may (a) waive or extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Parent External Adviser, in the case of the Company, or the Company, in the case of Parent, or (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement on the part of Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Parent External Adviser, in the case of the Company, or the Company, in the case of Parent. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party and expressly setting forth the nature of such extension or waiver. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

Section 8.6 Expenses; Transfer Taxes. Except as expressly set forth herein (including Section 8.3), all expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, provided, that Parent and the Company shall each be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of all filing fees in connection with the filing of any required notices under the HSR Act or other Antitrust Laws. Other than Taxes imposed upon holders of Company Common Stock, Parent shall pay all (a) transfer, stamp and documentary Taxes or fees and (b) sales, use, gains, real property transfer and other similar Taxes or fees arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

Section 9.3 Interpretation: Certain Definitions.

(a) The parties have participated collectively in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted collectively by the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Disclosure of any fact, circumstance or information in any Section of the Company Disclosure Letter or Parent Disclosure Letter shall be deemed to be disclosure of such fact, circumstance or information with respect to any other Section of the Company Disclosure Letter or Parent Disclosure Letter, respectively, if it is reasonably apparent that such disclosure relates to any such other Section. The inclusion of any item in the Company Disclosure Letter or Parent Disclosure Letter shall not be deemed to be an admission or evidence of materiality of such item, nor shall it establish any standard of materiality for any purpose whatsoever.

(c) The words "hereof," "herein," "hereby," "hereunder" and "herewith" and words of similar import shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. References to articles, sections, paragraphs, exhibits, annexes and schedules are to the articles, sections and paragraphs of, and exhibits, annexes and schedules to, this Agreement, unless otherwise specified, and the table of contents and headings in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase "without limitation." Words describing the singular number shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa, words denoting any gender shall be deemed to include all genders, words denoting natural persons shall be deemed to include business entities and vice versa and references to a Person are also to its permitted successors and assigns. The phrases "the date of this Agreement" and "the date hereof" and terms or phrases of similar import shall be deemed to refer to date first set forth above, unless the context requires otherwise. References to any statute shall be deemed to refer to such statute as amended from time to time and to any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder (provided that for purposes of any representations and warranties contained in this Agreement that are made as of a specific date or dates, references to any statute shall be deemed to refer to such statute, as amended, and to any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, in each case, as of such date). Terms defined in the text of this Agreement have such meaning throughout this Agreement, unless otherwise indicated in this Agreement, and all terms defined in this Agreement shall have the meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. Any Law defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such Law as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor Laws (provided that for purposes of any representations and warranties contained in this Agreement that are made as of a specific date or dates, references to any statute shall be deemed to refer to such statute, as amended, and to any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, in each case, as of such date). All references to "$" refer to currency of the United States.

Section 9.4 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other authority to be invalid, void, unenforceable or against its regulatory policy, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the First Merger be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

Section 9.5 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective permitted successors and assigns. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 9.5 shall be null and void.

Section 9.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the exhibits, annexes and appendices hereto) constitutes, together with the Confidentiality Agreement, the Company Disclosure Letter and the Parent Disclosure Letter, the entire agreement, and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Section 9.7 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder; provided, however, that it is specifically intended that the D&O Indemnified Parties (with respect to Section 6.7 and this Section 9.7 from and after the Effective Time) are intended third-party beneficiaries hereof.

Section 9.8 Governing Law: Jurisdiction: Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Maryland applicable to contracts made and performed entirely within such state, without regard to any applicable conflicts of law principles that would cause the application of the Laws of another jurisdiction, except to the extent governed by the Investment Company Act, in which case the latter shall control. The parties hereto agree that any Proceeding brought by any party to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland, or if jurisdiction over the matter is vested exclusively in federal courts, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, and the appellate courts to which orders and judgments therefor may be appealed (collectively, the "Acceptable Courts"). In any such judicial proceeding, each of the parties further consents to the assignment of any proceeding in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland to the Business and Technology Case Management Program pursuant to Maryland Rule 16-205 (or any successor thereof). Each of the parties hereto submits to the jurisdiction of any Acceptable Court in any Proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and hereby irrevocably waives the benefit of jurisdiction derived from present or future domicile or otherwise in such Proceeding. Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by Law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any Proceeding in any such Acceptable Court or that any such Proceeding brought in any such Acceptable Court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. Each party hereto (a) certifies that no Representative of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of any action, suit or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver, (b) certifies that it makes this waiver voluntarily and (c) acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement, by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section 9.8.

Section 9.9 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any party hereto does not perform the provisions of this Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of it hereunder to consummate this Agreement) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breaches such provisions. Accordingly, the parties acknowledge and agree that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof (without proof of actual damages), in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that any other party has an adequate remedy at law or that any award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity. Any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such order or injunction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this Section 9.9 is not intended and shall not be construed to limit in any way the provisions of Section 8.3(c).

Section 9.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, all of which shall together be considered one and the same agreement. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement.

ANNEX B

SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT
AND BARINGS LLC

AGREEMENT, dated as of [____], 202[2], between Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the "Company"), and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Adviser").

WHEREAS, the Adviser and the Company are party to that certain amended and restated investment advisory agreement dated as of December 23, 2020, pursuant to which the Adviser agreed to furnish investment advisory services to the Company (the "Prior Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Company and the Adviser desire to amend and restate the Prior Agreement in its entirety as set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereby agree that, effective as of [____], 202[2] (the "Effective Date"), this Agreement shall supersede the Prior Agreement (and the Prior Agreement shall be deemed of no further force and effect whatsoever):

1. In General. The Adviser agrees, all as more fully set forth herein, to act as investment adviser to the Company with respect to the investment of the Company's assets and to supervise and arrange for the day-to-day operations of the Company and the purchase of assets for and the sale of assets held in the investment portfolio of the Company.

2. Duties and Obligations of the Adviser with Respect to Investment of Assets of the Company.

(a) Subject to the succeeding provisions of this paragraph and subject to the direction and control of the Company's board of directors (the "Board of Directors"), the Adviser shall act as the investment adviser to the Company and shall manage the investment and reinvestment of the assets of the Company. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Adviser shall, during the term and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, (i) determine the composition of the portfolio of the Company, the nature and timing of the changes therein and the manner of implementing such changes; (ii) identify, evaluate and negotiate the structure of the investments made by the Company; (iii) execute, close, service and monitor the investments that the Company makes; (iv) determine the securities and other assets that the Company will purchase, retain or sell; (v) perform due diligence on prospective portfolio companies; and (vi) provide the Company with such other investment advisory, research and related services as the Company may, from time to time, reasonably require for the investment of its funds. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to restrict the Company's right to hire its own employees or to contract for administrative services to be performed by third parties, including but not limited to, the calculation of the net asset value of the Company's shares.

(b) In the performance of its duties under this Agreement, the Adviser shall at all times use all reasonable efforts to conform to, and act in accordance with, any requirements imposed by (i) the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"), and of any rules or regulations in force thereunder, subject to the terms of any exemptive order applicable to the Company; (ii) any other applicable provision of law; (iii) the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Company, as such documents may be amended from time to time; (iv) the investment objectives, policies and restrictions applicable to the Company as set forth in the reports and/or registration statements that the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), as they may be amended from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Company; and (v) any policies and determinations of the Board of Directors of the Company and provided in writing to the Adviser.

(c) The Adviser will provide significant managerial assistance to those portfolio companies of the Company that the Company agrees to provide such services to as required by the 1940 Act.

(d) The Adviser may engage one or more investment advisers (each, a "Sub-Adviser") which are registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Advisers Act") to act as sub-advisers to provide the Company certain services set forth in Section 2(a) of this Agreement, all as shall be set forth in a written contract (each, a "Sub-Advisory Agreement") to which the Company and the Adviser shall be parties, which Sub-Advisory Agreement shall be subject to approval by the vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors who are not “interested persons” (as such term is defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act) of the Adviser, any sub-adviser, or of the Company (each, a “Non-Interested Director”), cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval and, to the extent required by the 1940 Act, by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Company and otherwise consistent with the terms of the 1940 Act. The Adviser and not the Company shall be responsible for any compensation payable to any Sub-Adviser; provided, however, that the Adviser shall have the right to direct the Company to pay directly to any Sub-Adviser the amounts due and payable to such Sub-Adviser from the fees and expenses payable to the Adviser under this Agreement.

(e) The Adviser will maintain all books and records with respect to the Company’s securities transactions required by sub-paragraphs (b)(5), (6), (9) and (10) and paragraph (f) of Rule 31a-1 under the 1940 Act (other than those records being maintained by the administrator to the Company (the “Administrator”) under the administration agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Administrator (the “Administration Agreement”), or by the Company’s custodian or transfer agent) and preserve such records for the periods prescribed therefor by Rule 31a-2 of the 1940 Act. The Adviser shall have the right to retain copies, or originals where required by Rule 204-2 promulgated under the Advisers Act, of such records to the extent required by applicable law, subject to observance of its confidentiality obligations under this Agreement.

(f) All investment professionals of the Adviser and its staff, when and to the extent engaged in providing investment advisory and management services hereunder, and the compensation and routine overhead expenses of such personnel allocable to such services, shall be provided and paid for by the Adviser and not by the Company. The Company shall bear all other costs and expenses of its operations and transactions, including, without limitation, those relating to:

- (i) organizational and offering expenses;
- (ii) fees and expenses incurred in valuing the Company’s assets and computing its net asset value (including the cost and expenses of any independent valuation firm);
- (iii) the fees and expenses incurred by the Company or payable to third parties, including lawyers, accountants, auditors, agents, consultants or other advisors, in connection with the Company’s financial, accounting and legal affairs and in monitoring the Company’s investments and performing due diligence on the Company’s prospective portfolio companies or otherwise related to, or associated with, evaluating and making investments, including expenses related to unsuccessful portfolio acquisition efforts;
- (iv) all fees, costs and expenses of money borrowed by the Company, including principal, interest and the costs associated with the establishment and maintenance of any credit facilities, other financing arrangements, or other indebtedness of the Company, if any (including commitment fees, accounting and legal fees, closing and other costs);
- (v) offerings of the Company’s common stock and other securities;
- (vi) investment advisory and management fees payable under Section 6 of this Agreement;

- (xi) federal, state and local taxes;
- (xii) Non-Interested Directors’ compensation, fees and expenses;
- (xiii) costs of preparing and filing reports or other documents required by the SEC or other regulators;
- (xiv) costs of any reports, proxy statements or other notices to stockholders, including printing costs;

(xv) costs of holding stockholder meetings;

(xvi) the Company's allocable portion of the fidelity bond, directors and officers/errors and omissions liability insurance, and any other insurance premiums, including independent director liability policies;

(xvii) direct costs and expenses of administration and operation, including printing, mailing, long distance telephone, copying, secretarial and other staff, independent auditors and outside legal costs;

(xviii) all third-party legal, expert and other fees, costs and expenses relating to any actions, proceedings, lawsuits, demands, causes of action and claims, whether actual or threatened, made by or against the Company, or which the Company is authorized or obligated to pay under applicable law or its governing agreements or by the Board of Directors;

(xix) subject to Section 7 below, any judgment or settlement of pending or threatened proceedings (whether civil, criminal or otherwise) against the Company, or against any trustee, director, partner, member or officer of the Company in his or her capacity as such for which the Company is required to indemnify such trustee, director, partner, member or officer by any court or governmental agency, or settlement of pending or threatened proceedings;

(xx) all travel and related expenses of directors, officers, managers, agents and employees of the Company and the Adviser, incurred in connection with attending meetings of the Board of Directors or holders of securities of the Company or performing other business activities that relate to the Company, including travel and related expenses incurred in connection with the purchase, consideration for purchase, financing, refinancing, sale or other disposition of any investment or potential investment of the Company; provided, however, that the Company shall only be responsible for (A) a proportionate share of such expenses, as determined by the Adviser in good faith, where such expenses were not incurred solely for the benefit of the Company, and (B) expenses incurred in accordance with the Company's travel expense reimbursement policies;

(xxi) all expenses relating to payments of dividends or interest or distributions in cash or any other form made or caused to be made by the Board of Directors to or on account of holders of the securities of the Company, including in connection with any dividend reinvestment plan or direct stock purchase plan;

(xxii) all fees, costs and expenses related to (A) the design and maintenance of the Company's web site or sites and (B) the Company's allocable share of costs associated with technology-related expenses, including any computer software or hardware, electronic equipment or purchased information technology services from third-party vendors or affiliates of the Adviser that is used for the Company, technology service providers and related software/hardware utilized in connection with the Company's investment and operational activities;

(xxiii) all fees, costs and expenses incurred with respect to market information systems and publications, research publications and materials, and settlement, clearing and custodial fees and expenses; provided, however, that the Company shall only be responsible for a proportionate share of such expenses, as determined by the Adviser in good faith, where such expenses were not incurred solely for the benefit of the Company; and

(xxiv) all other non-investment advisory expenses incurred by the Company or the Administrator in connection with administering the Company's business (including payments under the Administration Agreement based upon the Company's allocable portion of the Administrator's overhead in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement, including rent and the allocable portion of the cost of the Company's Chief Financial Officer and Chief Compliance Officer and their respective staffs).

(g) The Adviser shall give the Company the benefit of its professional judgment and effort in rendering services hereunder, but neither the Adviser nor any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or controlling persons shall be liable for any act or omission or for any loss sustained by the Company in connection with the matters to which this Agreement relates, provided, that the foregoing exculpation shall not apply to a loss resulting from fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or by reason of its reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under this Agreement; provided further, however, that the foregoing shall not constitute a waiver of any rights which the Company may have which may not be waived under applicable law.

(h) The Adviser is hereby authorized, on behalf of the Company and at the direction of the Board of Directors pursuant to delegated authority, to possess, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise deal in, and exercise all rights, powers, privileges and other incidents of ownership or possession with respect to, the Company's investments and other property and funds held or owned by the Company, including voting and providing consents and waivers with respect to the Company's investments and exercising and enforcing rights with respect to any claims relating to the Company's investments and other property and funds, including with respect to litigation, bankruptcy or other reorganization. In the event that the Company determines to acquire debt or other financing (or to refinance existing debt or other financing), the Adviser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for such financing on the Company's behalf, subject to the oversight and approval of the Board of Directors. If it is necessary for the Adviser to make investments or obtain financing on behalf of the Company through a special purpose vehicle, the Adviser shall have the authority to create, or arrange for the creation of, such special purpose vehicle and to make investments or obtain financing through such special purpose vehicle in accordance with applicable law. In addition, the Adviser may, directly or through an affiliate, provide, or arrange for a third party to provide, a guarantee, surety or other credit enhancement or credit support arrangement (collectively, a "Credit Support Arrangement") with respect to one or more of the Company's investments, subject to the oversight and approval of the Board of Directors;

(i) The Adviser will place orders either directly with the issuer or with any broker or dealer in connection with making investments on the Company's behalf hereunder. Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, in placing orders with brokers and dealers, the Adviser will attempt to obtain the best price and the most favorable execution of its orders. In placing orders, the Adviser will consider the experience and skill of the firm's securities traders as well as the firm's financial responsibility and administrative efficiency. Consistent with this obligation, the Adviser may select brokers on the basis of the research, statistical and pricing services they provide to the Company and other clients of the Adviser. Information and research received from such brokers will be in addition to, and not in lieu of, the services required to be performed by the Adviser hereunder. A commission paid to such brokers may be higher than that which another qualified broker would have charged for effecting the same transaction, provided that the Adviser determines in good faith that such commission is reasonable in terms either of the transaction or the overall responsibility of the Adviser to the Company and its other clients and that the total commissions paid by the Company will be reasonable in relation to the benefits to the Company over the long term, subject to review by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time with respect to the extent and continuation of such practice to determine whether the Company benefits, directly or indirectly, from such practice.

(j) The Company also grants to the Adviser the power and authority to engage in all activities and transactions (and anything incidental thereto) that the Adviser deems, in its sole discretion, appropriate, necessary or advisable to carry out its duties pursuant to this Agreement.

(k) The Adviser will provide to the Board of Directors such periodic and special reports as it may reasonably request.

3. Services Not Exclusive. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Adviser or any officer, employee or other affiliate thereof from acting as investment adviser for any other person, firm or corporation, whether or not the investment objectives or policies of any such other person, firm, or corporation are similar to those of the Company, or from engaging in any other lawful activity, and shall not in any way limit or restrict the Adviser or any of its officers, employees or agents from buying, selling or trading any securities for its or their own accounts or for the accounts of others for whom it or they may be acting; provided, however, that the Adviser will not undertake, and will cause its employees not to undertake, activities which, in its reasonable judgment, will adversely affect the performance of the Adviser's obligations under this Agreement.

4. Confidentiality. The parties hereto agree that each shall treat confidentially all information provided by each party to the other regarding its business and operations. All confidential information provided by a party hereto, including all "nonpublic personal information," as defined under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 (Public law 106-102, 113 Stat. 1138), shall be used by the other party hereto solely for the purpose of rendering services pursuant to this Agreement and, except as may be required in carrying out this Agreement, shall not be disclosed to any third party, without the prior consent of such providing party, except that such confidential information may be disclosed to an affiliate or agent of the disclosing party to be used for the sole purpose of providing the services set forth herein. The foregoing shall not be applicable to any information that is publicly available when provided or thereafter becomes publicly available other than through a breach of this Agreement, or that is requested by or required to be disclosed to any governmental or regulatory authority, including in connection with any required regulatory filings or examinations, by judicial or administrative process or otherwise by applicable law or regulation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company hereby consents and authorizes the Adviser and its affiliates to use and disclose confidential information relating to the Company in connection with (a) the preparation of performance information relating to the Company and (b) in connection with any contemplated sale of the outstanding equity or assets of the Adviser, Administrator, or any person who may be deemed to “control” either of the Adviser or the Administrator, in each case within the meaning of the 1940 Act.

5. Expenses. During the term of this Agreement, the Adviser will bear all compensation expense (including health insurance, pension benefits, payroll taxes and other compensation related matters) of its employees and shall bear the costs of any salaries of any officers or directors of the Company who are affiliated persons (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Adviser.

6. Compensation of the Adviser. The Adviser, for its services to the Company, will be entitled to receive a management fee (the “Base Management Fee”) and an incentive fee (“Incentive Fee”) from the Company.

(a) The Base Management Fee will be calculated based on the Company’s gross assets, including assets purchased with borrowed funds or other forms of leverage and excluding cash and cash equivalents, at an annual rate of 1.25%. The Base Management Fee is payable quarterly in arrears on a calendar quarter basis. The Base Management Fee will be calculated based on the average value of the Company’s gross assets, excluding cash and cash equivalents, at the end of the two most recently completed calendar quarters prior to the quarter for which such fees are being calculated. Base Management Fees for any partial month or quarter will be appropriately pro-rated.

(b) The Incentive Fee consists of two components that are independent of each other, with the result that one component may be payable even if the other is not. A portion of the Incentive Fee is based on the Company’s income (such fee referred to herein as the “Income-Based Fee”) and a portion is based on the Company’s capital gains (such fee referred to herein as the “Capital Gains Fee”), each as described below:

(i) The Income-Based Fee will be determined and paid quarterly in arrears based on the amount by which (x) the aggregate “Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income” (as defined below) in respect of the current calendar quarter and the eleven preceding calendar quarters beginning with the calendar quarter that commences on or after January 1, 2021, as the case may be (or the appropriate portion thereof in the case of any of the Company’s first eleven calendar quarters that commences on or after January 1, 2021) (in either case, the “Trailing Twelve Quarters”) exceeds (y) the Hurdle Amount (as defined below) in respect of the Trailing Twelve Quarters. The Hurdle Amount will be determined on a quarterly basis, and will be calculated by multiplying 2.0625% (8.25% annualized) by the aggregate of the Company’s net asset value at the beginning of each applicable calendar quarter comprising the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters. For this purpose, “Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income” means interest income, dividend income and any other income (including, without limitation, any accrued income that the Company has not yet received in cash and any other fees such as commitment, origination, structuring, diligence and consulting fees or other fees that the Company receives from portfolio companies) accrued during the calendar quarter, minus the Company’s operating expenses accrued during the calendar quarter (including, without limitation, the Base Management Fee, administration expenses and any interest expense and dividends paid on any issued and outstanding preferred stock, but excluding the Income-Based Fee and the Capital Gains Fee). For the avoidance of doubt, Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income does not include any realized capital gains, realized capital losses or unrealized capital appreciation or depreciation.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The calculation of the Income-Based Fee for each calendar quarter is as follows:

(A) No Income-Based Fee shall be payable to the Adviser in any calendar quarter in which the Company's aggregate Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income for the Trailing Twelve Quarters does not exceed the Hurdle Amount;

(B) 100% of the Company's aggregate Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income for the Trailing Twelve Quarters, if any, that exceeds the Hurdle Amount but is less than or equal to an amount (the "Catch-Up Amount") determined on a quarterly basis by multiplying 2.578125% (10.3125% annualized) by the aggregate of the Company's net asset value at the beginning of each applicable calendar quarter comprising the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters. The Catch-Up Amount is intended to provide the Adviser with an incentive fee of 20% on all of the Company's Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income when the Company's Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income reaches the Catch-Up Amount for the Trailing Twelve Quarters; and

(C) For any quarter in which the Company's aggregate Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income for the Trailing Twelve Quarters exceeds the Catch-Up Amount, the Income-Based Fee shall equal 20% of the amount of the Company's aggregate Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income for such Trailing Twelve Quarters, as the Hurdle Amount and Catch-Up Amount will have been achieved.

Subject to Section 6(b)(ii) below, the amount of the Income-Based Fee that will be paid to the Adviser for a particular quarter will equal the excess of the aggregate Income-Based Fee so calculated less the aggregate Income-Based Fees that were paid to the Adviser in the preceding eleven calendar quarters (or portion thereof) comprising the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters.

(ii) The Income-Based Fee is subject to a cap (the "Incentive Fee Cap"). The Incentive Fee Cap in any quarter is an amount equal to (a) 20% of the Cumulative Pre-Incentive Fee Net Return (as defined below) during the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters less (b) the aggregate Income-Based Fees that were paid to the Adviser in the preceding eleven calendar quarters (or portion thereof) comprising the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters. For this purpose, "Cumulative Pre-Incentive Fee Net Return" during the relevant Trailing Twelve Quarters means (x) Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income in respect of the Trailing Twelve Quarters less (y) any Net Capital Loss, if any, in respect of the Trailing Twelve Quarters. If, in any quarter, the Incentive Fee Cap is zero or a negative value, the Company shall pay no Income-Based Fee to the Adviser in that quarter. If, in any quarter, the Incentive Fee Cap is a positive value but is less than the Income-Based Fee calculated in accordance with Section 6(b)(i) above, the Company shall pay the Adviser the Incentive Fee Cap for such quarter. If, in any quarter, the Incentive Fee Cap is equal to or greater than the Income-Based Fee calculated in accordance with Section 6(b)(i) above, the Company shall pay the Adviser the Income-Based Fee for such quarter.

"Net Capital Loss" in respect of a particular period means the difference, if positive, between (i) aggregate capital losses on the Company's assets, whether realized or unrealized, in such period and (ii) aggregate capital gains or other gains on the Company's assets (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the value ascribed to any Credit Support Arrangement in the Company's financial statements even if such value is not categorized as a gain therein), whether realized or unrealized, in such period.

(iii) The second part of the Incentive Fee (the "Capital Gains Fee") will be determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each calendar year (or upon termination of this Agreement as set forth below), commencing with the calendar year ended on December 31, 2018, and is calculated at the end of each applicable year by subtracting (1) the sum of the Company's cumulative aggregate realized capital losses and aggregate unrealized capital depreciation from (2) the Company's cumulative aggregate realized capital gains, in each case calculated from August 2, 2018. If such amount is positive at the end of such year, then the Capital Gains Fee payable for such year is equal to 20% of such amount, less the cumulative aggregate amount of Capital Gains Fees paid in all prior years commencing with the calendar year ended on December 31, 2018. If such amount is negative, then there is no Capital Gains Fee payable for such year. If this Agreement is terminated as of a date that is not a calendar year end, the termination date shall be treated as though it were a calendar year end for purposes of calculating and paying a Capital Gains Fee.

For purposes of this Section 6(b)(iii):

The cumulative aggregate realized capital gains are calculated as the sum of the differences, if positive, between (a) the net sales price of each investment in the Company's portfolio when sold and (b) the accreted or amortized cost basis of such investment.

The cumulative aggregate realized capital losses are calculated as the sum of the differences, if negative, between (a) the net sales price of each investment in the Company's portfolio when sold and (b) the accreted or amortized cost basis of such investment.

The aggregate unrealized capital depreciation is calculated as the sum of the differences, if negative, between (a) the valuation of each investment in the Company's portfolio as of the applicable Capital Gains Fee calculation date and (b) the accreted or amortized cost basis of such investment.

The accreted or amortized cost basis of an investment shall mean the accreted or amortized cost basis of such investment as reflected in the Company's financial statements.

7. Indemnification. The Adviser assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder in good faith and shall not be responsible for any action of the Board of Directors in following or declining to follow any advice or recommendations of the Adviser. The Adviser (and its officers, managers, partners, agents, employees, controlling persons, members and any other person or entity affiliated with the Adviser) shall not be liable to the Company for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Adviser in connection with the performance of any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement or otherwise as an investment adviser of the Company (except to the extent specified in Section 36(b) of the 1940 Act concerning loss resulting from a breach of fiduciary duty (as the same is finally determined by judicial proceedings) with respect to the receipt of compensation for services), and the Company shall indemnify, defend and protect the Adviser (and its officers, managers, partners, agents, employees, controlling persons, members and any other person or entity affiliated with the Adviser) (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") and hold them harmless from and against all damages, liabilities, costs, demands, charges, claims and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and amounts reasonably paid in settlement) incurred by the Indemnified Parties in or by reason of any pending, threatened or completed action, suit, investigation or other proceeding (including an action or suit by or in the right of the Company or its security holders) arising out of any actions or omissions or otherwise based upon the performance of any of the Adviser's duties or obligations under this Agreement or otherwise as an investment adviser of the Company. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence of this Section 7 to the contrary, nothing contained herein shall protect or be deemed to protect the Indemnified Parties against or entitle or be deemed to entitle the Indemnified Parties to indemnification in respect of, any liability to the Company or its security holders to which the Indemnified Parties would otherwise be subject by reason of fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of the Adviser's duties or by reason of the reckless disregard of the Adviser's duties and obligations under this Agreement (as the same shall be determined in accordance with the 1940 Act and any interpretations or guidance by the SEC or its staff thereunder).

8. Duration and Termination.

(a) This Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date. This Agreement may be terminated at any time, without the payment of any penalty, upon 60 days' written notice, (i) by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Company, (ii) by the vote of the Board of Directors, or (iii) by the Adviser. The provisions of Section 7 of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, and the Adviser shall remain entitled to the benefits thereof, notwithstanding any termination of this Agreement. Further, notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement as aforesaid, the Adviser shall be entitled to any amounts owed under Section 6 through the date of termination or expiration.

(b) This Agreement shall continue in effect for two years from the date of the Prior Agreement and thereafter shall continue automatically for successive annual periods, provided that such continuance is specifically approved at least annually by (A) the vote of the Board of Directors, or by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Company and (B) the vote of a majority of the Non-Interested Directors in accordance with the requirements of the 1940 Act.

(c) This Agreement will automatically terminate in the event of its "assignment" (as such term is defined for purposes of Section 15(a)(4) of the 1940 Act).

10. Amendment of this Agreement. This Agreement may be amended by mutual consent, but the consent of the Company must be obtained in conformity with the requirements of the 1940 Act.

Attention: Board of Directors

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have requested, in your capacity as Board of Directors (the "Board") of Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the "Company"), our opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Company of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) provided for in the proposed merger (the "First Merger") of Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Acquisition Sub"), with Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (the "Merger Partner"). We understand that, among other things, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement"), to be entered into among the Company, Acquisition Sub, the Merger Partner and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company External Adviser"), the Merger Partner will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and each outstanding share of common stock par value $0.001 per share of the Merger Partner (the "Merger Partner Common Stock"), other than shares of Merger Partner Common Stock held in treasury or owned by the Company and its affiliates will be converted into the right to receive $0.98 in cash (the "Cash Consideration") from the Company External Adviser and 0.44973 of a share (the "Exchange Ratio") of the common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), of the Company (the "Stock Consideration" and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Consideration"). The Agreement further provides that, following completion of the First Merger, the Merger Partner will merge with and into the Company, with the Company surviving as the surviving corporation (the "Second Merger" and together with the First Merger, the "Transaction").

In preparing our opinion, we have:

- reviewed a draft, dated September 20, 2021, of the Agreement;
- reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company and the Merger Partner and the industries in which they operate;
- compared the financial and operating performance of the Company and the Merger Partner with publicly available information concerning certain other companies we deemed relevant, and compared current and historic market prices of the Company Common Stock with similar data for such other companies;
- compared the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain other business combinations that we deemed relevant;

Barings BDC, Inc. September 21, 2021

- reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company (the “Company Projections”) prepared by the managements of the Company and the Company External Adviser;
- reviewed certain estimates prepared by the management of the Company as to the potential cost savings expected by such management to be achieved as a result of the Transaction (the “Synergies”);
- discussed with the managements of the Company, the Company External Adviser, the Merger Partner and SIC Advisors LLC (the “Merger Partner External Adviser”) regarding certain aspects of the Transaction, the business, financial condition and prospects of the Company, and the Merger Partner, respectively, the effect of the Transaction on the business, financial condition and prospects of the Company and the Merger Partner, respectively, and certain other matters that we deemed relevant; and
- considered such other financial analyses and investigations and such other information that we deemed relevant.

In giving our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with us by the Company, the Company External Adviser, the Merger Partner or the Merger Partner External Adviser or otherwise reviewed by us. We have not independently verified any such information, and pursuant to the terms of our engagement by the Company, we did not assume any obligation to undertake any such independent verification. In relying on the Company Projections (including the Synergies), we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management as to the future performance and financial condition of the Company. We express no view or opinion with respect to the Company Projections and the Synergies or the assumptions upon which they are based. We have assumed that any representations and warranties made by the Company, the Company External Adviser and the Merger Partner in the Agreement or in other agreements relating to the Transaction will be true and accurate in all respects that are material to our analysis.

We have also assumed that the Transaction will have the tax consequences described in discussions with, and materials provided to us by, the Company and its representatives. We also have assumed that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Transaction, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, the Merger Partner or the contemplated benefits of the Transaction. We have also assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement thereof that is material to our analyses or this opinion and that the final form of the Agreement will not differ from the draft reviewed by us in any respect material to our analyses or opinion. In addition, we have not made any independent evaluation, inspection or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or the Merger Partner, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We have not evaluated the solvency of the Company or the Merger Partner under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. We have further assumed that the final form of the Agreement, when executed by the parties thereto, will conform to the draft reviewed by us in all respects material to our analyses and this opinion.

Our opinion only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the Company in the proposed Transaction and we express no opinion as to the fairness of any other consideration, including the Cash Consideration, paid in connection with the Transaction to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company. Furthermore, we express no opinion as to any other aspect or implication (financial or otherwise) of the Transaction, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Transaction or otherwise, including, without limitation, the Parent Trading Plan (as defined in the Agreement), the credit support agreement to be entered into between the Company and the Company External Adviser or the increase in the Company External Adviser’s incentive fee hurdle rate provided for in the Agreement, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation or consideration to be received by or otherwise payable to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Transaction, or class of such persons, relative to the Exchange Ratio or otherwise.

Furthermore, we are not expressing any advice or opinion regarding matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax, environmental, executive compensation or other similar professional advice and have relied upon the assessments of the Company and its advisors with respect to such advice.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon information made available to us as of the date hereof and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof. We have not undertaken, and are under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion, or otherwise comment on or consider events occurring or coming to our attention after the date hereof, notwithstanding that any such subsequent developments may affect this opinion. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to the Company, nor does it address the underlying business decision of the Board or the Company to proceed with or effect the Transaction. We are not expressing any opinion as to the price at which Company Common Stock may be traded at any time.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for such services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction. We also became entitled to receive a fee upon the announcement of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse us for certain expenses and to indemnify us and certain related parties for certain liabilities and other items arising out of our engagement.

During the two years preceding the date of this opinion, we and our affiliates have had investment or commercial banking relationships with the Company, for which we and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such relationships have included acting as placement agent for the Company in connection with equity repurchases in December 2019. We and our affiliates hold, on a proprietary basis, less than 2% of the outstanding common stock of the Company. In the ordinary course of business, we and our affiliates may trade or otherwise effect transactions in the securities or other financial instruments (including bank loans or other obligations) of the Company and certain of their affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or financial instruments.

This letter is for the information and use of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Transaction. This opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company or any other person as to how to vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed Transaction or any other matter. This opinion may not be used or relied upon for any other purpose without our prior written consent, nor shall this opinion be disclosed to any person or quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, without our prior written consent. This opinion may be reproduced in full in any proxy or information statement mailed to stockholders of the Company but may not otherwise be disclosed publicly in any manner without our prior written consent. The issuance of this opinion has been approved by a fairness committee of Wells Fargo Securities.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio in the proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX E – OPINION OF THE FINANCIAL ADVISOR TO SIERRA

September 21, 2021

The Special Committee of the Board of Directors of Sierra Income Corporation
In care of David Leahy, Esq.
Sullivan & Worcester LLP
1666 K Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We understand that Sierra Income Corporation (together with its subsidiaries, unless the context otherwise requires, the "Company") proposes to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of September 21, 2021 (the "Merger Agreement"), among Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the "Parent"), Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent ("Acquisition Sub"), the Company, and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Parent External Adviser"). The Merger Agreement provides, among other things, that (i) Acquisition Sub will merge with and into the Company (the "First Merger"), with the Company being the surviving corporation in the merger, and (ii) immediately after the First Merger, the Surviving Corporation shall merge with and into the Parent (the "Second Merger" and, together with the First Merger, the "Transaction"), with the Parent as the surviving corporation in the Second Merger.

In the Transaction, each issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.001 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), excluding any cancelled shares as set forth in the Merger Agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive 0.44973x of a share of common stock of the Parent, par value $0.001 per share (the "Parent Common Stock") (such fraction of a share of the Parent Common Stock, the "Share Consideration"), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement (as to which adjustment we express no opinion). In addition, holders of Company Common Stock will receive from the Parent External Adviser $100 million in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration"), subject to adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement (as to which adjustment we express no opinion). The Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration, taken together, are referred to herein as the "Merger Consideration." The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The Special Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company ("Board") has asked for our opinion as to whether the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Company Common Stock is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

In connection with the opinion set forth herein, we have, among other things:

1. Reviewed certain business and audited and unaudited financial information, and other operating data, regarding the Parent, the Parent External Adviser and the Company;
2. Reviewed the recent stock price performance and trading activity of the Parent Common Stock, the financial performance of the Parent, and a comparison with that of certain other comparable companies the securities of which are publicly traded, and that are, in our judgment, comparable in certain respects to the Parent;
3. Reviewed certain financial projections relating to the Parent prepared by or at the direction of the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser (the "Parent Projections") and discussed the Parent Projections with the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser;
4. Reviewed certain financial projections relating to the pro forma combined company following the consummation of the Transaction prepared by the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser (the "Pro Forma Parent Projections") and discussed the Pro Forma Parent Projections with the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

5. Discussed the past and current business, operations, financial condition and prospects of the Company with members of the management of the Company and SIC Advisors LLC (the "Company External Adviser"), and discussed the past and current business, operations, financial condition and prospects of the Parent, including after giving effect to the Transaction and the strategic benefits anticipated by the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser to result therefrom, with members of the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser;

6. Reviewed the anticipated pro forma impact of the Transaction on the Parent's earnings per share, net asset value per share, capitalization and financial ratios;

7. Reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain acquisition transactions that are, in our judgment, comparable to the Transaction;

8. Reviewed a draft of the Merger Agreement dated September 21, 2021 (the "Draft Agreement") and certain related documents;

9. Participated in certain discussions among representatives of the Company, the Company External Adviser, the Parent and the Parent External Adviser, their legal advisors and their financial advisors; and

10. Performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We have, with your consent, assumed and relied upon, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied to, discussed with, reviewed by, or otherwise made available to us by the Parent External Adviser, Parent, the Company External Advisor and the Company, and that formed a substantial basis for this opinion. In addition, with your consent, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or the Parent, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. With your consent, we have also not examined any individual loan or credit files. We have, with your consent, further relied upon assurances of the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser and management of the Company and the Company External Adviser that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading and that there has not occurred any material change in the assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Parent or the Company since the respective dates of the most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, relating to the Parent or the Company, respectively, made available to us. We express no view as to, or as to the likelihood of achieving, the Parent Projections or the Pro Forma Parent Projections, nor the assumptions on which they were based.

We have assumed, in all cases at your direction and with your consent, that:

1. The final executed Merger Agreement will not differ from the Draft Agreement in any respect material to our analysis or this opinion;

2. The Parent Projections and Pro Forma Parent Projections have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Parent and the Parent External Adviser of the future financial performance of the Parent, on a standalone basis and following the acquisition of the Company, respectively;

3. The Transaction will be consummated in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without any waiver, modification, amendment or delay of any terms or conditions in any manner that would be material to our analysis or this opinion;

4. The revenues and earnings projected in the Parent Projections and the Pro Forma Parent Projections will be realized in the amounts and at the times projected in all respects material to our analysis and this opinion;

5. The Transaction will not result in the assumption or other acquisition of any material tax, regulatory or other liabilities (including liabilities of the Company) beyond those provided for in the Merger Agreement;

6. All applicable judicial, governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents (including but not limited to client consents) required for the Transaction will be obtained, and no delays, limitations, conditions (including any required divestitures) or restrictions will be imposed that would have any adverse effect on the Company, its assets under management, the Parent, its assets under management, or the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the Transaction in any respect material to our analysis or this opinion;

TABLE OF CONTENTS

7. All material information we have requested from the Company, the Company External Adviser, the Parent and the Parent External Adviser during the scope of our engagement has been provided to us fully and in good faith;

8. There has been no material change in any of the assets, liabilities, financial condition, business or prospects of the Company or the Parent since the date of the most recent financial statements and other information made available to us;

9. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are accurate and complete in all respects material to our analysis and this opinion; and

10. None of the potential adjustments (if any) to the Cash Consideration or the Share Consideration will be material to our analysis.

We are not legal, tax or regulatory advisors. We are financial advisors only and have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessments of the Company and its legal, tax and regulatory advisors with respect to legal, tax and regulatory matters.

We have not been requested to make, and have not made, any independent valuation or appraisal of the Parent, the Company or their respective assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance sheet assets and liabilities and including either the Parent's or the Company's loan portfolio), nor have we relied upon any such valuations or appraisals furnished to us. In arriving at our opinion, we have not conducted a physical inspection of the Company or its assets. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof may affect this opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and we do not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. This opinion speaks only as of the date hereof. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this opinion does not in any manner address the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Parent or the Company or the ability of the Parent or the Company to pay their respective obligations as and when they come due. We express no view or opinion as to what the value of the Parent Common Stock or any other security of Parent actually will be when issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement or otherwise. We also express no view or opinion as to the prices at which any of the respective portfolio investments or assets of the Company or the Parent may be purchased, sold or exchanged, or otherwise be transferable, at any time.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Committee (in its capacity as such) in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which became payable upon the execution of our engagement agreement and periodically thereafter, a portion of which is payable upon the delivery of this opinion, and a portion of which will become payable only if the Transaction is consummated. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse our direct, out-of-pocket expenses (subject to certain caps) and indemnify us against certain liabilities relating to, referred to in, or arising out of our engagement. In the two years prior to the date hereof, we have provided services to the Committee for which compensation was received. We may seek to provide financial advisory and other services to the Parent, the Parent External Adviser, the Company, the Company External Advisor, or their respective affiliates in the future and would expect to receive fees for rendering those services.

This opinion has been approved by a committee of Broadhaven Capital Partners in accordance with our customary practice. We express no opinion or recommendation as to how the Board, the Committee or any stockholder should vote with respect to the Transaction or any other matter. We express no view or opinion as to the form or structure of the Transaction or any related transaction, including, without limitation, the allocation of the Merger Consideration between the Cash Consideration and the Share Consideration. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Company Common Stock for each share of Company Common Stock (other any cancelled shares as set forth in the Merger Agreement) to the extent expressly addressed herein. This opinion does not constitute legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice and does not address, and we express no opinion as to, any other term or aspect of the Merger Agreement or the Transaction or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Merger Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the Transaction (including, without limitation, the credit support agreement and trading plan provided for in the Merger Agreement or the potential amendment of the investment advisory agreement between the Parent and the Parent External Adviser). We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the underlying business decision by the Company to proceed with or effect the Transaction or the likelihood of consummation of the Transaction. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative transaction or business strategy in which the Company might engage, or whether or not such alternatives could be achieved or are available, or the effect of any other transaction which it may consider in the future. This opinion does not address, and we express no opinion as to, the tax, accounting or legal consequences of the Transaction or any related transaction. This opinion expresses no opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration. This opinion is for the information of the Committee only (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and, subject to the terms and conditions of the engagement letter between Broadhaven Securities, LLC (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Broadhaven Capital Partners) and the Committee, this opinion may not be used for any other purpose, quoted or referred to orally or in writing, or reproduced or disseminated, by the Committee or its agents, without our prior written consent. This opinion does not create any fiduciary or other duties on the part of Broadhaven Securities, LLC or any of its affiliates to any other persons or entities (including, without limitation, any holders of Company Common Stock).

Based on and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth herein, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Company Common Stock in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Very truly yours,

PART C

OTHER INFORMATION

Item 15. Indemnification.

Maryland law permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final adjudication as being material to the cause of action. The Barings BDC Charter contains such a provision, which eliminates directors' and officers' liability to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act.

Maryland law requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the Barings BDC Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she is made or threatened to be made a party by reason of his or her service in that capacity. Maryland law permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made or are threatened to be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (1) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (a) was committed in bad faith or (b) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (2) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. In addition, Maryland law permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (1) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (2) a written undertaking by him or her or on his or her behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it is ultimately determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

The Barings BDC Charter requires Barings BDC, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to the requirements of the Investment Company Act, to indemnify any present or former director or officer and any individual who, while a director or officer and at Barings BDC's request, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner or trustee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or any other enterprise, in each case who is made or threatened to be made a party to, or witness in, the proceeding by reason of his or her service in that capacity, from and against any claim or liability to which that person may become subject or which that person may incur by reason of his or her service in that capacity except with respect to any matter as to which such person shall have been finally adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interest of Barings BDC. The Barings BDC Charter also permits Barings BDC to, with the approval of the Barings BDC Board or a duly authorized committee thereof, indemnify and advance expenses to any person who served a predecessor of Barings BDC in any of the capacities described above and any of Barings BDC's employees or agents or any employees or agents of Barings BDC's predecessor. In accordance with the Investment Company Act, Barings BDC will not indemnify any person for any liability to which such person would be subject by reason of such person's willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office.

In addition to the indemnification provided for in the Barings BDC Charter, Barings BDC has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of Barings BDC's current directors and officers. The indemnification agreements attempt to provide these directors and officers the maximum indemnification permitted under Maryland law and the Investment Company Act. The agreements provide, among other things, for the advancement of expenses and indemnification for liabilities that such person may incur by reason of his or her status as a present or former director, officer, employee or agent of Barings BDC or as a director, trustee, officer, partner, manager, managing member, fiduciary, employee or agent of any other foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise that such person is or was serving in such capacity at the request of Barings BDC.

The Merger Agreement provides that all rights to exculpation and indemnification for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the closing of the Merger by current or former directors, officers, managers or employees of Sierra, its subsidiaries or affiliates, including but not limited to officers and employees of Sierra's investment adviser to the extent related to the management of Sierra (collectively the "D&O Indemnified Parties"), shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect. The Merger Agreement also provides that, to the maximum extent permitted by the Laws of the State of Maryland, for a period of six (6) years following the closing of the Merger, Barings BDC shall cause its (and any of its respective successors') articles of incorporation, bylaws or other organizational documents to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and limitation of director, officer and employee liability that are no less favorable to the D&O Indemnified Parties than those set forth in Sierra's and its subsidiaries' organizational documents as of the date of the Merger Agreement, which provisions thereafter shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the D&O Indemnified Parties.

In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that Barings BDC shall purchase and cause to be maintained in effect for the benefit of the D&O Indemnified Parties a six year "tail" policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the closing of the Merger on terms and conditions no less advantageous to such parties than the existing directors' and officers' insurance policy maintained by Sierra on the date of the Merger Agreement. However, Barings BDC is not required to pay an annual premium for such tail policy in excess of 300% of the aggregate annual premiums paid by Sierra for such insurance as of the date of the Merger Agreement, but in such case shall purchase as much of such coverage as possible for such amount.

The Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement provides that, absent fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of the reckless disregard of its duties and obligations, Barings BDC's investment adviser, Barings, and its officers, managers, partners, agents, employees, controlling persons, members and any other person or entity affiliated with it are entitled to indemnification from Barings BDC for any damages, liabilities, costs, demands, charges, claims and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and amounts reasonably paid in settlement) arising from the rendering of Barings BDC's services under the Existing Barings BDC Advisory Agreement or otherwise as an investment adviser of Barings BDC.

The Barings BDC Administration Agreement provides that, absent fraud, willful misfeasance, bad faith or negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of the reckless disregard of its duties and obligations, Barings and its officers, managers, partners, agents, employees, controlling persons, members and any other person or entity affiliated with any of them are entitled to indemnification from Barings BDC for any damages, liabilities, costs, demands, charges, claims and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and amounts reasonably paid in settlement) arising out of any actions or omissions or otherwise based upon the performance of any of Barings' duties or obligations under the Barings BDC Administration Agreement or otherwise as administrator for Barings BDC.

Insofar as indemnification for liability arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Barings BDC pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Barings BDC has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Barings BDC of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Barings BDC in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Barings BDC will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Please refer to the section of the enclosed joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Comparison of Barings BDC and Sierra Stockholder Rights" for a discussion of the differences between the rights of Sierra and Barings BDC stockholders before the Merger.

Re: Securities Registered under Registration Statement on Form N-14

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to you in connection with your filing of a Registration Statement on Form N-14 (as amended or supplemented, the "Registration Statement") pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), relating to the registration by Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the "Company"), of up to 102,276,889.12 shares (the "Shares") of the Company's common stock, $0.001 par value per share, which may be issued to the stockholders of Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation ("Sierra"), in connection with the merger contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among the Company, Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation, Sierra and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

We have reviewed such documents and made such examination of law as we have deemed appropriate to give the opinion set forth below. We have relied, without independent verification, on certificates of public officials and, as to matters of fact material to the opinion set forth below, on certificates of officers of the Company.

The opinion set forth below is limited to the Maryland General Corporation Law.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the Shares have been duly authorized and, upon issuance and delivery in exchange for the outstanding shares of capital stock of Sierra, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

We hereby consent to the inclusion of this opinion as Exhibit 11 to the Registration Statement and to the references to our firm under the caption "Legal Matters" in the Registration Statement. In giving our consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder.

Very truly yours,

Re: Mergers pursuant to Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among Barings BDC, Inc., Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., Sierra Income Corporation and Barings LLC

Ladies and Gentlemen:

This opinion is delivered to you in our capacity as counsel to Barings BDC, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“Parent”), in connection with the mergers (the “Mergers”) to be undertaken pursuant to the Reorganization Agreement (as defined below). All section references, unless otherwise indicated, are to the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). This opinion relates to the qualification of the Mergers as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Reorganization Agreement.

In preparing this opinion, we have examined and relied upon the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 21, 2021 (the “Reorganization Agreement”), by and among Parent, Mercury Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation (“Acquisition Sub”), Sierra Income Corporation, a Maryland corporation (the “Company”), and Barings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, the joint proxy statement/prospectus of Parent and the Company included in the Registration Statement on Form N-14 filed by Parent with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in connection with the Mergers (the “Merger Registration Statement”), representation letters delivered to us by the Company and Parent, and such other documents as we have deemed necessary or appropriate to enable us to render this opinion. In our examination of documents, we have assumed the authenticity of original documents, the accuracy of copies, the genuineness of signatures, and the legal capacity of signatories.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without investigation or verification, that the facts and statements set forth in the Reorganization Agreement are true, correct and complete in all material respects; that the Mergers will be completed in accordance with the Reorganization Agreement; that the statements, representations, covenants and agreements contained in tax representation letters delivered to us by the Company, Acquisition Sub and Parent are true, accurate and complete; that there is no change in applicable law between the date hereof and the effective time of the Mergers; that any representation in any of the documents referred to herein that is made "to the best of the knowledge and belief" (or similar qualification) of any person or party is true, correct and complete without such qualification; and that, as to all matters for which a person or entity has represented that such person or entity is not a party to, does not have, or is not aware of, any plan, intention, understanding or agreement, there is no such plan, intention, understanding or agreement. Any inaccuracy in, or breach of, any of the aforementioned statements, representations or assumptions could adversely affect our opinion.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, as well as the limitations set forth below, it is our opinion, under currently applicable United States federal income tax law, that the Mergers will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

We express no opinion herein other than the opinion expressly set forth above. In particular, no opinion is expressed as to the tax consequences of any of the transactions under any foreign, state, or local tax law. You should recognize that our opinion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service and that a court or the Internal Revenue Service may disagree with the opinion contained herein. Although we believe that our opinion will be sustained if challenged, there can be no assurance that this will be the case. The discussion and conclusions set forth above are based upon current provisions of the Code, the Income Tax Regulations and Procedure and Administration Regulations promulgated thereunder, and existing administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, all of which are subject to change, potentially with retroactive effect. Changes in applicable law could adversely affect our opinion. We do not undertake to advise you as to any changes after the date hereof in applicable law that may affect our opinion.

This opinion letter is being provided to you solely in connection with the filing of the Merger Registration Statement and may not be relied upon by any other person or entity, or used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. We hereby consent to the inclusion of this opinion as Exhibit 12 to the Merger Registration Statement and to the references to our firm under the captions "Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" and "Legal Matters" in the Merger Registration Statement. In giving our consent, we do not admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder.

Very truly yours,
